THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1886.

A Busy Scene,

r Yesterday morning the exposition building presented a very lively It look as if aspect. miniature town were arising like magic. Structures of all kinds were being put in place, and a host of artisans were busy with hammer, saw, plane and chisel. Exhibitors rushed hither and thither and spectators stood around and generally succeeded in getting in the way of those who had something to do.

It is now so near the time of the commencement of the exposition that exhibitors can delay no longer in putting ther space into shape for the display. The exposition, Manager Linunger says, must open on next Saturday night, and more than that he wants to have everything in readiness at that time. Yet there are some persons who, he thinks, will put off their work until the last minute. These, however, he proposes to look out for and if they do not soon give evidence of getting ready by the time mentioned, he would enforce the terms of his contract with them and give their space to parties who are clamoring for room. When the exposition gets under way it will unquestionably be a surprise to even the most ardent enthusi-ast. Merchants and others are taking an interest in the affair which was never equalled in Omalia. Leading firms are rivalling one another in the beauty and richness of their stands. The space of D. M. Steele, for instance, is a gothic house with dormer windows and plate glass sides, in which will be a bijou wholesale grocery store. The H. T. Clark drug company is erecting a house of about the same style, the sides of which of about the same style, the sides of which will be of white while the top will be of all kinds of colored glass. This will contain a stock valued at $20,000. Alma E. Keith is arranging a ladies' parlor; Mergell & Rosenweig are working with closed sides upon a room which will excel in decoration that of any private mansion in Omaha: Dewey & Stone will have three rooms, in the arrangement of which their force has been authorized to spare neithee expense nor material. One of these rooms will contain a thousand curiositisr from Japan; Max Meyer will have a unique display of jewelry and a force of manufacturing jewelers on hand; Raymond will display the largest collection of diamonds ever exhibited in Omaha, and is now preparing a magnificent cabinet of black walnut, especially for that se. This morning the entire array of philosiphical instruments of Creighton college was transferred to one of the east rooms of the building. They will occupy cabinets eight feet high, extending along on two sides of the wall. It is the most complete set of instruments of the kind in the west. Besides these, the mineral specimens belonging to the institution will also be displayed, and at intervals short and entertaining experiments will be made by the gentlemen in charge. The pictures which now ornament the art hall give assurance that the remain-der of the collection will be of the highest order. Besides the art hall, the north and south gallery will be literally covered with pictures from end to end.

A Baking Powder Trick. The Chicago firm, under whose directions the band of women are "testing" our baking powder, has hit upon a very cunning truck. The "test," as performed by these ladies, is to mix the baking powder they peddle and that found in the kitchen with water, separately, and call attention to the difference of action. That found in the kitchen, if pure, will foam up quickly like champagne. The baking powder they desire to prove superior will rise slowly, foaming like new yeast, over the top of the glass. This slower action results from the presence of flour, do it for? albumen or a gum in their baking powder, and is evidence of adulteration. To prove this, fill a glass half full of water, mix together equal parts of flour and some pure baking powder, pour into the water and stir quickly. There will be produced precisely the same effect – harged. Eleven plain drunks were discharged and be broduced precisely the same effect-the slow, foaming action—produced by the tests with the adulterated baking powder as made by our lady mission-aries from Chicago. The effect will be even heightened by adding a little lime, such as the baking powder carried by the ladies and the other low grade adulter-oted nowless contain Of course any

Of course, any statements made in reference to other baking powders, by parties caught in practicing such tricks as these for the purpose of deceiving the public, will be entitled to no credit. To the Editor of the BEE: For a year Mrs. Jane Twadell, wife of Robert Twadell, of Irv ington, Neb., died Monday morning, August 30. Mrs. Twadell was born in Hancock, Dalaware county, New York, November 26 1822. The funeral occurred August 31. The sermon was preached from James 4: 14, by Rev. C. The deceased leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter who rise up and call her blessed. Mrs. T. holds a place in many hearts, both in this city and her own immediate neighborhood. She was a most intelligent woman, being a great reader and student and well informed in in the little building he rented of the school board by adding a kitchen, which cost him about $100. This he had fin-ished, paying for it out of his July salreader and student and well informed in the affairs of state. She had a great memory, was a most practical, thorough-going, capable lady. The possessor of a hopeful, cheerful disposition, she went about doing good, going into many homes in a helpful way, in times of sickness and sorrow. Mrs. Twadell was a sincere Christian, and might be truly called a champion of Jesus. She loved pure gos-

During her last illness her mind was stayed on Christ, one which should appeal strongly to the sympathies of the school board. It is possible they may be able to reconsider their action in his behalf. J. T. B. and she was heard to say. "I would rather have a mansion in heaven with Jesus than to own all this world." C. W. S.

Honest, faithful and conscientious, Mr. Bush devoted his entire time and attention to his duties and no school building in Omaha was better attended to The entire corps of teachers had confidence in their janitor and the children loved him. A long life of severe labor has so broken his constitution that he is compelled to rely upon some such position as that which he has filled so acceptably in the Long school, but which place he lost at the election of janitors last month. STILL GIVING THE GAMES AWAY. The Hastings Side of Last Sunday's Ball Game.

The Hastings Gazette-Journal adopts the tactics of the Hastings ball players. Instead of candidly admitting that they were fairly and badly beaten by the Union Pacifics last Sunday they come the baby act and talk about having given the Union Pacifics a game to encourage them. The last issue of the paper named contains the following:

The Reds came in from Omaha this morning, where they played ball Saturday and Sunday, winning one game and day and Sunday, winning one game and giving away one. Saturday afternoon they done up the Union Pacifics 17 to 3, and feeling guilty for doing the claimed champions of Nebraska so hard, they allowed the Union Pacifics to win yesterday, and it was the bardest playing they have had to do this season. The ball was tossed into their openents, and then they into their opponents, and then they would whack away and hit nothing but air, but after an almost superhuman effort on the part of our boys to present their opponents with the game it closed 10 to 5 in favor of Omaha, and then every inhabitant of the city on the muddy from teenth street. The ceremony was per-formed by Bishop Worthington and wit-nessed by a number of the intimate friends of the young people A recep-tion followed and continued until 3 the small boy to the gray haired man howled themselves hoarse, and even tore up the grand stand in their demonstrations of joy, and owing to the victory real estate is 59 per cent higher in Omaha than it was Saturday. Having defeated the Union Pacifics three games out of five the Reds are en-titled to the championship of the state of Nebraska, and will defiantly foot it before the aves of the Lingda o'clock, when the happy pair took the eastern train for a two week's bridal tour. They will be at nome after September 14. Mrs. Williams is highly esteemed in social circles in this city, and her husband is the chief bookkeeper in the wholesale house of Paxton & Gallagher, where for float it before the eyes of the Lincoln club. It is to be regretted that the boys a number of years back he has been in the enjoyment of the respect and esteem were so magnanimous Sunday as to let the Union Pacifics win, and did not plant of employers and associates. His mardaisies over the place where they drove them in Saturday. Now, when we claim riage was made the occasion of a happy testimonial from the latter. the championship, a wee small piping veice will be heard from Omaha, saying: "Yes, just by one game. The gas pipe battery was put in against Omaha and then the Reds had to help her out by throwing the ball out of the lot so the learned, were injured in the Union Pacilic yards. The latter's hand was crushed and the leg of the former was run over by the cars. They were both taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Dr. Hoffrunners would dare leave their base and keep up the "merry go round" gait. The attendance at the game was very small, but financially the trip resulted all right The club played four games and lost one Bauer, the new pitcher, is proving to be a valuable addition, and with the addition limb. of another good catcher, the boys will be in good shape to meet Lincolns and St. Joes next week.
