OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday Evening, July 12.

Cattle—The market was more active today and several bunches changed hands.

Hogs—The receipts were lighter to-day, but were at the same time liberal for a Monday. The market opened strong and at an advance of 10c. There were a good many buyers on the market all anxious to get as many hogs as possible, and that fact together with the cut in eastern rates was responsible for the advance in the market.

Sheep—Nothing doing in the market.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

General Markets.

Monday Evening, July 12.

EGGS—The bulk of sales are being made at 10c.

BUTTER—There is a good demand for choice table butter and the receipts are not heavy. Poor butter is received in abundance and has to be sold at very low prices. Choice packages of extra choice butter are picked up readily and at prices even higher than the quotations given for choice butter. At this season of the year, even choice butter shipped in barrels becomes almost worthless before it is received on the market. The warm weather melts it down until it is little better than oil. Several barrels received this week which would have commanded 10c per lb if in tubs, had to be sold at 3@4c. Choice fresh table butter, 10c; fair to good, 7@8c; Inferior, 3@6c.

CHEESE—Full cream cheddars, single, 8½@9c; full cream twins, 9c; young American, 10c; Swiss, imported, 25@27c; skim flats, 4@6c; Limburger, 11@12c; brick, 12@14c Swiss domestic, 12½@13c.

POULTRY—The spring chickens received averaged larger this week than last and have commanded better prices. As the difference is so great in size and quality it is not easy to give an exact quotation that will fit all cases. Old fowls have been selling fairly well at quotations; choice large fowls have been selling as high as $3.00. A few ducks are occasionally received, but there is very little demand for them. Old fowls, per doz, $2.75; spring chickens, large, $2.75@3.00; spring chickens, medium sizes, $1.50@2.25; spring chickens, small, not wanted; ducks, $2.00@2.25.
