FAY TEMPLETON. Wearied of Her Role as "Mrs.

Howells"-A Board of Trade Man's Story. Says Chicago Truth: "Fay Templeton writes to a friend in this city stating that she has determined to return to the stage, from which is drawn the inference that the volatile Fay has wearied of a life of luxurious idleness under the pseudonym 'Mrs. Howells.' As for the young gentleman who conferred upon the opera-bouffe siren the former half of his illustrious cognomen, he is said to have east a roving eye in the direction of another singer, who was the object of one of his early infatuations, and who is as blonde, buxom, as Fay is petite, brunet, and divorced. It is to be regretted that Miss Templeton is so extremely erratic. With her talents and good looks she could have had a great run as a New York fa-vorite, but she seems entirely lacking both in moral stamina and mental energy, and unless she brings herself up with a short rein there is only one class for her to trot with.

"By the way, the young cub, whose blandishments allured the diva of Missouri circuit from Ed Rice's stage to his cozily appointed apartments, is an interesting specimen of young America. Left on his own resources, he would probably occupy a junior clerkship at Macy's or some similar establishment. With a some similar establishment. With a comfortable fortune, he is a spoiled child. He cries and whines for an actress as a

He cries and whines for an actress as a baby does for a rubber ring to bite, and he generally achieves the young person he favors, although it is obviously a clear case of barter. Well, each of us must have his specialty.

"I do mind me of a story that a young board of trade man tells at his own expense anent this same little blackeyed actress, Miss Templeton. He met her before the 'Billy West' escapade and was smitten. She reciprocated, or prewas smitten. She reciprocated, or pre-tended to, and showered silk nandker chiefs, hat-bande, and other inexpensive articles upon him. Christmas was approaching, and she cast her bread upon the waters. For a Christmas present he bestowed upon his mamorata a diamond brooch and a pair of diamond earrings pretty enough, but not so costly as those the prosperous minstrel conferred upon his bride. A few weeks afterward the youth took a trip down to Detroit, where the Templeton tronpe were playing. Fay did not play that particular evening, and she entertained her friends in her room, where her little sister, a child of five acted as chaperon. It so happened that the young man wore a scarf-pin of design identical with that of the earrings referred to, and this article of jewelry caught the little girl's attention. 'O, what a pretty pin! she exclaimed. 'My mamma has some earrings just like that! The fair singer had presented her admir-

Benton's Hair Grower

Ali who are BALD, all who are becoming BALD, all who do not want to be bald, all who are troubled with DANDRUFF, or ITCHING of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty Per Cent of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of Hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years we have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow Hair in 80 cases out of 100, no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

The lost ring story comes to hand, as usual. This time the scene is laid in Kentucky, where five years ago William Howe, of Moorefield, lost his sister's ring while fishing in a pond. Not long ago he went shooting bull frogs in the same pond, and, while cutting off the hind legs of a big one that he had shot, what should he see protruding from the bullet. wound in the side of the victim but his sister's long lost ring, with the identifying inscription still quite legible.

lungs or heart. These troubles can be lungs or heart. These troubles can be cured only by going to the primary cause, and putting the liver in a healthy condition. To accomplish this result speedily and effectually nothing has proved itself so efficacious as Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never failed to do the work claimed for it, and

BOWEL TROUBLES AND CHILDREN TEETHING.

There are very few who do not know of this little bush growing alongside of our mountains and hills; but very few realize the fact, that the little purple berry, which so many of us have eaten in thost every shape, there is a principle in it having a wonderful effect on the bowels. Dr. Bigger's Huckleberry Cordial is the gurar southern Rempby that restores the little one teething, and cures Diarrhoad Dyseniety and Cramp Colle.

When at is considered that at this season of the y-ar sudden and dangerous attacks of the bowel are so frequent, and we hear of so many deaths occurring before a physician can be called in, it is important that every house-hold should provide themselves with some speedy relief, a dose of which will relieve the pain and save much anxiety. Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial is a simple remedy which any child is pleased to take.
