

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. THURSDAY MORNING OCT. 14. OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. H. W. TILTON, Manager. TELEPHONE: 54. NIGHT EDITOR: No. 25.

MINOR MENTION.

New York Plumbing Co. New fall goods at H. T. Lee's. Mr. Groneweg is still away. Buy Seal brand oysters, the best. Cooper & McGee sell Hardware. Cheap railroad tickets at Bushnell's. Mr. Lacy has concluded that the mayor is able to write his own inaugural.

The military display at this evening. The city council will meet to-night, and Mayor Groneweg will deliver his inaugural.

A petition has been filed in the superior court for a temporary writ of injunction to close the saloon kept by William Bohling. No. 10. Put is mad because he can't handle Frank and Jerry. He can't down them as easy as he can down Tom and Jerry.

The Salvation Army has opened its campaign here at H. T. Lee's. The male soldiers proved a failure, and now a platoon of fair ones have been sent to this battlefield.

Gustav Donald, editor of the Iowa Reform, at Davenport, will address the German democrats to-night in Dixon's hall. Mr. Donald is stopping at the Kiel hotel.

Mrs. Mitchell extends an invitation to her lady friends who were unable to call last evening to visit her to-day or to-night in the pattern room of H. Friedman's military department.

The report that Mr. Keating, shot by Mr. Schiller, was dead, proved premature. He was alive last evening, and some hopes were entertained that he would yet pull through.

Deputy Sheriff O'Neil yesterday captured a cyclone, and managed to hold on to it. It was the famous and speedy horse of this name, which he seized on a claim, held by Deere, Wells & Co., for $400.

Mrs. Sarah Cox, of Pleasant township, was yesterday brought to this city in a violently insane condition, and by order of the commissioners taken to Mount Pleasant last evening by Deputy Sheriff Rickerts.

A novel entertainment is to be given at Cooke & Morgan's old store by the Acme club of St. Paul's church. It will be a "C" supper. If you want to see what a "C" supper is, patronize the young ladies.

Permit to wed was yesterday granted Otto Pfeiffer and Mary Kelley, both of this city; Theodore Kennedy, of Poria, and Regina Webster; M. E. Meader, of Goshen, Ind., and Miss Lulu Stephenson of this city.

The new mayor does not need a Pat on his back. He evidently intends to do what he thinks best. If he falls into error it will be his own error, and he bravely assumes the responsibility which the people placed upon him.

M. Kubing, who has been employed by the Singer Sewing Machine company, is charged with having collected and retained several small amounts after being discharged by the company. He was yesterday bound over to await the action of the grand jury, bail being fixed at $200.

It is with regret that the announcement is made that Pat Lacy is suffering from a severe attack of dyspepsia and nervous prostration. He is reported as being very despondent, nervous and irritable, and his friends are urging for him a change of climate.

The sheriff at Denison has had great trouble with one jail bird, named Struck, who succeeded nightly in saving off chains and bars. Yesterday he made the discovery that some steel bars had been concealed in a truss worn by the prisoner, and it was with this that the fellow had been working.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

WAS IT MURDER OR SUICIDE?

The Mysterious Death of Ike Barrier By Poison.

RAGE OF A REJECTED SUITOR.

Sunday School Workers to Gather To-day—Judge Jones Thinks of Withdrawing—Killed on a Railway Crossing.

The mysterious death of I. S. Barrier was the subject of more investigation yesterday. The coroner's jury was in session all of the forenoon, and examined a number of witnesses secretly. A verdict was agreed upon about noon to the effect that the deceased came to his death by poison administered by his own hand.

The evidence as taken before the coroner's jury showed that Barrier had been hanging about a dive kept by "Texas," a well known colored man, and that he had been at the house a good deal during the past few days. He seems to have been especially attracted thither by the presence there of a white girl, to whom he paid special attention and money.

This girl, Cora Davis, narrated the details of his visit to her. She says she saw him money, and two checks for $100 each. She thought there was about $200 in bills. She heard him speak about having to get up to the bank before it closed, and that he was given to her voluntarily by him. He acted strangely and did not seem to be himself all the time.

The man had a vial containing some white powder and marked poison, and he threatened to take this if she would not go into a room with him and the undertaker's room. The girl declared that the man had a policeman's star in his pocket.

Other inmates of the house testified to the man being there, and to his having a bottle of poison. He talked a good deal about his money, but they did not see it. It appeared that it was not at Mr. Jot's house where he died, but at the house of Mrs. Coyle. The woman described the closing hours of his life; how he came to the house sick on Tuesday afternoon, and told the story as given in yesterday's Bee, that he had been given a drink by a man whom he thought was a friend, but that the minute he drank it he began to feel queer, and believed he was poisoned. He refused to take anything to relieve him, and apparently wanted to die. He gave directions for his body to be taken to Neels, and wrote out an order and signed it for his trunk to be delivered to Mrs. Coyle. In a few minutes afterwards he died.

Other strange things about the man were learned yesterday by the Bee man, which were not presented before the jury. It appears that on Saturday last John Templeton, a minister of the gospel, was coming along by his cigar store on Broadway, next to the opera house, and almost kicking over his figure while for a sign. The fellow began to talk and Templeton turned in a district telegraph call for a police. A messenger boy started out to find a policeman, and happening to be none at the station, and on Broadway he found this man in a blue suit on and wearing a star. He told him that an officer was wanted at Templeton's and went there with him. The man went down Broadway after him. Barrier soon returned, and dropping into Templeton's place, passed some remark about the drunken fellow and the failure of the messenger to find a policeman. Templeton turned in a district telegraph call for a police. A messenger boy started out to find a policeman, and happening to be none at the station, and on Broadway he found this man in a blue suit on and wearing a star.

He told him that an officer was wanted at Templeton's and went there with him. The man went down Broadway after him. Barrier soon returned, and dropping into Templeton's place, passed some remark about the drunken fellow and the failure of the messenger to find a policeman. Templeton turned in a district telegraph call for a police. A messenger boy started out to find a policeman, and happening to be none at the station, and on Broadway he found this man in a blue suit on and wearing a star.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

On account of the disagreeable weather last evening, Friedman will continue his opening to-day, and this evening. Ladies who did not have an opportunity to visit his grand millinery opening on Tuesday evening should not fail to inspect it as it is certainly the finest millinery display ever given in this city.

PERSONAL PHOTOGRAPHS.

A. V. Bass, of Ratholow, Iowa, was at the Opera yesterday. W. P. Russell, formerly of Glenwood, but now of Chicago, was at the Pacific yesterday. W. F. Way, of Carson, was at the Pacific yesterday, on his way back from a successful hunt in Nebraska.

Misses Clara and Lena Bedford returned yesterday from St. Louis, where they have been visiting the past week. Mrs. J. J. Anderson and a lady friend from Atlantic, were in the Bluffs yesterday, shopping, and dined at the Pacific. S. B. Fram, of Shelby, was among those at the Pacific yesterday, looking over the political field with victory in his eye.

John W. Cope, formerly connected with the postoffice in this city, but latterly of the Barber dramatic company, is in the city visiting friends. Y. R. Galbraith has received word that his father, an old resident of Council Bluffs, but now in Dakota, had been badly injured by a shock from a stroke of lightning. He expects soon to go to his father.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

PERSONAL PHOTOGRAPHS.

A. V. Bass, of Ratholow, Iowa, was at the Opera yesterday. W. P. Russell, formerly of Glenwood, but now of Chicago, was at the Pacific yesterday. W. F. Way, of Carson, was at the Pacific yesterday, on his way back from a successful hunt in Nebraska.

Misses Clara and Lena Bedford returned yesterday from St. Louis, where they have been visiting the past week. Mrs. J. J. Anderson and a lady friend from Atlantic, were in the Bluffs yesterday, shopping, and dined at the Pacific. S. B. Fram, of Shelby, was among those at the Pacific yesterday, looking over the political field with victory in his eye.

John W. Cope, formerly connected with the postoffice in this city, but latterly of the Barber dramatic company, is in the city visiting friends. Y. R. Galbraith has received word that his father, an old resident of Council Bluffs, but now in Dakota, had been badly injured by a shock from a stroke of lightning. He expects soon to go to his father.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he will make a visit of a few days at Tabor, where he has two brothers residing. He will then return to this city for a longer stay.

Mr. Samuel Dalton, of Woodstock, England, is in the city on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, whose husband is a contractor, builder and five-story dealer at No. 714 North street. Mr. Dalton left Woodstock on the 23d of last month and had a pleasant journey, reaching Boston last Friday. In company with Mr. Johnson, he has been looking over Council Bluffs, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with its appearance, the beautiful views, the magnificent drives, the parks and the paved streets. His niece, Miss Hattie Dalton, of Tabor, is visiting with him, and he