

THEY FOUGHT THREE ROUNDS

Two Colored Pugilists Have an Interesting Bout With Hard Gloves.

BRICKLAYERS AT WATERLOO.

After Ruble's Murderer - The Gladiatorial Fight - A Silver Wedding - Wrestlers Arrested - Sporting Notes and Other Local.

Fought to Finish.

A short, bloody, and unsatisfactorily terminated prize fight took place last night between Jesse Smith and Isaac Glover, two Omaha negroes, at a well known resort west of the city limits.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

The morning a match game of ball consisting of four innings, was played between a nine of the bricklayers consisting of C. McGrady, catcher, T. O'Neill, pitcher, T. Curry, first base, A. Looker, second base, and so on.

THE SILVER WEDDING.

The handsome residence and grounds of Mr. J. L. Brandeis, at 2511 St. Mary's avenue, presented a brilliant scene on Saturday evening.

AFTER RUBLE'S MURDERER.

The committee of arrangements were D. O'Keefe, George Cridge, J. Jobst, John Schroeder, Perry Ellis and William Mielchowski.

ANOTHER MAN WHO ANSWERS THE DESCRIPTION OF RUBLE'S SLAYER.

The next day after the brutal murder of Chris Ruble in this city, about a month since, three men were arrested for disturbing the peace at Fremont.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

How the Fighting Gladiators Didn't Fight Saturday Night.

The sword contest between Duncan C. Ross and Sergeant Walsh did not take place at the exhibition building last Saturday night.

BRICKLAYERS RECREATING.

A Miscellaneous Day Spent in the Elkhorn Woods.

Nine car loads of excursionists pulled out of the Union Pacific depot yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, to attend the bricklayers' picnic, near Waterloo.

were about as numerous as were gallants on the grounds. A lunch stand was liberally patronized, the fiddler furnished music, and the whole affair was a success.

In the morning a match game of ball consisting of four innings, was played between a nine of the bricklayers consisting of C. McGrady, catcher, T. O'Neill, pitcher, T. Curry, first base, A. Looker, second base, and so on.

The handsome residence and grounds of Mr. J. L. Brandeis, at 2511 St. Mary's avenue, presented a brilliant scene on Saturday evening.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

How the Fighting Gladiators Didn't Fight Saturday Night.

The sword contest between Duncan C. Ross and Sergeant Walsh did not take place at the exhibition building last Saturday night.

BRICKLAYERS RECREATING.

A Miscellaneous Day Spent in the Elkhorn Woods.

Nine car loads of excursionists pulled out of the Union Pacific depot yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, to attend the bricklayers' picnic, near Waterloo.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

How the Fighting Gladiators Didn't Fight Saturday Night.

and about without rest, which would prolong the entertainment until morning. The fiddler furnished music, and the whole affair was a success.

DOINGS ON THE DIAMOND.

Two interesting bouts at the National Game - A Cricket Match.

An interesting base ball game was played at Athletic park yesterday afternoon between the Union Pacifics and the Fremont Grays.

THE PRESS VS. THE POLICE.

The famous contest between the police force and the press gang took place at Athletic park on Saturday afternoon.

THE SILVER WEDDING.

The handsome residence and grounds of Mr. J. L. Brandeis, at 2511 St. Mary's avenue, presented a brilliant scene on Saturday evening.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

How the Fighting Gladiators Didn't Fight Saturday Night.

BRICKLAYERS RECREATING.

A Miscellaneous Day Spent in the Elkhorn Woods.

Nine car loads of excursionists pulled out of the Union Pacific depot yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, to attend the bricklayers' picnic, near Waterloo.

THE GLADIATORIAL FIGHT.

How the Fighting Gladiators Didn't Fight Saturday Night.

TWO WRESTLERS JAILED.

Greek George and Pierre Arrested for Misdemeanors at Denver.

Greek George and Pierre, two well known Greco-Roman wrestlers stepped from the incoming Denver train yesterday morning and were immediately placed under arrest by Officers Mosly and Harrigan.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

Labor Troubles and Freight Cuts Cause Stocks to Fluctuate.

Government bonds were decidedly stronger and prices advanced 1/4 to 3/8 per cent, partly on account of the demand from banks and other financial institutions.

AROUND ABOUT THE CAPITAL.

Prospective Sweep of Republican Officeholders.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—[Special to the Bee.]—“Out of about four thousand employees in the treasury department and the bureau under the control of the treasury, it is estimated that there are about 1,500 who are removed to make places for democrats since March 4, 1885.”

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

From what one hears from the democrats and republicans alike in the lower house of congress, it is probable that the campaign will be a very close one.

THE RAILROAD TAX BILL.

The house committee on commerce has reported a bill to amend an act to provide for the collection of the tax on the transportation of goods by railroads.

FOREIGNER OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In pursuance of the policy agreed upon at the democratic caucus last week, the present week in the house of representatives will be devoted to the consideration of appropriation bills.

THEY TOOK A TICKET.

On Saturday night thieves went through the boarding house of Mrs. Hayes on Fourteenth street, between Dodge and Capitol avenue, and secured a gold watch and $27 in cash from a young man who boarded at the house.

PICKED A POCKETBOOK.

An elderly gentleman named Jenkins, who was en route from eastern Iowa to a home in Nebraska, met with serious loss in this city yesterday.

THE PROSPECTS FOR MONDAY.

Everything Depended on What the Decrease in the Visible Supply Amounts to - Provisions Active But Lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 26.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Wheat—Wheat was stuporidly dull to-day and seemed to have no mind of its own.

Government bonds were decidedly stronger and prices advanced 1/4 to 3/8 per cent, partly on account of the demand from banks and other financial institutions.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

Labor Troubles and Freight Cuts Cause Stocks to Fluctuate.

AROUND ABOUT THE CAPITAL.

Prospective Sweep of Republican Officeholders.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—[Special to the Bee.]—“Out of about four thousand employees in the treasury department and the bureau under the control of the treasury, it is estimated that there are about 1,500 who are removed to make places for democrats since March 4, 1885.”

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

From what one hears from the democrats and republicans alike in the lower house of congress, it is probable that the campaign will be a very close one.

THE RAILROAD TAX BILL.

The house committee on commerce has reported a bill to amend an act to provide for the collection of the tax on the transportation of goods by railroads.

FOREIGNER OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In pursuance of the policy agreed upon at the democratic caucus last week, the present week in the house of representatives will be devoted to the consideration of appropriation bills.

THEY TOOK A TICKET.

On Saturday night thieves went through the boarding house of Mrs. Hayes on Fourteenth street, between Dodge and Capitol avenue, and secured a gold watch and $27 in cash from a young man who boarded at the house.

PICKED A POCKETBOOK.

An elderly gentleman named Jenkins, who was en route from eastern Iowa to a home in Nebraska, met with serious loss in this city yesterday.

THE PROSPECTS FOR MONDAY.

Everything Depended on What the Decrease in the Visible Supply Amounts to - Provisions Active But Lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 26.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Wheat—Wheat was stuporidly dull to-day and seemed to have no mind of its own.

Government bonds were decidedly stronger and prices advanced 1/4 to 3/8 per cent, partly on account of the demand from banks and other financial institutions.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

Labor Troubles and Freight Cuts Cause Stocks to Fluctuate.

AROUND ABOUT THE CAPITAL.

Prospective Sweep of Republican Officeholders.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—[Special to the Bee.]—“Out of about four thousand employees in the treasury department and the bureau under the control of the treasury, it is estimated that there are about 1,500 who are removed to make places for democrats since March 4, 1885.”

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

From what one hears from the democrats and republicans alike in the lower house of congress, it is probable that the campaign will be a very close one.

THE RAILROAD TAX BILL.

The house committee on commerce has reported a bill to amend an act to provide for the collection of the tax on the transportation of goods by railroads.

FOREIGNER OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In pursuance of the policy agreed upon at the democratic caucus last week, the present week in the house of representatives will be devoted to the consideration of appropriation bills.

THEY TOOK A TICKET.

On Saturday night thieves went through the boarding house of Mrs. Hayes on Fourteenth street, between Dodge and Capitol avenue, and secured a gold watch and $27 in cash from a young man who boarded at the house.

PICKED A POCKETBOOK.

An elderly gentleman named Jenkins, who was en route from eastern Iowa to a home in Nebraska, met with serious loss in this city yesterday.

THE PROSPECTS FOR MONDAY.

Everything Depended on What the Decrease in the Visible Supply Amounts to - Provisions Active But Lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 26.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Wheat—Wheat was stuporidly dull to-day and seemed to have no mind of its own.

Government bonds were decidedly stronger and prices advanced 1/4 to 3/8 per cent, partly on account of the demand from banks and other financial institutions.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

Labor Troubles and Freight Cuts Cause Stocks to Fluctuate.

AROUND ABOUT THE CAPITAL.

Prospective Sweep of Republican Officeholders.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—[Special to the Bee.]—“Out of about four thousand employees in the treasury department and the bureau under the control of the treasury, it is estimated that there are about 1,500 who are removed to make places for democrats since March 4, 1885.”

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

From what one hears from the democrats and republicans alike in the lower house of congress, it is probable that the campaign will be a very close one.

THE RAILROAD TAX BILL.

The house committee on commerce has reported a bill to amend an act to provide for the collection of the tax on the transportation of goods by railroads.

FOREIGNER OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In pursuance of the policy agreed upon at the democratic caucus last week, the present week in the house of representatives will be devoted to the consideration of appropriation bills.

THEY TOOK A TICKET.

On Saturday night thieves went through the boarding house of Mrs. Hayes on Fourteenth street, between Dodge and Capitol avenue, and secured a gold watch and $27 in cash from a young man who boarded at the house.

PICKED A POCKETBOOK.

An elderly gentleman named Jenkins, who was en route from eastern Iowa to a home in Nebraska, met with serious loss in this city yesterday.

Templeton & Whitney, HARD AND SOFT COAL AND WOOD, Rock Springs, Illinois, Missouri and Iowa Soft Coal. Office—218 South Fifteenth st. Yards—Eighteenth and Lard sts.