It is not such a cold day for Ireland that it could not afford to dispense with its bloody Ulster.

GENERAL VAN WYCK has thrown down the glove. Who will pick it up for a square and open tilt?

Church is now saying "how" very freely through the First district. The answer should be "anything but Howe."

By the time the New York grand jury gets through indicting city officials the local democracy will be as short of political heroes as they profess to be short of funds.

The Tory "member of parliament," whose cable letter appears in every Sunday Bee, thinks Gladstone has destroyed the liberal party.

MR. BAYARD would make a master stroke of diplomacy in demanding the resignations of Minister Jackson and Consul Brigham in Mexico.

AN inveterate bribe-taker, an ineffectual trickster, a man whose red no mean ticket would take even with a bond attached, is not the candidate whom the republicans of the First district can afford to nominate for the seat in congress now occupied by Judge Weaver.

JOHN CUDMORE, 24 years old and unmarried, was choked to death on Sunday by a piece of meat lodging in his throat while eating his breakfast at a hotel in Hancock, N. Y.

SENATOR VAN WYCK'S cordial welcome from his constituents wherever he goes is gall and wormwood to the monopoly press.

VOTERS of the First district who will be kept fully posted about the record of Church Howe between now and convention time will scarcely dare to stultify their party traditions and their own manhood by supporting the unscrupulous trickster and political mountebank for congressional honors.

It isn't every candidate for public office who can confidently appeal to the citizens of an entire state for endorsement on a record open alike to the inspection of friend and foe.

The department of agriculture at Washington has furnished its crop report for August and the "bulls" are jubilant over the depressing figures.

Wisdom Should Win. There was a world of meat in honest Michael Davitt's conservative and sensible speech before the National league convention at Chicago on Saturday.

Nebraska is doing much better than her neighbors. The crop reports collected steadily by the Bee show that small grain is a good average and that with a continuance of the present style of weather corn will make a very respectable showing.

Senator Van Wyck's Appeal. Senator Van Wyck makes an earnest and temperate appeal to the voters of Nebraska to voice their preference for United States senator through the ballot box.

In order to give effect to this provision of the constitution, a general election law was passed by the legislature of 1870, which makes the canvass of returns for the United States senator mandatory upon judges and clerks of election.

The appeal which Senator Van Wyck makes brings up the senatorial issue squarely. It is in the nature of a challenge for other candidates to come forward, present their claims to the people and take a positive stand upon the vital issues of the day.

While the legislature will elect the senator, their functions will be very much like the presidential electors who simply seal the decree of the people. It is well that the first electoral college should be the choice of United States senator to be made in Nebraska through the appeal of Senator Van Wyck.

Give Them a Chance. The Northwestern road has decided to grant the people of the Elkhorn valley decent facilities for dealing with the Omaha stock yards.

ALL is quiet along the Rio Grande. Not a sound is heard except the fairy footfalls of the gentle Geronimo as he leads Miles' forces a wild goose chase into the mountains of Sonora.

SOME weeks ago Church Howe expressed the desire that the Bee would "keep its hands off him." Church probably knows more about the Bee now than he did then, but he isn't as good looking.

CANDIDATES are the work of conventions and conventions are the work of the popular vote. Voters who desire to place in nomination men who will do honor to their constituents are responsible for the results of the primaries.

To the Electors of Nebraska. In a country governed by the people for the people, the highest prerogative of the elector is the free and untrammelled choice of the public servants who administer the government.

Capital is proverbially conservative. The man with dollars saved by hard work is the citizen who examines most closely the probable bearings of every social movement on his possessions.

The Philadelphia workingman is as conservative as the capitalist. Philadelphia now has double the number of dwelling houses of any other city of its size in the world.

Omaha is rapidly furnishing another illustration of the influence of home owning. The peaceful quiet of the city during the late labor troubles was largely due to the heavy interests which the workingmen have in the preservation of social order in the city.

Nebraska's Fortunes. Keith county is short on stock hogs. "Too much rain" is the cry of farmers around Arapahoe.

STATE AND TERRITORY. Nebraska's Fortunes. Keith county is short on stock hogs.
