

TATTERSALL'S GREAT SALE.

The Noted Auctioneer Disposes of the Stud of Lord Lansdale.

BIG PRICES FOR THE ANIMALS.

A Neat Team to Assist the Nobleman in His American Theatrical Venture—Emperor William Growing Stronger.

A Great Stud Sale.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—A society weekly last Saturday had this program:— Lord Lansdale's stud is for sale, and in the catalogue are included all the fine chestnut coach horses and Lady Lansdale's ponies.

The Field and all the sporting papers contained advertisements of the sale for this morning. Many details mentioned the fact, at which notoriety, added to the copious extracts in many London papers describing the odd New York scenes wherein the earl has figured, attracted great crowds to the auction.

Today I saw his excellency, General Count Lehndorf, who for half a century has been in almost constant attendance on his majesty. The count, who himself seemed somewhat fatigued, was accompanied by me.

Vote of Confidence Rejected.

PARIS, (via Havre) Oct. 18.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—The French chamber rejected today a proposed vote of confidence in the ministry. Five ministers have resigned.

Mary's Quake Contribution.

DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—Miss Mary Anderson has subscribed $2,500 for the benefit of the sufferers by the Charleston earthquake—the net proceeds of her concert during the past week for that purpose.

Wrecked Steamer.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The British steamer Arthur, from New York, September 29, for Bordeaux, was lost off Pointe de La Coubre, at the northern mouth of the Gironde.

Cholera Victims.

VIENNA, Oct. 18.—Cholera returns from Trieste and Pesth are fifty-five new cases and twenty-three deaths.

The Church Conventions.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—In the Congregational conference today Professor Fisher, of Yale Theological seminary, detailed the growth and progress of that institution, which had been nearly two centuries in existence and which it was to be wished would be the fount of learning to all churches in the future.

British Grain Trade Review.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British market, says: Values in wheat have hardened slightly for good samples; the native average has fallen to its lowest point in years.

Wrecked Sailors Recaptured.

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 18.—Captain Schluff, of the schooner Annie B. Hutchinson, from Chagres for New York, reports as follows: On the 4th, fifteen miles south of Tortosa, I picked up the captain, mate, and four sailors of the Spanish bark Tres Auroras.

The Ladies' Horses.

Next the ladies hustled to the front as Lady Lansdale's chestnuts—Clifton and Temora, to be driven as a pair—were started. They seemed to know their worth by their steps.

The Road Laid.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 18.—J. B. Johnson & Co., sub-contractors for the construction of the St. Louis & Chicago Railway company from Litchfield to Springfield, Ill., this morning in the circuit court of Sangamon county, dismissed their bill for injunction at their cost, and the company will at once begin the work on its extension to its extension north to Peoria and Chicago.

The President's Programme.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The president, accompanied by several members of his cabinet, will attend the state agricultural fair at Richmond, Va., on Thursday next. On the following Wednesday the president and his cabinet will go to New York to attend the inaugural ceremonies of the Bartholdi statue.

END OF THE GREAT STRIKE.

Complete Collapse of the Leckout of the Chicago Packers.

THE MEN ACCEPT TEN HOURS.

New Employees to be Retained and the Old Hands Reinstated as Far as Possible—Armour's Position.

The Butchers Strike Out.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The great strike, involving over 30,000 men, which has been in progress at the stock yards for ten days, came to an end this afternoon, the strikers agreeing to return to work on a basis of ten hours a day, without exacting any conditions. The settlement was unexpected and in many respects a remarkable one.

Health and Strength.

BATHING, Oct. 18.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.]—The emperor's attendants were somewhat anxious last night lest his going out in the storm yesterday should be followed by bad results. This morning, however, he was up at a quarter of 6 feeling splendid. His report of the night's sleep was excellent. He went to the splendid Black Forest hotel. In the afternoon he took a long drive and then walked with the Princess Furstenberg and Countess Furstenberg nearly a mile to the grounds of the lawn tennis club. As he returned the large tent erected for the occasion did little justice to the splendid Black Forest hotel. In the afternoon he took a long drive and then walked with the Princess Furstenberg and Countess Furstenberg nearly a mile to the grounds of the lawn tennis club.

What Armour's Statement Was.

"There has no compromise, no settlement," said Mr. Armour this noon. "Armour & Co. would not know there was a strike if it hadn't been for the numbers of men that come here looking for work."

Chicago and St. Louis Contesting—New System of Emplying.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The St. Louis Browns, and the champions of the national league of the season of 1886, today played the first game of a series of six, half to be played in Chicago and half in St. Louis, for the championship of the world. Up to the eighth inning the game was very closely contested.

Kentucky Fall Meeting.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 18.—The fall meeting of the Kentucky association opened grandly yesterday. The day was a fine one, and the racing was of the highest quality.

Coney Island Races.

BRIGHTON BEACH, Oct. 18.—For two years, selling allowances, three-fourths of a mile; Bellevue won, Falsehood second, Belmont third, time 1:18.4.

A Disastrous Blaze.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The Daily News Oakland (Ill.) special says: The greater part of the business portion of Oakland is in ruins. The fire broke out at half-past 7 p. m., and at midnight whole blocks were a mass of burning debris.

The Switchmen's Strike.

MEXICO, Oct. 18.—The striking switchmen show no disposition to do violence this morning, but seem to be awaiting the action of the railroad officials. Trains on one or two lines are moving without trouble, others having some difficulty.

A Destructive New York Blaze.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A destructive fire occurred tonight at 6 o'clock in Greenwich street, between Sixth and Stanton. Six factory buildings, owned by ex-Alderman Kehring, were totally destroyed, besides the five-story workshop of Kehring's American Desk Manufacturing company.

Salisbury in Ruins.

SALISBURY, Oct. 18.—This town, which was nearly destroyed by fire last night, is the county seat of Wicomico, and has been before destroyed by fire. It is the principal lumber trading point of the eastern shore of Maryland, and for many years has done a large and important business.

Striking Switchmen Kill Engines.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 18.—Two engines were killed by the strikers this afternoon, but no collision between the strikers and the authorities occurred. The Northern Pacific officials have applied for an injunction restraining the strikers, whose names are given in the bill in chancery from interfering with the trains of that road.

The Knights of Labor.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 18.—Delegates to the general assembly of the Knights of Labor numbered scarcely five hundred when the convention was called to order this morning. Scores of them departed from the city on last night's train and many more leave to-day. There is therefore every reason for an adjournment within the hour.

THE TRICKSTER'S THREATS.

Church Howe Lays Down the Law to His Lincoln Lieutenants.

HE SWINGS HIS CAMPAIGN CLUB.

Arrest at Columbus of the Supposed Murderer of Quinn—Fatal Accident Near Kearney—Iowa and Nebraska News.

Church Takes Counsel.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Church Howe, who has been in the city the past twenty-four hours encouraging his supporters and wire-pullers, has taken his departure again, but before taking it he called a meeting of Lincoln citizens and his pet strikers at the Capital hotel and he laid down the law to them.

Arrest at Columbus of the Supposed Murderer of Quinn.

COLUMBUS, Mo., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A young man, about nineteen years old, was taken through here this morning on the way home to Burnett by four young companions named Edgar G. Butts, Arthur G. Lewis, Chas. B. Young and Alvin B. Batsford. These five young men all live at Burnett, and formed a hunting party for a few days' sport. They went to the "Platte river between North Bend and Schuyler to enjoy their sport. On Saturday three of them were on a sand bar near the river, when they saw some cranes approaching. They laid down on the sand and just as Butts raised his gun and discharged it, young Kierstead jumped to his feet and received the whole charge in his body and was instantly killed.

A Farmer Accidentally Killed.

KANSAS, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Saturday evening Jeremiah Wilson, a farmer living northwest of Buda, started in company with William Trevelyan to his home from Gibbon. When out five miles from town Wilson got out to walk and attempt to draw a shot gun out of his wagon with the muzzle towards him. The hammer struck the wheel and both barrels were discharged into the unfortunate man's body, entering his right side and coming out on the left side of the heart, causing instant death. The coroner's verdict was in accordance with the above facts. Wilson has no family.

Is It Jackson?

YORK, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A fellow claiming to be a printer from Omaha, and answering to the name of Robertson, was arrested here today by Marshal Oberbacher as he was about to board the train for the east. He answered exactly to the description of W. J. Jackson, the hotel beat, and upon whose head a reward of $100 had been offered by Nat Brown, of Omaha, for obtaining money under false pretenses. The arrest was made upon the strength of the card published in Friday's Bee. The man is being held here awaiting advice from Omaha.

Ignited by a Locomotive Spark.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—On Saturday morning as the Albion train on its eastern run was passing the land of A. H. Winterbottoms, between St. Edwards and Genoa, a spark from the engine ignited the dry grass and burned up thirty-five tons of hay, a lot of fencing and timber, and for the prompt extinguishing of the fire the damage would have been extensive.

Columbus Temperance Advocates.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The W. C. T. U. of this place held a very interesting meeting Sunday night in the Methodist church. Essays were read by Mrs. Hiltchcock and Mrs. Little, and addresses by Revs. Young and St. Clair, stirring the vast audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm in the cause of temperance.

An Elopement Couple.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There is considerable excitement over an elopement pair, Emil Kamer, twenty-five years old, and the fourteen-year-old daughter of a local banker. There is no trace of the fleeing party.

Arrested on Suspicion.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A young man, answering the description of Quinn's murderer was caged here this afternoon, and the authorities at Hastings notified.

AWAITING DEVELOPMENTS.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The arrival of "Bismarck" and what he will testify is the general theme of conversation and speculation here today. The officers are very reticent and "Bismarck" cannot be seen by newspaper men. Several facts have been gleaned, however, that are of interest. The examination of the prisoner will be conducted tomorrow, and it is certain he will make many startling disclosures. He will name the murderer, all the accomplices, and the others are making strenuous efforts to bring them all in. Sheriff McDonald is absent from the city, and inside advice is to the effect that he will make the arrest of Treiber and possibly Platt. The manner of "Bismarck's" leaving the city after the murder, and also the large number of "Bismarck's" and Ganders received $50 for doing up Haddock before hand, and were to have resolved upon when the deed was done. Nothing has yet been divulged to indicate that "Bismarck" will not corroborate Leavitt's story. In fact every thing seems to show he will. It is possible, however, he may put the blame of the shot on some one other than Anderson. The present indications the examination of all the interested and excited of Anderson's and the other conspirators examined last week. Every new phase of the situation is discussed most eagerly and the interest does not die out. Just at the present time the prosecution looks active, support financial and otherwise of some organization, but will not fail or be inefficient on this as-

COX WILL HAVE TO CHANGE.

"Sunset" Cannot be Minister to Turkey and Run for Congress.

COMING MINISTERIAL CHANGES.

General Maury Reappointed to the United States of Colombia—Printer Benedict and the Bomb He Would Explode.

Humored Ministerial Changes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—It is reported that the president will require Minister Cox to tender his resignation after he is nominated for congress from the Ninth district. At least, it is understood that this will be in accordance with the rule which has lately taken effect in administration circles. There are a number of candidates for the Turkish mission. It is understood that General Pierce M. Young, who is dissatisfied with his place at St. Petersburg, would like the place if he fails to get the mission to Vienna. It is not believed here that the Vienna mission will be filled during this administration. Mr. Bayard so resents the action of the Austrian government in rejecting Kelley that he will probably refuse to nominate anyone as minister during his term. The Austrian government has formally withdrawn Baron Sueder and that country is not represented by any minister at Washington.

Reappointed to the United States of Colombia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—It is reported that the president will require Minister Cox to tender his resignation after he is nominated for congress from the Ninth district. At least, it is understood that this will be in accordance with the rule which has lately taken effect in administration circles. There are a number of candidates for the Turkish mission. It is understood that General Pierce M. Young, who is dissatisfied with his place at St. Petersburg, would like the place if he fails to get the mission to Vienna. It is not believed here that the Vienna mission will be filled during this administration. Mr. Bayard so resents the action of the Austrian government in rejecting Kelley that he will probably refuse to nominate anyone as minister during his term. The Austrian government has formally withdrawn Baron Sueder and that country is not represented by any minister at Washington.

Printer Benedict and the Bomb He Would Explode.

REJECTED BUT REAPPOINTED. The president, after waiting several months, concluded today to reappoint Dabney H. Maury of Kentucky to be minister to the United States of Colombia. This is the first time General Maury has been appointed to a position under this administration, but he had filled the majority of vacancies which have been since rejected by the senate or by the countries whether they were General Maury or not. He was sent to the senate for the same position as he is appointed to today, but his nomination was rejected. One of the charges against 4 General Maury was that he had been disloyal to the flag, having remarked not long before he was sent to the senate that an American flag floating from a house-top, that he would like to tear it down, but added that he supposed the house-top would make to support it. There were many senators who thought a man not fit to represent that flag abroad, and hence he was not appointed.

Public Printer Benedict seems to be honest in his intention, but he seems to have and his friends are sadly aware that he is getting what is known as the "beef head." Mr. Benedict has been in the office, but from what he tells of them they seem better fitted for a small country printing office than the immense establishment which he is to preside over. Mr. Benedict falls freely to callers, and he has told a number of newspaper men that he had been in the office of the administration of his predecessor, and he intimated that it would make very interesting reading to have Benedict's account of the administration of his predecessor, and he intimated that it would make very interesting reading to have Benedict's account of the administration of his predecessor, and he intimated that it would make very interesting reading to have Benedict's account of the administration of his predecessor.

A Chinaman Refused Naturalization.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Judge Prendergast of the county court, today refused the application of Moy Ah Koo, a Chinese laundryman for naturalization as a citizen of the United States. The applicant's name was on the list of those who were granted citizenship in New York and were in regular form, but the judge said he was uncertain as to whether the applicant was a citizen of the United States or not. He refused to grant a lawyer to represent his case.

The Boodle Alternates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—When the case of ex-Alderman Henry L. Slayes was called at the court of general sessions today, habits and officials were much surprised at the presentation of a check for $25,000 to Judge Cowing by the banker, Sol Slayes. Notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of ex-Alderman McCabe's attorney, the motion made by the banker to have the case set down for the first trial, was granted. McCabe was then committed to the toombs to await trial.

Cotton Dealers Fail.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 18.—King, Bros. & Co., wholesale cotton factors, assigned to-day to Charles M. Dampoff. Assets, estimated, $50,000; liabilities, $400,000.

Nebraska and Iowa Fair Weather.

FOR NEBRASKA AND IOWA: Fair weather; cooler.

Building Permits.

Superintendent Whitlock is very desirous that all persons who had buildings erected or started before the building inspector ordinance was adopted, will furnish him with statistics concerning such improvements, as he desires to secure a complete list of the building done this year. Permits were issued yesterday as follows:

Michael Leary, two-story frame dwelling, Chicago, between Twelfth and Thirtieth streets, $1,475. S. J. Chambers, two-story frame, sixteen and Burdette, 2,000. Edward Wight, one-story brick addition to school, 100. C. A. Warren, one-story frame cottage, Miami and Twenty-fourth, 500. Four permits, aggregating, $4,075.

Licensed to Wed.

Judge McCulloch issued marriage licenses yesterday to the following parties: Name. Residence. Age. May E. Nauzinger, Omaha, 20. Wm. Henderson, Omaha, 35. Minnie Conroy, Omaha, N. Y., 20. Frank Redwood, Omaha, 25. Elsie D. Leonard, Omaha, 18. Robert Kirkland, Omaha, 23. Carrie Clark, Omaha, 18. John Johnson, Elk City, Neb., 21. Edna F. Johnson, Elk City, Neb., 17. John Sedgwick, Omaha, 23. Anna Seigler, Omaha, 23.

Court Notes.

Judge Wakely was engaged yesterday in hearing the case of Mary Schuller vs. S. G. Stevenson, an action brought to recover damages for slander. The case of J. H. Chambers vs. W. J. Council was decided in favor of the plaintiff. It was a damage suit growing out of a real estate deal. Judge Neville is still engaged in holding court in Washington county, and the trial of the criminal case of the county has been postponed until next week. F. J. Kloes & Co., of New York, have commenced suit in the district court against Wurnace & Lewis for $20, for goods sold and delivered.

A Reform School Victim.

Deputy Sheriff Louis Grube yesterday evening arrested Gertrude May, a young fellow who escaped from the state reform school at Kearney two years ago. He has been here for several months, but as the trial of the criminal case of the county has been postponed until next week, he has been hanging around saloons and gambling houses. On this account the authorities have decided to again take charge of him. He will be returned to the reform school to-day.

DEED.

BRIANER, Le Roy V., youngest son of T. C. and Nellie M. Briener, aged two years and three months. Funeral notice will be announced later.

THE TRICKSTER'S THREATS.

Church Howe Lays Down the Law to His Lincoln Lieutenants.

HE SWINGS HIS CAMPAIGN CLUB.

Arrest at Columbus of the Supposed Murderer of Quinn—Fatal Accident Near Kearney—Iowa and Nebraska News.

Church Takes Counsel.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Church Howe, who has been in the city the past twenty-four hours encouraging his supporters and wire-pullers, has taken his departure again, but before taking it he called a meeting of Lincoln citizens and his pet strikers at the Capital hotel and he laid down the law to them.

Arrest at Columbus of the Supposed Murderer of Quinn.

COLUMBUS, Mo., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A young man, about nineteen years old, was taken through here this morning on the way home to Burnett by four young companions named Edgar G. Butts, Arthur G. Lewis, Chas. B. Young and Alvin B. Batsford. These five young men all live at Burnett, and formed a hunting party for a few days' sport. They went to the "Platte river between North Bend and Schuyler to enjoy their sport. On Saturday three of them were on a sand bar near the river, when they saw some cranes approaching. They laid down on the sand and just as Butts raised his gun and discharged it, young Kierstead jumped to his feet and received the whole charge in his body and was instantly killed.

A Farmer Accidentally Killed.

KANSAS, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Saturday evening Jeremiah Wilson, a farmer living northwest of Buda, started in company with William Trevelyan to his home from Gibbon. When out five miles from town Wilson got out to walk and attempt to draw a shot gun out of his wagon with the muzzle towards him. The hammer struck the wheel and both barrels were discharged into the unfortunate man's body, entering his right side and coming out on the left side of the heart, causing instant death. The coroner's verdict was in accordance with the above facts. Wilson has no family.

Is It Jackson?

YORK, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A fellow claiming to be a printer from Omaha, and answering to the name of Robertson, was arrested here today by Marshal Oberbacher as he was about to board the train for the east. He answered exactly to the description of W. J. Jackson, the hotel beat, and upon whose head a reward of $100 had been offered by Nat Brown, of Omaha, for obtaining money under false pretenses. The arrest was made upon the strength of the card published in Friday's Bee. The man is being held here awaiting advice from Omaha.

Ignited by a Locomotive Spark.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—On Saturday morning as the Albion train on its eastern run was passing the land of A. H. Winterbottoms, between St. Edwards and Genoa, a spark from the engine ignited the dry grass and burned up thirty-five tons of hay, a lot of fencing and timber, and for the prompt extinguishing of the fire the damage would have been extensive.

Columbus Temperance Advocates.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The W. C. T. U. of this place held a very interesting meeting Sunday night in the Methodist church. Essays were read by Mrs. Hiltchcock and Mrs. Little, and addresses by Revs. Young and St. Clair, stirring the vast audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm in the cause of temperance.

An Elopement Couple.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There is considerable excitement over an elopement pair, Emil Kamer, twenty-five years old, and the fourteen-year-old daughter of a local banker. There is no trace of the fleeing party.

Arrested on Suspicion.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A young man, answering the description of Quinn's murderer was caged here this afternoon, and the authorities at Hastings notified.

AWAITING DEVELOPMENTS.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The arrival of "Bismarck" and what he will testify is the general theme of conversation and speculation here today. The officers are very reticent and "Bismarck" cannot be seen by newspaper men. Several facts have been gleaned, however, that are of interest. The examination of the prisoner will be conducted tomorrow, and it is certain he will make many startling disclosures. He will name the murderer, all the accomplices, and the others are making strenuous efforts to bring them all in. Sheriff McDonald is absent from the city, and inside advice is to the effect that he will make the arrest of Treiber and possibly Platt. The manner of "Bismarck's" leaving the city after the murder, and also the large number of "Bismarck's" and Ganders received $50 for doing up Haddock before hand, and were to have resolved upon when the deed was done. Nothing has yet been divulged to indicate that "Bismarck" will not corroborate Leavitt's story. In fact every thing seems to show he will. It is possible, however, he may put the blame of the shot on some one other than Anderson. The present indications the examination of all the interested and excited of Anderson's and the other conspirators examined last week. Every new phase of the situation is discussed most eagerly and the interest does not die out. Just at the present time the prosecution looks active, support financial and otherwise of some organization, but will not fail or be inefficient on this as-

COX WILL HAVE TO CHANGE.

"Sunset" Cannot be Minister to Turkey and Run for Congress.

COMING MINISTERIAL CHANGES.

General Maury Reappointed to the United States of Colombia—Printer Benedict and the Bomb He Would Explode.

Humored Ministerial Changes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—It is reported that the president will require Minister Cox to tender his resignation after he is nominated for congress from the Ninth district. At least, it is understood that this will be in accordance with the rule which has lately taken effect in administration circles. There are a number of candidates for the Turkish mission. It is understood that General Pierce M. Young, who is dissatisfied with his place at St. Petersburg, would like the place if he fails to get the mission to Vienna. It is not believed here that the Vienna mission will be filled during this administration. Mr. Bayard so resents the action of the Austrian government in rejecting Kelley that he will probably refuse to nominate anyone as minister during his term. The Austrian government has formally withdrawn Baron Sueder and that country is not represented by any minister at Washington.

Reappointed to the United States of Colombia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—It is reported that the president will require Minister Cox to tender his resignation after he is nominated for congress from the Ninth district. At least, it is understood that this will be in accordance with the rule which has lately taken effect in administration circles. There are a number of candidates for the Turkish mission. It is understood that General Pierce M. Young, who is dissatisfied with his place at St. Petersburg, would like the place if he fails to get the mission to Vienna. It is not believed here that the Vienna mission will be filled during this administration. Mr. Bayard so resents the action of the Austrian government in rejecting Kelley that he will probably refuse to nominate anyone as minister during his term. The Austrian government has formally withdrawn Baron Sueder and that country is not represented by any minister at Washington.

Printer Benedict and the Bomb He Would Explode.

REJECTED BUT REAPPOINTED. The president, after waiting several months, concluded today to reappoint Dabney H. Maury of Kentucky to be minister to the United States of Colombia. This is the first time General Maury has been appointed to a position under this administration, but he had filled the majority of vacancies which have been since rejected by the senate or by the countries whether they were General Maury or not. He was sent to the senate for the same position as he is appointed to today, but his nomination was rejected. One of the charges against 4 General Maury was that he had been disloyal to the flag, having remarked not long before he was sent to the senate that an American flag floating from a house-top, that he would like to tear it down, but added that he supposed the house-top would make to support it. There were many senators who thought a man not fit to represent that flag abroad, and hence he was not appointed.

Public Printer Benedict seems to be honest in his intention, but he seems to have and his friends are sadly aware that he is getting what is known as the "beef head." Mr. Benedict has been in the office, but from what he tells of them they seem better fitted for a small country printing office than the immense establishment which he is to preside over. Mr. Benedict falls freely to callers, and he has told a number of newspaper men that he had been in the office of the administration of his predecessor, and he intimated that it would make very interesting reading to have Benedict's account of the administration of his predecessor, and he intimated that it would make very interesting reading to have Benedict's account of the administration of his predecessor.

A Chinaman Refused Naturalization.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Judge Prendergast of the county court, today refused the application of Moy Ah Koo, a Chinese laundryman for naturalization as a citizen of the United States. The applicant's name was on the list of those who were granted citizenship in New York and were in regular form, but the judge said he was uncertain as to whether the applicant was a citizen of the United States or not. He refused to grant a lawyer to represent his case.

The Boodle Alternates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—When the case of ex-Alderman Henry L. Slayes was called at the court of general sessions today, habits and officials were much surprised at the presentation of a check for $25,000 to Judge Cowing by the banker, Sol Slayes. Notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of ex-Alderman McCabe's attorney, the motion made by the banker to have the case set down for the first trial, was granted. McCabe was then committed to the toombs to await trial.

Cotton Dealers Fail.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 18.—King, Bros. & Co., wholesale cotton factors, assigned to-day to Charles M. Dampoff. Assets, estimated, $50,000; liabilities, $400,000.

Nebraska and Iowa Fair Weather.

FOR NEBRASKA AND IOWA: Fair weather; cooler.

Building Permits.

Superintendent Whitlock is very desirous that all persons who had buildings erected or started before the building inspector ordinance was adopted, will furnish him with statistics concerning such improvements, as he desires to secure a complete list of the building done this year. Permits were issued yesterday as follows: