

THE IOWA BAR'S GREAT DAY.

Dedicating the New Chambers of the State Supreme Court.

MANY LEGAL LIGHTS PRESENT.

Impressive Ceremonies at the Opening of the New Chambers—Justice Miller Makes a Touching Address—Iowa News.

In Its New Quarters.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The annual commencement of the State organization of Sons of Veterans opened in this city to-night with a large attendance present. A camp fire was held at which addresses were made by John Brigham, of Cedar Rapids, Colonel J. H. Kealey, of Council Bluffs, Governor Laramie, General Given, of Des Moines, and Colonel J. H. Sweeney, of Osage.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

Yesterday's Events on the Turf and Diamond.

JEROME PARK, June 8.—For two-year-olds, non-winning and maiden allowances, race of the quarter mile, at 11:30 a. m. near the grandstand. The only starter was Davidie colt second, Maggie Mitchell third. Time—1:03 1/4.

THE RACING AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, June 8.—The weather to-day was sultry, the track good and attendance good. One and one-half miles: Lyeurgus won, Bootback second, Billy Bowling third. Time—1:58.

THE BASE BALL RECORD.

AT WASHINGTON.—St. Louis, 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 2-7 Nationals, 1 0 0 0 3 1 0 0-1 6 Errors—St. Louis, 5; Nationals, 6. Empire—York, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0.

THE IMPROVEMENT TRIAL.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 8.—This has been a dry day in the history of the improvement trial. Only points were clearly in favor of the accused auditor. A book keeper and an assistant secretary of the Hawkeye insurance company were on the witness stand, but nothing was elicited in relation to that company. Their statements of the methods of doing business were not examined, and the examination and the tediousness of the trial.

THE PRINTERS' ANNUAL CONVENTION.

PITTSBURG, June 8.—The second session of the International Typographical union opened at 9 this morning. Ex-President Farquhar presided at a short address, in which he took strong ground against uniting with the Knights of Labor, although he said he was not hostile to the organization. President Witter, in reply said there was only a small fraction of printers in favor of such a move. The election of officers was made by ballot, and the following were elected: President, W. H. Amison, of Nashville, Tenn.; vice president, J. B. Winters, of San Francisco; John L. Wright, of Washington; secretary, J. C. F. Clark, of Chicago; foreman of the Public Ledger, read a letter to the convention from George Zeller, proprietor of that paper, expressing his interest in the workman and enclosing a check for $2,000, of which $500 was received by the writer from a Dresden. No conditions accompanied the gift except that it be used for the good of the profession in whatever manner the convention may see fit. A committee was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions of thanks to the donors. President Witter's report upon the amalgamation with the Knights of Labor. The next convention will be held in Buffalo.

THE OMAHA MAN'S BIG SUE.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The case in the United States court of this territory vs. Matt Patrick of Omaha, begins tomorrow. Patrick's suit was from Rock Springs, Wyo., to Elizabeth, Mont., and the suit of the territory was for over one hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

POWDERY MAKES A DENIAL.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 8.—Master Workman Powdery denies that he has been captured by the domestic element, and further that there is no truth in the rumor that his views in regard to strikes, etc., were overruled at the Cleveland convention.

COUNCIL BLUFFS ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Robbery at the Bluffs.

An unsophisticated German was found by the police in the Washburn yards last night, bearing evidence of having been assaulted and beaten. He was taken to the station, where he gave his name as Sturgeson. He said he was on his way to Sturgeson, and had about $90 in his pocket. Yesterday evening he fell in with three tramps, who induced him to get into a box car in the Washburn yards for the purpose of stealing a ride. When inside the car, he alleges that he was assaulted by his companions and stripped of his money. The police are investigating the case.
