Two Thousand Peasants Make Things Lively for the Gendarmerie.

Prince Alexander Receives More Grand Ovations on His Travels-He Tells Why He Abdicated-The Situation Reviewed.

Two Thousand Peasants Excited. COPENHAGEN, (via Havre), Sept. 10.-New York Herald Cable-Special to the BEE.]-The situation is daily becoming more explosive. A preliminary battle has taken place at Broendersley, in North Jutland, between 2,000 peasants, armed with sticks and stones, and about sixty gendarmes, in which the latter were soundly threshed and put to flight. It is feared that this may lead to even more serious revolutionary outbreaks in other parts of the kingdom. The government throughout the kingdom is consentrating troops at different points and making all possible preparations to crush at the outset any further rising. Estrup's ministry, a few months ago created, contrary to the expressed will of the Danish house of representatives, a large corps of gendarmerie who, in gaudy

The former are boycotting the latter who, in some districts, have the utmost difficulty in purchasing the necessaries of life. The peasants are shunning as they would a pestilence the hirelings, who, they believe, have sold themselves to fight, not the enemies of their country, but the people. The origin at the battle of Broendersley is as follows: A fair was being held at the village, duringwhich a workman got drunk and made a great noise in one of the tents, By a stupid mistake the magistrate, instead of sending for the ordinary policemen, who in Denmark are armed merely with clubs like in London, sent for one of the hated blue and silver gendarmes.

ARMED WITH A SABRE.

The gendarme tried to arrest the drunken traveler. workman, but the sight of the uniform of the gendarmerie corps, which the people refuse to recognize as lawfully constituted, exasperated them like a red flag waved before a bull. The peasants seized the gendarme before he could draw his sabre and pitched him headfirst into a large vat of dirty water. Six |more gensdarmes appeared and once stoned by the crowd and driven away. A detachment of fifty gendarmes then came up and charged the growd with drawn sabres. The peasants, who now numbered 2,000, calmly awaited the attack behind a stope wall on the crest of the hill outside the village. When the gendarmes came within ten paces they were received with

TREMENDOUS SHOWERS OF STONES Eight gendarmes fell to the ground with severe wounds and cut heads. The peasants then, with loud shouts, sprang over the wall and with long sticks and stones completely overwhelmed the gendarmes, who, with torn uniforms and bleeding wounds, ran off as fast as they could. On the side of the people about thirty were wounded with sabres. This is the first time the gendarmes have had occasion to use their sabres against the people. The government has sent large rein-

Entirely Out of the Case.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE|-The ludicrous spectacle of two men each trying to prove that the other "had nothing to do with the case," was presented in the office of the first comptroller of the treasury to-day. Mr. J. F. Manning, who represents a number of claimants before the court of Alabama claims, appeared before Judge Durham to-day and made a long argument to that official to show that the first comptroller had no jurisdiction in the case. The comptroller ignored the whole argument and decided that as Mr. Mauning was not recognized as an attorney before the court of Alabama ciaims, he was out of the matter altogether. Mr. Manning has determined to ask a hearing before the secretary himself. The acme of pettifogging seems to have been reached by this administration, the president leading in his pension vetoes and followed by the first comptroller of the treasury on a thousand small matters that are daily passed upon by that official. [MANY MILITARY CHANGES.

Between this and October 12 President Cleveland will be called upon to appoint three brigadier generals in the army. There are now two vacancies in this grade, caused by the retirement of Surgeon General Murray and General Newton, chief of engineers. The third vacancy will occur October 12, when Brigadier General Potter will be retired on account of age. It is commonly believed in army circles that Coldnane will succeed General Newton, that Colonel Baxter will be made surgeon general, and that Colonel Wesley Merritt, of the Fifth cavalry, will succeed General Potter. Before the close of the present year there will be a number of important changes among the field officers of Infantry regiments. The death of Colonel Lewis C. Hunt will make Lleutenant Anderson of the Ninth, colonel of the Fourteenth, send Major Brayton to the Ninth as fleutenant colonel, and promote Captain Theaker of the Sixteenth to the majority of the Thirteenth. Colonel Whistler of the Fifteenth will retire on account of age October 19, which will make Lieutenant Colonel Crofton of the Thirteenth colong of the Fir-teenth, Major Bush of the Sixth lieutenant colonel of the Thirteenth, and Captain Lyster of the Nineteenth major

Harmony at Last.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.-The railway managers after three days' session, succeeded to-day in reaching the basis of a compromise, and reorganizing the Western Freight association. The two prominent obstacles have been the refusal of the Chicago & Northwestern to pool its range cattle business originating in Western Nebraska and Wyoming, and the demand of the Missouri Pacific that, by reason of its Lincoln, Neb., extension, it should be awarded a share of through business. The first was settled by virtually conceding to the Northwestern its point. This was done by removing the castern boundary line of the range cattle pool, as it formerly existed, running north and south through Valentine, Brady Island and Indianola, Neb., to Laramie City and Douglas. This gives the Northwestern control of all the cattle shipped on its line west of Noriolk to Fort Fetter-man, from which it will exact local rates and not report business to any pool. As both Union Pacific and the Burlington are building into that territory, it will not enjoy a monop-oly longer than the present season. The other bone of contention was anneably divided by giving the Missouri Pacific 4 per ent in the pool on through business, and awarding Omaha ⁴ per cent. The Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs is awarded 6 per cent of the gross earnings in the Coun-cil Bluffs local pool. Otherwise the percentages remain unchanged. A committee of one from each road was appointed to effect the minor details of the appointed to effect the minor details of the pool, and to report to the general meeting at 11 a. m. to-morrow, to which an adjournment was taken. The pool, which will endure for five years, will go into effect September 15 with J. N. Faithorn as commis-sioner. This completes one of the most im-portant and far-reaching railroad combina-tions ever made in the west.

DESERVING OF DEATH.

The Army and Navy Register After Geronimo's Scalp.

WASHINGTON, September 10.-The Army and Navy Register to-morrow will say: "If public opinion in and out of the army has weight in deciding the fate of Geronimo and his band they will be tried by military commission, speedily convicted and executed without delay. There is precedent for such treatment of them, if one is needed, in the case of the trial by military commission of the Sioux after the Minnesota massacres in 1852. Five hundred of prisoners were then put on trial, 300 of them were found guilty of murder, and thirty-eight were hanged. Every one of the band was a prisoner of war at the time of his escape from San Carlos reservation. They had been placed there by General Crook, and were given the liberty of the reservation on condition of not leaving it. They broke thus promise and used their privileges to escape in order to again take the war path. They are paroled prisoners taken red-handed in acts of war, and should suffer the punish-ment adjudged by the law of war to such acts of treachery." without delay. There is precedent for such Berg, the "Danish O'Connel," whose views have been given heretofore, is doing his utmost to prevent a further outbreak and bloodshed. King Christian supports more firmly than ever the Estrup ministery. The recent hurried departure of the Princess of Wales is believed to be not unconnected with the present strained situation. The blood of both monarchists and constitutionalists is now up and lively times may be expected.

JUST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR. LATER-Regarding the riots in Denmark. since my last telegram I have seen several eye-witnesses, who describe the encounter as most exciting. The weather was brilliant and the fair in every way a success. The roundabouts were in full swing, the music playing and the young people beginning to grow noisy, when suddenly a gendarme breaks through the crowd and is seen handling a half drunken man roughly. The gay scene is changed in a moment, the uniform of the gendarme working on the peasants with magic effect. The cry is raised,

"DOWN WITH THE GENDARMES." and several of them close around their comrade. The cavalry make an attack, using their swords like wood cutters' axes against the thick forest of unarmed men before them. This served but to enrage the crowd. The peasants have only sticks but are nothing daunted. They throw themselves against the soldiers and a fearful melee of swords against sticks ensued. The air is filled with tha cries of the wounded. Tents, animals and men lie scattered over the ground and the swords play great havee. But soon the gendarmeatly for their lives. As soon as they are out of sight order is restored. The reactionary papers press for extreme measures against this spontaneous outburst of public feeling and the government is prepared to act and accordingly a state of siege as been proclaimed at Broendersley. Many of the wounded were arrested. To-day the elections for one-halt part of the upper house commence.

Prince Philippe observed: "On n'est j'amais trabi que par les siens." Klapka has published in the Pesther Lloyd the following statement, alleged to have been made by Alexander:

WHY ALEXANDER ABDICATED. "The cause of my abdication will be found in the fact that immediately upon my arrival in Phillippepolis I received from three of the chief powers an instruction under no circumsincees to penish a civil or military leader with sentence of death. Care for the Children

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they be come cross, prevish, and uncontrollable. The blood should be cleansed and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsoparilla. "Last Spring my two children were vacelnated. Soon after, they broke all out with running sores, so dreadful I thought I should lose them. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured them completely; and they have been healthy ever since. I do feel that Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children to me." Mus. C. L. THOMPSON, West Warren, Mass.

Purify the Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities : 1st, the combination of remodial agents; 2d, the proportion; 2d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Scaf for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, parifies my blood, sharpens my apsettle, and scene to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.
