CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET. CHICAGO, Oct 11 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |- There was to-day a combination of all sorts of things to lower the price of wheat. There were the scandals of the board, the big receipts, the absence of a demand for shipment, a substantial increase in the visible supply (1,567,000 bushels), and a raise in the government estimate of the wheat yield to 450,000,000 bushels. Under the in-fluence of this combination the price of cash wheat went under 70c, and the price of the November option down to 71%c, the lowest price yet, Speculation was very dull, Brokers stood around and discussed the recent huge defalcation of the provision pit. There was one little failure by a tired out wheat bull. It excited no comment. Even a good sized failure would have created no comment. The estimates early on the increase in the visible supply of wheat put it at 2,000,000 bushels. The figures were made public half an hour ahead of the usual time and showed an increase of only 1,567,000 bushels. It did not advance prices. Hutchinson sold wheat and it was said everybody else in the pit, from the millionaire owner of the Corn Exchange bank down to the smallest holder, sold all that he could. The October government report on crops was made public about noon, but the big men here threw over the Washington estimates long ago as too modest, and this concession by the Washington authorities had little effect. Operators here do not believe that 12% bushels to the acre is a fair estimate of the yield, but that it is much larger. At any rate the governit is much larger. At any rate the govern-ment report and the visible supply figures and all the other ordinary new matters that came along was taken with utter indiffer-ence. The crowd was not trading. There were a few who thought the bottom was reached on all these discouraging features, but neither the big men nor the little men, who have been drawing their 2 per cent per month dividends on the selling side, were to be convinced. Wheat hung along under 72c for November.
The corn market was as weak as wheat,

November selling down to 345 c.

Provisions were steady on the closing of the houses at the yards.

The close at 1 o'clock was 71% c for November wheat, 345 c for November wheat, 345 c for November corn, and $0.95 for January pork.

The afternoon trading started at the latest morning prices, 71% c for November wheat morning prices, 71%c for November wheat, but the offerings were heavy and values soon declined to 71%c. Other articles were steady but slow. The closings were: Wheat was during the last quarter of the hour: 60% for for October, 71% (671% of or November, 75% of or December, Corn was steady: 35% of or October, 34% of or November, 35% of for December, Oats were steady; 35 for October, 34% of or November, Oats were steady; 35 for October, 24% of or November, Pork was irm, $8,90 for October, 35% of or October, 36% of or Octo November, Pork was firm; $3,90 for Octo-ber, $8,923- for November, $8,85 for the year, $10,00 for January. CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |-CATTLE.-The impression among salesmen was that values ought to be higher. but there was only a small attendance of buyers, and the eastern demand was quite light Fully one-fourth of the receipts, some 14,000 cattle, were direct to dressed beef men from their buyers in the west. They evidently were afraid of not having cattle enough here to-day and so tried to secure themselves in this way. The small proportion of handy choice natives, however, sold 10c higher. while rough and inferior cattle were barely steady. There was an uncertainty in trade that caused a weak feeling. The general impression is that shippers who can do so had better hold back until affairs become more settled. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $4,60@5.00; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $4,10@4.60; 950 to 1,200 lbs,83.50@4.00. In range cattle, the 900 to 1,200 lbs, 83,50(34.00. In range cattle, the receipts were unoderate to-day, and the demand not at all strong. Prices for desirable kinds were stronger, however. Inferior rangers were slow. Hogs—There was a brisk demand for shipping sorts, with an advance of 50010c on ping sorts, with an advance of 500000 on heavy and fancy butcher grades, but there was not a regular local packer on the market. was not a regular local packer on the market, hence no demand whatever for packing sorts, except 3,000 or 4,000 that John P. Squire may want for his Boston house, or, perhaps, a load or so to go to Milwaukee. For packing sorts there are no fixed values. A shipment made up Saturday for Squire cost only $3.74, and it was expected that a similar shipment and it was expected that a similar shipment would be made to-day at 5@10c less. Shippers and city butchers paid $1.00@4.25 for the ordinary sort, and $4.00@4.50 for fancy heavy, and strictly Philadelphias, light sorts, sold at $3.40@4.50; Yorkers, $4.00@4.15.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday Evening, Oct. 11. Cattle—The fresh receipts of range cattle were liberal and a few changed hands to-day. There are a good many range cows in but they sell slow. Native butchers' staff is in fair request, and the receipts are fully up to the demand. Corn fed cattle are in demand. the demand. Corn fed cattle are in demand.
Hogs—The receipts were extremely light and not enough to make a market. The declining market of the past week, as well as the labor troubles in Chicago, has had the effect of cutting off shipments. For some time past there has been no buyers for Chicago on this market, and the hogs bought here are either for local houses or for Boston. For this reason the closing of the Chicago packing houses will have very little effect upon this market. The market to-day was about steady with Saturday's prices. Everything was sold.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS General Produce.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

nogs-The egg market is very firm at quotations. Receipts are about equal to the demand. Dealers do not look for any change in the market as long as the present mid weather continues. A cold speil, however, would very likely cause an advance. Strictly fresh, candled, per doz., 17c. BUTTER—The demand for choice creamery and dairy, as well as fresh country roll, is OYSTERS-The weather has been most too warm to admit of a very heavy oyster trade. However, trade is better than usual at this season, and a good many orders from the outside are being filled. Mediums, 25c; standards, 30c; selects, 35c; New York counts, 40c. VEGETABLES—Our potato market is in a rather unsettled state just at present. Car-lots are hard to place. Farmers are supply-ing dealers with whatever they require for ing dealers with whatever they require for immediate consumption. Buyers do not show the least anxiety to lay in their winter stock, warm weather being, apparently, their only excuse for holding off. A change in the weather would undoubtedly cause a much better feeling. Onions also uncet with slow sale. There is hardly a dealer in the market who buys more than five or ten bushels at a time. Sweet potagoes are plentiful and low. Cabbage in fair supply. Potatoes, choice, per bu, 50@ Mc; fair to good 40 (245c; onions, choice, 10c@$1.00; fair to good, 75@90c; in small lots from store, per bbl, $3.00; sweet potatoes, choice, per lb, 1@25c; cabbage, choice, per doz, 50@60c; cel-
