

LOST ALL OF THEIR DIGNITY.

The Board of Education Indulge in a Lengthy Wrangle.

EX-SENATOR HILL, OF COLORADO

Two Fires—The Board of Trade Building—A Lost Boy—Nebraska Masons—Minor Mentions.

The Board of Education.

The members of the board of education relaxed their accustomed and becoming dignity last night and held a heated and somewhat stormy business session that resembled in a measure some of the more entertaining meetings of the city council.

The board met at 8 o'clock, with all of the members present except Mr. Livesey. A number of applications for positions as teachers were received and referred to the committee on teachers and text books.

The following report of finances was received from Treasurer Buck and placed on file:

Table with financial data: June 1 balance last report, $13,356 70; Tax collected in April, 1,494 15; For non-resident tuition, 119 75; For fines in police court, 1,000 00; For licenses in May, 43,916 05.

The finance committee made the following report of the estimate of funds required for the city schools for the ensuing fiscal year:

Table with financial data: Superintendents and teachers' fund, $110,000 00; Janitors, 11,000 00; Construction, 60,000 00; Repairs, 6,000 00; Insurance, 1,000 00; General improvements, 12,000 00; Fuel and light, 9,000 00; Furniture, 4,000 00; Supplies, 3,500 00; Apparat, 2,000 00; Rent, 1,500 00; Interest, 5,000 00; Sinking fund, 9,000 00; Manual training school, 3,000 00; Miscellaneous, 1,000 00.

The finance committee also reported the bids made for the sinking fund bonds offered for sale at the highest bids as follows:

$10,000 of 7 per cent bonds sold to Bowler & Merrill, of Bangor, Me., for $1,203; $20,000 of 6 per cent bonds sold to N. Harris & Co., of Chicago, for $1,062.92; $17,000 of 8 per cent bonds sold to Douglas county for $1,710. The action of the committee was ratified by the board.

Claims to the amount of $30,552.38 were allowed by the board.

The musical part of the session was opened by the chairman of the committee on teachers and text books introducing a resolution providing for the election of the following teachers in the high school:

Prof. Levison, Belle H. Lewis, Martha A. Cook, Jennie E. Keyser, Fannie Wood, and Helen M. Whitmore as principals of Lake school, and Stella M. Keyser as an assistant teacher.

Attached to this was a clause authorizing the secretary to make contracts with the principals, teachers and assistants now employed by the board.

Mr. Blackburn objected to the motion, as, he said, he was not prepared to vote on such an important question without a chance for preparation.

Mr. Copeland said he objected to the high-handed manner in which the committee on teachers and text books had been carrying on their business.

The board finally voted to do nothing to say in the selection of the teachers.

Chairman Long of the committee said he did not consider it necessary for the committee to consult with the members of the board in regard to business that had been referred to them.

Mr. Blackburn said it was generally understood that the committee on teachers was a close corporation. They spring a report on the board and ask that it be swallowed whole without the board having any knowledge of its merits.

Mr. Copeland said the board had never known an report on the qualifications of the teachers.

Mr. Long replied that the superintendent had refused to examine the teachers. Superintendent James came to the front and said he had never shirked any duty imposed by his board.

He had never been asked a statement regarding the qualifications of the teachers, but he had filed such a report to the committee. He expected it would be destroyed so he kept a copy of it.

He said the board was employing teachers who showed no signs of being competent. He had always furnished information when asked of him and he hated to be accused of cowardice.

Mr. Copeland then wanted to get away from the dictation of the teachers' committee.

Mr. Coburn explained the committee's position at some length.

After waiting until 10:30 o'clock the motion to proceed with the election of teachers was postponed. The motion was afterwards reconsidered so far as regarded the teachers in the high school, and the following teachers were chosen at the salaries named:

Home P. Lewis, $200; A. N. Hobshaw, $190; Mary R. Harris, $160; M. K. McIntyre, $150; S. B. Davis, $130; E. E. Sheldon, $130; Ada M. Harris, $120; Claire Rippey, $100; S. D. Boals, $100; V. B. Shipp, $90; M. E. Quackenhush, $110; Professor Lewis, $100; Belle H. Lewis, $110; Martha A. Cook, $100; E. Keyser, $110; also Emma Whitmore, principal of Lake school, $90.

W. S. Curtis was elected member of the board of examiners to the vacancy, and it was decided to call a meeting of the board of examiners for June 28, 29 and 30.

The secretary was instructed to advertise for bids for school books and a number of bids for the construction of the Georgia avenue school building were opened and read. The lowest bid for the same work was $1,410, given by A. E. Johnson, at $1,500. The matter was referred to a special meeting of the board, Friday afternoon.

A resolution to increase the salary of Miss Quackenhush from $1,100 to $1,200 was read and referred, and after a few motions which were lost for want of a second the meeting adjourned.

He Will Support Her.

The case brought in Justice Anderson's court against Thomas Watson, charged with being the father of an illegitimate child born to Mary Anderson, an employe at the Dea and Dumb institute, was compromised Wednesday, and was compromised by Watson agreeing to furnish maintenance for the woman and her child.
