CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, July 28. - [Special Telegram to the Bee.] - No one can tell now by simply reading the flood of telegrams which come in from all parts of the southwest what the actual or even approximate condition of the corn crop is...

But the bears compelled a hearing of their news to-day and broke the market for September, to which point they had previously advanced from 45c down to 47c. But the opening was quiet except at 45c, and prices rapidly advanced to 46c, but this seemed to be about as high as they could make...

Wheat - Wheat needs downward pretty much all the sections. Cudahy, Ream, Hutchinson, Bloom and others big sellers, September opened at 75c, which was 1c higher than it closed last Friday at 74c, and held up on a decrease of 1,800,000 bu on passage, and by more or less buying against puts...
