The Boothe Candidate. And now comes one of the Pawnee county railroaders... The Boothe candidate is a man of high standing...

Church Howe no doubt did tell the five hundred republicans in Pawnee county that the record-keepers of the infamously charge, and that Van Wyck is on record as voting for his acquittal...

But the $9,000 boodle is a mere trifle in Howe's checked career as a law-maker. He has always found it profitable to spend thousands of dollars for a seat in the legislature which afforded him almost unlimited chances for blackmail and bribery...

Today Arkansas will open the fall election season. The republicans have a state ticket composed of capable and reputable men, but the fact that the bossism of Powell Clayton has been more or less conspicuous in the campaign is not believed to have given any strength to the republican cause...

Senator Van Wyck's demand for a popular vote on the senatorial question continues to excite favorable comment in other states. The Nebraska idea is in itself a novelty, but a still greater novelty is a candidate who dares to commit his candidacy for the senate into the hands of the people instead of relying upon great corporations and sly politician to control the legislative convention...

The fair and exposition have opened auspiciously. With good weather this week the attendance will exceed that of any previous year in Nebraska. Great crowds from throughout the state are expected to be on hand, while Omaha will contribute her full share of those who pass through the doors and gates...

The race for governor will not be a walkaway for any candidate. With Henry T. Clarke and John M. Thayer as the most prominent candidates, there are a number of minor aspirants who will have following enough to hold the balance of power...

A LETTER FROM CHADRON. How the Northwestern Railroad Discriminates Against Omaha. Political Matters - The Wonderful Progress of the Northwestern Railroad - Chadron's Prosperity.

CHADRON, Neb., Sept. 2, 1886. - [Correspondence of the Bee.] - Chadron is still here. The croakers who insisted that the phenomenal growth of the town of 2,000 inhabitants would be the market for iron, quick to spring up and even quicker to go down, have proved false prophets...

CHADRON MERCHANTS. Chadron merchants cannot do business satisfactorily with Omaha dealers. What are the reasons for this? The answer is, that the Omaha dealers are not doing business on a level with the Chadron merchants...

THE RETURN TO SCHOOL. To-day, throughout the republic, the schools of the people will reopen, and the millions of children who have enjoyed the relief and the recuperation of a two months' vacation will return to their mental tasks, reinforced by thousands of others who will for the first time enter into the mysteries of the school room...

LOCAL INTEREST DURING THE WEEK. The docket of the circuit court at Des Moines contains 800 cases. The new Congregational church at Fort Dodge will be dedicated December 20. The cannery factory at Cedar Falls recently made a sale of $14,000 worth of goods to one man...

THE RAILROAD. Local interest during the week has centered in the question of the new work which Judge Hamer is presiding. The chief case has been that of the state against Casey, charged with robbing the state treasury of $100,000. The case is being tried in the circuit court at Des Moines...

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. The following transfers were filed September 3, with the county clerk: Caleb Fossell (widower) to Wm. Stevens, lots 14 & 15 in blk 2, 15 to 26 blk 3, and 14 to 15 inclusive, Fossell place, w. d. $5,000.

THE TRIAL OF TOM CASEY. Political Matters - The Wonderful Progress of the Northwestern Railroad - Chadron's Prosperity.

CHADRON, Neb., Sept. 2, 1886. - [Correspondence of the Bee.] - Chadron is still here. The croakers who insisted that the phenomenal growth of the town of 2,000 inhabitants would be the market for iron, quick to spring up and even quicker to go down, have proved false prophets...

Davenport than a $2,000 clerkship in Washington. These fellows at the national capital look over their shoulders restlessly each night and morning expecting to be displaced, and they live up to their full salary. It is an expensive city to live in, and the constant unrest is terrible.
