MINOR MENTION.
 New York Plumbing company.
 New summer goods at Roter's.
 The city council meets this evening.
 The funeral of Frank Nash was held yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 112 Glen avenue.

The new bridge across Indian creek, on Tenth street, north of Broadway, is about completed.
 A grand ball is to be given by the German Catholic ladies in Beno's hall one week from to-night.

In the case of Vernon vs. the city, the jury returned a sealed verdict yesterday morning after being out all night.
 J. C. Hoffman, of Waterloo, is arranging to open a novelty store here, so soon as he can secure a desirable location.

The case of Harry Walbridge, the skipping traveling man for Kirsch & Co., comes up to-day in the district court.
 The Parisian Millinery company are daily receiving new mid-summer styles in flowers, hats and all the latest novelties.

The second annual meeting of the Women's Christian association is to be held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon.
 Tony Spencer, the boy with a stock of mid-summer jewelry, has been released, the police not being able to ferret out proof to sufficiently substantiate their suspicions of crookedness.

A fellow, giving his name as Harry Barnett, was discovered by Officer O'Brien prowling about the alleys in a suspicious manner. As he was a stranger without any money or visible means of support he was placed behind the bars to be further investigated.

There was unusually fine music in connection with the organizing of the Presbyterian church, yesterday. The Council Bluffs participants in the coming festival in Omaha sang portions of the "Messiah." Mr. Treynor sang an excellent solo as did also Mrs. A. M. Morkel.

Contractor Tolson, St. Paul, explains that the reason for his assignment of the paving contract here, was that he had so much work to do in St. Paul as to make it impossible for him to give his personal attention to the work here. The assignment of the contract was not due to financial stress, but simply a matter of convenience.

The Dierks company has completed arrangements for enlarging the Hendrick foundry, located opposite the canning factory. Additional lots have been purchased, and as soon as the works are completed steady employment will be given to fifty hands. The enterprise is backed by abundant capital, and it will prove a valuable addition to the industries of Council Bluffs.

Personal Paragraphs.
 Colonel J. S. Tam was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. James A. Jackson has returned to the city.

Dr. T. Wrede, of Remson, Iowa, was in the city Saturday.

Phil McShane and wife, of Omaha, were in the city yesterday.

F. H. Daniels has gone on a three weeks' visit to Troy, N. Y.

E. M. Stehman, of the United States secretary service, is at present in Omaha.

A. W. Patterson and wife, of Omaha, yesterday visited Council Bluffs.

C. F. Chase and E. G. Fisher, of Atlantic, were in the city yesterday.

E. D. Fuller, of the Mueller Musin company, is visiting his parents in Westfield, N. Y.

W. E. Brock, one of the liveliest of Perego & Moore's men, is in from a successful trip.

 considerably, and is kept from business by a sprained leg.

A. M. Jackson left on Saturday for Denver, to return to-day with his wife, who has been visiting there.

J. A. Gorham, the photographer, has just completed crayon portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Phil McShane, of Omaha.

Miss Mollie and Jube Miller, of Petersburg, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday to visit their sister, Mrs. Ed C. Drake.

J. V. Mitchell left on Saturday for Minnesota, where his wife has been visiting.

Osborn For State Auditor.
 The mention of the name of S. C.
 Osborn, of Mills county, for the position of state auditor, has called forth many favorable comments. Now comes the formal announcement of his candidacy.
 He has been a resident of Mills county for twenty-two years, and has filled the office of county auditor there in a highly satisfactory manner for three years. He is a man of clear record, acknowledged ability and great popularity, and the republicans of western Iowa will give him a unanimous endorsement. There seems but little doubt that this place on the ticket will be conceded to him by the state, and in that case there is no doubt of the nomination of Mr. Osborn.

Death of H. C. Gallagher.
 The announcement of the death of H.
 C. Gallagher at his home in Gainer township Friday night has caused sorrow and surprise in his many friends here. The sad event was not expected by them, as few knew that he was ill. Mr. Gallagher was one of the oldest and most respected citizens of this county, and had many friends and acquaintances throughout this part of the state. The time of the funeral has not been decided upon, it being desirable first to communicate with his son, Lieutenant H. J. Gallagher, who is at Fort Lewis, Colorado.

LIVELY STREETS FOR SUNDAY.
Doings of the Circus Men—The Saturday Matinee at the Driving Park—A Female Arrested For Counterfeiting.

Cracking the Sunday.
 Council Bluffs has been gaining lately quite a reputation for the quietness of its Sundays. With the new city administration the saloons have been closed on Sunday and the beer garden business suspended. Other changes have been made which have caused the day to be marked with suburban quietude. Yesterday the streets were something of the old-time liveliness. The arrival of Cole's circus caused an influx of many strangers and an outpouring of many of the residents, especially the younger ones. The unloading and unpacking of the circus men in detail were watched by many. Besides the advent of the great show, the announcement was made that there would be a base ball game and a horse race at the driving park. The business of the day was out in full force, and several loads of people were taken to the driving park before it was learned that the management of the park would not permit of any ball game being played there on Sunday. The promised horse race consisted simply of a private drill or exercise, preliminary to the starting of the team for the tournament at Dubuque. There was a big picnic yesterday afternoon given by the Danish citizens near Park's mills. Scores of carriages and busses made trips out there carrying hundreds of people. Besides the picnic given by the Danes, this caused some of the satomons opened up for business. Notably was that of Russell & Maloney who have obeyed the requirements very closely, but to accommodate a number of strangers and circus men yesterday morning opened the bar for a few minutes, intending to close it almost immediately.

Nothing, however, that some one had started out to make complaint of them, they concluded that they might as well have the whole game as well as the name, and so they kept at it, doing a rushing business most of the day. Besides the incidents, giving a week day liveliness to the appearance of the streets, there were a great many strollers and drivers, the day being a very pleasant one both for walking and driving.

If you want to invest a few dollars where it will save many times the amount in labor and doctor's bills, buy an American washer of Cooper & McGee.

Go to the New York Plumbing company for garden hose. They warrant all they sell. Opera house block.

King Cole Is Here.
 To-day W. W. Cole's show is the great attraction, and there will doubtless be a crowd on the street and under the canvas. This show is receiving high praise everywhere. At Leavenworth, Kan., where it recently appeared, the tents were filled to nearly suffocation, and the Times devoted a half column or more to describing how "Leavenworth turns out on an masse to welcome the youngest, wealthiest and most successful manager in the circus world." It says:
 "The performance too much cannot be said, in fact it would require too much space to give it its just dues. From the grand entrance into the last act it was one continued round of acts which were new, novel and startling, and from three to five different performances going on at the same time in the two rings and on the elevated stage in the most noticeable new departure in the performances were the many aerial acts which were all executed in the most daring and difficult manner. There was no loss of time, as everything was pushed through in rapid transit style. The circus proper passed off without a hitch. The hippodrome performance was all that could be desired. The ladies' jockey race, elephant race, camel race, wheelbarrow race, Roman standing race, the pony race, and four-horse Roman chariot race, all deserve special mention. Then came the wild west part of the show, conducted and under the management of Dr. Carver. The thrilling scenes of the plains of many years ago were very faithfully portrayed, the Indians, Mexicans, cowboys, squaws and lance throwers were all great features and elicited many rounds of applause. Dr. Carver's part of the programme, wherein he does some remarkable shooting, was certainly a wonderful exhibition of skill."

If you want perfectly satisfactory accommodations at $2 per day, go to the Pacific House. Depend upon it, you will never regret your choice.

Why buy a poor gasoline stove when you can get a "Quick Meal" at the same price? Cooper & McGee have them.

Queer Money.
 On Friday afternoon two young men went into the restaurant of Mr. Swigart, at West and bought a cigar, paying for it a counterfeit silver dollar. The two fellows were followed and arrested and brought to this city. They gave their names as Charles Collins and Timothy Reagan. Upon them were found ten more counterfeit silver dollars, all bearing the date 1883. They waived examination, and bail was fixed at $1,500.
 Not being able to give it, they were sent to jail to remain until the next session of the United States court in September. The two fellows claim that they got the money in Omaha, and that they did not know it was counterfeit. The dollars are only fair, and anyone used to handling money could hardly be deceived by them unless carelessly taken in by a dim light.

Saturday night Constable Ricketts arrested a colored woman, Litha Francis, alias Hill, who is thought to be implicated in the affair. She claims to be a sporting woman, and says that her home is in St. Jo. She has been visiting a sister in Sioux City, and on her return stopped here a short time ago, and rented a house on Tenth avenue, near Eighth street. She says that these two fellows have been staying at her house, but that she did not know their business. A search of the house revealed only a bar of lead. Her trunk was taken into custody, but its examination has been deferred until some United States officer can examine it.

Sport at the Park.
 The matinee at the driving park Saturday afternoon proved to be an enjoyable one.

The first race was between Amanda and Junbo, best two in three, and was won by the former. Time—2:44, 2:42.

The race for roadsters was won by Wm. Linberger's Bay Doc. Time—3:08, 3:04. The others were: McCarger's Penny, Paul Bonoupe's Lady Long-maid, and M. F. Kohler's Flicker.

In the boys' pony race Master Daily, son of Colonel Daily, took the prize.
 There was considerable interest taken in a seventy-five yard foot race for $50 between one of the Bluff City team, Campbell and a stranger here, giving his name as Cook, hailing from St. Paul. The latter got away with the race very easily and much to the surprise and discomfiture of the former's backers. There was some little money up on the race aside from the stakes, and the Council Bluffs boys got bit badly. Cook's friends before the race offered $10 to have the race declared off, and this intimation of his fear of being out run was apparently thrown out as a bait for bets but it did not catch many.

 It is claimed that Cook's real name is Rogers and that he is a specially 100-yard runner as there is in the country. Certain it is that he got away with the other man very easily. It is nearly time that Council Bluffs earns better than to bet against every runner who comes this way.

Sights at the Circus Site.
 The circus grounds were yesterday morning visited by many persons, while during the afternoon only a few visitors were on the grounds. The ground between avenues B and C, and Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, is occupied by the big show. The two large tents were not put up yesterday, the canvas was laid on the ground to dry and during the afternoon was rolled up and packed up until Saturday morning, when the two large tents will be stretched.

Yesterday being Sunday, was truly a day of rest for the canvassmen and most of the hands employed. Some spent the day in mending harness, clothes, splicing ropes, and doing odd chores that were necessary, but most of them laid down on blankets, etc., and took a good nap. Each man remained at his station whether asleep or awake. The horses and animals all seemed willing to pass the day in quiet and the most of them also took a nap yesterday afternoon. Some of the employes on the grounds were those in the cooking tent. They have to get three square meals a day, whether there is a show or not. All the canvas hands, hostlers, laborers, etc., take their meals on the ground while the performers and actors dine at a hotel. The Pacific house fed the performers yesterday. Late in the afternoon some of those connected with the circus had a game of lacrosse near the grounds.

Ladies attending the festival at Omaha this week are cordially invited to visit

The ladies of the Episcopal church have in preparation a carnival of authors, to be held in the building owned by M. E. Smith & Co., for June 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19. This will be one of the most attractive entertainments ever given by this society. There will be a lunch for business men every day, from half-past eleven to two o'clock.

The Demand For Permits.
 The county board of supervisors meet to-day in regular session. They will be called on to take action in regard to a number of permits to sell intoxicating liquors. A number are desirous of having the permits cancelled which were issued under the old law, as they desire to take out permits under the new pharmacy law. There are also two new applications for permits.

Accompanying these applications are petitions of freeholders and electors.
 The law provides that one-fourth of the freeholders and electors of the voting precincts in which the applicant proposes to do business must sign the petition.
 Just how it can be determined whether the requisite number is obtained or not, is a puzzle which has not yet been solved.
 The applicants themselves do not always know when they have secured the necessary signers, and it is still more difficult for the board to determine.

She Still Survives.
 On Saturday evening Dr. Mel. Bellinger was hurriedly summoned to attend a case of suicide, as he then understood it to be, on North Main street, in the building owned by "John," the Chinaman. On his arrival Dr. Bellinger learned that a woman had taken several ounces of laudanum. The empty vial was seen standing on a chair by the side of the bed, on which the woman lay apparently lifeless. He reached over to look into her face, and thought he saw her laughing. This put him on his guard, and it only took a short time to ascertain that she was only "kiddling" her fellow. The doctor had her for the laudanum, but said she was tired of life and had taken all the bottle contained. The doctor received his fee and left the woman, who gave the name of Jennie Williams, still enjoying good health and the company of her male acquaintance.

Mrs. Hueber Captured.
 Word was received here Saturday that Mrs. Hueber, the skipping proceurer, had been arrested in Minneapolis. It will be remembered that she was placed under $1,000 bonds to answer to the charge of enticing Lulu Mercer into her house of prostitution in Omaha. As soon as it was learned that the grand jury had indicted her she skipi from Omaha. It is said that she raised several thousand dollars in cash to take her. Now comes the news of her arrest, and Sheriff Reed will start for her just as soon as he can get the necessary requisition papers.
 The fact of her thus skipping out has caused many to believe her guilty, who have before been rather doubtful as to a good portion of the Mercer girl's story.

They Met a Score.
 Detroit Free Press. The other noon two of the crew of old men employed by the board of public works to clean the streets were eating their cold bite on the curbstone at Michigan avenue and First street. One of them handed a portion of a newspaper to the other and said:
 "Read me about the game of base ball.
 My son Johnny is just wild over it, and I want to see what it is that carries the boy away."

The other took the paper, located the count of the game and read: "Getzlein's work in the box has seldom been exceeded."
 "In the box? What did they have a man in a box for? If a man in a box can play base ball then a man in a chair can scrape off the pavement."

 "I suppose it means he was in a cage, but the paper calls it a box to ease up his feelings. Let me read on."
 "Bensley hit up a fly for Deacon White to corral."
 "Why kind of a fly?"
 "It doesn't say. It may have been a horse fly which was bothering Mr. Deas-ley."
 "And what does corral mean?"
 "Corral jewelry, of course. Let me go on."
 "Welch's corker was taken in by Hanlon, and—"
 "Stop!" said the man, as he waived a cold piece of meat in the air. "Welch had corker, did he?"
 "That's what it says."
 "And did the referee give the match to Welch?"
 "I don't say, but if it was the London rules he had to. I saw a chap get a corker at the knock out the other night, and he fell like a codfish."
 "Very read, read on."
 "And Hanlon hit a grounder and Get-zlein beat it to the plate. Thompson sent—"
 "Stop again! What's a grounder?"
 "It's a low below the belt."
 "It's a low below the belt. The same chap they had in the cage at the start.
 Who let him out, and what for?"
 "I'm giving you what the paper says, and here's more of it."
 "Welch sent up a pop fly, which Connor muffed, Thompson going to—" "Stop again! Put that paper down on the grass, and put a stone on top of it!
 It's no wonder the whole country is striking for eight hours' work with ten hours' pay when the newspapers have gone crazy. The horse-fly which was bothering Mr. Deasley was all right, but a pop fly is an animal I never heard of and won't give in to. Mr. Connor must have looked elegant with a miff in his hands to beat a pop fly over the head!"
 "But it's the game."
 "Then it's no wonder my boy Johnny comes home every base-ball day wild and pale and a cramp in his stomach, and that half o' the men in Detroit pull out a base-ball score whenever you ask 'em the time 'o' day, Mr. Welch."
 "What is it, Mr. O'Flynn?"
 "Give me a light for me pipe and we'll talk Gaelic to each other. Base-ball is too much for us."
