

BEHIND THE BARS FOR LIFE.

Sentence of one of the Most Cold-Blooded Murderers on Record.

CONDITION OF THE IOWA CROPS.

Smallpot Hazing—Slow Obedience to the Sweeney Law—Meeting of the Medical—Result of Late Liquor Riots.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Judge McHenry, of the Seventh district court, sentenced Henry Furry, the murderer of Floyd West, this afternoon to the penitentiary for life. In his appeal to the court for clemency he claimed he was impelled to do the deed by spirits who urged him to do the act and that he knew nothing of the thing nor thought of it. The day before his counsel asked the court to either set aside the verdict or pass a mild sentence on the ground that the prisoner was evidently a monomaniac on the subject of spiritualism and that he was controlled by spirits and was therefore insane. Judge McHenry claimed that insanity did not exculpate a man from the guilt of a crime unless he was absolutely without self-control at the time and before and after, which was not shown by the evidence in the present case. Furry was tried and convicted for the murder of Floyd West at Hannibal on February 17, 1886. It was one of the most cold-blooded crimes in the annals of the state. The murderer broke in the door of the room, went to West's room and sent the weapon crashing through his skull. West expired almost immediately. Furry was taken to the blow, arose to grasp the murderer and was struck several times. Furry was captured in a neighboring house, and when Judge McHenry in sentencing him, Judge McHenry said that he was a bad man to be at large, whether under the control of bad spirits or not.

A Great Falling Off in All Grains Except Corn.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Advances show that the July crop report of the Iowa State Agricultural society says that 1,370 correspondents report the condition of crops at 102 per cent, an increase of 1 per cent over the previous report. Although in certain localities, where not a drop of rain fell during the month of June, the grain has good color, is growing finely and promising a large yield. In wheat, the correspondents place its condition at 103 per cent, a decrease from the June report of 3 per cent. In spring wheat 1,300 correspondents report the condition of the crop at 80 per cent, a decrease of 12 per cent from the former report, caused chiefly by chinch bugs. In portions of the state the frame dry weather, which reports place its condition at 82 per cent, a decrease of 15 per cent in less than thirty days. In winter wheat, 800 correspondents report its condition at 81 per cent, a decrease of 17 per cent from the June report. The falling off is caused by the dry weather. In timothy, 1,000 correspondents report its condition at 82 per cent, a decrease of 17 per cent from the June report. The net result shows a falling off in kind of corn, which promises an unusually large crop.

Backward in Coming Forward.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Although the law passed by the last general assembly requiring all foreign corporations doing business in Iowa to incorporate here went into effect July 4, two companies, the Nebraska Telephone company and the North British and Mercantile insurance company have complied with it. Their articles have been filed with the secretary of state. The law allows for latitude until November 1 and it is expected that at that time there will be a very general compliance with this new Sweeney law.

His Relatives Discovered.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Mr. Richard Howard, the foreman at the International distillery who died from sunstroke last week, was a member of Princess Alice lodge, Sons of St. George. His relatives were notified to bury him, no trace of his relatives could be found. The members of the lodge have been hunting for them ever since and have just discovered a clue to his past history and find that he has a father and sister living at Hartford, in Lincolnshire, England, who will now be notified of his death.

They'll Take the Pot.

Davenport, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A number of the members of the seventh judicial district met in this place to nominate a party to nominate delegates for the district judge convention. They chose the following: W. F. Brannan, Muscatine; John N. Rogers, Davenport; and A. J. Lippinell of Clinton. The district is overwhelmingly democratic and the democratic candidate a straight ticket and take the pot.

The Doctors Have a Feast.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Jasper County Medical association held its annual meeting at Colfax Springs today. In the evening a banquet was given to which prominent physicians from adjoining counties were invited. There was a large attendance of doctors who sat around the board, and toasts were responded by the leading medical men of Central Iowa.

Another Liquor Riot Chapter.

Clinton, Ia., June 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The outcome of the liquor riots a few days ago was seen today. Justice Seymour bound over to the action of the grand jury, Joe McKinley, Dora Shibley, and Henry Krebs, charged with intent to kill an old man named Abbott, who was a witness in the liquor riot. The grand jury's action was concurred with a grand jury that followed.

His Arm Torn Off.

Fonda, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Mr. Burk, of Williams, a brakeman on the Iowa Central road, met with a serious accident in the yards here today while attempting to make a flying switch. There was a large attendance of doctors who sat around the board, and toasts were responded by the leading medical men of Central Iowa.

Bursting Flour Dealer.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—William Townsend, wholesale flour dealer, assigned today to J. G. Rounds. His assets are $8,850, liabilities $5,740, due as follows: Winona Milling company $465; Crown mills, $465; Sauer, $465; George S. Garrett, $210; Citizens' National bank, $3,500.

Small-Pox in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There is a bad outbreak of small-pox at Balan, in Worth county, near the state line. There have been some fifteen or twenty victims, and one has just died. The state board of health has taken sanitary charge and is enforcing a strict quarantine.

Rain in Iowa.

CRESTON, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A much needed rain fell in this locality last night. Lightning struck a hotel at Massena, causing a slight damage. A man near by was severely shocked.

The Brown Verdict.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Manager Weaver was interviewed this morning. He believed Brown guilty but was satisfied with the verdict, in making officers more careful.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

The Senate Passes the Day Patch.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—In the senate today, Mr. Pugh, from the committee on privileges and elections, presented a report in the election case of Senator Payne.

Mr. Hear, on Behalf of Himself and Mr. Frye, presented the dissenting views of the minority.

Mr. Hear made a separate report, presenting the views of himself, Mr. Teller and Mr. Logan. All the reports were ordered printed in one document and were placed on the calendar to be called at any time as privileged matter.

Mr. Logan asked leave to call up the joint resolution authorizing the secretary of war to accept the deed and conveyance of the land known as Highwood, Lake county, Ill., twenty-five miles north of Chicago, containing 105 acres, for military purposes.

Mr. Logan explained it was a purchase for $300,000 by the commercial club of Chicago and tenders to the United States.

Mr. Beck objected and Mr. Logan gave notice he would call it up at a future date.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, offered a resolution that innumeral addresses, annual messages and such messages as may be deemed of general public interest of the several presidents of the United States be arranged in chronological order and printed as a senate document.

Mr. Allison submitted a conference report on the legislative appropriation bill, the committee agreeing upon all points of dispute.

Mr. Allison submitted a conference report on the legislative appropriation bill, the committee agreeing upon all points of dispute.

Mr. Teller, referring to his vote on Mr. Gibson's motion to strike out Mr. Harrison's amendment to the Mississippi river section, said that he had voted against it.

Mr. Edmunds thought the proposed reduction was wise. It would be better to make a reduction of 50 per cent.

Mr. Conger, a member of the committee on commerce, presented the references to his committee and characterized them as "undignified attacks upon the committee."

At the close of Conger's speech, which was being pressed in another house, the senate, without coming to a vote, adjourned.

ALLISON AS DARK HORSE.

An Interview Which Suggests the Hawkeye Senator For the Presidency.

MANY STRONG POINTS STATED.

The Impression Growing That Cleveland Will Veto the River and Harbor Bill—The Extraordinary Treaty.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Evening Critic has a long interview with a veteran statesman, once prominent in the affairs of the nation, who says Senator Allison of Iowa undoubtedly possesses many popular elements for a republican presidential candidate.

There is a growing impression that both ends of the capitol that the president will veto the river and harbor bill in case it reaches him.

There is a growing impression that both ends of the capitol that the president will veto the river and harbor bill in case it reaches him.

Nothing can be learned at the state department this morning relative to the alleged signing of the extradition treaty between the United States and Great Britain.

Mr. Harrison advocated the amendment as an insidious attack upon and attempt to deprive the Mississippi river of its navigation.

Mr. Teller, referring to his vote on Mr. Gibson's motion to strike out Mr. Harrison's amendment to the Mississippi river section, said that he had voted against it.

Mr. Edmunds thought the proposed reduction was wise. It would be better to make a reduction of 50 per cent.

Mr. Conger, a member of the committee on commerce, presented the references to his committee and characterized them as "undignified attacks upon the committee."

At the close of Conger's speech, which was being pressed in another house, the senate, without coming to a vote, adjourned.

At the close of Conger's speech, which was being pressed in another house, the senate, without coming to a vote, adjourned.

At the close of Conger's speech, which was being pressed in another house, the senate, without coming to a vote, adjourned.

THE TRIAL COMMENCED.

The Anarchist Jury Secured and the Prosecution Opened.

CHICAGO, July 15.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There were but eighteen peremptory challenges remaining for the defense when the work of securing a jury for the trial of the anarchists was resumed this morning. These were quickly exhausted.

Mr. B. Sandford, aged about twenty-four years, was the first juror called. He said he had formed a decided opinion on the question of guilt or innocence of the accused, but nevertheless he thought he could give them a fair trial.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

THE LAST ACT OF A TRAGEDY.

The Death of Mrs. Doran Recalls an Early Day Crime.

For nearly twenty years a woman who figured in a tragedy in the early history of Omaha has been living in a quiet manner in her little home on Burt street, earning a modest living for herself by doing washing for saloons and restaurants.

She was accompanied to the funeral by her young son, Bernard Doran, a young man about twenty years of age. Soon after the marriage an intimacy was alleged to have sprung up between Mrs. Doran and a young man, the step-son of one man his life and ruined the Doran family.

The death of Mrs. Doran removes the last link in a chain of events which will hereafter live only in the memory of the old timers.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

THE INTERSTATE EXPOSITION.

The Bullard Case Again—The Retaining Walls—Mrs. Mulhall Fined—The City's Finances—Other Local Matters.

A Tragedy Recalled. For nearly twenty years a woman who figured in a tragedy in the early history of Omaha has been living in a quiet manner in her little home on Burt street, earning a modest living for herself by doing washing for saloons and restaurants.

The death of Mrs. Doran removes the last link in a chain of events which will hereafter live only in the memory of the old timers.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARMING.

Affairs On the Mexican Border Growing Serious.

NEW ORLEANS, July 15.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Aguila, Mexico, states that the revolutionists in that section are gaining strength and will make a junction with the revolutionists now scattered over the districts bordering on the Rio Grande.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARMING.

Affairs On the Mexican Border Growing Serious.

NEW ORLEANS, July 15.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Aguila, Mexico, states that the revolutionists in that section are gaining strength and will make a junction with the revolutionists now scattered over the districts bordering on the Rio Grande.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.

It makes no difference what reasons exist, there are reasons and good ones, and ample for saying Secretary Manning was practically not adieu to the treasury department, and that about August 1, Mr. Garland will have the entire treasury department of justice in his hands.