A VERY WEAK WEDNESDAY

A Big Decrease of Grain on Passage Causes a Weak Local Feeling.

CORN UNDER THE WEATHER

Pork Lower and Only Moderate Trading Done—Cattle and Hogs Slow Throughout—General Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—There was a decrease of 2,000,000 bushels of grain shown on passage this morning, which, all things being equal, ought to have strengthened the market, but all things were not exactly equal. The local feeling was rather weak, and the actual advance made on first quotations was only 1¼c. November wheat opened at 73¾c, and sold off to 72c. The fresh receipts of this grain were 146 cars. Corn was in to the extent of 250 cars, and of oats there were 108 cars, brought out by thousands of telegrams sent hence yesterday announcing the termination of the strike, and urging the shipment of January pork. The trade in wheat during the first hour was of the lightest possible description. Once November got as low as 73¾c, but on the average it ranged a shade over 73¾c. No operator was disposed to do anything, and the bulk were entirely without orders. Corn fell off to 40¾c, and pork kept steadily around $9.00¾. Traders waited in vain for anything to transpire, not offering the shadow of an excuse for either making or breaking the market. A noteworthy feature of the morning was that yesterday's exports of twenty-six boat loads were confirmed. The usual thing is for the official reports to knock off the last figures when the shipments assume these proportions. For an hour after 10:30 there was a steady, forward and back move between 73½c and 73¾c. The wheat crowd seem to have got on to Mr. Fraley and his milking tactics, for when he now enters the pit with some very noisy and apparently genuine bids for wheat they let him have all he will buy. This game was played this morning. He bid 73¾c and the market immediately declined to 73¼c. The offerings were so plentiful shortly after noon that there was a decline to 72¾@73c, local sellers coming out in increased numbers. There is a suspicion that Fraley changed his tactics about this time, at least some operators affect to believe that while he was apparently buying wheat a dozen or so brokers were employed by him in selling property. In the way of news the crowd had very little to engage their attention. This made the market naturally slow and heavy.

Corn was again indisposed toward any special movement and the prices ranged downward from those at the opening till May touched 40¾@40¾c. The close was quiet.

January pork reacted to $9.70@9.72½, but later fell off to $9.65. Trade was very moderate.

2:30 p. m.—Wheat was very steady during the afternoon session, ranging at 72¾@73c for November, and closing at 72¾c. Corn was a little lower. Pork unchanged. Lard, November was a fraction higher and January 5c cheaper.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—2:40 p. m.—Privileges on November wheat, 72¾@73¼c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—The cattle market today was slow and week throughout. There was a pretty fair proportion of good to choice heavy cattle and in some cases heavy sold at lower prices. Common to fair were generally 10c lower and thin and rough cattle sold very slowly. Smooth fat cattle of sundry, weight and good quality sold at steady prices. Shipping steers, 1250 to 1500 lbs, $4.75@5.20; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.10@4.65; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.60@4.10. Range cattle offerings were fairly large and the quality was reasonably good. Some of the most desirable Texans and territory cattle sold at about steady prices, but common to fair qualities were in some cases lower. The general market was barely steady. Sales: 104 Montana, 1161 lbs., $3.40; 105 Montana Texas, 1046 lbs, $3.15; 177 Montana, 1165 lbs, $3.35; 54 Colorado, 1243 lbs, $3.15; 160 Montana cows, 993 lbs, $2.70; 100 Wyoming, 1171 lbs, $3.00; 80 Wyoming, 1070 lbs, $3.00.

HOGS—Trade was dull and prices 25@30c lower. Since the decline set in the receipts for the first three days of this week are greater than the entire number last week and for the past two days the arrivals reach 45,000. At the close to-day there were 19,000 to 20,000 unsold, the sales reaching about 13,000. Rough and common, $3.50@3.70; fair to good, $4.00@4.25; best heavy, $3.30@4.40; light sorts, $3.60; Yorks, $4.00@4.25.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—MONEY—On call, active, ranging from 4@8 per cent, closing at 4@5 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Quiet but steady; actual business at $4.80½@4.81 for sixty day bills; $4.84@4.84¼ for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but strong.

STOCKS—Stocks showed more strength than for many days past. While there was some slight heaviness in early trading, the market soon rallied, and Manhattan, Jersey Central, New England, and Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus & Indianapolis made material advances. The rise was checked toward 2 p. m. and Jersey Central took the lead in the decline which followed. The early gains were wiped out and the final prices were at or near the lowest of the day, the market closing weak.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 20.

CATTLE—The fresh receipts were light, but there were enough left over from the previous day to make a good showing. There were a few corn fed cattle in which sold quickly. The market for feeders is slow. A good many feeders are selling, but there is no life in the market. There was not much doing in butcher stock. One bunch of cows was all that was sold to-day of any account.

HOGS—The receipts were slightly heavier than yesterday. The market opened very nearly steady with the closing prices of the night before. The reported heavy decline in eastern markets tended to weaken the market here, and while the range of prices was as high as yesterday the general market was lower. The market here has been holding up very fine and is now considerable higher in proportion than Chicago. For that reason some dealers are looking for a further decline here.

SHEEP—There were a few in to-day and they were sold.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Wednesday, Oct. 20.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

EGGS—The prevailing price is 18@19c.

BUTTER—An active feeling prevails on all fine grades of creamery and dairy, as well as strictly choice country butter, for table use, all of which are in limited supply. Receipts of inferior grades are in excess of the demand; a large proportion of the same has to be sold to packers at low figures. Fresh roll butter should be packed in clean boxes, not exceeding 80 pounds; each roll to be wrapped in a piece of muslin. It will pay shippers well to take a little pains in packing their butter. A nice, clean package of choice stock will always sell at outside figures. Fresh creamery, 20@22c; fresh dairy, 18@20c; choice country roll, 18@20c; choice country roll, solid packed, 17@18c; good country roll, solid packed, 15@16c; Fair, 11@14c; common, 4@9.

POULTRY—There has been some improvement in this line of late. Good, fat, healthy-looking chickens sell more readily than a week ago. Live ducks also meet with quicker sale. Old chickens, choice, per doz, $2.25@2.50; spring chickens, $2.00@2.25; ducks, $2.50@2.75; turkeys, $7.00@9.00; geese, $6.00@8.00.

GAME—All choice sound birds are being sold on arrival at quotations; off stock, however, is hard to sell at any price. The demand for deer and antelope is quite brisk; arrivals, thus far, have been exceedingly light. Prairie chickens, choice, per dozen, $3.00; quail, $1.50; snipe, plover, etc., 75c@$1.25; ducks, (Mallard), $1.75@2.00; ducks, (Teal), $1.00@1.25; ducks, mixed, 75c@$1.00; geese, $3.00@3.50; deer, saddles, per lb., 11@12c; deer, carcasses, per lb., 7@9c; antelope, saddles, 11@12c; antelope, carcasses, 7@9c; elk, saddles, choice, per lb., 10@11c; elk carcasses, 6@7c; jack rabbits, per doz., $3.50@4.00; small, per doz., $1.00@1.25.

APPLES—Prices on choice apples are holding up very well. Missouri apples are in very liberal supply. The following quotations are for apples well packed in barrels: choice Missouri stock, $2.25@2.50; Michigan, $2.50@2.75; fancy Michigan, $3.00@3.25.

POTATOES—There is now a brisk demand for straight cars of strictly choice potatoes at 50@55c per bushel. Mixed varieties, small, or otherwise inferior stock continues very dull and will not sell for more than 35 or 40c.

ONIONS—The demand is not heavy and they are selling in a small way: Choice stock, per bu., 80@1.00.

CABBAGE—The market is fairly well supplied: Choice stock, per doz., 50c.

GRAIN—Corn, 24c; new oats, 23c; rye, 40c; wheat, No. 2, 60c.

CHEESE—Full cream cheddars, single, 12½c; full cream flats, twins, 13c; Young American, 13½c; fancy Swiss, 14@15c; Swiss, imported, 25@27; Limburger, 12½; brick, 13c.

SWEET POTATOES—The market is glutted with choice sweet potatoes. Very choice stock was sold this week at 1¼c and even lower. Choice shipping stock, per lb., 1@1½c.

CELERY—A great amount of very poor stock has been coming in, which has been sold for what it would bring. Prices on choice stock remains about the same as last week: Choice stock, per doz., 35@40c; extra large, per doz., 40@45c.
