Circulation of the "Danak Pioneer" Prohibited in Denmark

ON THE GOVERNMENT'S ORDER.

No Special Reason Assigned for the Suppression of the Paper—Chinese Outrages on American Missionaries—Other Foreign News.

An Omaha Paper Ostracized. COPENHAGEN, Sept. 17.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The government yesterday prohibited the circulation in Denmark of a newspaper, the Danish Pioneer, published in Omaha, Neb. This was done on the basis of the provisional law of the 14th of August, which the minister proclaimed without the sanction of the legislature and contrary to the will of the people. No special reason is given for the prohibition.

The elections for the upper house will be over to-night, the liberals winning the seat. Conferees in the election of an arbitrator in the Benjamin Franklin case continue in the United States minister and the Danish government. A speedy solution may be expected.

The celebrated Danish sculptor, Carl Smith, will arrive shortly in New York, where he will settle. He is considered a great loss to Danish art.

Thereupon Deputy Tchevitch demanded the appointment of a committee of valuation. This was the signal for a noisy outburst, and the unhappy author of it narrowly escaped a sound thrashing. The whole of the deputies left the hall and only returned when Tchevitch had departed. The original proposal was then unanimously accepted amidst loud applause.

Fighting "Foreign Devils."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Minister Denby, at Peking, has reported to the secretary of state two cases of recent outrages perpetrated by the Chinese on Americans. Rev. A. A. Fulton and wife and Miss Mary Fulton, all of the American Presbyterian mission to China, established a mission hospital and station at Kwai Ping, about four hundred miles southwest from Canton. When they had expended a considerable sum in putting up buildings, placards appeared on the walls declaring that "the foreign devils" must go in three days and their buildings be destroyed. The literature, as usual, were at the bottom of the disturbance. A crowd gathered near the hospital and Mr. Fulton set out to secure the protection of the mission. He was stopped on his way and not permitted to return, and no soldiers were sent to protect the mission. On May 6 the mob used straw and faggots against the building occupied by Mrs. and Miss Fulton and a little daughter of the former, upon which the inmates fled and the house was looted and burned. The ladies were on boats, but the mob threatened to destroy any boat that should receive them, and after some delay they reached the steamer, where they were compelled to remain. Two days later they were put on boats and conveyed to Amoy. The value of the property destroyed is about $5,000, and Consul Seymour is pressing a demand for the payment of this in damages.

Chinese Outrages Committed on American Missionaries.

A second case of still more recent date occurred on Sunday, June 6. In the absence of all the gentlemen connected with the Methodist Episcopal mission station at Chung King, and while only one lady was present a mob collected, broke down the gates, threw stones, and set on fire which cut open her index finger its entire length, while she was otherwise injured about the head and arms. A complaint was made to the officials, but the matter was treated lightly. "This is a serious case," writes Mr. Denby, "and may be a test case. It grew as our evils in China, due out of trouble in the United States."

EL COYOTE KILLED.

The Noted Mexican Bandit Meets His Fate in Battle.

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 17.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—Victor Tamampan, Mexican bandit, who has been plying his nefarious game of plunder and murder on the Mexican frontier for the past three years under the guise of a revolutionist, was killed yesterday with seven of his gang in the mountains near San Domingo, state of Coahuila. Leon El Coyote has been on the war path since September 1. At that time he issued a proclamation denouncing the Diaz government and calling upon the people to arms and re-establish the constitution of 1857, which had undergone many changes. He was supported in this move by a number of prominent revolutionist officers, who issued similar manifestos but did not take to arms. He had a number of followers, roughly estimated at from one hundred and fifty to two hundred men. The federal troops have been on his trail for some time. They gave him battle on two different occasions and on the second he was killed. El Coyote made several successful raids on the smaller towns and ranches and evaded capture until yesterday, when he was taken by surprise by the movement of the Tenth cavalry under Colonel Teran. It was 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The bandits were enjoying a siesta when the federal troops were picked. They never dreamt of the appearance of the troops. The execution was done with alacrity, and the bandit was shot, while the bandits grasped their guns and others ran away. One soldier was killed and two wounded.

REVOLUTIONISTS ROUTED.

The Honduras Fighters Overcome by the Troops.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Mr. Jacob Balz, consul general for Honduras in New York, has received the following advices regarding the late revolutionary movements in that country: On his arrival in Costa Rica, Soto ordered Del Gado Morri, and all his chiefs, officers and enlisted men who were in Nicaragua, and numbered seventy-seven all told, to invade Honduras, which they did August 19. The troops met and were completely routed the invading force. Morri, Velasquez and seven other chiefs and officers were killed, and only Del Gado and Herradova made good their escape. All the rest of the invaders remained on the battle field either dead or prisoners. Del Gado and Herradova fled to the mountains of Honduras. The people of Honduras are unanimous in their adherence to the present government and not a man sustained or upheld the invaders. A later communication to General Balz says: "You will have learned of the total defeat of the Honduras forces. I think we can now safely come to the conclusion that Soto's last ray of hope is extinguished."

The Passenger Pools.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 17.—The railway managers in session here did not succeed today in overcoming all of the obstacles in the way of forming the Western Passenger association. The sticking points were upon the method of fixing the percentages and the taking in of certain business at Milwaukee and St. Louis. An agreement was reached, however, that the pool should begin on October 1 and hold for three years. An adjournment was taken until after the meeting of the Northwestern Freight and Passenger associations, as the interests of all three pools—southwest, north and northwest—are interdependent. Nothing further will be done until the affairs of the other two are adjusted. All of the officials are of the opinion that an agreement will be reached on all of the points before the first of next month.
