

SIXTEENTH YEAR.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE AGAIN.

The Lake Shore Men at Chicago Once More Leave Their Places.

ANOTHER SMALL RIOT OCCURS.

Several Men Injured and the Police Called Out—Fears Entertained of a Second General Railroad Blockade.

Another Switchmen's Strike.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Lake shore switchmen at the stock yards quit work at 2:30 this afternoon, owing to the refusal of the railroad company to discharge eight non-union men. Committees are now going to other yards of the railroads in the city to induce all union men to stop work. The Lake Shore road is refusing to accept any more five men out of its rank. It is now believed another general strike will take place on the road, and a blockade, such as the one which occurred last April, will take place.

When the men were put in an appearance to-night it was apparent that the strike was an assured fact. No freight will be moved to-night, and there are as yet no indications of a settlement between the men and the company. At 3 o'clock an effort was made to move a train of freight cars, but a mob appeared upon the scene, the members of which tried, by throwing a switch, to ditch the engine and train. The mob succeeded in getting the caboose off the track. Separate sections of the mob attacked the train men, throwing coal and stones at them and kicking them and pounding them with their fists. Conductor Charles Pearce, of Elkhart, was badly injured, being knocked down and kicked by half a dozen men. John B. Kicker, a switchman, was also hurt, but how seriously could not be learned. The engineer and fireman escaped entirely. No arrests were made.

TRAVELS OF AN ANARCHIST.

Parsons' Hiding Place in Omaha and Papillion.

CHICAGO, June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—An account is made public this morning of the travels and doings of the anarchist Parsons, from the time of the Haymarket riot to his return. It appears when the bomb was thrown Parsons leaped from the wagon and ran hurriedly toward the third street in the morning. It is intimated that the freight handlers will support the strikers if necessary.

THE ANARCHISTS' TRIAL.

The Defense to Keep Christians Off the Stand.

CHICAGO, June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Judge Gray's court was thronged when the work of selecting a jury in the anarchist cases was resumed this morning. This is a tedious piece of business, and from the men examined and excused it is not probable that the range of probability that it may be impossible to find a jury of the kind of Cook county twelve men who can pass the ordeal to which they must submit before being accepted. From questions put by counsel for the defense it is evidently their intention to shut out Irish Catholics and very prominent churchmen of every denomination, and all large employers, farmers, and shopkeepers of the union. Judge Gray was in his place for several minutes before the hour for resumption of business. At 10 o'clock precisely the eight prisoners were escorted into the jury room and subjected to the usual routine of hand shaking by the judge and the jury.

Where Roger Williams Landed.

PROVIDENCE, June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Providence presents a gala appearance to-day in honor of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of the city. Never before has the city been so handsomely decorated nor have the decorations been so profuse. Nearly all the buildings, public and private, are covered with flags, and the streets are lined with pictures of the landing of Roger Williams.

A Mystery of the Sea.

QUEENSTOWN, June 23.—The captain of the British bark Arklow, who was picked up at sea in an open boat by the American ship Frank Pendleton, and said that the Arklow was sunk by a collision on May 8, has disappeared. The captain, a man named Henry, is reported to have been rescued by the American ship, but he refused to give any information as to the cause of the disaster.

HORRIBLE REVELATIONS. Terrible Tales of the Treatment of Prisoners at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 23.—An afternoon paper to-day publishes a long sensational article which claims to be a faithful report of the inward management of the St. Louis workhouse. The gist of the publication is as follows: Ninety, a prisoner, is allowed 50 cents a day for his work, but by arbitrary deductions this is reduced to 30 or 40 cents. Once a week all the white prisoners, numbering about two hundred, are required to bathe in one tank, six by five feet, from which the water is never drawn till the whole number have washed themselves in it. Not a few of them are afflicted with disgusting diseases, while others are covered with ulcers and running sores, which by the means of the bath are communicated to the unafflicted fifty negroes who are required to bathe in the same manner, though in a fresh supply of water, and the whole 250 are furnished with two towels. The cells in which they are confined, when at work, are crowded eight men. In case of sickness the patient is placed in a cell of inferior accommodations in the same confined in the same patients, and those of the workhouse for whom room cannot be found are confined in other cells. The food is inferior in quality and insufficient, the bread being too hard to eat and the coffee too weak to taste. The water is given to the men to drink while at work is dipped from a cattle trough, and the stone workers in the mill wash their faces from the same bucket as the mules and horses.

MILLIONS IN WHEELS.

The Moline, Milburn & Stoddard Company to Locate in Omaha.

CHICAGO, June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A number of representatives of the Moline, Milburn & Stoddard company held a meeting at the Grand Pacific hotel last evening to consider the expediency of creating an organization to unite and promote their joint interests. There were present representatives from the Moline Plow company of Moline, Ill.; Milburn Wagon company and Stoddard Manufacturing company of Dayton, O. The purpose of the meeting was to form a corporation to be known as the Moline, Milburn & Stoddard company, with a capital of $1,000,000. The corporation will promote the general interest of the trade in wagons, buggies, carriages, plows, mowers, seeders and farm implements generally in Iowa and Nebraska, with headquarters in Omaha. A large site for the erection of a five-story and basement building to be used for the company's manufacturing plant, and much of the plan for this building and the methods to be adopted for laying side tracks between 14th and 15th streets, have been discussed.

The Deadly Ice Cream.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—A special dispatch says: Exactly 214 people were poisoned at last Thursday's picnic near Flemington, N. J. Six of these persons will probably die and twenty are in a precarious condition. One of the physicians in charge has announced that the poison was ice cream cans and said there was a quantity of sulphate of strychnine in the cream. The symptoms are those of arsenical poisoning, and the ice cream was made by a man named John D. Doughty, who is now in the hospital. It is believed that the poison was put into the cream by Doughty, who is now in the hospital. It is believed that the poison was put into the cream by Doughty, who is now in the hospital.

The Fisheries Question.

HALLAM, June 23.—The captains and lieutenants of her Majesty's ships engaged in protecting the fisheries on the Newfoundland coast have been created justices of the peace. Captain Doughty, of the Portland schooner "The Fish Hawk," which was seized at English Bay last month, arrived in Hallam yesterday from the United States. He is on his way back to Cape Breton to again take charge of the schooner, which is now owned by her owners. He will make a deposition of the facts of the Doughty case to-morrow.

Hung White Red Handed.

DETROIT, Mich., June 23.—William Kalar, alias Reddy, killed Officer Convey to-day while resisting arrest. He was taken to the hospital at 10 o'clock by a large crowd of disorganized men, who were carrying a large flag, and his body was thrown into a large hole in the ground. He was shot in the chest and died shortly after.

A DEMOCRATIC DEMORALIZER.

That Pension Amendment the Rock Which Threatens a Split.

THE PARTY LINES WAVERING.

Complete Transformation of the River and Harbor Bill—Why an Iowa Was Refused His Pension—Capital Notes.

Democratic Split Imminent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—To-night the democratic leaders are downcast and despondent. There is a threatened split in their ranks which is likely to result in a postponement of the vote on the obnoxious amendment to the rules imposing a tax provision on the pension bills, and since their success as democrats have begun to waver. There are several to-night who say they intend to go with the republicans, and there are others who are awakened to the fact that it would not be right for them to put themselves on the wrong side of the pension question, and hence the fight in the democratic camp. Orders have been issued to-night for a full democratic caucus to-morrow night, and at this meeting, if there is no attendance, Morrison and Randall will unite in carrying around the beef tea bowl and ask their weakening comrades to drink, so as to have strength to stand together in the fight. But it is now thought that the split has started and the caucus will not be held to-day. This is a very serious matter, and it is believed that no quorum, another roll call consumed the time to 5 o'clock, when the house adjourned.

THE PRINCES LEAVE.

Departure of the French Nobles to a Refuge in England.

PARIS, June 23.—The government at 3 o'clock this afternoon will issue a decree expelling the French princes from the country. A number of royalists and demagogues have gone to chateau Deu to consult with the count of Paris. The police have been ordered to arrest all persons who make noisy loyalist demonstrations in Paris or elsewhere on the occasion of the departure of the expelled princes. WHY THE IOWAN GO LEFT.

Among the several pension bills vetoed by President Cleveland to-day was one for William H. Beck, a well known Iowa, who volunteered in the military service. His reason for vetoing the bill, the following: This claimant enlisted in 1861. He received a veteran's pension in 1874, and was finally mustered out April 20, 1864. In this time of service his record shows no medical attention, and he was honorably discharged. In 1864, however, he was honorably discharged. In 1864, however, he was honorably discharged. A Desperado Killed.

CHESTERTON, Ia., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A special to the Advertiser from Farrar says: Tom Golden, who escaped from the asylum at Mt. Pleasant, June 18, appeared at the home of his wife's parents near Farrar yesterday. Mr. Demell, Golden's father-in-law, had been advised of his escape and engaged W. M. Martin to guard the house. Being refused admittance, Golden attacked Martin with a knife, the latter tried to elude him, and as a last resort shot and killed the lunatic. Coroner Hutton held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict justifying Martin's action and recommending that the verdict give satisfaction, as Golden was a Missouri desperado for years.

The Brown Impachment.

DES MOINES, June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The impachment case to-day produced the monthly reports of the secretary of state and register of the state land office to the state treasurer since 1870, to show no one was itemized according to law, these officers deeming the statute discretionary. The prosecution requested that the court admit the evidence. A. Slommer, of the Bremer county bank was called and rehearsed the examination of the bank by Brown and his deputy, at close of which Brown declared the bank was all right, and the cashier was all wrong. Brown was paid $100 by the bank and the bank received certificates of solvency. On cross examination witness said he told Brown that the cashier was wrong and that he had lost about $20,000 by him. H. P. Smith testified to examining this bank for Auditor Lucas before he was impeached. He testified that the bank was in a bad shape and subsequently was re-examined by a relative of Lucas. The cross examination was a relative of Lucas. The cross examination was a relative of Lucas.

The Crop Outlook.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Secretary Shaffer of the State Agricultural society, completed to-day his first crop report and estimate for the coming season. Railroad Improvements at Sioux City.

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Several prominent officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad were in the city most of the day, having come in on a special train from Minneapolis to-day. Among the party were J. T. Clark, general superintendent; and A. C. Bird, general freight agent. It was learned from the gentlemen that a line freight train will be run from Mitchell, Dak., via Sioux City to Chicago as soon as the Southland-Mitchell line is completed. The party will leave for Omaha in the morning.

An Hour in Jail.

The case against Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haddam, charged with having maliciously destroyed the property of the Water Works company, was tried before a jury in Judge Stenberg's court yesterday afternoon. The offense with which they were charged consisted in breaking up some water pipes and cutting down a telegraph pole, and in doing so, the grounds claimed by the defendants. The jury returned a verdict guilty fixing the amount of damage at $600. Under the law the judge had no recourse except to fine the defendants double the sum of the damage, and also to give a jail sentence. On account of the age of Mrs. Haddam, the jail sentence was limited to one hour. The red couple were taken to the county jail where they remained long enough to make an inspection of the room, after which they were allowed to return home upon the payment of the imposed fine.

A Bull Game for Blood.

The sporting event of the month will be a game of bull baiting that will be played at Athletic park on Saturday evening between the police force nine and the press gang champions. NEBRASKA NEWS.

Shellenberger's Lawyers Sue the Boys' Guardian for Libel.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Papers were filed to-day in the district court by Shellenberger and F. T. Ransom bringing suit against Calvin Chapman in the sum of $10,000 each for libel. These suits arise from the fact that day before yesterday the said Chapman, as guardian of Joe Lee Shellenberger, brought suit against the above named gentlemen, charging them with an conspiracy to defraud and starve the plaintiff. Chapman's suit also comes from interest in the farm occupied and owned by Joe and the late Maggie Shellenberger as attorneys fees for defending him in his approaching suit. Mr. Chapman's action in this matter is a great surprise to the people, as they cannot see upon what ground he can base the charge upon which he seems desirous to stand.

Apparatus Will Celebrate.

ATLANTA, Neb., June 23.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Preparations are being made for a grand celebration on the 21st of July, and speakers are expected from different places. Hopes were entertained that Senator Van Wyck would accept an invitation, but in response to the invitation he has declined to accept. A general band, speeches, races and a ball game are among the order of the day. The celebration will be held at the fair grounds, and other points will be here and receive a hearty welcome.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

A Baby Run Over by a Team and Carriage and Slightly Hurt. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon an accident occurred at the corner of Capital avenue and Thirteenth street which came near resulting fatally to the little child of Mrs. Goulden, who lives at the corner of Sixteenth and Webster streets. Mrs. Goulden was driving a single horse attached to a carriage, when the animal became frightened and started to run away. In the carriage was Mrs. Goulden and a little girl who was holding Mrs. Goulden's baby, aged a year and a half. In the excitement the child dropped the child, which was thrown in front of the carriage as the horse started to run. The wheels of the carriage passed directly over the body of the baby and those who rushed to the scene expected to pick up the child as a corpse. Strange to say, the little one was found alive and kicking and apparently but slightly hurt, except for a few bruises about the head and face. The runaway was in front of the carriage. It was a close call all around, and a miraculous escape for the child.
