

MORE OPINIONS ON QUAKES.

Many English Scientists Present Their Views on Seismic Disturbances.

LATEST THEORY OF THE CAUSE.

The Charleston Disaster Discussed in Relation to Its Connection With Volcanic Eruptions—Science in the Dark.

English Savants Interviewed.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—British savants complain that it is so long since England has been shaken by an earthquake that they are forced to depend on more fortunate foreigners for facts upon which to base theories.

THE CHARLESTON SHAKES.

The Alaskan volcano eruption, for instance, can hardly be considered as connected with the Charleston earthquake. The sides of the mountain have probably been in slow motion for many years.

A NEW ZEALANDER'S OPINION.

At the colonial exhibition I found Sir John Van Hanc, a geologist from the New Zealand university and a leading scientific man in that colony.

AN AUTHORITY INTERVIEWED.

In an attempt to obtain information in England with Archibald Geikie, director of the British geological survey, he met me at the Survey museum, in Jernyn street.

A NON-COMMITTAL SCIENTIST.

Prof. J. R. Hild, director of the British National Antiquarian museum, stopped at my table for a few minutes to discuss with me the astronomical side of the present earthquake.

THE LATEST THEORY.

At the rooms of the geological survey in Jernyn street I found W. Tapley, president of the Geological association.

HIS FOOT UPON HER NECK.

Jay Gould's Latest Monopoly Creation and Its Effect on St. Louis.

HE MURDERS TRADE AND LABOR.

Coal Mines in Southern Illinois and Eastern Missouri Within His Grasp—Great Strike Feared—Bridge Project Killed.

Latest Monopoly Outrage.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A special dispatch from St. Louis to a local paper says: "Jay Gould's trip west has not been without results.

OTHER OPINIONS.

Charles Harding, of the Royal Meteorological society, near Westminster Abbey, thought atmospheric conditions were in no way related to volcanic phenomena.

GERMAN EVENTS.

An Editor Jailed—Scientific Societies Organized. BERLIN, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Straubing tribunal has sent Herr Renner, editor of the Danube Messenger, to prison for two months for publishing an offensive article against the Bavarian ministry.

AN ANATOMICAL ASSOCIATION.

As a result of the recent meeting of German anatomists in Berlin, an anatomical society has been founded in the city.

THE ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP VIENNA.

VIENNA, Oct. 10.—The Vienna police have furnished the press with an account of the recently discovered anarchist plot to burn Vienna.

THE ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP VIENNA.

VIENNA, Oct. 10.—The Vienna police have furnished the press with an account of the recently discovered anarchist plot to burn Vienna.

OCTOBER'S FIRST WEEK.

Encouraging Condition of the Markets and General Trade.

THEY LIKE OLD ENDICOTT.

War Department Clerks Do Not Want the Massachusetts Man to Re-sign.

GREAT GENERALS' JEALOUSIES.

What Sparks Has Done in a Year—Colman on Sick Certificate—The Bluffs' Federal Building.

They Like Endicott.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—War department clerks express profound regret at the determination of Secretary Endicott to retire from public life.

THE COUNCIL BLUFFS POSTOFFICE.

The following were the names of the bidders for Bluffs postoffice for the public building.

CLEARANCES FOR THE WEEK.

Omaha Still Continues Its Splendid Financial Showing.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The following are the weekly special dispatches to the Boston Post from the leading clearing houses in the United States.

JACOB AND JAELINE.

Sharpe and the Convict Alderman Will Give the "Boodlers" Away.

GOIN' TO THE HUSKIN'.

Corn Turning Out Well—Big Yield of Potatoes—The Harvest Home Festival.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Interesting Reports From Missionary Bishops of Their Work.

It is Certainly Pieter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The commissioner of agriculture, in a letter to the secretary of the Massachusetts Cattle commission.

Death of an Old Journalist.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—George W. Adams, president of the Evening Star newspaper.

THEY LIKE OLD ENDICOTT.

War Department Clerks Do Not Want the Massachusetts Man to Re-sign.

GREAT GENERALS' JEALOUSIES.

What Sparks Has Done in a Year—Colman on Sick Certificate—The Bluffs' Federal Building.

They Like Endicott.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—War department clerks express profound regret at the determination of Secretary Endicott to retire from public life.

THE COUNCIL BLUFFS POSTOFFICE.

The following were the names of the bidders for Bluffs postoffice for the public building.

CLEARANCES FOR THE WEEK.

Omaha Still Continues Its Splendid Financial Showing.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The following are the weekly special dispatches to the Boston Post from the leading clearing houses in the United States.

JACOB AND JAELINE.

Sharpe and the Convict Alderman Will Give the "Boodlers" Away.

GOIN' TO THE HUSKIN'.

Corn Turning Out Well—Big Yield of Potatoes—The Harvest Home Festival.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Interesting Reports From Missionary Bishops of Their Work.

It is Certainly Pieter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The commissioner of agriculture, in a letter to the secretary of the Massachusetts Cattle commission.

Death of an Old Journalist.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—George W. Adams, president of the Evening Star newspaper.

THEY LIKE OLD ENDICOTT.

War Department Clerks Do Not Want the Massachusetts Man to Re-sign.

GREAT GENERALS' JEALOUSIES.

What Sparks Has Done in a Year—Colman on Sick Certificate—The Bluffs' Federal Building.

They Like Endicott.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—War department clerks express profound regret at the determination of Secretary Endicott to retire from public life.

THE COUNCIL BLUFFS POSTOFFICE.

The following were the names of the bidders for Bluffs postoffice for the public building.

CLEARANCES FOR THE WEEK.

Omaha Still Continues Its Splendid Financial Showing.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The following are the weekly special dispatches to the Boston Post from the leading clearing houses in the United States.

JACOB AND JAELINE.

Sharpe and the Convict Alderman Will Give the "Boodlers" Away.

GOIN' TO THE HUSKIN'.

Corn Turning Out Well—Big Yield of Potatoes—The Harvest Home Festival.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Interesting Reports From Missionary Bishops of Their Work.

It is Certainly Pieter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The commissioner of agriculture, in a letter to the secretary of the Massachusetts Cattle commission.

Death of an Old Journalist.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—George W. Adams, president of the Evening Star newspaper.

THE GIGANTIC GODDESS.

Preparations for the Dedication of Barfild's Big Liberty Bell.

LEFT AN ODOUR OF SANCTITY.

Iowa's Capital City Still Subdued After Church Gathering.

A REVELATION TO THE WEST.

A Confident Doctor Takes His Own Medicine and Dies—The Railroad Law Test—Other Iowa Intelligence.

The Church Convention.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 10.—(Special to the Bee.)—The great Congregational assembly has come and gone, and people are still talking about the questions of faith and doctrine raised during the assembly.

SUNDAY'S SIEGE.

Both Parties Preparing for War at the Packing Houses.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—In the vicinity of the great packing houses significant preparations are being made for a possible strike.

A Very Sad Accident.

Van Wyck in Ainsworth.

Melickjohn for State Senator.

Misses Makes a Big Hit.

It is Certainly Pieter.

Death of an Old Journalist.

Waiting for God's Order.

Strange Belief of a Man and His Wife in Providential Command.

Striking Growers.

Friends of the Indian.

LEFT AN ODOUR OF SANCTITY.

Iowa's Capital City Still Subdued After Church Gathering.

A REVELATION TO THE WEST.

A Confident Doctor Takes His Own Medicine and Dies—The Railroad Law Test—Other Iowa Intelligence.

The Church Convention.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 10.—(Special to the Bee.)—The great Congregational assembly has come and gone, and people are still talking about the questions of faith and doctrine raised during the assembly.

SUNDAY'S SIEGE.

Both Parties Preparing for War at the Packing Houses.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—In the vicinity of the great packing houses significant preparations are being made for a possible strike.

A Very Sad Accident.

Van Wyck in Ainsworth.

Melickjohn for State Senator.

Misses Makes a Big Hit.

It is Certainly Pieter.

Death of an Old Journalist.

Waiting for God's Order.

Strange Belief of a Man and His Wife in Providential Command.

Striking Growers.

Friends of the Indian.