The Hastings Win Again.

The grand stand at Athletic park was very sparsely settled at the opening of he ball game between the Union Pacifics and Hastings yesterday afternoon, and was occupied only by friends of the visitors at the close of the game. The few Omahans who were present left in disgust before the game was half finished. Dwyer, Dugan and Brandt of the home team were absent. Withnell, Putnam and Toner, of the Athletics, filled the vacancies. The vacancies were not disturbed in the least. Contrary to expectation, Salisbury was in the box, but pitched an indifferent game. The Hastings had Bauer, late of the St. Louis Marcons, in the box and his work was very effective. He doest not pitch a speedy ball, but downs them all in head work. He has a habit of giving the batter a red hot straight and swift ball just out of reach and then sending a dew drop in the desired direction. The average batter catches the dew drop for a high fly that hardly ever gets beyond the in field and affords many opportunities for double plays. The Union Pacifies went to bat and went out in rotation on high flies. The Hastings came in and scored three runs on as many errors by the home team. In the second inning the home team got a goose egg. The Hastings went to the bat and made five runs without an effort. All they had to do was to eatch the ball for a light hit and then run to first, while the home and then run to first, while the home team were furnishing amusement for the spectators by pawing the air wildly or sprawling around on the ground in a frantic effort to catch a crippled fly or to head off a dyspeptic daisy cutter. In the third inning the home team made two scores by a series of wild throws on the part of the visitors, and succeeded in scratching another tally later in the game. The visitors had but little trouble in running up a score of 18, when they got tired and let up for the rest of the game, being satisfied with keeping the Union Pacifics from scoring.

The game closed with a score of 18 to 3 in favor of the visitors; It is announced that a second game will be played be-tween the clubs to day. If the Union Pacifies will get seven or eight ball players, or even go to work themselves, they may be able to again attract the crowds that favored them earlier in the LOCAL BALL NOTES.

'Home Run" Jones, of Binghamton,
(N. Y.) who has contracted with the Union Pacifics, has recovered from his sick spell and is ready to come on as soon as he is given an assurance of a job in Omaha. The manager of the Union Pacifics ought to get him here at once.

A Hastings photographer came down yesterday and took a group photo of the two nines just before the game was called. It was the only part of the game in which the home team appeared to any advantage.

There will be a big series of ball games at Grand Island during the G. A. R. en-campment this week. The Hastings, St. Joe, Leadville and Lincoln clubs will be among the contestants.

Hayes, the new pitcher, was unable to work vesterday, having worn himself out in two games on Thursday and Friday.

The Wilkes-Phyllis Race. The special race which has been arranged to take place at the driving park between Harry Wilkes and Phyllis for a purse of $3,(0) is attracting the attention of turfmen throughout the state and in lowa, and will form a very attractive and drawing feature of the fair. The Lincoln Journal of yesterday made a very sickly attempt to draw attention from this race by the publication of the following:

A little item appeared in the Journal yesterday stating that the horse Harry Wilkes would trot for $3,000 at the Omaha fair. It is now ascertained that Harry is under contract for the Illinois state fair at Chicago at the time of the Omaha fair, and the advertisement of him to be at Omaha proves only a scheme to catch suckers.

The secretary of the Omaha Fair and Exposition Association holds a most excellent contract with the owners of Harry Wilkes, the best trotter in match races in the world, and Phyllis, who never fails to get her share of big money, agreeing to trot a match race in Omaha September 9th, 1886, and our readers may rest assured that these two celebrated horses will be here on the day and date

E. L. Emery left for Des Moines last evening to continue his good work of procuring premium blooded stock for the horses at the coming fair will surpass anything ever held west of the lakes.

Colonel A. H. Forbes received a telegram from Ed Rothery last night dated New York City, 6:20 p. m., stating that the Sullivan-Herald fight was off.

Both Marx and Fitzgerald are in active training and are already nearly down to boxing trim. The contest next Saturday promises to be lively in every particular. Fitzgerald is a married man and travels quite independently. He never makes a match with a man unless he is—confident of victory and he always shows that e nidence by putting up his own money on himself. Marx's great forte is in his staying qualities. Persons who have seen him in New York say that there is no give up Some of the prominent Irishmen in Struck By A Train. The incoming passenger train No. 7 on the Wabash last evening struck a man who was walking on the track about twelve miles east of Council Bluffs. He was thrown down on a trustle work and when the train was stopped and the man was surgically examined it was discovered that his right shoulder blade was broken. his face badly cut and there were bruises all over his body. It was miraculous that he was not killed outright. The injured man gave his name as Mat Boler, his business cattle dealing, and his residence Newark, N. J. He said he was partially deaf which accounts for his not hearing the repeated whistles of the locomotive.

Professor Couch Predicts Cooler Weather for Next Month.

The sub-tropical rain belt that has given rains to the extreme south will retreat south. The first days of the month will give a coast storm (largely wind) along the coast, followed by a storm from the northwest that will move over the mountains. There will occur a series of rain storms from the 3d to the 8th, ending in high and cool north winds that will give frosts to northerly sections about the 9th. The weather in detail for 1886 will approximately be as follows:

Generally clear and calm Fair in the northwest.

Storm forming in the west. Areas of rain and wind storms. West of north winds; showery.

Cloud or rain areas. Cloudy and cooler. High northerly winds.

Northerly areas will have frosts Calms with variable winds.

Falling barometer. Clouds and showers. Clouds, winds and rains. West to north winds.

Calms and variable winds. Clouding for rain.

Cloudy and showery. Drizzling rain.

Clouds and showers Clearing sky. Cloud and haze. Falling Barometer. Clouds and rains.

Rising temperature. Clouding for rain. Heavy rain, Cloudy and showery.

Clearing and warm. High temperature. The rainfall is governed by the winds. The winds are due to the influences that have action upon or against the earth's exterior or atmospheric envelope. These influences are parts of the great energy that moves in the universe. The storms move in belts on a central line curved. This curved line forms the meteorological east and west. South of this central line the winds change by the points of the compass thus; East, southeast, south

The Odorless Sanitary A reporter for the BEE yesterday saw the manner in which the Odorless Sanitary Co. of this city do their work with their novel contrivance. This machine has the appearance of a locomotive boiler on wheels and when in operation acts on the suction plan. The air in the cylinder the running gear, then hose is placed in the spot to be cleansed and the work of its own accord goes on, not allowing the least possible stench. This apparatus nas been in operation in Minneapolis, Boston, Chicago and several other large cities, and is highly spoken of wherever in use. Privy vaults, cess pools, cisterns sinks and drains are cleaned thoroughly quickly and without any odor. All work s done with the odorless pump and the place is disinfected before it is begun, so that there is no odor during the opera tion. The cost is much less than the old barrel system and is far more satisfactory. Several prominent parties in Omaha have had work done by the Odorless Sanitary Co. this week and are very enthusiastic in its praise. The office is located at 1022 Farnam street and the telephone number is 276.

In the past we have been obliged to refuse to do general practice and visit patients at their homes, but, as we shall add to our staff of physicians after August the first, we shall be able to answer all calls in the city or country. The advantages we offer our patrons are: 1st-Being a company of physicians whose interests are mutual, all important cases will have the united skill of the physicians of the institute and consultation whenever necessary without extra charge, or the disadvantages or delays which so often arise from the petty bickerings and quarrels which are common during consultation by rival physicians and of which the patient knows little, but suffers much. 2nd-We furnish, compound and dis pense our own medicines, and they are fresh, pure and active. Our patients do not have to run the risks of ignorant or careless druggists, or have large drug bills to pay, Our office is open day and night, and one or more physicians may be called without delay. We have had years of ex-perience in hospital and private practice, and in the treatment of all kinds and classes of diseases, and shall bring our united skill, ability, knowledge and en-ergy to the aid of every invalid placed under our care. We are confident that our advantages and our success will commend us to every intelligent, thinking person. Our charges are $2 a visit in any part of the city night or day. Big Slip of the Tongue. Two full fledged, all around, washee washee Chinamen were at the depot last night waiting for the west bound train. While engaged in rapid chop stick conversation, a genuine Milesian with a brogue thick enough to line a monitor turret approached and commenced to talk to the two Johns in their native language as if he were born in Canton and cradled in a tea chest. The dulcet stream of words from the Celtie tongue flowed with ratner gurgling sounds over the Tipperary reeds and rushes, and completely demoralized the almond eyed children of the sun.
