A good many eggs that are not strictly fresh, and have to be sold as seconds, are coming in. Dealers have been holding the market up, but as stocks accumulate they are forced to sell lower. Close candling is necessary and shippers would save freight on rotten eggs if they would candle before shipping. Checked eggs have to be thrown out and sold at a less price. Eggs 7½@8c.

BUTTER—A great deal of poor and sour stock is coming in and is not easily disposed of. Prices rule about the same as last week. The receipts continue liberal and more than equal to the local demand. Commission men find it extremely difficult to dispose of their stock. The retail trade is very particular and will only take the best, so that the poorer grades meet with very slow sale. Only a very small proportion of the receipts bring top prices. There is no sale at all for creamery butter at the present time. Choice fresh grass butter, 7@10c; inferior, 4@6c; creamery, 13@15c.

A few ducks were received this week which sold at quotations: Old towls, per doz, $2.00@2.50; spring chickens, large sizes, per doz, $2.50@2.75; spring chickens, small, $1.50; ducks, per doz, $2.00.
