

POPULATING THE "PEN."

Omaha Sends a Good-Sized Batch of Prisoners to Lincoln.

THE G. A. R. DELEGATION, Grand Army Men En Route to California—A Drunken Mother—A Big Real Estate Deal, Etc., Etc.

They'll Wear Stripes.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Coburn, assisted by Will Miller, brother of Joe Miller, county jailer, rode in a bus to the B. & M. depot, in charge of the eight prisoners sentenced at the present term of the district court.

LYING ON THE TRACK.

A Drunken Mother and Her Little Daughter Picked Up by Police.

One of the saddest sights witnessed in the city jail for a long time might have been noticed yesterday. It was that of a pretty little six-year-old girl playing about her mother, who lay stretched out in a drunken stupor on a bench in the woman's cell.

The woman Mrs. Mary Smith, came here with her four children, and husband, from St. Joe, arriving in Omaha Monday night. Smith is a telegraph operator, and came to Omaha to look for work.

HE SAW THREE REVOLVERS

And He Concluded Not to Ask for the Cash Box.

Gus Jones, one of the drivers of the Park avenue line, had a narrow escape about 12 o'clock Wednesday night from suffering a mishap similar to that of the car driver Peterson on Monday night.

On the March to Frisco.

The regular overland train on the Union Pacific, known in railroad circles as No. 1, brought over the bridge Wednesday night seven Pullman sleepers.

District Court.

Emma L. VanEtten sues the city for $9,000 for damage by grading to her property on Barney street.

To Be Court-Martined.

Some of the soldiers of the Second infantry who came to this post from the western department have availed themselves of the opportunity to carouse affording by a return to civilization, and have been on a frightful series of jamborees.

July Suits.

Wm. J. Maughlin has commenced suit against W. E. Sears and Carrie Brod to secure a good title to lands purchased of them by plaintiff in Douglas county.

A Grocery Failure.

Constable Karl yesterday turned in to Justice Helsey's court $941, the proceeds of a sale of stock and property of Colby, Robinson & Co., the bankrupt grocers on North Sixteenth street.

PARK HILL ORPHANAGE.

What Was Done in a Recent Meeting—A Committee Appointed.

At a recent meeting of the Park Hill Orphanage association in the lecture room of the First Baptist church, to consider the relation of Omaha to said institution, Dr. W. L. Armstrong, chairman, and Mrs. E. M. J. Cooley, Lincoln, secretary pro tem, the following named persons were chosen as a committee from Omaha:

First M. E. Church—Mrs. Chas. Dewey, Mrs. Saint Hawver, South Street M. E. Church—Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Miss Mattie Mason, Seward Street M. E. Church—Mrs. Joseph Beatty, Mrs. Dr. Stinger, Dodge Street Presbyterian Church—Mrs. P. J. Proyn, Mrs. Haines, Saunders Street Presbyterian Church—Mrs. C. S. Sunde, Mrs. Phillips, Castellar Street Presbyterian Church—Mrs. Weisbachs, First Baptist Church—Mrs. A. M. Clark, Mrs. S. Richardson, Kountze Memorial Church—Mrs. Detwiler, Mrs. C. F. Goodman, First Congregational Church—Mrs. S. H. H. Clark, Mrs. Captain Marsh, St. Mary's Avenue Congregational Church—Mrs. John T. Bell, Mrs. J. Weisbachs, L. S. Church—Mrs. McCarson, Mrs. Graham, Third Congregational Church—Mrs. N. E. Adams, Mrs. Dr. Bryan, Christian Church—Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. Dr. Mercer, Episcopal Church—Mrs. Wharter, Mrs. Judge Whitworth, Unitarian Church—Mrs. Alma Keith, Mrs. Ada Walker, Hebrew Church—Mrs. Elgutter, Mrs. Helman, S. W. Presbyterian Church—Miss Alice Rogers, Mrs. George Crosby.

In addition to the foregoing, the following persons were chosen: Mrs. Fred Drexel, Mrs. G. W. Clark, Mrs. A. J. Popkin, Mrs. General Anderson, Mrs. Maria Brooks, Mrs. E. A. Burrows, Mrs. Judge Savage, Honorable John M. Thurston, Judge Wakeley, Ex-Governor Saunders, Dr. O. L. Wood, Rev. J. Ross, Rev. J. H. Messers, A. D. Jones, Morris Elgutter, Samuel Burns, Herman Kuntz, W. T. Seaman, Max Meyer, Frank Morse, J. W. Allen, Dr. W. H. Parsons, Messrs. Joseph Nichols, Fred Millard, Jao. Dale, N. B. Falconer, Edward Rosewater, Lyman Richardson, G. M. Hitchcock, Fred Nye, Vincent Chase, E. York, Walter Jardine, W. N. McCandlish, S. R. Callaway, G. W. Holdredge, T. W. Kimball, F. A. Nash.

COMMENCING LIFE.

A Son of Fred Ames and Relative of Philanthropist Peabody in Town.

Yesterday morning the following entries made on the register at the Millard: "Oliver Ames, 2d Boston," and "Geo. L. Peabody, Boston." These were pretty high-sounding names in the not distant past, and, because of that fact, were sufficient to arouse the curiosity of a Bee reporter as to who were the bearers of the name at the present time.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Brief Interviews Picked Up on the Streets.

Councilman Goodrich: "I took a sympathetic view of the quarrel between Chief Butler and Jim O'Brien, and yet I felt that Jim had been treated severely enough. We find him fit for one month's wages—and that's making him pay pretty dearly for a single drunk. O'Brien is not a drunkard. He is and has been one of the best and most reliable firemen we have had, and he has been so for sixteen years. To throw him out of his position now in his old age, when he is unfit for anything else would be unjust. The fine we imposed upon him will do more to make him sober than any other than he has been, and even deterring some of his associates from drunkenness than his discharge would. It is folly to expect to find perfect men. Besides Butler should not have sent his resignation very rapidly, and it is to the mayor, and then it would have come to us."

Colonel J. J. Diebel: "Yes, I returned Wednesday night from the Black Hills country, having been to Rapid City to inspect the new Western Union branch to that city, on the Northwestern. I found everything in satisfactory condition. The Western Union telegraph line will be completed in the next month or six weeks, a stretch of wire from Rapid City to Deadwood, a distance of about two hundred miles. The country up there is developing very rapidly, and all the land in that part of the country I visited is divided up into farms and ranches."

THE TALKING WIRE.

Hereafter It Will Speak More Plainly to Patrons.

The Nebraska Telephone company have ordered all the material for a new air line to Ashland. It follows that now staked out by the B. & M. road, and will shorten the distance by about sixteen miles. The old wires run in a zig-zag direction, taking in Papillion, Springfield, Louisville and South Bend, and is about forty-four miles in length, while the line of the proposed line is but twenty-eight miles. The line will be completed before the fall.

Beatrice and Waterworks.

E. O. Ketsinger, mayor, Willis Ball, Gates Warner, E. Mahoney, John Kellogg, Louis J. Ball and A. V. Sammers, all of Beatrice, in this state, were here Wednesday evening examining our system of waterworks, with a view to incorporating some of their features into those which are about inaugurated in that place. They returned home Wednesday night.

Personal Paragraphs.

L. S. Sage, of Falls City, is in Omaha. J. D. McDonald, of Lincoln, is in the city. S. H. H. Clark left last night for the Millard. J. O. Edwards, of Rapid City, is at the Millard. Colonel Henry has gone to Colorado Springs. John Kesh went to Norfolk yesterday morning. Mayor Boyd went to Chicago last evening. Dr. Merriam came in from the east last evening. Mrs. J. E. Boyd is visiting friends in Colorado. M. W. Stone, of Wahoo, is a guest of the Millard. J. K. Anderson, of Waukesha, Wis., is at the Paxton. William Murray, of Aberdeen, Scotland, is in the city. W. B. Breckenridge left last evening for a visit to New York. Mr. C. M. Eaton went to Chicago over the Quincy last evening. Rev. A. F. Sherrill went west to Plum Creek yesterday morning. W. A. Paxton and wife returned from Chicago, yesterday morning. Dr. Spaulding and family left last evening for a trip to the Pacific coast. Judge Crawford of West Point, registered at the Paxton yesterday morning. J. F. Perkins, Weeping Water, and Samuel Long, South Bend, are at the Canfield. William Bartels, inspector of freight at the Union Pacific local office, has gone to Chicago for a short visit. Matt Clair, passenger agent of the Rock Island, succeeded in catching yesterday morning's train for a western trip. City Clerk J. B. Southard left last evening to spend a well earned vacation of two weeks in a pleasure visit to Salt Lake, Denver and other western points. He was accompanied by his wife. John Nichol, of the firm of MacRitcher & Nichol, civil engineers, Chicago, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Nichol was a resident of Omaha in 1869, and a member of the engineer force of the Union Pacific when that road was built.

Grading Contracts.

The board of public works yesterday morning opened bids for grading Dorcas street from Tenth to Thirteenth, and Twenty-fifth street from Capitol Avenue to California street. The bids for the first two streets were as follows: C. E. Fanning & Co., 21 and 24 cents per cubic yard; Stuhl & Samuel, 21 cents; A. K. Hoel, 22 cents; Daniel Katz, 21 and 20 cents; James Fox, 19 and 17 cents. The contract was awarded to James Fox.

Omaha Republican Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Republican company were filed yesterday with the county clerk under the name above mentioned. The bids for the printing of the paper named and do a general printing and publishing business. The capital stock is $150,000 with shares of $50 apiece. The capital may be increased to $200,000 by two-thirds vote of the stockholders. The date of the first meeting of the stockholders is July 21. The greatest liability is $100,000. The stockholders are S. P. Rounds, Cadet Taylor and A. U. Wyman.

STILL HELD.

No Evidence Against Tracy and His Companions—He Wanted Whisky.

Tracy, Langley and Goodin, the men arrested on suspicion of having something to do with the street car robbery of Monday night, are still in jail. No incriminating evidence has been discovered against them. Even the identification of the street car driver, Peterson, is made far from absolute. Judge Stenberg said this morning that he did not feel justified in filing against them a complaint for the robbery. From all present appearances the charge would fall through and the city might have a suit for false imprisonment on its hands. One of the prisoners, James Tracy, is almost a total wreck from drink. In fact, since his incarceration Wednesday morning, he has suffered from a slight attack of delirium tremens. A heavy dose of whisky brought him around all right again. The dose was given him by order of Judge Stenberg, who sent out and procured a large bottle of whisky. The fiery fluid was handed to Tracy through the bars. He jumped at it like a wild beast, and running back to the rear of the cell swallowed half of it at one gulp. "Hand that bottle to me now!" demanded the judge after Tracy had taken the bottle from his lips. "Oh, judge, let me keep it," whimpered the inebriate, clinging to the bottle nervously. "You'll be intoxicated in half an hour." "No I won't," replied Tracy. "I'll keep it wrapped up in a blanket and only take a small swallow at a time." He was allowed to keep the whisky, and has been quiet ever since.

BACK TO THEIR HOMES.

Bissett and Beers Again by Their Firesides in Nebraska.

Bissett and Beers, the men accused of a diabolical crime on the person of a young man near Corning, Adams county, Ia., and who were arrested Wednesday and sought to be released on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Wakeley, went to Council Bluffs Wednesday night and gave bonds in the sum of $1,000 to answer for the charge of maiming and disfiguring as the next term of the district court in Adams county. Bissett was arrested in Polk county in this state, where he claims to have resided during the past four years. Beers is his son-in-law and has lived in this city for some months. Both claim and assert that they can prove their residence here at the time of the commission of the alleged crime. Immediately after giving bond, Beers returned to this city and Bissett went to his home in Polk county. Sheriff Horgan says that the friends of Bissett have known him to reside where he now lives and at the time of the commission of the alleged barbarity, and Beers likewise claims to be able to prove an alibi. The mysterious part of the business is that the young man deformed said nothing about it at the time of the commission, waiting until the grand jury meeting a short time ago. It would seem, strange, however, that he would falsely accuse innocent people of the crime to save guilty ones.

COMMENCING LIFE.

A Son of Fred Ames and Relative of Philanthropist Peabody in Town.

Yesterday morning the following entries made on the register at the Millard: "Oliver Ames, 2d Boston," and "Geo. L. Peabody, Boston." These were pretty high-sounding names in the not distant past, and, because of that fact, were sufficient to arouse the curiosity of a Bee reporter as to who were the bearers of the name at the present time.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Brief Interviews Picked Up on the Streets.

Councilman Goodrich: "I took a sympathetic view of the quarrel between Chief Butler and Jim O'Brien, and yet I felt that Jim had been treated severely enough. We find him fit for one month's wages—and that's making him pay pretty dearly for a single drunk. O'Brien is not a drunkard. He is and has been one of the best and most reliable firemen we have had, and he has been so for sixteen years. To throw him out of his position now in his old age, when he is unfit for anything else would be unjust. The fine we imposed upon him will do more to make him sober than any other than he has been, and even deterring some of his associates from drunkenness than his discharge would. It is folly to expect to find perfect men. Besides Butler should not have sent his resignation very rapidly, and it is to the mayor, and then it would have come to us."

THE TALKING WIRE.

Hereafter It Will Speak More Plainly to Patrons.

The Nebraska Telephone company have ordered all the material for a new air line to Ashland. It follows that now staked out by the B. & M. road, and will shorten the distance by about sixteen miles. The old wires run in a zig-zag direction, taking in Papillion, Springfield, Louisville and South Bend, and is about forty-four miles in length, while the line of the proposed line is but twenty-eight miles. The line will be completed before the fall.

Beatrice and Waterworks.

E. O. Ketsinger, mayor, Willis Ball, Gates Warner, E. Mahoney, John Kellogg, Louis J. Ball and A. V. Sammers, all of Beatrice, in this state, were here Wednesday evening examining our system of waterworks, with a view to incorporating some of their features into those which are about inaugurated in that place. They returned home Wednesday night.

Personal Paragraphs.

L. S. Sage, of Falls City, is in Omaha. J. D. McDonald, of Lincoln, is in the city. S. H. H. Clark left last night for the Millard. J. O. Edwards, of Rapid City, is at the Millard. Colonel Henry has gone to Colorado Springs. John Kesh went to Norfolk yesterday morning. Mayor Boyd went to Chicago last evening. Dr. Merriam came in from the east last evening. Mrs. J. E. Boyd is visiting friends in Colorado. M. W. Stone, of Wahoo, is a guest of the Millard. J. K. Anderson, of Waukesha, Wis., is at the Paxton. William Murray, of Aberdeen, Scotland, is in the city. W. B. Breckenridge left last evening for a visit to New York. Mr. C. M. Eaton went to Chicago over the Quincy last evening. Rev. A. F. Sherrill went west to Plum Creek yesterday morning. W. A. Paxton and wife returned from Chicago, yesterday morning. Dr. Spaulding and family left last evening for a trip to the Pacific coast. Judge Crawford of West Point, registered at the Paxton yesterday morning. J. F. Perkins, Weeping Water, and Samuel Long, South Bend, are at the Canfield. William Bartels, inspector of freight at the Union Pacific local office, has gone to Chicago for a short visit. Matt Clair, passenger agent of the Rock Island, succeeded in catching yesterday morning's train for a western trip. City Clerk J. B. Southard left last evening to spend a well earned vacation of two weeks in a pleasure visit to Salt Lake, Denver and other western points. He was accompanied by his wife. John Nichol, of the firm of MacRitcher & Nichol, civil engineers, Chicago, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Nichol was a resident of Omaha in 1869, and a member of the engineer force of the Union Pacific when that road was built.

Grading Contracts.

The board of public works yesterday morning opened bids for grading Dorcas street from Tenth to Thirteenth, and Twenty-fifth street from Capitol Avenue to California street. The bids for the first two streets were as follows: C. E. Fanning & Co., 21 and 24 cents per cubic yard; Stuhl & Samuel, 21 cents; A. K. Hoel, 22 cents; Daniel Katz, 21 and 20 cents; James Fox, 19 and 17 cents. The contract was awarded to James Fox.

Omaha Republican Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Republican company were filed yesterday with the county clerk under the name above mentioned. The bids for the printing of the paper named and do a general printing and publishing business. The capital stock is $150,000 with shares of $50 apiece. The capital may be increased to $200,000 by two-thirds vote of the stockholders. The date of the first meeting of the stockholders is July 21. The greatest liability is $100,000. The stockholders are S. P. Rounds, Cadet Taylor and A. U. Wyman.

STILL HELD.

No Evidence Against Tracy and His Companions—He Wanted Whisky.

Tracy, Langley and Goodin, the men arrested on suspicion of having something to do with the street car robbery of Monday night, are still in jail. No incriminating evidence has been discovered against them. Even the identification of the street car driver, Peterson, is made far from absolute. Judge Stenberg said this morning that he did not feel justified in filing against them a complaint for the robbery. From all present appearances the charge would fall through and the city might have a suit for false imprisonment on its hands. One of the prisoners, James Tracy, is almost a total wreck from drink. In fact, since his incarceration Wednesday morning, he has suffered from a slight attack of delirium tremens. A heavy dose of whisky brought him around all right again. The dose was given him by order of Judge Stenberg, who sent out and procured a large bottle of whisky. The fiery fluid was handed to Tracy through the bars. He jumped at it like a wild beast, and running back to the rear of the cell swallowed half of it at one gulp. "Hand that bottle to me now!" demanded the judge after Tracy had taken the bottle from his lips. "Oh, judge, let me keep it," whimpered the inebriate, clinging to the bottle nervously. "You'll be intoxicated in half an hour." "No I won't," replied Tracy. "I'll keep it wrapped up in a blanket and only take a small swallow at a time." He was allowed to keep the whisky, and has been quiet ever since.

BACK TO THEIR HOMES.

Bissett and Beers Again by Their Firesides in Nebraska.

Bissett and Beers, the men accused of a diabolical crime on the person of a young man near Corning, Adams county, Ia., and who were arrested Wednesday and sought to be released on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Wakeley, went to Council Bluffs Wednesday night and gave bonds in the sum of $1,000 to answer for the charge of maiming and disfiguring as the next term of the district court in Adams county. Bissett was arrested in Polk county in this state, where he claims to have resided during the past four years. Beers is his son-in-law and has lived in this city for some months. Both claim and assert that they can prove their residence here at the time of the commission of the alleged crime. Immediately after giving bond, Beers returned to this city and Bissett went to his home in Polk county. Sheriff Horgan says that the friends of Bissett have known him to reside where he now lives and at the time of the commission of the alleged barbarity, and Beers likewise claims to be able to prove an alibi. The mysterious part of the business is that the young man deformed said nothing about it at the time of the commission, waiting until the grand jury meeting a short time ago. It would seem, strange, however, that he would falsely accuse innocent people of the crime to save guilty ones.

COMMENCING LIFE.

A Son of Fred Ames and Relative of Philanthropist Peabody in Town.

Yesterday morning the following entries made on the register at the Millard: "Oliver Ames, 2d Boston," and "Geo. L. Peabody, Boston." These were pretty high-sounding names in the not distant past, and, because of that fact, were sufficient to arouse the curiosity of a Bee reporter as to who were the bearers of the name at the present time.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Brief Interviews Picked Up on the Streets.

Councilman Goodrich: "I took a sympathetic view of the quarrel between Chief Butler and Jim O'Brien, and yet I felt that Jim had been treated severely enough. We find him fit for one month's wages—and that's making him pay pretty dearly for a single drunk. O'Brien is not a drunkard. He is and has been one of the best and most reliable firemen we have had, and he has been so for sixteen years. To throw him out of his position now in his old age, when he is unfit for anything else would be unjust. The fine we imposed upon him will do more to make him sober than any other than he has been, and even deterring some of his associates from drunkenness than his discharge would. It is folly to expect to find perfect men. Besides Butler should not have sent his resignation very rapidly, and it is to the mayor, and then it would have come to us."

THE TALKING WIRE.

Hereafter It Will Speak More Plainly to Patrons.

The Nebraska Telephone company have ordered all the material for a new air line to Ashland. It follows that now staked out by the B. & M. road, and will shorten the distance by about sixteen miles. The old wires run in a zig-zag direction, taking in Papillion, Springfield, Louisville and South Bend, and is about forty-four miles in length, while the line of the proposed line is but twenty-eight miles. The line will be completed before the fall.

Beatrice and Waterworks.

E. O. Ketsinger, mayor, Willis Ball, Gates Warner, E. Mahoney, John Kellogg, Louis J. Ball and A. V. Sammers, all of Beatrice, in this state, were here Wednesday evening examining our system of waterworks, with a view to incorporating some of their features into those which are about inaugurated in that place. They returned home Wednesday night.

Personal Paragraphs.

L. S. Sage, of Falls City, is in Omaha. J. D. McDonald, of Lincoln, is in the city. S. H. H. Clark left last night for the Millard. J. O. Edwards, of Rapid City, is at the Millard. Colonel Henry has gone to Colorado Springs. John Kesh went to Norfolk yesterday morning. Mayor Boyd went to Chicago last evening. Dr. Merriam came in from the east last evening. Mrs. J. E. Boyd is visiting friends in Colorado. M. W. Stone, of Wahoo, is a guest of the Millard. J. K. Anderson, of Waukesha, Wis., is at the Paxton. William Murray, of Aberdeen, Scotland, is in the city. W. B. Breckenridge left last evening for a visit to New York. Mr. C. M. Eaton went to Chicago over the Quincy last evening. Rev. A. F. Sherrill went west to Plum Creek yesterday morning. W. A. Paxton and wife returned from Chicago, yesterday morning. Dr. Spaulding and family left last evening for a trip to the Pacific coast. Judge Crawford of West Point, registered at the Paxton yesterday morning. J. F. Perkins, Weeping Water, and Samuel Long, South Bend, are at the Canfield. William Bartels, inspector of freight at the Union Pacific local office, has gone to Chicago for a short visit. Matt Clair, passenger agent of the Rock Island, succeeded in catching yesterday morning's train for a western trip. City Clerk J. B. Southard left last evening to spend a well earned vacation of two weeks in a pleasure visit to Salt Lake, Denver and other western points. He was accompanied by his wife. John Nichol, of the firm of MacRitcher & Nichol, civil engineers, Chicago, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Nichol was a resident of Omaha in 1869, and a member of the engineer force of the Union Pacific when that road was built.

Grading Contracts.

The board of public works yesterday morning opened bids for grading Dorcas street from Tenth to Thirteenth, and Twenty-fifth street from Capitol Avenue to California street. The bids for the first two streets were as follows: C. E. Fanning & Co., 21 and 24 cents per cubic yard; Stuhl & Samuel, 21 cents; A. K. Hoel, 22 cents; Daniel Katz, 21 and 20 cents; James Fox, 19 and 17 cents. The contract was awarded to James Fox.

Omaha Republican Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Republican company were filed yesterday with the county clerk under the name above mentioned. The bids for the printing of the paper named and do a general printing and publishing business. The capital stock is $150,000 with shares of $50 apiece. The capital may be increased to $200,000 by two-thirds vote of the stockholders. The date of the first meeting of the stockholders is July 21. The greatest liability is $100,000. The stockholders are S. P. Rounds, Cadet Taylor and A. U. Wyman.

STILL HELD.

No Evidence Against Tracy and His Companions—He Wanted Whisky.

Tracy, Langley and Goodin, the men arrested on suspicion of having something to do with the street car robbery of Monday night, are still in jail. No incriminating evidence has been discovered against them. Even the identification of the street car driver, Peterson, is made far from absolute. Judge Stenberg said this morning that he did not feel justified in filing against them a complaint for the robbery. From all present appearances the charge would fall through and the city might have a suit for false imprisonment on its hands. One of the prisoners, James Tracy, is almost a total wreck from drink. In fact, since his incarceration Wednesday morning, he has suffered from a slight attack of delirium tremens. A heavy dose of whisky brought him around all right again. The dose was given him by order of Judge Stenberg, who sent out and procured a large bottle of whisky. The fiery fluid was handed to Tracy through the bars. He jumped at it like a wild beast, and running back to the rear of the cell swallowed half of it at one gulp. "Hand that bottle to me now!" demanded the judge after Tracy had taken the bottle from his lips. "Oh, judge, let me keep it," whimpered the inebriate, clinging to the bottle nervously. "You'll be intoxicated in half an hour." "No I won't," replied Tracy. "I'll keep it wrapped up in a blanket and only take a small swallow at a time." He was allowed to keep the whisky, and has been quiet ever since.

BACK TO THEIR HOMES.

Bissett and Beers Again by Their Firesides in Nebraska.

Bissett and Beers, the men accused of a diabolical crime on the person of a young man near Corning, Adams county, Ia., and who were arrested Wednesday and sought to be released on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Wakeley, went to Council Bluffs Wednesday night and gave bonds in the sum of $1,000 to answer for the charge of maiming and disfiguring as the next term of the district court in Adams county. Bissett was arrested in Polk county in this state, where he claims to have resided during the past four years. Beers is his son-in-law and has lived in this city for some months. Both claim and assert that they can prove their residence here at the time of the commission of the alleged crime. Immediately after giving bond, Beers returned to this city and Bissett went to his home in Polk county. Sheriff Horgan says that the friends of Bissett have known him to reside where he now lives and at the time of the commission of the alleged barbarity, and Beers likewise claims to be able to prove an alibi. The mysterious part of the business is that the young man deformed said nothing about it at the time of the commission, waiting until the grand jury meeting a short time ago. It would seem, strange, however, that he would falsely accuse innocent people of the crime to save guilty ones.

New York and Omaha Clothing Company WHO WILL OPEN WITH AN ENTIRE NEW STOCK AT 1308 FARNAM STREET, On or about Sept. 1st, 1886.

C. S. RAYMOND, RELIABLE JEWELER, Watches, Diamonds, Fine Jewelry, Silverware, M. BURKE & SONS, LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANTS, C. E. MAYNE, LEADING REAL ESTATE DEALER.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure, OMAHA MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE, TIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES, WEAK, NERVOUS PEOPLE, S. A. KEAN & CO., Bankers.