DISCRIMINATING UNJUSTLY.

The Burden of Taxation Still Heaped Upon the Poor's Shoulders.

AND THE JOURNAL REJOICES.

It Believes in Anything Which Will Help to Fill its Coffers—Many Interesting Items From the State Capital.

(FROM THE BEE'S LONDON BUREAU.)

The coming week will undoubtedly witness another one of the usual farces so far as the commissioners are concerned as relates to their sitting as a board of equalization. They, like many others, claim they are acting only under the law, and that they have neither discretion nor power to increase individual assessments on reality. The poor people may cry out against the burdens of taxation, but the commissioners will continue to draw their per diem and allow the assessments on brick blocks and $50,000 residences to remain at from three to eight thousand dollars, yet it is all done under the cover of law, and the State Journal will dance around like a turkey on a hot griddle when Van Wyck or any other honest man raises his voice in the interests of the people while their brick block is assessed at less than one-tenth of its value. The grand old party has been goaded to death with such liberty loving politicians, who are scheming by every means in their power to rob the public to pour into their coffers, and such is the combination of this triumvirate organization that let the powers that are be republican or democratic, the hopper centers into the vaults of the State Journal.

VIFUQUAN'S DEPARTURE.

On Monday General V. Vifiquan will see himself away to the land of Baranquilla, where he will see that our fishing smacks are not seized upon if they happen to run into port for coal or provisions. He will be missed but not forgotten by his large circle of friends and acquaintances in the state, and we trust Dr. Miller may not meddle with any appropriation bill which may connect with the general's salary.

CIRCUS DAY NOTES.

Circus day hath its charms also for the city and country people, and promptly upon the arrival of the train a large concourse of small boys had assembled at the tracks to witness the unloading of the elephants and lesser animals. During the process our streets were thronged with people from this and adjoining counties. Even the district court felt the pressure and adjourned from yesterday noon to this morning. Whether the judge received a complimentary or not we have not learned.

THE UNIVERSITY PRIZE DRILLS.

Price drills of the cadets at the university begin on Monday, the 14th inst., at 3 p. m., the first being the artillery drill; Tuesday, the 15th, at 10 a. m., infantry drill, dress parade at 5:30 the same day, when prizes will be awarded. Commencement exercises this year will graduate a larger number than ever before, with the most interesting programme the university has yet sent out.

DEFECTIVES INCORPORATE.

The Nebraska defective association have duly incorporated and became a fixture of the state. Their headquarters are at Lincoln, with Mayor Hastings chief of the association. Alvin Wright and Robbins are directors. They will soon have members in every city, town and well organized community in the state and purpose making it exceedingly lively for wrongdoers and lawbreakers of every kind.

THE JOURNAL'S TRE.

It will be in keeping now for the Journal to smear its slime on the senator on account of his having got his railroad land tax bill through the senate. As the people of the east in the early days of the Christian era would not believe that anything good could come out from Nazareth, neither can the Journal believe that anything good can be said or done by General Van Wyck.

Programmes for the commencement exercises at the state blind asylum are out, beginning on the 8th inst. It is printed with raised letters, and is one of the neatest jobs we have yet seen.

The regular meeting of the board of public lands and buildings will be held on Monday, when bills and accounts will be audited. It is hardly expected that the insane asylum will ask to have any organ or fiddling bills in this time, still the doctor is liable to have some new deal with which to capture our sized warrant.

Major Franklin went to Grand Island yesterday to close up the sale of 1,000 tons to the G. A. R. reunion committee. This is enterprise and we are glad to see the boys getting ready in time.

In the district court yesterday morning Barker, charged with burglary and larceny of tools; no prosecuting witness was present and he was discharged. In the case of J. and D. Williams vs Charles Rogers and John Ryan, the prisoners plead guilty and were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and adjudged to pay the costs.

Several prominent gentlemen from adjacent towns have been unfortunate in coming to the capitol on show day, as of course the parties they desire to see are at the show and they must be sent before night. Among them we note A. Culver of Milford, and A. M. Wells of Crete.

Durfee, manager of the base ball business at this point, decided he was not old. The Advertisers will open their tent to the people this evening at the corner of O and Seventeenth streets with Elder Cudney presiding.

The American District Telegraph are steadily increasing their business and force. Next week they will put in the parcel delivery system in addition to the general check system. Articles of incorporation of the Masonic Building association of Beatrice were filed with the secretary of state yesterday. Capital $50,000.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE ASSEMBLY—PERSONAL AND GENERAL NOTES.

CRETE, Neb., June 3.—(Correspondence of the BEE.)—Professor Ed. Healey, who with his family has been among the Brule Indians for over a year, is expected home soon. Mr. Healy, so successful as principal of our schools, will be welcomed by old and young, who were so interested in his happy description of Indian life, with which he furnished his Crete friends during his absence. Among the recent visitors at the college we notice Mrs. Van Dayn, an old-time student of Doane. We expect to welcome many familiar faces during the approaching commencement season.

It has been pleasant to see among us again the Rev. Mr. Whitten, for so many years the rector of the Episcopal church. Mr. Whitten went west a few years ago, regretted by a vast number of friends, and returns to find a warm welcome.

The many friends of Captain and Mrs. C. R. Barryear will be glad to learn that the captain's health is very much improved. He expects to start with his family for a long visit to Wisconsin, his old home, should his health continue to improve. Their plan is to start the 10th of the month.

A great number of our citizens are enjoying strawberries gathered from their own vines. The berries ripen in such abundance that it is almost impossible to care for them soon enough. The fruit we have seen were grown on the hillside, in the garden of Rev. Mr. Eyster. They were unusually large and extremely delicious in flavor.

Mr. F. J. Radamacher is adding greatly to the appearance of his side of Main street by the very artistic painting of his business house.

Mrs. R. Hewitt, of Friend, came to Crete yesterday, bringing with her Master Hewitt to visit his little cousin, Lucius Dennison.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Banagar came from Friend to-day. Mrs. B. stopping to visit with her sister, Mrs. E. O. Stebbins, while Mr. B. went to Omaha on business.

It was our pleasure and profit, with a party of young people, to visit the assembly grounds yesterday via the Blue river. Starting just a little above the lower dam, making a tour of the islands and Indian creek, what was our dismay, when we reached the landing at the assembly grounds, to discover that we had exhausted all the adjectives and epithets in Webster's unabridged calling-attention to the many delightful views.

After securely fastening our boat we ascended the well-remembered path by the dining-hall. Here such a scene burst upon our view that we were fain to beg Webster's pardon and exhaust him over again. The acres and acres of smoothly shaven lawn which the imagination soon lent and peopled, the wonderful growth of the trees planted, the huge forest trees, festooned with the sweet-scented wild grape vines, just in bloom, the cute natural swings we found and the "splendid places for picnic," made us will for assembly time to come. Notable among the improvements was a delightful cottage just receiving its last coat of paint. The cottage is of good size, containing two rooms, plenty of windows and doors, and situated right among the trees, with two or three before the front door. We imagined what a delightful summer home it would make with very little expense. Simple curtains, a few rugs, camp-chairs, etc., and the nick-nacks that are indispensable.

Calling up the many delightful days spent here during assembly time and the new friendship formed made us think what a social power this institution will be in the state.

Before many years those who meet here will have friends scattered all over the country who will look forward to the summer meeting as the most delightful period of the year.

The ladies have their plans for the eating hall and lunch stand almost made. The steward and cooks are already engaged, and numerous plans are being made so as to insure perfect satisfaction in the eating line.

THE ENGINEER'S STORY.

"This is about it," said John Scott, the engineer, as the train slowly crested a long, gradual grade. "You're atop of the Rocky mountains now, ma'am."

"This must look very different in winter," said Miss Vaughn, noting the treeless distances and the snows still glistening on the higher peaks to the left.

"You may believe it does! That first year, when the snow-sheds wasn't built, it was terrible. I was running that train that stuck in the snow seven days—perhaps you'll remember about it; it was in all the papers. I shan't ever forget that, not if I live to be as old as my grandfather, and he didn't die till he was ninety odd."

"Tell me about it," said Miss Vaughn, persistently, seating herself on the high side-bench of the cab, with that air of attention which is so enticing to the story-teller; amusements are few and far between in the long monotony of the overland journey to California; besides which, Miss Vaughn dearly loved a story.

"There ain't much to tell," said John Scott, with something of the feeling which prompts the young vocalist to complain of hoarseness, "ain't any hand at telling things, either." Then, won by Miss Vaughn's appealing eyes, he continued:

"We ran all fair and on time till we was about 300 miles beyond Omaha. Then the snow began. It didn't seem much at first. The women-folk in the train rather liked it. They all crowded to the windows to see, and the children prompted the young vocalist to complain of hoarseness. Anything seemed a pleasant change after the sand work. I can tell you that the snow didn't seem much at first. The women-folk in the train rather liked it.
