OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Friday Evening, July 9.

Cattle—The market was quiet and very light and not enough to make a market.

Dogs—In spite of the decline in the market the receipts continue to increase. The unfavorable reports from the east this morning, indicating a lower and weak market, resulted in a lower market here. It was some time before the buyers and salesmen could come together to find a market demand to cover the little extra demand created by the efforts to keep prices up to yesterday's range. Very few loads changed hands until afternoon. The market is still high here in proportion to other markets; mixed hogs sold here-to-day with what the same grade was bringing in Chicago. Sheep—Nothing doing in the market.
