THE MASCOT STILL ON HAND.

The Hastings Reds Taken into Camp By the Union Pacifics.

"I heah dese feilahs' done cum down to do de town," said Bandle's grinning Mascot, as the Hastings nine filed into Athletic Park yesterday afternoon for their first of the series of two games with the Union Pacifics, the only team in the state that they have not succeeded in defeating. "I's not afeerd of 'em doin' it tho' boss," he continued, shaking hands with Bandle.

The game was called at 4 o'clock with the visitors at the bat. They showed at once that their claim to the championship of the state was not an idle boast, but was based on the good playing qualities of nine chosen men. They failed to score, however, and the home team came to bat with Dugan, as catcher, and Salisbury in the pitcher's box. The home team got a goose egg in the first inning, and gave the visitors the same in the second. In the second, by a combination of good luck and good work the Union Pacifics made three scores. McKelvey then took the pitcher's position, Salisbury being laid up with a lame foot. Both sides played ball in earnest. The hits were numerous, but owing to the excellent fielding of both nines many men died on bases and the score was kept exceedingly low. At the end of the seventh inning the Hastings had not scored a run, while the Union Pacifics had six. In the eighth inning McKelvey weakened a bit, tle and the Hastings batted him heavily. They selected center field for a targe t and owing to three costly errors by Brandt, who played in that position, made three runs and gave the home team a whitewash, leaving the scors 6 to 3 at the end of the eighth. Dwyer went to bat for the home team in the ninth and led off with a three-bagger and made home on a wild throw to third. The home team then went out with a total score of seven. There was the wildest cheering as Miles, of the Hastings team, with one man out, made a three-bagger and brought in three men. The situation then was one of the most exciting. With a man on third and only one man out it looked very much like a defeat for the home team, or at least a tie in the ninth inning. The Union Pacifics were equal to the emergency, however, and shut out two men, closing the game with a score of 7 to 6 in their favor. The following is the detailed score:

"THE KNIGHTS OF THE GRIP."

Meeting of the State Branch of the Travelers' Protective Association.

Increased interest is being taken in the work of the Nebraska branch of the National Traveling Men's Protective association. The first meeting, held in this city some weeks ago, was attended by a bare representation of the commercial tourists of the state. When President W. R. Lanius called the meeting at the Millard to order yesterday afternoon sixty-five members responded to the roll call. The first business of the meeting was the election of officers. C. O. Lobeck was chosen vice-president and George E. Crosby secretary and treasurer. The following directors were chosen for the ensuing year:

August Meyer, of Omaha; F. H. Pugh, of Omaha; M. D. Welch, of Lincoln, C. L. McDonald, of Lincoln; R. H. Cuthbert, of Omaha.

President W. B Lanius appointed the following committees:

Railroad—W. P. Murmeugh, Omaha; Harry Loder, Omaha; L. Heiskell, Lincoln; W. A. Frye, Omaha; A. D. Leland, Lincoln.

Legislative—C. Y. Lucas, Lincoln; E. D. Lord, Fremont; George H. Savage, Omaha; R. F. Lytel, E. P. Wilson, Lincoln.

Press—W. R. Parks, C. S. DeSoden, George M. Darrow, Omaha; W. N. Widner, Lincoln; W. W. Lillie, Norfolk.

Sick Relief—W. F. Manning, Omaha; J. A. Root, Lincoln; W. E. Alexander, Chadron; C. N. Ambrose, Columbus; F. E. Jundt, Norfolk.

The association met in secret session last evening for the consideration of matters of great importance to the association.

The next meeting of the association will be held at Lincoln on September 16.

The meeting of the association called at Hastings was unauthorized and was set down as illegal by the meeting yesterday, especially so as it was called to meet on Sunday in strict violation of the rules of the association.

Still After the Burglar.

Further search was made yesterday for the man who attempted to burglarize the residence of Mrs. Kean on Seventeenth street, Thursday night. Deputy Marshal McDonald went to Papillion yesterday in search of the man. He found clues that led him to believe that the man passed terough Papillion early yesterday morning. A man answering the description of the burglar was seen in Papillion early yesterday morning, and got a drink at a saloon at that place and then mysteriously disappeared. Deputy Sheriff Walker found a woman in South Omaha yesterday who claimed that a man answering the description of the burglar had asked for something to eat at her home yesterday morning. Another search through the South Omaha woods failed to add any developments to the clue.

THE WORK OF HORSE THIEVES.

Six Valuable Horses Stolen on Friday Night.

While the enterprising burglar has been getting in his work in the city and making the possession of property a matter of regret with the average citizen, his co-laboier, the horse thief, has not been neglecting his opportunities. Yesterday morning the graders who are at work on upon the Missouri Pacific near Papillion awoke to find that three horses belonging to laborers had been stolen from the camp during the night. A pursuing party was at once formed among the workmen. They had proceeded but a short distance from the camp when they were met by a delegation of several hundred farmers, who were also looking for thieves. Three horses had been stolen from farmers in the vicinity and the community were up in arms over the affair. The pursuing party found constant additions until fully one thousand people were in pursuit of the thieves, but up to a late hour last night no trace had been found of them. The pursuers are wrathy and a lynching will be chronicled if the perpetrators of the crime are caught.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

A fellow giving his name as C.F. Howard rode into the city yesterday evening and traded a fine sorrel horse to a horse-trader for an old crippled broncho, whice he sold immediately afterwards for $15. His anxiety in disposing of the property aroused suspicion and he was arrested as a suspicious character. He had a pair of brass knuckles and a slungshot in his possession, and the charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against him to hold him until an investigation can be made.

Superintendent Bruner's Interesting Annual Report.

County Superintendent of Schools Bruner filed with the county clerk yesterday his report for the year ending July 31, 1886. It is replete with interesting facts and figures concerning the county system of schools.

The number of school districts in the county are 54, the number of schools 73, and the number of teachers 234, of which 34 are males and 200 females. The total school population of the county is 15,502, the number of children attending during the year has been 9,328, while the average attendance has been 5,930.

The total income for the year has been $321,523.09, the total expenditure $311,483.95, leaving a balance on hand of $13,039.14.

The bonded school indebtedness of the county at the beginning of the year was $161,480 while the bonds voted during the year were $7,650, making a total, $169,130. Of this $101,375 has been paid off, leaving the present bonded indebtedness $67,755.

The value of the schoolhouses in the county is now $507,040, that of the sites $262,645, and of apparatus, $12,333, making the grand total $782,018.

The amount paid and due on wages is $122,396.10, for building and repairs $107,160.52, while the total cost of schools including teachers' wages and expenditures of all kinds, whether paid or not, is $311,712.60.

The South Omaha Syndicate.

The trustees of the South Omaha land syndicate met again yesterday afternoon, but nothing was done by way of settlement of the mixed question of the sale of the syndicate property. The majority of the members seemed to fear to insist upon the transfer of the property to Bosler and his associates, although the transfer was to have taken place yesterday. The minority look upon this as proof of the fact that the majority will go no further with the matter. Bosler's recourse is to sue for damages, but it is not likely that he will go to that trouble, because sufficient pains have already been taken by the minority to convince him that he has sustained no damages at all.

HOW THEY ARE COMING.

An Eastern Capitalist Invests in Omaha Real Estate.

HE WANTS TO MAKE MONEY,

And Concludes That an Investment in "Mayne Place and "Orchard Hill" Will Accomplish the Purpose.

A reporter for the BEE to-day met an eastern gentleman who has been in Omaha for several days for the purpose of investing some money in real estate. He said that he had been watching the real estate business in Omaha for sometime and concluded that he could not invest a few thousand dollars to better advantage than to buy real estate in this city. He came here with a determination to invest and has taken his time to thoroughly look over the ground. He has spent the greater portion of the time with the real estate men, looking at the different additions and city lots which they offer for sale and has finally satisfied himself that Omaha real estate is a paying investment, has bought quite extensively and to-night leaves for his home in the east.

During the conversation with the reporter, he said: "I have seen nearly if not quite all the property offered for sale in your beautiful city, and must say that notwitstanding the flattering reports which I have heard, the half has never been told. To be sure, real estate here now commands a very good price, but for a number of years I have dealt extensively in real estate, and confidently believe that the boom in this city is but fairly begun, and now is the time to invest in order to reap a rich harvest."

"After looking the ground all over I made my purchases in 'Mayne's Place' and 'Orchard Hill,' both of which are owned by C. E. Mayne, the real estate man. Of all the inside property which I have seen during my stay, I consider these two additions by far the best. The 'Mayne Place,' I predict, will become one of the finest residence portions of the city. It cannot be otherwise, because more beautiful property for building purposes cannot be found in the state of Nebraska. It is of easy access, being only about one mile from the postoffice. Many handsome residences have been built adjoining this property, and I am at a loss to understand how 'Mayne Place' has been kept out of the market so long."

"Now, as to the 'Orchard Hill,' it is a beautiful tract of land, and while it is probably a half mile farther from the postoffice than "Mayne Place,' it is very easy of access, as the Belt Line railroad passes it: This road, I have been reliably informed by parties interested in its construction, will be completed and in operation early in September. When the first tram runs over the Belt Line, lots in 'Orchard Hill' will take a big jump, hence it stands to reason that now is the time to buy lots in this addition. I have purchased several and would not take considerable for my bargain."

"Before you go," continued the gentleman, "I want to say that Mr. Mayne is one of the liveliest real estate men I ever met in my life, and I have come in contact with thousands of them. He has the right idea. That is, he believes in selling his property quickly and cheap, and lets some one else hold it for an advance, while he invests in new property. He is doing a great work for Omaha and one which should be appreciated by her citizens.

PUTTING ON METROPOLITAN AIRS

An Omaha Retail Establishment with Four Stores and Basement.

J. L. Brandeis & Sons, the well known dry goods merchants at the corner of Thirteenth and Howard streets, this city, have added another feather to their caps that is bound to give them a wide reputation.

They have heretofore had but the double store, numbers 506 and 508, but through perseverance they have finally secured the two stores on the corner, 502 and 504, which will give them the room they have so long needed. These four stores will be connected on the first floors by archways, and another new feature to western people will be added that will make this establishment truly metropolitan and one that Omaha can well feel proud to acknowledge. The basements underneath these stores will be utilized as salesrooms, something after the numerous large basement stores on State street in Chicago and hundreds of retail firms in New York city.

When the buildings have been put in shape the goods will begin to arrive, a number of new lines being added. It will take about a month to get the goods all in and everything in running order, when business will reopen with renewed vigor under the name of "The Fair," and the goods to be carried therein will not differ materially from those in Lehman's fair in Chicago. The grand opening sale, as will be seen by their announcement in this issue, will take place on Monday, August 30.

The many patrons and friends of Brandeis & Sons will appreciate this move, as it will enable them to trade more satisfactorily than heretofore, as the jostling of the crowds will not be so annoying. At least fifty clerks will be required to carry on this mammoth concern where everything almost is to be found. Two members of the firm, Emil and A. D. Brandeis are in New York now, superintending the shipping of the new goods.

You have heard of "Orchard Hill." Well, no finer city property can be found than that and there are more buildings going up there now than in any other part of the city. For sale by C. E. Mayne, 15th and Farnam streets.

Home! Sweet Home!

Many disputes have arisen as to who was the author of "Home, Sweet Home," the best authorities attributing it to the pen of Jno. Howard Payne. Abundance of proof now declares said authorities to be undoubtedly in error. The lines in question were written by a young lady residing in the east. They were not, she says, a studied composition, but the spontaneous effusion of a happy heart, contented with her home, and the immediate effect of having purchased one of the light running "Union" Sewing Machines.

You have heard of "Orchard Hill." Well, no finer city property can be found than that and there are more buildings going up there now than in any other part of the city. For sale by C. E. Mayne, 15th and Farnam streets.

THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Rolls for All Who Invest Their Money in Omaha Real Estate.

FORTUNES MADE IN A DAY.

The Advantages and Beauties of "Mayne Place," "Orchard Hill" and "Newport," as Seen By an Impartial Observer.

After six weeks of weary waiting and watching, the citizens of Omaha have at last been rewarded by seeing the dews of heaven fall upon the dry and dusty earth, laying the miserable dust and giving a new lease of life to all vegetation. During the past few weeks it has been very hot and dusty, and nothing but business would call anyone out on the road. Notwitstanding this fact it is truly remarkable the number of persons who have thronged to the office of the C. E. Mayne Real Estate and Trust company for the purpose of seeing and buying property. After this fine shower it is safe to say that the rush will be unprecedented. Not only because it will be more pleasant getting around, but also because Mr. Mayne has for sale the finest property in the city.

In riding over the city probably the very finest property to be seen is "Mayne Place," located on Leavenworth street, just west of Park avenue. It is not more than a mile from the postoffice, and the lots are by all odds the finest in the market. Aside from the fact that the location is most desirable, the lots are covered with shade and fruit trees, also grape and other small fruit are to be found in abundance. This property has only been on the market a few days, and is attracting more attention than any property ever placed on sale in this city.

Next to "Mayne Place" comes "Orchard Hill," where lots are going off like hot cakes, and Mr. Mayne's gentlemanly salesmen are kept constantly busy showing property here. One of the beautiful features of this addition is a handsome park, which has been laid out and adds wonderfully to the value of property. Any person looking toward making an investment in inside property should not purchase until they have seen these two additions, for nowhere in the city can be found property which will compare with them.

If you are looking for acre property go to Mr. Mayne's office and take a drive out to "Newport," just west of the barracks, where you will find a veritable garden of Eden. This property is going very fast, and it is no wonder when it is taken into consideration that it is by all odds the best and cheapest acre property in the market. As has been said before, Mr. Mayne sells his property cheap and fast. If you want to invest in real estate see him before making your purchase.

Equal to Any Emergency.

It seems that no demand can be made on Omaha resources without a satisfactory response. During the present season this city has been looked upon as the leading headquarters for practical railroad men in the west, and applications for graders especially have come from contractors on different parts of the B. & M., Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific in Nebraska; Sioux City & Pacific, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Northwestern in Iowa. Squads are being sent out every day to different parts, the number forwarded by one employment firm last week being 389. Upwards of four thousand railroad men have been supplied from this city since the season opened and contractors are crying for more.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

IMPORTANT

TO THOSE IN NEED OF

Medical or Surgical Treatment.

We receive many letters from persons residing at a distance from us, making inquiries in regard to our methods of treatment, charges, terms, time of payment, etc. We have not time to answer each letter separately in these particulars and therefore prepare this letter as a general answer.

This can not be done, however, with letters describing disease. We analyze and examine by question each case separately and write our opinion fully as the case requires, and give it our most careful attention.

In regard to our responsibility we claim not only to be straightforward, honorable business men, treating our patrons as every physician should treat his patients, with candor and honesty as well as ability and skill; furthermore we are responsible financially, which anyone can determine for themselves by inquiring of the Commercial Agencies who have agents in every town, of the Omaha National Bank or any of the Omaha daily papers. As a further evidence of our standing you will notice that our advertisement appears in all the first class newspapers, and in some as the only medical advertisement of private diseases, diseases of women, etc. The reason of this is that these papers only accept medical advertisements from firms known to be responsible and honorable and reject the many frauds that advertise "free receipts," "cures guaranteed or money refunded," etc. Newspaper men know that all these inducements carry the stamp of fraud on their face and are traps to catch the unwary.

We can not guarantee a cure of cases which we never see, as we have no means of knowing except from the letters of patients who are cured and who are not, and it would cost more to investigate each case than the fees received. Nor have we any means of knowing the habits of our patients or that they use our remedies as directed.

It is to our interest to cure our patients; no physician or medical establishment can exist any length of time unless patients are treated with skill, honesty and success, therefore our anxiety to cure our patients and obtain their friendship and recommendations is not only a matter of honesty but of business principles, and our continued prosperity is the best evidence of our success. We are regularly educated physicians and have had years of experience in this class of diseases, and are supplied with every remedy, appliance or apparatus known to the medical world for the treatment and cure of disease.

The Commercial Record says: "Dr. McMenamy, the proprietor of the Omaha Medical Institute, is beyond a doubt one of the most skillful specialists in the Western States, and is well fitted by nature, education and experience to fill the responsible position he occupies as the head of the largest Medical and Surgical Institute in the West. In the treatment of diseases of women and diseases of the urinary and sexual organs (private diseases) he probably has no superior in the United States. We personally know him to be reliable and responsible."

Cases treated by correspondence receive the most careful attention. A record by number is kept in our private office of each case and of the remedy used. Prices are either, so much for the full treatment, whether it takes longer or shorter time, payable in advance, or so much a month, payable monthly in advance. It will be understood that for a certain amount, we agree to treat a case until cured, charging no more if it takes a greater length of time than we had calculated upon. As we know from the average length of time in thousands of cases treated by us what we can afford to do, we take our chances and run the risk, knowing that if some cases require a long time to cure, others are more easily cured and if we lose on one we make up on others, and so are safe on the average. While patients treated by the month pay so much for each month's treatment and run all risks themselves, of their case being slow to get well or of rapid recovery and thus costing them more or less. In either way we use the same medicines, viz. the best known to science. When apparatus, instruments, etc., are furnished or surgical operation performed, we make special prices, and our rates are as low as can be made.

Patients visiting the city for treatment can obtain room, and board at the Institute House in the Institute building at $5.00 to $6.00 a week for board and room, or obtain board at lower rates at boarding houses convenient.

To those who are unable to visit us and are treated by letter we will say that a long experience in treating cases by correspondence has enabled us to treat cases scientifically without seeing them. Each disease has certain unmistakably signs which, when told us, point out the nature and location of the disease and enables us to prescribe the proper remedy to cure. Fill out our question blank as far as your disease is concerned, then in your own language tell us what you would say if you were here. (Everything is confidential; you need not hesitate to tell us everything.)

Our remedies are securely packed in a box with plain wrapper, and sent by express unless otherwise directed.

We invite all to correspond with or visit us before taking treatment elsewhere, believing that a visit or consultation will convince any intelligent person that it is to their advantage to place themselves under our care; that we have superior advantages and facilities for treating special diseases, which, combined with our acknowledged ability, experience and reputation, should make our Institute the first choice.

Respectfully,

J. W. McMENAMY, M. D.,
Omaha Medical and Surgical Institute,
13TH STREET AND CAPITOL AVENUE, OMAHA, NEB.

Two Little Tars.

A full-fledged sailor in uniform is a very uncommon sight in Omaha, unless it be those gay and festive voyagers who tread the slippery deck of a prairie schooner or take their grog by stealth on a land hunter's cutter. Yesterday Fred and Frank Williams, brothers, whose parents reside near Kearney, arrived in the city and the small boy who never saw a tar costume save in dime novels became immediately interested, while the appearance of the little sea dogs recalled many a scene of the halcyon to those who have "seen the dark and deep blue ocean roll." The Williams' have been on a three years' cruise on the ship Tennessee, principally along the Chinese coast, and were discharged on their arrival in New York last week. Fred was the ships bugler and Frank its tailor. They say they like the sea, and in all probability will not drop anchor for any length of time at Kearney.

Two Outgoing Specials.

Special cars on the Union Pacific railroad have been coming in and going out in pairs. Last night T. L. Kimball, general traffic manager, and D. O. Clark, general superintendent of the coal department of the aforesaid road, together with J. F. Coots, the architect and building contractor, left for Denver, Leadville and Ogden in Mr. Kimball's car, No. 62.

Mrs. Judge Sanders, of San Francisco, and her four daughters arrived from the east last evening and were transferred to the special car Francisco, of the Central Pacific, to complete the remainder of the journey to San Francisco. As previously stated in the BEE, this car has been waiting here several days for Mrs. Sanderson and family. The return home is a very sad one, as Judge Sanderson, the head of the family, died very suddenly a few weeks ago while his wife and daughters were in Europe. They left on the overland route last night.

The Hungry Missouri.

The work on the B. & M. grade, near the round house, south of Boyd's packing house, has been delayed again by the encroachment of the river. A week ago the river cut into the bank several rods but was checked by filling in with brush and stone. The river worked under it and a portion of the filling sank out of sight, allowing the water to strike the clay bank. The past two days the company have had a large force at work, putting in more brush and stones but the river swallowed them up almost as fast as put in.

Can't Get a New Trial.

The motion for a new trial made by the defense in the case of Frank Walters vs. the Millard Hotel company, was overruled by Judge Wakeley yesterday and judgment rendered on the verdict. Walters was given a verdict for damages in the sum of $1,500 for injuries received by falling through an unprotected stairway at the Millard. The case will probably be appealed.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS.

Everybody Wants a Show at "Mayne Place" and "Orchard Hill."

"NEWPORT" IN GREAT DEMAND.

The Finest Property Offered in Years and at Prices Which Were Never Before Heard Of.

The real estate boom is fairly inaugurated and each day finds the transfers increasing. Probably the busiest man in Omaha these days is C. E. Mayne, the real estate man, whose name is familiar to all. He has just placed upon the market "Mayne's Place," the finest city property which has been offered for sale in Omaha for a number of years, and the fact is duly appreciated, judging from the large number of customers who daily call to see the lots in this beautiful addition. Not only are these lots exceptionably fine, but they are sold at such low prices that they are taken as soon as seen. They are going very rapidly, and all who want to benefit themselves by purchasing will do well to call at once.

While "Mayne Place" is very popular, it must not be forgotten that "Orchard Hill" is fully as desirable property, and is going equally as fast. A large number of fine residences are being erected in "Orchard Hill" addition, and many more will yet be built this season. Don't make any purchases in real estate until you see this property, for if you do you will regret it.

A number of acre lots were sold in "Newport" to-day, and
