Two new locomotives came in yester-day from the east, over the Chicago & Bock Island, they being from the W.W. V. & C. railway. The business of the handle factory is so increasing that more room is needed, and there is talk of securing the large Hendrie building. There a few cases of searlet fever re-ported. They should be promptly and formally reported to the board of health, as required by law. Schlenter & Boley, of the Star Sale stables, have sold during the past week twenty head of horses out of the lot they received from Illinois. The members of the G. A. R. meet this morning at 8:50 to welcome the Iowa delegates to the national encampment as they arrive on the morning trains.

Rev. G. W. Crofts, pastor of the Congregational church, is to take a brief cation and there will be no services in the church for the next two Sundays.

The services of St. Paul's church in Temple hall have been discontinued. The new church will soon be done and then services will be resumed in the Mr. McCullough, who so successfully won here over the Gamewell, last week was exhibiting the Richmond fire alarm at Janesville, Wis., with a good prospect of winning a contract there. Iwo boys, Fred McGelver and E. Eck man, were arrested Saturday for pelting stones at the squirrels and rabbits in Bayliss park. They were discharged with a warning and a lecture, and other boys should likewise take warning.

The authorities recently got started after the low awnings, and the marshal was instructed to make war on those which were too near the sidewalks. He went so far as to get his yardstick ready for measuring the heights, and there the war has stopped.

The Sunday afternoon meetings of the Young Men's Christian association keep up their interest and their attendance remarkably, considering the heated term and the manner in which the other relious organizations seem to wilt during the hot summer.

Daily new boats are put on the lake The "Nellie," owned by Chet, Lawson, being one of the latest additions, and the "White Wing," of the latest additions, and the "White Wing," of Oscar Keplinger and W. H. Wakeheld will be launched to-day. She is a sail boat and said, by those who have seen her, to be a daisy. Nine new tracks are being laid near the transfer for the increase of the yard facilities of the Union Pacific on this side of the river. The Omaha side is becoming so crowded that it seems that the com pany has concluded to handle more of its freight on this side, where it has room enough and to spare. The new Episcopal church is to be dedicated on the first Sunday in September. This church, when completed, will be one of of the most elegant in this part of the world. The stained windows are far superior even to those in the Cathedral at Omaha, and all the appointments and furnishings of the building will be in keeping.

The Star meat market is deserving of special mention for the enterprising and artistic manner in which it is decorated each week. It was visited and admired by many Saturday and certainly bore the appearance of a fancy bazaar. The proprietors of the Star should charge an admission as it is really a sight worth see ing and paying to see.

FATAL DEFECT IN CLARK LAW.

The Usual Saturday Night Burglary --- Fast Fruit Trains --- Boating Carnival---Reported Agree of Bagicy-Sunday Sundries. Lozier's Confession.

The sensational features of the case of Lozier, arrested here last week, still increase. Special Agent Higgins, who was here after him, seemed determined to take him back to Kansas City, despite the fact that Lozier had been discharged on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Aylesworth. A second information was filed before Justice Schurz, charging that Lozier was a fugitive from justice, and that he was wanted in Missouri for breaking open a trunk. This case was set for next Thursday. In the meantime Higgins hed been arrested on a warrant charging him with having assaulted Lozier. A hearing on this was to be had Saturday morning before Judge Aylesworth. When morning came it appeared that Higgins was not on hand, and that in fact he had gone the night before to Kansas City, and that he had taken Lozier with him. This was a surprise to Lozier's attorneys, who had no intimation from Lozier that he would go willingly. It looked like a case of kidnapping, and this so roused the indignation of torneys that they threatened to file sundry informations to make the officers suffer for the way Lozier had been spirited away. It was understood Saturday that this morning an information was to be filed charging Higgins with kidnapping Lozier, and that steps would be taken to try the requisition act on him, and see how he enjoyed it. Higgins was also to be made to answer to the charge of contempt of the superior court, he having tried to slip the handcuffs onto Lozier immediately after Lozier's discharge by Judge Aylesworth, and in the presence of the court itsself. Chief Matthews, who caused Lozier to be held while Higgins went off to file another information, was to be proceeded against for false imprisonment, and sundry other revengeful measures were to be taken.

From what the Bee could learn yester-day, it is not likely that any of these moves will be made. It is said that Lozier concluded to go peaceably and willingly. He told Higgins that he was tired of trying to make a legal fight here, where he could get no bonds, and that he was tryefored to go back to Kansas City preferred to go back to Kansas City where his friends would furnish him with bail and help him defend himself. He was willing to drop the charge of assault made against Higgins, and that the other cases here should drop, and that he would go along of his own accord with-out further trouble. This compromise was fixed up without the attorneys for Lozier being notified, there being barely time to reach the train, and away the two sped. It is further stated that a telegram was received from Kansas City yesterday that Lozier had arrived there safely and that Lozier had arrived there safely and had been turned over to the authorities, and that he had confessed the whole scheme. If he has really confessed all the details it is expected that a sensation will follow, as it is predicted that other employes of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway will be implicated by the disclosure of the facts. There seems to have been a concerted scheme to get to have been a concerted scheme to get possession of a large number of tickeits, and by obliterating the conductor's punch marks, to place them on the market in the hands of scalpers. Already about $3,000 of these tickets has been found. Six brakesmen have been brought to the ront, and two of them sent to the pen. It has been supposed that Lozier knew more of the scheme than any one else. and that if he could be caught and made to divulge, the whole truth could be learned from him. This accounts for the

It is thought that the scheme as worked must have been known to some of the conductors as well as by the trainmen in-Some of the conductors have not only indignantly denied any such insinuations, but have shown great anxiety to have the guilty one brought to justice, and have been specially anxious to have Lozier arrested, and made to tell all that he knows. This anxiety has counted in their favor but still it seems to many that it would be impossible to carry on so extensive a system of robbery without the conductors knowing it. Lozier's statements, as well as his capture, are therefore of vital interest to many.

The anti-prohibitionists have been hunting eagerly for some loop-hole by which to escape the Clark law, and they claim to have discovered a fatal defect, which will make the law of no account, The claim is made that the senate journal does not contain the necessary words, "The bill was read for the third time." The constitution provides:

"No bill shall be passed unless by an assent of a majority of all members elected to each branch of the general assembly, and the question upon the final passage shall be taken immediately upon its last reading, and the yeas and nays entered upon the journal."

In the senate journal of March 20 the following is given as the action taken upon the bill in question:

On motion of Senator Clark, senate file 203, a bill for an act amendatory of chapter 145 of the acts of the twentieth general assembly, relating to intoxicating liquors and providing for the more effectual suppression or the illegal sale and transportation of intoxicating liquors, and abatement of nuisances, was taken up.

On the question shall the bill pass, etc.

It is claimed that to comply with the constitutional requirement, the words, should have been inserted after the words,

"was taken up."

The prohibitionist side of the controversy laughs at this claim of a fatal defect in the record. The action quoted from the senate journal appears under the heading, "Bills on Third Reading," and it is claimed that this heading sufficient and it is claimed that this heading suiti-clently shows that the bill was really passed to a third reading, without any further record. A search has been made for precedents, and it is found that some-times the journal says distinctly that a bill has been read a third time, and some-times it indicates it simply by placing a bill under the heading, "Bills on Third Reading." The point made against the validity of the enactment is given for what it is worth. It indicates that every what it is worth. It indicates that every letter and punctuation mark of the Clark law is being carefully examined by both sides of the house.

Matters at the Valley. MISSOURI VALLEY, July 25 .- On Wednesday evening a fight took place on Erie street, in which John Gibson, James and J. R. McGookin played the prominent pacts. Carvers and barrel staves were freely used, to the disadvantage of Gibson's head. Gore streamed from every pore. Hank Barnum and Dick Further Revelation Expected In Regard to | Marksburry attempted to part them just as the minions of the law swooped down upon them. The whole outfit were arrested and taken before Mayor Duton, After explanations had been made as to the parts Marksbury and Barnum had taken they were released. The two Me-Georgins were fined $7 apiece. Not having the wherewithal they were lodged in the cooler. Gibson was allowed to go and have his head patched up, but in the morning he too was allowed to recline in the city bastile.

On Tuesday evening John Sullivan put a blast in the hill at the brick yard. Two boys were near by and were cautioned about being so near, and told to get away for they might get hurt. They declined to go. The blast went off and so did the boys. A dirt car was standing on the trestle near the hill, and the concussion started it down the track, the boys being in front of it. In order to get out of the car's way one of them jumped onto the car. About this time the car left the track, going down on one side, and the boy on the other. The other boy, Emile Werlie, aged about 15 years, son of Rudolph Werlie, also went off the track, striking on the ground, some thirty feet dislocating and breaking both bones of the left wrist and injuring him internally. When the boys were picked up they were nearly covered with the blasted earth. Werlie was the only one hurt. Dr. Bait was called, who reduced the fractures, and reports the boy doing as well as could be expected.

The greatest slaughter of dry goods ever offer offered in this city will occur at the Bankrupt Store to-day.

Getting Used to It. It seems that burglars have got in the bad habit of going through Sullivan & Fitzgerald's grocery store every Saturday night, and that they cannot quit. It is getting so that the newspapers keep a head standing for the regular weekly burglary of this place. Yesterday morning the discovery was made that thieves had again succeeded in breaking into this store, taking the favorite mode of entrance, by the rear. The drawers had been pretty thoroughly ransacked, evidently in search of valuables and cash, but the most of the plunder taken at this haul seems to have been cigars. A week ago Saturday night the fellows tried to erack the safe and did succeed in knocking off the handle and the dial It does seem that they are bent on breaking up this place of business, for the place has been visited several times during the past

Fast Fruit Trains. Another fast fruit train arrived vesterday morning. It was run through from California on passenger time, coming from Ogden in fifty-one hours. Seven of the cars thus loaded with the luscious went out yesterday morning over the Rock Island, and to-morrow morning will be on the Chicago market before Chicago is awakened thoroughly for the day's business. The previous shipment over the Rock Island went through from here to Chicago in eighteen hours. The fast shipment of California fruit is a great help to this year's markets, and doubtless other changes will be made another sea-son by which California will be brought

The Boating Carnival.

The plan for having the Omahas invited to join in a boating carnival on Manawa lake is meeting with favor, and the arrangements will doubtless be perfected soon. Such a carnival as is pro posed would prove a more pleasing attraction even than the coasting carnivals of last winter. The Omaha boat club would doubtless join in the doings and it is proposed to have a gold medal offered for the winner of a race.
