The Tripartite Lines Refuse to Help Out the Union Pacific.

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.

Held for a Crime in Iowa-Are They the Street Car Robbers?-Henry Robwer Turns Up-Other Local,

The Fast Express Scheme.

General Superintendent Smith of the Unioh Pacific, received a yesterday copy officials of the Iowa lines in Chicago Monday. It has an important bearing on the fast express scheme of the Union Pacific. It reads as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the lines east of the Missouri river that, considering the unsettled condition of affairs between the east and west trunk lines, the present time is inopportune for the consideration of proposed changes, and the schedule should be postponed until other matters are fully and definitely settled. We would, therefore, ask the Union Pacific railway to hold such proposed changes in abeyance for further consideration.

[Signed] C., R. I. & P., C., M. & St. Paul, C. & N. W. and C., B. & Q. railways.

Thus do the lowa roads refuse to cooperate in the lightning express scheme operate in the lightning express scheme of the Union Pacific. The latter road had of the Union Pacific. The latter road had simply requested them to leave Council Bluffs at 9:15 in the evening, instead of 6:50 as at present, as the Union Pacific's evening train would not arrive in Council Bluffs until 8:30 p. m. No other changes would have been necessitated. A telegram form a Union Pacific official now in Chicago says that the lowa roads declare that even if the Union Pacific does make the change, they will not hold their trains change, they will not hold their trains the necessary two hours, nor will they compromise on anything later than the present time. This is a clear 'back-down' on the part of the tripartite lines, who had virtually agreed to the arrage

"This refusal on the part of the tripartite lines was directly caused by the bull-dozing policy of the C. B. & Q." said a Union Pacific official yesterday. "That road sees that if the Union Pacific puts into effect its fast express scheme it will knock the B. & M. and D. & B. G. western business." the B. & M. and D. & R. G western business higher than a kite. Consequently it is trying to defeat the Union Pacific with every means at its command. The fact is that this action is really a discrimination against Omaha in favor of St. Paul. The trip from Chicago to St. Paul can be made in twelve hours, while between Omaba and Chicago trains run at the rate of twenty-two miles an hour?"
"Will the Union Pacific abandon its fast express scheme?'

"No. The train will be put on, though a revision of the schedule of time originally planned may become necessary on account of this refusal of the tripartite lines to co-operate."

General Manager S. R Callaway loft yesterday for a western to year the Union terday for a western tour over the Union Pacific. While in Butte, Mont., Mr. Callaway will make arrangements for the formal transfer to the Montana Union company of the line of road between Butte and Garrison, which the Union Pa-cific has leased to that corporation.

HELD ON SUSPICION.

Two Men Arrested for Complicity in the Street Car Robbery. Yesterday Officers Matza and Rowles arrested Frank Tracy and Leonard Langley, two rather hard looking characters, on suspicion of being implicated in the street car robbery of Monday night. Both men deny any complicity in the affair. They were taken to the home of the car driver this morning. He said Tracy looked like the highway robber, but was unable to identify him positively. Tracy was the less agitated of the two men, upon being scrutinized by the street car driver. Langley was greatly affected, and trembled like an aspen leaf. A red handkerchief, which bore the mark of bloodstains partially washed out, was found on Langley's person. The atter claims he can establish a successful alibi, although he admits being in North Omaha on the night of the street car robbery.

Tracy, whom Peterson claims looks like the street car robber, is a man about forty-live years of age and is a hard character. He makes a precarious living by gambling. He has been heard to make mysterious remarks about the robbery and to intimate that he knew something about it. When taken in charge by Jailor McDonald vesterday while denying hav-ing committed the crime, he said that the new the man who committed the robbery.

"I don't see why they should lock me np," said Tracy, when questioned about the matter by a BEE reporter. "I don't know nothing about this robbery. I am no thief, and have never been arrested for stealing. I make my living by gambling."
"Did you say that you knew the man who committed the robbers?"

"No, I didn't. I said I thought I knew who he was. There is a certain man in the town whom I knew to be a thief, and whom I suspected of the crime. He is a middle-aged man, with black mous-tache and black whiskers. He has been hanging about Omaha for the past two or three weeks. I concluded that he might be the man, and so I determined to track him down and secure the re-ward. That's all I know about it."

A DEED IN IOWA.

With Which Two Iowans Stand Accused. Yesterday Sheriff, E. Y. Bergin, of Adams county, ia., arrested in this city Reuben Bissett and W. H. Viers, of the same place, upon a requisition from Gov-ernor Larrabee, of Iowa, and the necessary warrants from Governer Dawes, of this state. They were charged with maining and disfiguring a young man aged eighteen years in a most horrible and barbarous manner. The crime was committed about the 1st of last March, at about eight miles from Corning, in the about eight miles from Corning, in the county mentioned. As a consequence of the crime, the victim is maimed for life. Yesterday morning they appeared in court before Judge Wakeley and sought to be discharged upon a writ of habeas corpus. Messrs. Groff and Burbank appeared for the prisoners and sought on various grounds to show that the arrest was illegal. Judge Wakely, however, held that while he had not time to enter into a lengthy hearing of the however, held that while he had not time to enter into a lengthy hearing of the case, he believed that he had no authority to set aside the requisition of the governor which seemed to have been issued as the law prescribes. However, if the parties accused desired to have a full hearing, they might take their case before either county court or Judge Neville. The testimony implicating the prisoners is that of the boy maimed and as the deed was done in daylight, the lad must have was done in daylight, the lad must have perjured himself to save a guilty party. The accused are not innocent because it is not likely that he could have mistaken criminals while punishing him as it is admitted he was punished. The prisoners on the other hand claim to be able to prove an alibi. Yesterday afternoon the accused decided not to contest the fease and went with the sheriff to Adams county in Finally their thirteenyear-old boy, a very bright lad, was called upon to testify. He swore that his father had beaten Mrs. Rockbud and had kicke 1 her and struck her with his

"That's not so," ejaculated Pat, when his son had finished.
"I say it is," retorted the son.
"Dian't I only shove her with my hand

"No, you didn't; you struck her and kicked her," returned the young hopeful. "Johnny is a good boy, judge and he wouldn't rell a lie," interrupted Mrs. of the resolution passed at the meeting of officials of the Iowa lines in Chicago Monday. It has an important bearing on which availed him nothing. He was fined $10 and costs. Violet Bushnell and Louise Smith were fined $5 and costs for using profane lan guage. James Carroll, Moses Parker, Jack Wells and S. Briarley were fined $5 and costs for drunkenness. Two vagrants were discharged.

The Castellar Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Castellar street Presbyterian Sunday school, which was held Tuesday at their grove on the B. & M. railway, was a grand success, there being about three hundred present. Everybody did his utmost to make the affair enjoyable, and carried out the wellarranged programme of games, consisting of running races for boys and girls high running jump, boys' three-legged races, the orange race for ladies and one for gentlemen, winding up with the grand "tug of war." Refreshments in the shape of cakes, ice cream and lem-onade were served at the proper time. The picnic was enjoyed very much by the entire school and will be remembered by the scholars for many a day.

A New Tile Company. Articles of incorporation of the Union Hydraulic & Drain Tile company were filed yesterday moraing with the county clerk. The incor-porators are Robert. J. Carson, Jefferson W. Bedford, Abraham R Souer, Willis D. Sherman and Laura E. Martinovich. The capital stock is $60, 000, which upon a two-thirds vote of the 000, which upon a two-thirds vote of the stockholders may be increased to $200,-000. The value of a share is $100. The greatest liability of the association is $40,000. The company is organized for the purpose of manufacturing and selling hydraulic tile and sewer pipe machines also tiling and sewer pipe. The corporation commenced business on the 9th of this month.

A Compromise.

this month.

The Dinsmoor-Parcell case which has attracted so much attention of late, especially among members of the local medpecially among memoers of the local medical fraternity is to be compromised. Dr. Parcell has made an offer to buy Dr. Dinsmoor's interest in the sanitarium, on a liberal basis, and his offer has been accepted. The bargam will be consummated at once, and suit for dissolution of partnership which was to have been heard next Saturday, will be withdrawn. Dr. Dinsmoor will upon retiring from the Dinsmoor will, upon retiring from the sanitarium, devote himself wholly to his family practice.

The Lost Found.

Henry Rohwer, the young man who disappeared from his home in Calhoun several weeks ago, just before his wed ding was to take place, has been found. He turned up at his father's house in Calhounlyesterday morning ragged foot-worn and emaciated. He is unable to tell but little about where he has been, and evidently wandered off in a fit of aberration. He says that he spent some time in Alma, Neb. He gives no reason for his strange

The Missouri Eats the Bank.

On last Sunday night the Missouri river took one of its notional changes and at a point on the B. & M. called Gibson, a few miles south of the city, commenced to eat away the bank. When the corroding was discovered but ten feet lay between the edge of the bank and the railroad track. Immediately a force of workmen, about sixty in number, were placed upon the job, and have since worked there day and night. They have filled the big cut with brush and stone and not less than a hundred loads of each have been placed in the cut. In a day or so the danger will be averted.

ASSURED PURE FOOD

For raising bread, biscuit or other food, only the very best and purest baking powder should be employed. The use of the ordinary cream of tartar, or of a baking powder containing lime, alum or phosphates, carries deleterious ingredients into the food to the prejudice of the life and health of the consumer.

The ordinary baking powder contains either lime, which introduced into the system in too free quantities causes serious disorders of the kidneys; alum, a corrosive poison, or phosphates, which are condemned by physicians as deleterious in their effect when taken under certain physical conditions.

The absolute purity of the Royal Baking Powder makes it preeminently the most useful and wholesome leavening agent known. It contains no lime, alum, phosphate or other impurity, leaves no alkaline or other residum in the food, and its use always ensures pure, light and sweet bread, biscuit and cake, that is perfectly digestible and wholesome whether hot or cold, fresh or stale. Its leavening power has been determined the highest whenever tested by official authority, and all chemists and writers on food hygiene commend it for its sterling qualities.

A $1,000 Apology.

New York Times: Business is dull enough in Wall street now to give lots of chances for the display of all the joking propensities that the average stock broker is credited with. And opportunities open, too, for transactions that are ties open, too, for transactions that are not of the jocular sort. One case of this latter kind edged in on the stock exchange. Mr. Albert Aub is a popular broker, and Mr. F. M. Thieriot is another. Three or four days ago these gentlemen had a little collision, and got at cross purposes, but no blood was spilled, and their stock exchange brethren had forgotten about the passing cloud until, suddenly, a regular, old-fashioned thunder storm swooped down fashioned thunder storm swooped down to engulf the twain.

Mr. Thieriot is connected with the big banking house of L. Von Hoffman & Co., and yesterday morning he took with him to the stock exchange some orders to buy a particular stock upon which some of the customers of his house were feeling bullish. He was making his bids for this stock when Broker Aub appeared on the scene, all chipper and serene, and bent a little on the discomfiture of Broker Thieriot. And said Broker Aub, in his stoutest tone, as he stood in the center of the peak.

the pool:
"I'll soil 2,000 shares at 70!"
"Taken!" shouted Broker Thieriot.
And then Broker Thieriot added this:

"Seventy and a half for 2,000 more!"
Broker Aub—so bystanders tell it—looked astomshed. And that's the way he felt, too. Despite the bold way in which he had thrown 2,000 shares of the which he had thrown $2,000 shares of the stock on the market, here was the price going up—the advance of $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent from 70 at one bid to 70$ representing a loss of just $1,000—and just about one minute had been necessary to bring it about. He owned up like a little man. He went right up to his aforeitme foe and assured him that he had offered the 2,000 shares only in fun. He thought it might break the market, and it would be a happy spectacle to witness the Thieriot sort of astonishment. But Broker Thieriot was not inclined to hearken to this sort of talk. He had bought the stock and it showed him $1,000 of profit if he chose to order the contract closed under the rule. Broker Anb's distress was real. Broker order the contract closed under the rule.
Broker Anb's distress was real. Broker Thierlot is a generous man. All he asked was that Broker Anb should beg his pardon, and Broker Anb did that with alacrity. It isn't every day, even in Wall street, that an apology is worth a cool $1,000.
