Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. H. W. TILTON, Manager. TELEPHONE: No. 43. BUSINESS OFFICE, No. 43. NIGHT EDITOR, No. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

New York Plumbing Company. Summer clothing, cheap at Reiter's. Only one rag in the city jail yesterday. The very best cabinets at $3 a dozen at Gorham's. Akron Rubber Company's hose at Cooper & McGee's.

Only $2.50 per doz. for first class cabinet photos at Schenkel's, 220 Main. The regular monthly meeting of the city council will be held to-night.

Cabinet photographs $3 per doz. at Schenkel's, 217 B. way, for 60 days only. A large number of people went over to Omaha to witness the ball game yesterday.

Passenger travel on the different railroads centering in this city is now very quiet. Another fast fruit train from California arrived at the transfer at 1 o'clock this morning.

The Council Bluffs light weights went out to Greendale yesterday to play ball with the Garretts.

According to Professor Conch, from now until Wednesday will be the hottest season of the whole year. The Cass County Sunday School association meets in Atlantic, September 2 and 3, to which workers from here are invited.

Adolph Doeringer, of the St. Louis house, has taken hold of the steamer on Lake Manawa and had her put in working order.

The Union Pacific east-bound train yesterday was late, and in consequence all the eastern trains were delayed in leaving about two hours.

H. D. Harle has purchased a sail boat from Thomas Macfarland, of Mandamin, which, after being painted up, will be put on Lake Manawa.

Stakes are to be driven in the shallow part of Lake Manawa, through which the boats can reach Wray's landing without running on the sandbar.

The old steamer on Lake Manawa has been overhauled and new machinery put in. She is now again running with plenty of seating capacity and a new awning.

On Thursday at the driving park the Mueller music company base ball club will play the Earling nine. The Earling club has a fine record but the Muellers claim they can do the Earling club up.

All the policemen who are now doing night duty were yesterday in citizen's clothes watching for bathers near the bridge, who still persist in nude bathing, notwithstanding the signs about the place prohibiting the same.

On Saturday night there was a row in Alex Obert's saloon, on Upper Broadway. Obert is visiting in the old country and since his absence there have been several rows of which the police say four are getting tired and are thinking of closing the place until Obert returns.

Patterson Williams, (colored) of Omaha, was yesterday trying to dispose of a horse and was arrested on suspicion, but let go as Thomas Skinner, ex-chief of police, went to Omaha with Williams to see if he had a right to sell the horse, and if so Skinner was willing to be the purchaser.

"Zozo, the magic queen," has gone to Denver after building quite decent sized audiences at Bohyan's. She is expected to begin again in a little while, the scenery being all there is to the show besides a couple of shapely women, who were recognized as being old stagers with that class of a show.

The contracts "to furnish complete and put in position" the iron roof work of the government building has been awarded for $8,964.65 to the Motherwell Iron and Steel Company of Logan, O. The work is to be completed in six or four months. The stone work on the building will be completed by the middle of this week.

The field of contest between the Gamewell and Richmond fire alarms has now been transferred from Council Bluffs to Janesville, Wis. Mr. McCollough was at that place a few days ago exhibiting the Richmond system, and Mr. Chandler, of the Gamewell system, is now pulling the wires to obtain the contract for furnishing Janesville with a fire alarm. The only alarm the city of Janesville now has is an amateur excuse for one like the present system here.

SPICY SUNDAY SERVICES.

Revival Meetings Started As An Off-Set to the Closed Churches.

NEW POSTMASTER'S SURPRISE.

Prospecting For A Railway Track to the Beach--The July Game Captured By the Blue Coats.

Church Chimes. The devil is said to never take any vacations, but the preachers do, and just now his satanic majesty would have a good chance to steal a march on Council Bluffs were it not for the extra religious work started at the pavilion as an offset to the rest which some of the churches are taking. The Presbyterian and Congregational churches had their doors locked yesterday, their pastors being out of the city. St. Paul's Episcopal church suspended services until September, when the new church building will be ready for occupancy.

"Shine 'Em Up." "How much do you make a day, young man?" queried a Bee representative yesterday morning of a bootblack who was giving the newspaper man a Sunday shine while the newspaperer was leaning against a building perusing the SUNDAY MORNING BEE. "Oh, some days I take in as high as $3, but usually I average about $10 a week. I earn more money on shines than I could at anything else. Sometimes people tell me I am too large a boy to shine shoes, but boys don't know how to shine a shoe until he gets to be about my age. It takes lots of practice before you can put on a shine like the one I caught you. You were tapping the bottom of the BEE man's shoe to notify him that he was ready for the other shoe. You see, these kids," he continued, as he brushed the dust off the boots of the kids, "don't know what a man's uppers and they don't like it, and their shine only lasts an hour or so, while that shine of mine will last you all day to-morrow, if you ain't too particular. Another thing the kids don't know what kind of blacking to use, they take any kind a dealer wants to give them and are satisfied. There's only one place in town where I kin git blacking, and I always use the same kind. You see, young man, you can git a big trade here, only they treat their customers right. If I see a man winking me shine I put in lots of good licks and let him see I know my biz and I am sure to catch him in a day or so, at the most. That's how I caught you. You was talking to that man on Saturday while I was shining him and I saw you was watching me, so I did him up brown and you see to-day I got your job. But I warn't no fool, I know what you're at now that you folks git out a Sunday morning BEE. One of the kids was telling me this morning that the BEE was taking 'em."

Fine pasture, plenty of water and good attention for 300 head of stock about five miles north of Broadway and Main street. Inquire of L. P. Judson, No. 629 Sixth avenue, or Charles Palmer at pasture on line near road.

Railway Trains to the Lake. "Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from Omaha were over to the beach last night," remarked a gentleman who has considerable faith in the future of Lake Manawa and Manhattan beach, to a Bee man yesterday morning, in the postoffice. "Mr. O. P. McCarthy, of the Union Pacific headquarters, and several other gentlemen of the Union Pacific, were among the party," he continued, "and Mr. McCarthy knows what a good beach and fine bathing it is, as he has been brought up in a neighborhood where there were many such places. He said to me last night, that it was a pleasant surprise to him to find such a fine place in this western country, and he hoped improvements would be made that would be the cause of drawing people from a long distance next season. He said he had a great place if we'd only push it to the west end of the lake, and that the Union Pacific will build it and run trains. Mr. W. H. Burns, of the Union Pacific, has been very much pleased with the lake, and on Saturday he took several of the other prominent down to look it over. The result of the conference and inspection is, of course, yet to be revealed.

Given the Grip. The month of July was rather a dull month in police circles. The arrests made were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Number of Arrests. Includes Mathews, chief (8), Hendricks (12), Frank (10), Cousins (10), Leonard (16), Weightman (18), Lewis (18), Beswick (13).

The above were by the city police. The Merchants police were: Anderson (5), Thomas (7), Martin (7), Marshall and his deputies (7), Gunnella, marshal (5), White (10), Miller (1), McFadden (10), Miller (10). The month while McFadden has been attending the jail.

A Rowing Club. "A gentleman well known here as an enterprising citizen, a business man and one who has some little say in politics told me this morning," said a gentleman in one of the banking institutions of this city to one of the Bee force yesterday, "that if we'd get up a rowing association he would take some of the stock in it as he'd like to see a good rowing club here. Do you know we could easily get up a couple of four-oared barges if some one would only start it. I wish you newspaper people would punch them up a little. We've plenty of time this season yet--fully two months. September is a good month for rowing and we might get up a race with one of the Omaha crews."

Furnishing Uncle Sam's House. "Postmaster Bowman's new chair is a daisy, isn't it?" said one of the employes of the postoffice yesterday. "It is the only piece of furniture in the office, strictly speaking, but wait until we get into the new government building. Expect we will be fixed up in great shape; there will be money already appropriated; that there will be no lack of it unless they put it into furniture, etc., and I hope they will, as this city has always been away behind others of our size in regard to such things. With our new building we should have some nice office furniture, and, as the money is already appropriated, I don't see anything to hinder us."

Long Hours. The crew of the day dummy train have just reason to complain of the number of hours they have to stay on duty. They go on duty at 7 o'clock in the morning, and go off about 9 o'clock. This is bad enough, but frequently the hours are lengthened by delays caused by using the dummy engine for switching. Last night, for instance, instead of the dummy train leaving Omaha for Council Bluffs at 8:15, the engine was used for switching until nearly 9 o'clock, so that the dummy did not reach this side until 9 o'clock, and then had to return. The yards on the Omaha side are so crowded that it causes delays, and there seems a lack of switch engines besides. On the Council Bluffs side there is plenty of room, which could be used for yards, and with a supply of switch engines, it seems that the matter could be arranged so as to let the boys have shorter hours. The annoyance to passengers, who are often delayed on the evening run and on the 11 o'clock dummy run, is great also, and causes many complaints. There is danger, too, in keeping men on duty so long. Overworked, they cannot perform the best service, and accidents are more liable to occur.

Personal Paragraphs. W. B. Hoge, of Cambridge, O., is at the Ogden. E. S. Allen, of Persia, was at the Pacific yesterday. C. C. Troxell goes to Illinois to-day on a vacation. J. Herold, of Kansas City, is at the Ogden house. C. W. Brown, of Battle Creek, Mich., is in the city. H. Smith, of Des Moines, was in the city yesterday. David Friedman, of Tabor, spent Sunday in the bluff. Miss Bowser and Miss Nison, of Dunlap, are in the city. J. C. Rockwell leaves to-day for a business trip to Dakota. A Greenmayer, of Hamburg, Sundayed at the Pacific house. Tom E. Beebe and his bride, of Omaha, were Bluffs visitors yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Benedict leave to-day for Chicago, their future home. Mrs. G. L. Martin and Miss Len Marlton, of Kansas City, are at the Ogden. J. G. Simmons starts for Dakota to-day to visit Deere, Wells & Co.'s trade. M. F. Sayre, who helps work the trade for Deere, Wells & Co., is in off the road. B. Goldman and John Goode were among the Chicago arrivals at the Ogden yesterday. W. B. Judd, the experienced missionary of David Bradley & Co., has been laid up with malaria. E. Crenshaw, Thomas Macfarland and C. H. Noyes, of Mandamin, were in the city yesterday. Chapman, of York, Pa., is in the city. W. W. Chapman is in the city with the intention of making this his future home. A. L. Childs, of Des Moines, is in the city, figuring for the purchase of one of the daily papers, or at least an interest in one of them. The relatives and friends in this city of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beach, of Hamburg, are in receipt of the glad news that a little daughter has made her advent into that worthy household. E. L. Davis, of Missour Valley, returned to Colfax Springs yesterday, where he and his wife are spending a few weeks; he having been called back to the Valley by the death of his sister's two children, both of whom have died within a week. Sheriff Garrison, of Harrison county, attended last week a reunion of the Garrison family at Waverly, Iowa. There were five present, he being the youngest. The eldest brother, who was present, is seventy-five years of age. Some of the family had not met for nearly thirty years. A Steeper "All Broke Up." Patrick McGowan, one of the workmen on the new county court house, on Saturday strolled into Bayliss park, and after sitting on a bench for some little time concluded to lie down on the bench and rest until time to resume his work at 1 o'clock. He had just got into a comfortable position when the park watchman came up and ordered him to sit up. He did so, but says the watchman began to show his authority, insulting him and attempting to arrest him when he refused to go to the lockup, as he had done nothing wrong. He says the watchman then ordered a revolver and asked where the park which order he quickly obeyed under the circumstances. He thought about trying to prosecute the watchman.

Always buy your meats at Star Market, No. 394 Broadway, and get the best. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Postmaster's Prize. Postmaster Bowman was yesterday morning the recipient of a handsome, large office chair, a present from the employes of the postoffice. The chair was hid in a closet behind the postmaster's desk, and shortly after he arrived Joe Spaulding, one of the letter carriers, came forward and in a short, neat speech made the presentation. Mr. Bowman was taken wholly unawares, but in a few well-chosen remarks accepted the gift, which he prizes very highly, especially as every employe under him joined in the gift. The chair is of black walnut, upholstered with Russian leather.

Sadly Bereaved. The seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fonda died yesterday morning after a brief illness, dysentery being the cause. Mr. Fonda has been in the west on a pleasure and health-seeking trip, and received a telegram at Ogden, announcing the serious illness of his daughter. He reached home Saturday morning. The sad event so suddenly occurring calls forth the warmest sympathy of their many friends here.

Kirkland, the jeweler, has removed to 323 Broadway, Singer office.

George W. Fisher, head cutter with F. E. Stubbs, the merchant tailor, is now in New York City selecting his fall stock. Mr. Stubbs has also purchased a full line of imported goods of Felix Talmon & Sons, London and Paris, which he expects in a few days. Mr. Fisher, being president of the national cutters' association, was on last Monday evening tendered a reception at his home, the being about two hundred cutters present. Mr. Stubbs, by his enterprise in securing the finest cutters, workmen, etc., has established a business with the finest class of workmen, having secured some of the very best stock both in gentlemen's furnishing goods, wools, etc., that money can purchase, and making up easily styles as soon as introduced in New York. Owing to numerous inquiries by parties in need of large quantities, Mr. Stubbs has now completed arrangements by which he will send a cutter with a full line of samples to those who desire his services.

The Gospel Bell. Last evening the inaugural meeting of the series of revival services, was held in the pavilion. Mr. Bell, the evangelist from Chicago, made his first public appearance. Considerable interest was felt by his old friends and acquaintances, he having lived here a long time, leaving here about eighteen years ago. He recognized the peculiar interest felt on this account, and announced that he should not only explain why he left the city of business to preach the gospel. He promised to narrate his experiences and give his reasons at the meeting to-night. This announcement will cause the pavilion to be jammed, for last night, with no such special attraction, every seat was taken. At the services last evening Mr. Bell addressed the people for over half an hour, and from opening to finish held the attention of all closely. He talks in a business-like manner, with no pretensions to elegance or eloquence. He is not scholarly, but is far from being so. His reputation of being quite wonderful as a Bible reader, he has arranged to have Bible readings every afternoon at 3 o'clock, and all are invited to these services, as well as the evening meetings.

Forty boxes California plums, for preserving, very cheap, if bought to-day at H. J. Palmer's No. 14 Main street.

CALICO. Why It Has Gone Out of Popularity--Its New Form, Sateen. The calico made years ago, says the trade journal, Fiber and Fabric, would wear twice as long without washing as the modern calico. More substance in actual fiber is what is wanted to regain popularity. Another reason is the low price that wool has ruled at for several years past, enabling our manufacturers to use a finer quality of wool, at a very low figure, and these goods do not require washing. Some may think they absorb just as much dirt without showing it, but they do not. Cotton warp goods of the present day are so cheap that sold almost as cheap as calico used to be sold for. But let clean wool again run up to $1 and over and calico would be more in demand. It might be in its form and undergo the more fascinating name of sateen, which is the same fabric with the same material and process of printing, only it is wove on three, four, or five harness, which enables the manufacturer to make what we call a warp or sateen fabric. It is woven in the parlance, "quarter sateen"--both these fabrics take their name from the method or manner of weaving. Sateen is wove on sixteen harness, with fifteen threads up and down in the loom, and the sateen is wove on four harness, usually with three warp threads up every time a filling pick goes in. All observers will have noticed that sateen will not hold dirt, and will repel all kinds of dirt, although silk in other weaves, such as gros-grains, will catch and hold, not only dust, but any foreign substance. Cotton does not have the repelling power of silk, because it is not so lustrous, but is a quick absorber of moisture, and has an equal affinity for dirt.

A Kansas Tornado. New York Graphic: "One July night," continued the tall man, "I had my wheat stalks cut and the wind was blowing where he and his wife are spending a few weeks; he having been called back to the Valley by the death of his sister's two children, both of whom have died within a week. Sheriff Garrison, of Harrison county, attended last week a reunion of the Garrison family at Waverly, Iowa. There were five present, he being the youngest. The eldest brother, who was present, is seventy-five years of age. Some of the family had not met for nearly thirty years. A Steeper "All Broke Up." Patrick McGowan, one of the workmen on the new county court house, on Saturday strolled into Bayliss park, and after sitting on a bench for some little time concluded to lie down on the bench and rest until time to resume his work at 1 o'clock. He says the watchman then ordered a revolver and asked where the park which order he quickly obeyed under the circumstances. He thought about trying to prosecute the watchman.

"Where's the wheat?" "I looked out of the window, too, and stranger, I saw the most remarkable sight I ever saw. There wasn't a grain of wheat within a mile of us. There wasn't a remnant of my barn. My barnyard was gone, the horse, the cows, and even the pigs were gone. I got dressed and walked out the door. The place was changed, stranger--changed in a single night. My house setting in a garden by the side of a creek. There was a new barn in the yard, some red cows--mine were white; some of the pigs--mine were black; and instead of what there was the all-right stack of cornstalks you ever looked at. I thought at first I was dreaming, and asked my wife to kick me, but I wasn't. About breakfast time some neighbors came in and asked where Mr. Jones was. I never heard of him. "He used to live here," they said. "He lived here last night."

When I told them of the crash and the rocks, and they said they must have been struck by a tornado. I asked where I was, and they said I was in Iard county, which was fifty miles south of where I went to bed. Sure enough they were right. The strange part of it was the house wasn't hurt a bit. The roof even didn't leak. The neighbors said it was a visitation of Providence, and the place belonged to me. But that wasn't all, stranger. About a year after, I heard from some of my old neighbors that Jones' house had been moved right up to where my old house stood, by the same blinding wind. We both concluded to stay where we were, and divided any trouble on that account. I've been away three months, and can't exactly say where I do live now, but I expect I am still at the old stand."

No Uncertainty. There is no uncertainty about the effect of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No one need to suffer a single hour if they will take one or two doses of it.

Imaginary Ills. A Philadelphia physician says that a great deal of what passes for heart disease is only mild dyspepsia, that nervousness is commonly a sign of indigestion, and that two-thirds of the so-called malaria is nothing but laziness. Imagination, he says, is responsible for a multitude of ills and he gives as an instance the case of a clergyman who after preaching a sermon would take a teaspoonful of sweetened water, and doze off like a babe, under the impression that it was a bona fide sedative.
