

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31. OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week.

MINOR MENTION.

New York Plumbing Co. New fall goals at Reiter's. The very best cabinets at $3 a dozen at Gorham's. Take in the races to-day. Much sport is promised.

The county board of supervisors meets next Monday. One dozen cabinets and a large panel for $3.50 at Schmidt's gallery.

Permit to do was yesterday given to Anderson Herrill and Anna M. Brookman, both of Weston.

W. H. Gardner, of Chicago, has now got control of the Oakland Acorn, and hopes to be able to make it sprout at last.

A horse belonging to Mr. Isaac Miller took a lively whirl down First avenue last evening, but no serious damage was done.

County Clerk Shea was in Avoca yesterday making preliminary arrangements for the opening of court there two weeks from to-day.

In the police court yesterday John Wortman, F. Grover, J. Turner and Louis Olson were fined for petty offenses, drunk, disorderly, etc.

The case of Hall vs. Payne, a controversy over a piece of horse flesh, was on trial in the circuit court yesterday and reached the jury by sundown.

In the circuit court yesterday a divorce was granted in the case of W. H. Wallace vs. Hilda Wallace, desertion being the ground on which the writ was given.

Thompson and White, the two men who fell from a scaffolding on Main street Saturday, are not so badly injured as was at first supposed, and will in a few days be at work as usual.

Mr. Dennis O'Brien, the assistant yardmaster of the C. & Q., at Galesburg, Ill., is in the city on a month's lay off, and before his return will be wedded to Miss Mary Hinkle, of this city.

The peace and dignity of the Superior court were sadly interfered with yesterday by two dogs getting into a fight in the court room, and the dogs being to be thrown down stairs before peace could be restored.

On Thursday evening the members of African Methodist Episcopal church will give a festival in the church parlors. It is for the purpose of trying to lift the church debt.

Wanted—1,000 families to take American Round Washers on two weeks' trial. After a fair trial, if you don't think them worth more than they cost, return to Cooper & Metcalf.

The German-American band of this city will parade the streets of Omaha daily during the forenoon in Keller & Harrie's band wagon, to advertise the races at the Council Bluffs driving park.

An excursion party from Missouri Valley, consisting of about forty ladies and gentlemen, will spend the day in this city. It is their intention of visiting Fairmount park, Lake Manawa and this afternoon the races at the driving park.

In the case of John Dohany vs. Cooke & Morgan the jury has given Mr. Dohany a judgment for $450, the amount claimed. The plaintiff insisted upon the firm paying rent for the store in the opera house block for the full term of the lease although the firm occupied the store but a short time.

The fog on the lake was so thick Saturday night and Sunday morning that the pleasure seekers had some strange experiences. Some sailed and rowed around and around in a circle, and when they found land they were unable to see which way to go to get home.

Charles E. Creed, agent for Flynn's race program, is here, and is preparing to furnish those who attend the races with the nearest and most attractive score cards ever furnished here.

The drivers and riders are to be furnished with colored and numbered score cards so arranged that even an amateur can distinguish the different horses. This adds much to the interest of the races, and the programmes will be in demand by everybody.

It is said that a little stud game has been going on under the grand stand at the race track, and that several have learned by their sorrow that fools and their money are soon parted. There is a little roan which has been sounding since Saturday night, and rumors of a rumper having grown out of the skinning of a sucker. The management of the grounds will speedily put a stop to all this sort of business, and ought to.

The city poll tax collector, Mr. C. J. Beckman, has succeeded in getting $600 to either work out their tax or pay it in cash. He has served 140 notices, and the delinquents who have not seen and satisfied him by the first of September will be sued. When suit is commenced the costs begin to count up, and as nothing is exempt from execution except a man's wife and children, the only way seems to be to settle.

Electric door bells, burglar alarms, and every form of domestic electrical appliances at the New York Plumbing Co.

Personal Paragraphs. Mrs. P. Laey has returned from Colfax Springs. Mrs. G. Robinson and O. M. Brown have returned from the west. Rev. B. P. McMenomy will go to Colfax Springs for the balance of the week.

C. H. Judson, of the Council Bluffs National bank, has returned with his mother from a visit to Chicago. Miss Kate Wickham, of this city, was the honored one of a social gathering at Des Moines the other evening.

Ed Wright, the lightning shot hander and type writer, has come to Burlington to stay until he can get to his home in Iowa. He returned from Dunlap, where he has been spending a good portion of the summer.

A. B. Todd and E. R. Todd, of Plattsmouth, Neb., were in the city yesterday, in company with their brother-in-law, Mr. John Chapman, of Garrettsville, O., who with his wife is making a western tour. The party were the guests of Mr. L. B. Cousins while in the city.

The city has been remarkably free from fires for over two months past, the department not having to lay a line of hose since June 10. Yesterday, shortly after noon, an alarm was sounded, caused by a fire in the roof of Rapp & Allen's restaurant, No. 108 Main street. The alarm was sent in by the district telegraph from Schicantanz's barber shop. The hose carts went flying down Main street, and before they had located the fire the blaze had been put out by the bucket brigade. The fire started from a defective flue.

STABLES OF SPEEDY STEEDS.

Ready To Go Into the Races Which Open To-Day. THE OLD MAN'S DARLING SPEAKS

A Woman Slapped by Her Sixth Husband—A Angry Creditor Hits His Debt—A Brick—A Badly Broken Leg—Various Items.

To Day's Races. The races open this afternoon. Everything indicates that it will be the most interesting and successful meeting ever held here.

The races were seen here such a field of horses and so many speedy ones, and every day there will be rare sport for those who go.

Besides the races there will be an interesting showing of racing dogs, and there will also be a balloon ascension. The programme has been so arranged that there will be no "best day," all the days having special attractions.

The track is in excellent condition, the grounds have been put in excellent shape, and there seems nothing to prevent an exciting and largely attended meeting.

As the entries did not close until 11 o'clock last night no pools were sold. This morning and every day and evening during the race pools will be sold at Matoney's Pacific house sample rooms.

The programme to-day, for an opening day, is one which will, or ought to draw a large crowd. The entries are closed, and this evening show the following horses, all of which will probably start:

One mile dash, all ages—Countess, e. m., C. M. Lamson, Kearney, Neb.; Jim Knave, b. g., D. W. Ross, Kearney, Neb.; Nicholson, b. g., J. E. Nicholson, Council Bluffs; Beeswing, s. m., William Thompson, Council Bluffs; Casteline, br. m., W. B. Scammon.

2 1/2 mile dash—C. P. C., b. g., M. O'Reilly, Kearney, Neb.; St. Nicholas, r. s., J. M. Vail, Victor Springs, Mo.; J. S. Wolf, Cedar Rapids; Edwin Q., s. g., James Smith, Mapleton; White's Blue Bird, s. g., J. W. Squire, No. 101 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

3 1/2 mile dash, trotting—Consul, s. s., Geo. H. Bailey, Fairbury, Neb.; Rowley's Rattler, s. s., C. Rowley, Atlantic; Annie T., e. m., Isaac Dillon, North Platte, Neb.; Frontier, br. s., E. E. Rowley, Tama City, Ia.; Logan Chief, br. g., J. A. Graham, Biggsville, Ill.; Jere L., g. g., James March, Chicago, Ill.; Almeta, e. m., L. W. Sinclair, Salem, Ind.

THE MAIDEN'S STORY. She Claims That One Thousand Dollars of the Missing Money Was Her Own. A few minutes before 9 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Dottie Kline left the Revere house, having previously had her trunk sent to the C. & Q. depot.

She was dressed in a brown striped walking dress of rather heavy material, and wore a jaunty straw hat turned up on one side, it being coquettishly tipped forward over one eye, while she carried a rather large hand satchel, which was well filled, and a suit of baggage, including her luggage. She walked rather rapidly to the C. & Q. depot, where she entered the waiting room awaiting the opening of the ticket office.

A few minutes after her arrival a messenger from the Revere house handed her a telegram from her uncle, telling her to come directly to Kansas City. She soon after took a hack and returned up town to a dressmaking establishment where she left orders for her new dress to be forwarded to her address in Kansas City, and then returned to the depot to await the departure of the Kansas City St. Joe & Council Bluffs train.

Learning that Miss Kline had her own side of the story, which she had never told any one, a BEG man jumped to the hack and called on her to get out. On entering the hack the BEG man introduced himself, but Miss Kline said she did not care to talk of the matter as she had not had a chance heretofore to say what she had to say. The BEG man said she did not care if the correct report was published or not. After some little conversation she finally gave the following account:

I met Mr. Hartzell in one of the parks in Kansas City less than two months ago; he forced the acquaintance and next day called on me at my uncle's home, No. 507 Independence avenue; my uncle keeps a second hand store; I never knew uncle was married, but he had a marshal, but had heard Mr. Hartzell say uncle told him he had been; he kept calling and finally uncle and myself went with him to Lake Minnetonka; I know he did not pay my uncle, as he never had paid mine; yes, uncle had a room next to mine at Minnetonka and Mr. Hartzell roomed down stairs in the hotel, but not until he found out I was in the city, and then he came through which there was a communicating door; we came home about two weeks ago; we were to have been married; he kept putting off for that reason I don't know; on Tuesday, August 23, we were in the room alone and he handed me $1,400 to keep for him until we were married. I put it in my bosom, with $1,000 of my own money, my parents, my uncle and aunt, I kept $400 in my bosom; we left Kansas City for Council Bluffs; I went to sleep in the cars; my dress was full of money, and I had a bag of money; he drove Friday morning; had a rather heavy dress on; it was warm; went up Broadway to Mrs. W. J. Seales, the dressmaker; ordered a dress; returned to the Revere house; later in the day changed my clothes; left the ones I took off on the bed; shortly after I left my room thought of the money; returned and could not find it; was afterward searched at my own suggestion; a member of having seen the money after I left home; I think it would have been very easy for Mr. Hartzell to have quietly taken it out of my bosom when my dress was unpacked and I was asleep in the train; I understand he thinks I have stolen his money, which seems foolish when I was shortly to be married to him; $1,400 of it was mine, as he never had a chance to tell anything about it; he wanted me to do just as he said; May Kline, my aunt, arrived here Saturday night in response to this telegram.

Miss Kline opened her satchel and handed the BEG man the following telegram sent from this city on Friday, the 27th: Robert Keeline, 507 Independence street, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Come to the Revere house.

J. R. HARTZELL. She then stated that Mr. Keeline was the uncle that had been to Minnetonka with him. He's a brother to my aunt and not her husband, she came up to attend our wedding as uncle could not leave; she is home now and will have just telegraphed him to come home; I wanted to get married and told Mr. Hartzell so Sunday; if I marry him at all it should be here where all this trouble has come out; people would then be satisfied about the money lost; Mr. Hartzell and my aunt left Sunday night for home; he left his trunk, as he did not have money enough to pay his board; but he told me he had to borrow money to get home and would return Wednesday.

Upon further inquiry a BEG representative learned that Hartzell left an unpaid board bill at the Revere house, in his trunk, which is fully worth the amount of the bill, is still at the hotel. He is expected back to-day.

It seems Miss Kline started for the train intending to go to Red Oak, where, it is said, Hartzell was to have met her to-morrow and they were to have been married, but the receipt of the telegram from her uncle changed her plans and she took the Kansas City train for home. Before leaving the hotel, however, she paid her hotel bill as well as paying $14 for her dress.

Six Husbands and Still Unhappy. "Doc" Scott and the woman known as Mrs. Ewing were in police court yesterday morning. It was not long ago that they were before the bar on the charge of horribly beating a little boy, a son of Mrs. Ewing. A more sickening sight was never seen there than the bruised and beaten back and arms of the little fellow, but the woman claimed to have done it in the heat of passion, and this left Scott out of it. The woman being a woman, and the mother of the child, was let off with a fine of $25. Yesterday the family appeared again, and this time the woman was not feeling so kindly disposed toward her husband. She showed a scratched and bruised face, and said that he had pounded her. She had had a slight realization of what the little fellow had suffered at her hands. She was hot to have Scott punished to the full extent of the law. Scott admitted striking the woman, but claimed that she had called him filthy names, which so angered him that, in defense of his unsullied reputation, he slapped her. The judge fined him $10. Not being able to pay, he was allowed to take a five days' rest in the county jail. Scott is the sixth husband whom Mrs. Ewing has had, but she does not seem to be able to find one with whom she can live peacefully. She now wants Scott to be forced to give bonds to keep away from her. He says it isn't necessary for him to give bonds to keep away, as he has had enough.

Letting Prisoners Loose. Judge Aylesworth had a night session last evening. Two habeas corpus cases came up for hearing. One was that involving the liberty of Fred Stuber, of Underwood, who was in jail here on a charge of bigamy and awaiting the action of the grand jury. Besides some alleged irregularities in the justice court, it appears that Stuber's wife lives in Ohio and that she does not care to prosecute, and will not come from Ohio into this state. Stuber was accordingly discharged.

The other case was from Glenwood, Mills county. It appeared that an old citizen, Donald Smith, had been sent to jail for thirty days for getting drunk, discharging the license, and assaulting a woman, Mrs. Rolf. It was claimed that there were three or four offenses charged in the same information, and Smith being brought into court before he had got sober ignorantly pleaded guilty to everything and was sentenced on general principles. The justice afterwards tried to get Smith discharged from all, but Sheriff Emmert insisted it would take an order from a higher authority. An order was given by Judge Aylesworth last night and to-day he will walk forth free.

Substantial abstracts of titles and real state loans. J. W. & E. L. Squire, No. 101 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Forcing Pay by Brickbats. Yesterday afternoon two men, both under the influence of drink, got to quarrelling on Broadway, near Vies & Clausen's store. One picked up two bricks and hurled them, one after the other, at his companion. The first brick missed the mark, but the second hit the man on the head, falling him to the ground, and cutting a bloody gash. The brick thrower was at once arrested and gave his name as E. S. Flagler. The victim of his wrath was taken into a doctor's office near by, and the wound was dressed. The doctor found a slight fracture of the skull, and the result of the injury may be serious. The quarrel seems to have arisen over a claim made by Flagler that Thompson owed him a dollar.

Hard and soft coal, wood, lime, cement, etc. Council Bluffs, Iowa, No. 529 Broadway. Telephone No. 136.

The Boys and Cigarettes. There are some indignant parents who are bent on seeing if something cannot be done to keep dealers from selling cigarettes to their boys. Some dealers refuse to sell them to boys, but a few are very willing to do so, no matter how young the boys are. One of the indignant fathers who had notified the dealers not to sell his boy any more, was yesterday seeking advice as to what he could do to stop it. He is thinking of commencing suit against the dealer and making the cigarette business expensive for him. The good sense of some dealers keeps them from encouraging such little fellows to fill their skins with narcotics; but others are reckless and pay no attention to the wishes of the parents. They have no sympathy with the good of the child. An attempt will be made to get the council to take some action in regard to the growing evil.

Highest prices paid for county, town city and school bonds. Odell Bros. & Co., No. 103 Pearl street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

A Leg Broken. Yesterday morning J. F. Williams, who drives a truck for Stewart Bros., met with a serious accident. He was at the Chicago & Northwestern depot when the team became frightened, and starting up quickly, he was thrown from the seat and fell beneath the wheels of his heavy truck, which fortunately was not loaded. The wheels passed over his right leg, causing a compound fracture. He received some slight bruises besides. The team was shortly stopped, no further damage being done. The unfortunate driver was taken to his home, No. 1002 Avenue B, and surgical aid called.

A New Bank. Kimball & Champ, of this city, are arranging to start a bank in Minden, to be conducted in connection with their business here. The bank will probably open for business in the course of thirty days. The firm will put up at once a brick bank building there, the first brick building in Minden. The brick for the building was sent out yesterday, and the contract is let to Wickham Bros.
