

SHE HATED HER RIVAL.

A MECHANIC DISAPPEARS

Population of Omaha—Sheet Letter Envelopes—A New Workingman's Paper—The Bridge—A Full Pocketbook.

A Jealous Young Wife.

Sunday afternoon a young woman named Lisa Woods, attracted the attention of a large number of people at the Bohemian picnic at North Bend by her tears and passionate appeals to a young man whom she claimed to be her husband, to shun the fascination and blandishments of another girl and be true to her.

DR. MERCER AND THE M. P.

Two Sides to the Vexed Question of Bridging.

With reference to the building of the bridge by the Missouri Pacific over Mercer avenue, which Dr. Mercer has engaged an eminent statesman to do, he does not oppose the building of the same, his opposition being directed against the putting piles in and obstructing the streets.

A FULL WALLER

Found by Joseph Bowman, an M. P. Brakeman.

Saturday morning Joe Bowman, one of the courteous and accommodating brakemen on the Missouri Pacific road, found a pocketbook under the foot-rest of one of the chair cars in the morning.

OMAHA'S POPULATION.

Seems to Be Not Far from 80,000 People.

Mr. Evers, superintendent of the letter carriers of this city, has made a directory of his own by cutting the directory proper into halves and interleaving each part. On the list of printed names he has made any change necessary by the removal of any citizen who resides in the city through the postoffice.

A Protest from Civilian Musicians.

OMAHA August 23.—To the Editor of the BEE: In your issue of yesterday morning I see that the Military band has accompanied the turners to their picnic at North Bend. They have received the engagement because they underbid all other organizations of this city.

Looking for Stroud.

Marshal Cummings has received a circular letter from the Louisville & Nashville railroad which says that that corporation will offer $300 reward for the capture of Ben F. Stroud, who is under indictment for slandering William Newbold, at Russellville, Ky., on the 19th of July, 1886.

A Prying Postmaster.

Postal Inspector Pangloss has gone to the Yellowstone National park to investigate charges against one of the postmasters in that domain, who is accused of tampering with other people's mail. The charges have been preferred by responsible people, who claim to have positive proof of what they say.

PLACE, WHY COULD NOT THIS PRINCIPLE BE MADE APPLICABLE TO ALL OTHER TRADES AND PROFESSIONS?

What right has the government to say that because I earn a livelihood as a musician that it can place its soldiers in competition against me? The government was not founded for this purpose. It is not intended that a struggle for existence already hard should be made harder by the government placing its soldiers who are fully cared for in competition against its citizens.

A NEW PAPER.

The "Omaha Times," formerly "Progress," was yesterday purchased by the "Omaha Truth" Printing and Publishing company, a company organized from among the members of the Knights of Labor in this city. All accounts due the paper are payable to the new company, which starts out with every assurance of success.

The Other Cable Line.

Superintendent Smith, of the street car company, said yesterday morning, in reply to a reporter's inquiries, that the material for its cable line was on the way from the east and was expected here in a few days.

Bringing Home the Injured.

The BEE of last Wednesday contained a reference to the serious fall of two painters in which one, named by Hunt & Ryby, of this city, is engaged in the new depot of the Missouri Pacific at Lincoln. The names of the men have since been learned as James Daugherty and W. V. Craven.

Special Letter Delivery.

The success which has attended the introduction of the special letter delivery has not been as pronounced as people had expected it would. The system has been introduced in only a fraction of all the offices of the country, and for that reason it is claimed has not been given a satisfactory test.

Exposition Paintings.

The managers of the Omaha inter-state exposition have recently been called on by the eminent artist L. C. Earle and made arrangements with him to display, at the forthcoming entertainment a number of his best pieces.

Wants the Lots.

Yesterday morning Mare A. Upton, secretary of the South Omaha Land syndicate, brought suit to compel Phebe E. Wright and Joseph Damon to accept from him $78.58 in full payment of lots three and four, of block eighty-four, South Omaha, according to a proposition made by defendants and accepted by the plaintiff, but now opposed by both Phebe Wright and Mr. Damon.

Commissioner's Doings.

The county commissioners have decided to advertise for plans and estimates for the new county hospital, the erection of which they will submit to the vote of the people. They have also awarded the contract for the grading of the Military road on the first hill east of Irvington comprising about 5,000 yards, to M. F. Donnelly at thirteen cents a yard. The commissioners have gone to Elkton.

POINTERS ON THE EXPOSITION.

Notes on the Event—A Fire Company. Preparations are being actively pushed for the inter-state exposition which will open here during fair week.

The east-end of the gallery has been closely boarded up in order to furnish a room for the proper exhibition of oil-paintings. The interior will be painted a dark maroon color, and thus by the aid of a gas light, the paintings will be exhibited under the best possible conditions.

Educate Your Sons.

Endow them with a legacy that cannot be squandered and send them to the expense of their education. An institution now in its forty-third year, and unsurpassed for its advantages to impart to your sons and wards a thorough and finished education, either in a thorough commercial (business) course, which is a distinguishing feature of Notre Dame university, or in a full course, which comprises classic, law, science, mathematics and music.

Those Wild Steers at Ames.

To the Editor of the BEE: In your issue of yesterday morning I notice a special, dated Fremont, August 22, in which the following statements are made: That the Standard Cattle company at its feeding plant at Ames, Dodge county, has met with a "serious reverse."

Success.

The most successful thing in life is success. A casual visit to the office of the Union Sewing Machine, 209 North Sixteenth, convinced a representative of the BEE of the fact that they were making a success of their business.

S. S. Auchmoody, deputy county clerk, and wife, have returned from a pleasant trip of two weeks to Salt Lake City and vicinity. During his absence, Miss Mattie Needham tended to his desk in the county clerk's office.

He Has Disappeared.

Lewis Gordon, a plasterer living in West Omaha near Isaac & Sheldon's addition, disappeared from his home last night about 9:30 o'clock and has not yet been heard from. He was a sober and industrious man and his disappearance is unaccountable.
