

THE DAILY BEE.
COUNCIL BLUFFS.
SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7.
OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET.
Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at ten cents per week.
H. W. THAYER, Manager.
TELEPHONE:
Business Office, No. 21.
Night Editor, No. 21.

MINOR MENTION.

New York Plumbing company.
Summer clothing, cheap at Reiter's.
Mid-summer goods cheap at Reno's.
Special inducements offered buyers by Beno.

The very best cabinets at $3.00 each, at Gorham's.
Only $2.50 per doz. for first class cabinet photo's at Schmidt's, 220 Main St.
Cabinet photographs $3 per dozen at Sheraden's, 317 Broadway, for 60 days only.

Public services in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:30. Seats free.
All cordially invited.

The night police force with their families went to the lake yesterday afternoon, for a merry-making and the sportive bath.

The gay lines of the government building are being taken down preparatory to taking down the derrick, the stone work having been completed.

The Council Bluffs Insurance company flies its pennant high since the Neola fire.
It was the first company to jump up out of the ash heap, and pay losses.

The regular meeting of Y. M. C. A.
Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be held in the pavilion instead of their rooms.
Meeting conducted by Major Bell.

Barnum's first advertising car, with a force of a dozen men, is in the city, pursuing the hounds. The men are making headquarters at the Pacific house.

South Omaha parties were here yesterday looking after bottom property. It looks as if the day was not far distant when a wagon bridge will be announced, and promptly go looking.

Prof. Kugler, the noted singer who created so much enthusiasm at the assembly at Clear Lake, will lead the singing for the gospel meetings in the pavilion here, commencing next Monday evening.

The Evangelistic meetings conducted by Major Bell are increasing in interest.
They are held in the chapel of the Baptist church at 3 p. m. and in the pavilion at 8 p. m. Five Christian churches are especially interested in this work.

Pearl street from Broadway to the junction with Main street will now be more generally traveled than Main street.
Such is the general prediction, the wooden paving being said to drive over than the granite.

Professor Edward McKay Goodwin, of Raleigh, N. C., who was one of the executive party of professors to the de-cayed and dumb institutes of this country, has been engaged as one of the teachers in the institute of this city. He arrived here yesterday.

Three rather tony young men got into a wordy confab on lower Broadway, yesterday, and were drawn in by the meshes of the law. They were booked as disturbers of the peace, giving their names as John Kessel, J. N. Roberts and B. F.
Allison. They put up wealth for their appearance in court this morning.

Yesterday Captain Anderson, of the mercantile police, saw two young men on the street who, to his eye, answered the description of two who were wanted for the robbery of Snyder's house. He took them to headquarters for investigation, and they quickly established their identity, one being a young physician who had come to the city to get registered, and the other a friend of his.

The Council Bluffs Herald is howling about the fact that the city did not work on having a newspaper of office and job office, one of the oldest and best book manufacturers in the west.
This is a surprise to many, for it was some time ago publicly announced that Morehouse & Co. had purchased the Herald bindery, and it has since then been running as an independent concern.
The Council Bluffs Herald is no bindery,
and its claim seems rather cheeky.

Go to the New York Plumbing company for garden hose. They warrant all they sell. Opera house block.

Pacific house recently renovated. Cool rooms; money saved; comforts gained.

Rather Cowardly.
The Nonpareil sought yesterday to still further aggravate the White family and engender further bitterness by stating that White was in jail on account of the assault on Anderson. The young man is not and has not been locked up one moment, and there is no probability that he will be. The other insinuations thrown out by that paper are almost beneath notice. It is expected that today another affidavit will be filed, showing that the woman who claims to have been so grossly insulted by Anderson did not apply for further employment in the family. The affair has been pretty well put up at already, and it seems that the public can well judge of the facts without any such public lectures as the Nonpareil yesterday sought to give the woman who has suffered enough already. If the Nonpareil wants to publicly lecture somebody it should lecture a full-grown man, rather than pitch onto a woman.

Kirkland, the jeweler, has removed to 323 Broadway, Singer office.

Fine pasture, plenty of water and good attention for 200 head of stock about five miles north of Broadway and Main street.
Inquire of L. P. Judson, No. 629 Sixth avenue, or Charles Palmer at pasture on lime kiln road.

Personal Paragraphs.
W. H. Laub, a Denison prominent, was at the Ogden yesterday.
S. I. King, the Logan legal light, was
at the Ogden yesterday.
J. C. Abbott, of Wilton, Ia., was registered at the Pacific yesterday.
M. F. Krohn and family have gone to Chillicothe, Mo., on a brief visit.
Colonel McKissick, of the Washburn railway, left yesterday for St. Louis.
Dr. S. Belmont, of Glenwood, appeared before the medical board yesterday.
Miss May McKenzie and brother, of Huron, D. T., are in the city visiting.
Harry P. Denton, of Chardon, O., is in the city visiting his uncle, George Metcalf.

A. W. Courson, the hale and happy missionary of the carriage factory of Hiram W. Davis & Co., is in the city.
Frank D. Hoggaboom, one of the most enterprising young merchants of Wahoo, Neb., was here yesterday. He saw his wife safely started on an eastern trip and then returned to business.

Dr. Harvey and Dr. Van Ness of Neola, under the kindly guidance of Mayor Riley Clark of that place, came to the Bluffs yesterday and promptly registered with the state board of medical examiners.

John Beno & Co. offer big inducements in all lines now.

Visit Beno and see the sights.

Try it. Best Cream Soda in the city 5c per glass at Palmer's, No. 12 Main st.

BOLD BAD MEN IN THE BLUFFS

A Business Man Roused From Sleep and Robbed by a Burglar.

ATTACKED BY HIGHWAYMEN.

The Merry Doings at the Beach and on the Lake—The Pop Ordinance Working Poorly—Personal and Minor Mention.

BOLD MIDNIGHT VISITOR.

A Masked Robber Demands and Receives J. R. Snyder's Money.
About 8 o'clock yesterday morning a thief entered the residence of J. R.
Snyder, No. 242 South Seventh street, by a window and got away with $50.

The Snyder family were quietly sleeping, when suddenly they were aroused by a strange noise, and on arising discovered a man just getting in at the north window of the room on the ground floor in which Mr. and Mrs. Snyder were sleeping, they having changed their sleeping room recently, giving up their bed chamber to guests.

The thief, who had a half mask on, boldly walked up to the bed and snatched of Mr. Snyder the whereabouts of his wealth, jewelry, etc., telling him at the same time not to speak above a whisper and to turn his head in another direction and not look at him.
After appropriating the money, the thief stepped out of the window, leaving the Snyder family in a state of alarm.

The thief, who had a half
mask on, boldly walked up to the
bed and snatched of Mr. Snyder the
whereabouts of his wealth, jewelry, etc.,
telling him at the same time not to speak
above a whisper and to turn his head in
another direction and not look at him.
After appropriating the money, the thief
stepped out of the window, leaving the
Snyder family in a state of alarm.

The regular meeting of Y. M. C. A.
Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be held
in the pavilion instead of their rooms.
Meeting conducted by Major Bell.

Barnum's first advertising car, with a
force of a dozen men, is in the city,
pursuing the hounds. The men are making headquarters at the Pacific house.

South Omaha parties were here yester-
day looking after bottom property. It
looks as if the day was not far distant
when a wagon bridge will be announced,
and promptly go looking.

Prof. Kugler, the noted singer who
created so much enthusiasm at the assembly at Clear Lake, will lead the singing for the gospel meetings in the pavilion here, commencing next Monday
evening.

The Evangelistic meetings conducted
by Major Bell are increasing in interest.
They are held in the chapel of the Baptist church at 3 p. m. and in the pavilion at 8 p. m. Five Christian churches are
especially interested in this work.

Pearl street from Broadway to the
junction with Main street will now be
more generally traveled than Main street.
Such is the general prediction, the
wooden paving being said to drive over
than the granite.

Professor Edward McKay Goodwin, of Raleigh, N. C., who was one of the executive party of professors to the de-
cayed and dumb institutes of this country,
has been engaged as one of the teachers in
the institute of this city. He arrived here yesterday.

Three rather tony young men got into
a wordy confab on lower Broadway, yester-
day, and were drawn in by the meshes
of the law. They were booked as dis-
turbers of the peace, giving their names
as John Kessel, J. N. Roberts and B. F.
Allison. They put up wealth for their
appearance in court this morning.

Yesterday Captain Anderson, of the
mercantile police, saw two young
men on the street who, to his
eye, answered the description of
two who were wanted for the robbery
of Snyder's house. He took them to
headquarters for investigation, and they
quickly established their identity, one
being a young physician who had come
to the city to get registered, and the
other a friend of his.

The Council Bluffs Herald is howling
about the fact that the city did not
work on having a newspaper of
office and job office, one of the oldest
and best book manufacturers in the west.
This is a surprise to many, for it was
some time ago publicly announced that
Morehouse & Co. had purchased the
Herald bindery, and it has since then
been running as an independent concern.
The Council Bluffs Herald is no bindery,
and its claim seems rather cheeky.

Go to the New York Plumbing company for garden hose. They warrant all
they sell. Opera house block.

Pacific house recently renovated. Cool
rooms; money saved; comforts gained.

Rather Cowardly.
The Nonpareil sought yesterday to still
further aggravate the White family and
engender further bitterness by stating
that White was in jail on account of the
assault on Anderson. The young man is
not and has not been locked up one
moment, and there is no probability that he will be. The other insinuations thrown
out by that paper are almost beneath notice. It is expected that today another
affidavit will be filed, showing that the
woman who claims to have been so grossly
insulted by Anderson did not apply for
further employment in the family. The
affair has been pretty well put up at
already, and it seems that the public can
well judge of the facts without any such
public lectures as the Nonpareil yester-
day sought to give the woman who has
suffered enough already. If the Nonpareil
wants to publicly lecture somebody
it should lecture a full-grown man, rather
than pitch onto a woman.

Kirkland, the jeweler, has removed to 323 Broadway, Singer office.

Fine pasture, plenty of water and good
attention for 200 head of stock about five
miles north of Broadway and Main street.
Inquire of L. P. Judson, No. 629 Sixth
avenue, or Charles Palmer at pasture on
lime kiln road.

Personal Paragraphs.
W. H. Laub, a Denison prominent, was
at the Ogden yesterday.
S. I. King, the Logan legal light, was
at the Ogden yesterday.
J. C. Abbott, of Wilton, Ia., was registered at the Pacific yesterday.
M. F. Krohn and family have gone to Chillicothe, Mo., on a brief visit.
Colonel McKissick, of the Washburn railway, left yesterday for St. Louis.
Dr. S. Belmont, of Glenwood, appeared
before the medical board yesterday.
Miss May McKenzie and brother, of Huron, D. T., are in the city visiting.
Harry P. Denton, of Chardon, O., is in the city visiting his uncle, George Met-
calf.

A. W. Courson, the hale and happy missionary of the carriage factory of Hiram
W. Davis & Co., is in the city.
Frank D. Hoggaboom, one of the most
enterprising young merchants of Wahoo,
Neb., was here yesterday. He saw his
wife safely started on an eastern trip and
then returned to business.

Dr. Harvey and Dr. Van Ness of Neola,
under the kindly guidance of Mayor
Riley Clark of that place, came to the
Bluffs yesterday and promptly registered
with the state board of medical examiners.

John Beno & Co. offer big inducements
in all lines now.

Visit Beno and see the sights.

Try it. Best Cream Soda in the city 5c
per glass at Palmer's, No. 12 Main st.

Frank Miller, and J. H. Weist, of Omaha.
The order of dancing was quite unique, as will be seen by the program: "what's drille, 'corn' polka, 'oat' waltz, 'eye' lancers, 'barley' schottische, 'white' wing' quadrille, 'Manawa' ripple, 'our' girls' polka, 'moonlight' waltz.

Perfectly satisfactory accommodations at $2.00 a day at the Pacific house. Give it a trial and be convinced.

Fruits, Confectionery and cigars, best in the market always in stock. Frank W. Herrell, 224 Broadway.

TWO ROBBERS BOLD.

They Attack a Horseman With a Club, But Fail to Get Any Booty.
Charles Davis hired a party of Land & Days Thursday night to go home, about three miles out in the country. Just after he had crossed the Mosquito creek, two men sprang from the roadside suddenly.
One of them grabbed the pony's head and the other man grabbed him, and sought to pull him out of the saddle. Not succeeding in this one of the men struck at him with a club. The club hit him on the left arm and across the back, and as it came down struck the pony's back with such force as to cause the animal to give a frightened jump and start to run. The men let go their hold, and the frightened animal speeded off, carrying a no less frightened rider. The purpose of the attack was clearly robbery, and the boldness of the attack indicates that they were desperate characters. He was inable to give a clear description of the fellows, but the police took with them the club which they got and started on the hunt for them. At last accounts the search had availed nothing.

The "Pop" License.
The saloon men are very slow in the payment of licenses under the pop ordinance. The city clerk states that only two or three have paid their July license, and none have paid for August, while there are seven still delinquent for June. The city has been making threats to close it, those who do not pay, but these threats have been heard so often that no one pays much heed to them any longer. It is now predicted that the council will at its meeting next Monday evening, make some bold move which will result in either prompt pay or prompt closing. There are many complications arising from the "pop" ordinance, and as the license was recognized as a sort of compromise measure, the citizens who extorted for a moment the failure to do so is fast getting the council and many of the citizens in favor of some more heroic treatment.

The policy of "put up or shut up" is being urged, and unless the licenses are promptly paid the prediction is made that the city will take some steps which will be less favorable to the open saloon than the "pop" ordinance.

To-Night's Race.
The second race for the Cary-Thompson cup will take place this evening. The boats are to be in line at 6 o'clock so as to make the finish before the wind goes down. Captains will report at the Manhattan beach dock at 5 o'clock to draw positions. Those wishing to see a very pretty sight, and if the wind favors, an exciting race, should be on hand in season.
It is pleasant to go down as early as 4 o'clock and have a basket lunch on the boat or on shore, then when you have had your bath and eaten your lunch you can enjoy the race and get home early.
Bathing during this cool evening air is very pleasant before the sun sets. Then the air, as well as the water, is warm.

The course for the race will be the same as that on Thursday evening.

Monday's Shell Race.
The race between the heavy and light weights of the Omaha Rowing association in four-oared shells boats to come off on Monday evening on Lake Manawa will be attended by many persons from Omaha as the Union Pacific road will run a special train, leaving Omaha at 5:15 o'clock and run to the Washburn crossing on the road to Mark's landing about three-quarters of a mile from the lake.
Cargill will take passengers down to the landing.

The light weight crew is to have red clothes with Tison, stroke and captain; Morris, No. 2; Allen, No. 3; Hudson, bow.
The heavy weight crew are to wear blue and gold. Connor, stroke; Wilcox, No. 2; Touzalin, No. 3; Brown, bow and captain.

Boys were last evening put out by Messrs. Odell Bros. & Co., marking out the course to be rowed over, on which will be flags placed.

MORLACCHI.
The Strange Life, Marriage and Death of the Famous Dancer.

Nyck Morlacchi in the New York World:
Last Saturday a week ago died in a little New England town a ballet dancer whose life in a great measure answers the oft-repeated question about a class of women whose private lives are popularly held to be one exposure.

Giuseppina Morlacchi was celebrated in her time, and as she was born in 1813, that time was not so long ago. Why, it was only so far back as 1873, that she appeared at the grand opera house here in that famous production of "The Tempest," which turned Clifton Taylors hair gray and made the English stockholders of Erie shares squall. Then she was a stage queen. In the night of her beauty and flash of her power she had every path of a successful stage queen open to her.

I find that the records and the traditions agree as to her exemplary character, her exceptional probity, her marked individuality, and her rare sense of honor and justice. Isn't this delicious in a ballet dancer?

Among the herd of admirers while she was playing at the Grand Opera house was the generous, reckless, and somewhat babyish Jim Fisk, the after Mikado of West Side Saturday. He had everything but his own money to be a Cressus.
He only lacked discretion to be a Maecenas. One night he went to Morlacchi as she was waiting to go on, and vamped a diamond ring on her finger.
After the performance she sent for him and handed the ring back to him.

"O, it's real," said Fisk. "O, bother, you know it's the first water and worth $5,000."

"Bah!" said Morlacchi, with a shrug.
"I can earn that much with one of my toes."

The confused Mikado went to the front of the house, and running against Cliff Taylors, he remarked, when he had got his breath: "There's a good woman that a bad man can light for." Of course, he meant a bad man who had the courage to risk his own neck and the neck of his wife.

When the "Devil's Auction" was produced here she was the chief attraction.
In 1869 she made "The Midsummer-Night's Dream" at Salway's in Boston.
Then, against her own wishes, she played the "French Spy," and in 1871 was with the Majestics.

It was in Chicago that she first met Texas Jack and fell in love with him.
This strange alliance appears to have been the result of genuine affection, and the premiere who had enthralled Turin, Genoa, Lisbon, and held the gilded youth of London in her fetters, fell into the American snare. They were married, and on her part at least the relationship is said to have been one of unwavering devotion and fidelity. The eccentricity and irregularity of her husband cost her many a pang, but she clung to him.

When he died in 1871, for which she was there. She put up with every discomfort, left a comfortable home, roughed it, and stood by him all through the troubles which ended in his sickness and death, and hers were the hands that closed his eyes.

After that she retired to a little New England town and lived her widowhood in a quiet and unobtrusive way.

Some of the stories of her independent character are both refreshing and curious. On one occasion, when playing in a spectacular piece, she saw the property-man carelessly break one of the ballet-girls' heads, for which she was charged $2, and the management deducted it from the girl's salary in spite of her protests. Indignant Miss Morlacchi sent for the manager and told him she had seen the property-man break the helmet. She insisted that the girl's money should be refunded. When the manager refused she threw up her engagement, and leaving the theatre, took the girl with her.

During the Fisk regime at the Grand opera house all the efforts to entrap her into the Bohemian orgies utterly failed.
To all the polite invitations to supper she variably sent a polite disclaimer. She saved her money, invested it carefully, and when her husband died she retired on a competence of her own with a clear record. Mr. John M. Burke, who was for a long time her manager, went to Billerica to attend the funeral last Monday.

He tells us that the entire town turned out. In the church where the services were held, were the Methodist, Baptist, and Catholic elements. Some of the stores were closed. All denominations mourned her. The community honored her memory.

This is pretty good for a ballet-dancer in New England, isn't it?

It seems that she managed somehow to live the prejudice to pieces. She must have done it, I suppose, with her character instead of her ability. It's remarkable, I've tried in a clumsy way to make it so monumental.

Croup, coughs, colds, promptly cured by Red Star Cough Cure. Twenty-five cents.

NILSSON'S FUTURE HOME.
The Furnishing and Decoration of Her Husband's Home at Madrid.

Despite the ecclesiastical obstacles which have caused a slight hitch in the arrangements of this late Mrs. M. Nilsson, the preparations for the event are going merrily forward, and when in due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that could contribute to their comfort awaiting them in Madrid, where it is now said they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to Madrid to see that his plans for the furnishing and decoration of his prospective home were faithfully carried out. The decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to
Madrid to see that his plans for the fur-
nishing and decoration of his prospective
home were faithfully carried out. The
decorations of this late Mrs. Ni-
lsson, the preparations for the event are
going merrily forward, and when in
due time the much-talked of knot is tied
the giddy pair will find everything that
could contribute to their comfort await-
ing them in Madrid, where it is now said
they will make their future home. Count
Miranda, according to the correspondent
of a Paris newspaper, the veracity of
whose statements cannot for a moment
be doubted, has made occasional trips to Madrid to see that his plans for the