CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—Early cable advices to-day contained few if any features, reporting everything quiet and steady. On the open board, trading in wheat was at 71⅞c for November. The regular opening was at 71¼c, some sold at 72c, but soon drifted back to the opening. There were 2,407 cars of all kinds of wheat on the inspection sheet, 306 cars of corn and 212 cars of oats. These figures overran the estimates somewhat. "Hutch" was again the prominent seller. November corn opened at 34½c and kept between 34¾@34⅝c. A more peaceful tone to cables helped wheat prices downward soon after the opening. There were no orders in wheat either here or at New York, so dispatches from there said. A little November sold at 72¼c, but it was impossible to work off large quantities at that. Corn advanced to 35¾c. Pork kept steady around $8.95@8.97½ for November. Around 11 o'clock local parties began buying with considerable freedom, and it looked as though there might be an advance. Consols came in a shade lower on account, but unchanged for money. This decline, though slight, was sufficient to bull wheat up to 72⅛@72⅝c for November from its earlier resting-place around 71¾c. The local buyers on this upturn were headed by Fraley Carter as much as by any other local heavy weight, but the buyers brought out were not numerous enough to hold prices very much over 72c. The latter part of the session was inclined to heaviness.

After corn got up to 35c and a shade over it hung there, with more or less strength, but was not heavily traded in.

Provision dealers did more heavy sitting down than trading, there being no orders on the floor to amount to anything, and the market wholly without features. The crowd is amazed at the dullness of the speculative pits, but do not dare to try to overcome it by any operations of their own. It is apparent that every speculator in grain now has his eye fixed on the export and shipping movement. Until that begins, on an adequate scale, not all the bull talk nor even the lowest prices in history will tempt anybody to take the buying side with enough vigor to affect the markets.

On the afternoon session realizing was very general, and wheat broke back. Other articles were dull. The closings were: Wheat, weaker; 70c for October, 71¾c for November, 71¾c for December. Corn, easier; 33½c for October, 34¾c for November, 39½c for May. Oats, quiet; 28¾c for October, 24¾c for November. Pork, steady; $9.00 for October, $9.00 for November, $8.95 for the year. Lard, easy; $5.60 for October, $5.75 for November, $5.60 for the year. Short ribs, unchanged.

2:45 p. m.—Puts on November wheat, 71¼@71⅜c; calls, 72¼c. Puts on November corn, 34½c; calls, 35½@35¼c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE.—The market this morning seemed to start with good promises, but they were not fulfilled. There were some good to choice fat beeves sold early at stronger prices, but the demand was confined to a few good cattle, and there was an utter lack of life in the market for common to fair cattle. Some sales of low grade stock showed 10@15c decline, but there were many which simply could not be sold at all. Cattle continued to arrive until late and the receipts were considerably larger than at first expected. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $4.70@5.12½; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $4.10@4.70; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.50@4.10. The range cattle receipts to-day were fairly large, and there proved to be almost too many common too fair cattle. Best grades were in demand and sold at steady prices. Some pretty good Montana cattle sold at $3.62½@3.90; 229 half-breeds, 1,165 lbs, $3.85; 42 half-breeds, 1,014 lbs, $3.90; 10 Montana, 1,331 lbs, $3.85; 37 Montana, 1,302 lbs, $3.60; 324 Montana, 1,248 lbs, $3.62½; 15 Wyoming, 1,066 lbs, $3.50; 70 cows, 1,062 lbs, $2.80; 198 Nebraska Texas, 965 lbs, $3.40; 248 Dakota, 1,065 lbs, $3.05; 150 Wyoming half-breeds, 1,126 lbs, $2.25.

HOGS—The market was active and prices 5@10c higher on butcher's pigs and fancy assorted shipping grades. But there were no buyers for rough or common. Shippers and city butchers paid $4.15@4.35 for ordinary sort, and $4.50@4.55 for fancy heavy and strictly Philadelphias. Light sorts sold at $3.40@4.40; Yorkers, $4.10@4.20.

FINANCIAL.

New York, Oct. 12.—MONEY—On call, active at 6@9 per cent, closing at 6@7 per cent asked.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Unchanged.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were strong.

STOCKS—Stocks were less active and the majority of them are lower. Trading was comparatively quiet and prices weak in early dealings. Later the market was marked by considerable dullness and narrow fluctuations, prices making little progress in either direction, until the last hour, when a general decline took place, which was checked just previous to the close. But it closed weak at the lowest figures of the day.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Tuesday, Oct. 12.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market today. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

EGGS—The egg market is very firm at quotations. Receipts are about equal to the demand. Dealers do not look for any change in the market as long as the present mild weather continues. A cold spell, however, would very likely cause an advance. Strictly fresh, candled, per doz., 17c.

BUTTER—The demand for choice creamery and dairy, as well as fresh country rolls is very brisk. Inferior grades remain as dull as ever. The season is now sufficiently advanced to ship roll butter. When properly graded and packed nicely in clean boxes, not containing more than about eighty pounds. Fresh creamery, 25@26c; fresh dairy, 18@20c; choice country roll, 18@20c; choice country roll, solid packed, 17@18c; good country roll, 16@17c; good country roll, solid packed, 15@16c; fair, 11@14c; common, 4@9c.

GAME—A more healthy feeling is prevailing. Prairie chickens and grouse, when in good order, sell readily at quotations. Ducks are in much better request. Quail in light receipt and much called for. Snipe, fair sale. Deer and antelope scarce and wanted. Shippers should bear in mind to ship all game while it is fresh, and not hold off until they have on hand large quantities. Prairie chickens, per dozen, $3.00; quail, $1.50@1.75; snipe, plover, etc., 75@1.25; ducks, (Mallard), $1.75@2.00; ducks, (Teal), $1.00@1.25; ducks, mixed, 75c@$1.00; geese, $3.00@3.50; deer, saddles, per lb., 11@12c; deer, carcasses, per lb., 7@8c; antelope, saddles, 11@12c; antelope, carcasses, 7@8c; elk, saddles, 10@12c; elk, carcasses, 6@7c; jack rabbits, per doz., $3.50@4.00; small, per doz., $1.00@1.25.

POULTRY—Live poultry continues very dull. The demand for dressed chickens is daily increasing. Arrivals thus far have been extremely light: Live—Chickens, old, per doz., $2.00@2.50; chickens, spring, $2.00@2.25; ducks, $2.00@2.75; turkeys, $7.00@8.00; geese, $6.00@8.00. Dressed—Chickens, choice young, per lb, 11@12c; choice old, 9@10c; ducks, 11c; geese, 11c; turkeys, 13@13c.

VEGETABLES—Our potato market is in a rather unsettled state just at present. Carlots are hard to place. Farmers are supplying dealers with whatever they require for immediate consumption. Buyers do not show the least anxiety to lay in their winter stock, warm weather being, apparently, their only excuse for [illegible]. A change in the weather would unquestionably cause a much better feeling. Onions also meet with slow sale. There is hardly a dealer in the market who buys more than five or ten bushels at a time. Sweet potatoes are plentiful and low. Cabbage in fair supply. Potatoes, choice, per bu, 50@?c; fair to good, 40@45c; onions, choice, 100c@$1.00; fair to good, 75@?c; in small lots from store, per bbl, $3.00; sweet potatoes, choice, per lb, 2@2½c; cabbage, choice, per doz, 50@60c; celery, 40c.

APPLES—There is plenty of fancy stock now arriving from all sections, the demand, however, is limited. Dealers are not fully prepared to lay in their winter stock. Common stock, $2.00@2.25; choice shipping stock, $2.50@3.00; fancy stand, $2.75@3.00; fancy Michigan, $3.00@3.25.

HOME-GROWN GRAPES—Are very nearly out of the market. The market is supplied with New York Concords: 25 to 30 basket lots per basket, 15@40c; 10 to 15 basket lots, 40@45c; 1 to 5 basket lots, 40@50c.

OYSTERS—The weather has been most too warm to admit of a very heavy oyster trade. However, trade is better than usual at this season, and a good many orders from the outside are being filled. Mediums, 25c; standards, 30c; selects, 35c; New York counts, 40c.

LEMONS—Choice, 260 size, per box $8.50.

ORANGES—The only changes on the market are Jamaica, which are lower than last week. Jamaica, per box, $3.00; per bbl., $11.

CRANBERRIES—The market is fairly well supplied with very choice stock. Cape cod, fancy, per bbl., $8.50; Wisconsin, $7.50.
