They were the Misses Bancker, Hagger, Ferguson and Nelson. Last evening's Globe credits No. 3 with throwing water at the fire yesterday, when No. 1's was the only hose off the reel. Charlie Nicholson says when No. 3 gets water first at a fire below box No. 13, "they will be filies."

Rawley Rauter fourth, Consul fifth. Time The third heat was the prettiest one of the afternoon, though not the fastest. The horses were all in a bunch to the half mile, except Jerry L, who was trailing. As they came along the last quarter they began stringing out, Consul having the lead. On the home stretch Consul went off his feet, but caught quickly. Not quick enough to save himself, however, for Logan Chief got a length the start and kept it to the finish, running the heat in 2.28, Consul second, Almeta third, Rowley Rattler fourth, Jenny L. third.

The fourth heat caused another claim of foul. Consul got the pole on the sec-ond quarter, and kept it until turning into the homestretch, when his driver swerved him out, and after getting into the stretch he pulled into the pole, right in front of Logan Chief, who was just about to take it. This foul caused the judge to set Consul back to last place. Rowley Rattler was given the heat, Al-meta second, Logan Chief third, Jenny L. fourth, Consul fifth. The time was for the other days are even better, and 25]. That her "Doc" is a tough one no one denies, and it is chimed by another woman, who resides at the Scott mansion in "Duck Hollow" that she will also swear out a warrant against "Doc" for rape, clauming that one dark night recently, as she was returning home from a visit to Mrs. Scott, she met, "Doc," who was on his way homeward from the beer garden, at which place he was for a long time "head pusher," She says he was drunk, and that he assaulted her and raped her. Whether she will file the information or not remains to be seen. Yesterday she was at the city building and told her story, but said she'd wa't awhile before she would swear against him.

The Missouri Valley Excursionists.

Yesterday a gav party of ladies and gentlemen from Missouri Valley came down to spend the day in this city. They went direct to Fairview park, where they held a basket picnic, after which they strolled around the city taking in the sights of the metropolis, after which they returned by the evening train to their

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Bresee, Mrs. G. H. McGovren and daughter Hattie, Mrs. Axtell, Mrs. E. A. Boies, Miss Emma Mrs. Axten, Mrs. E. A. Boles, Mrs. Emma Harris, Miss Fannie Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harris, W. H. Spencer, Mrs. W. Mitton and daughter, Mrs. H. Har-gens, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lahman, Mr. Mrs. Bob Harris, Homer Dutton, Miss Lena Jesme, Miss Ella Heilman and Chas. Harrow Hargen.

Engine and Cars Ditched.

A couple of freight cars and an engine were ditched in the Union Pacific transfer yards, but luckily no one was injured. It seems an engine from Omaha backed over the bridge for a train of loaded freight cars, and after being coupled on to the train started for the bridge with a switch engine belonging in the yards here behind the train to help them up the "dump." As the train reached the switch the engine left the track, the switch being open, as did the next two cars. The rear engineer noticing the trouble, reversed his engine and parted the train, thereby averting an accident of greater proportions.

Driesbach Not Guilty.

The jury in the case of young Driesback, whose father runs a confectionary stand in the opera house, and who was tried for assaulting an Italian named "Mike," before Judge Aylesworth on Monday, returned a verdict yesterday morning of not guilty. It seems Driesback was sprinkling the street with a hose when the wate  $\mathbf{r}$  struck the Italian who was just coming up out of the barbor shop in the basement of the opera house. Mike got excited and the two clinched and it is claimed Mike lost a couple of teeth in the fracas.

Complaint is daily made of the inadequacy of the terry cars to accommodate those who wish to go over to Omaha and vice versa. This complaint could be easily remedied by running a couple of extra cars on the first two morning trains and the last two evening trains.

Many persons suppose the dummy train that leaves Omaha at 10 o'clock at night and leaving Council Bluffs at 10:25 g'clock is only run on Wednesday and Saturday nights as a special for Lake Manawa business. This is not so, the train has been put on as a regular and the ferry cars will make this run also.

A $15 Cigar Stump.

Yesterday morning as James McGrary, of Island Park, south of this city, was trying to sell a load of hay to a man on Fourth street, corner of Tenth avenue, he suddenly noticed his hay was on fire, the department was called out and one stream of water put on it, but before the department could get there the hay was almost consumed. It was a total loss and the farmer's wagon was somewhat burned. It was afterward learned that a boy named Hughes carelessly threw the it ignited the hay. The boy settled by paying the farmer $15 for his loss.
