The judge gave him permission to hurry down to the morning train, and meet his wife, and then come back and be tried. He is supposed to be still trying to meet his wife, as he has not returned, and the county is being saved a board bill in the meantime.

RESULT SHOWN IN DETAIL.
 Congressman Lyman Re-elected and the Judicial Ticket Safe.
THE COUNTY TICKET SPLIT UP.
 Judge Jones and Justice Frainey Among the Wounded Taken From the Field—Tabulated Vote.

The Facts and Figures.
 There was much figuring over returns yesterday, they coming in unofficially and in fragments, but clearly enough to indicate the results sufficiently to satisfy the many questionings of "How has it gone?" The republicans win easily in the congressional race, Major Lyman's majority being fully 1,000. Dan Farrell, chairman of the democratic committee, conceded that majority yesterday, and republicans are looking for the detailed returns to make it 200 more than that figure. Farrell lays the defeat to the greenbackers, who went for Lyman, instead of standing by Colonel Keatley, as it was expected they would. Colonel Keatley was probably the most surprised of all the candidates. He was confident that he would be elected by a good majority, but it seems that he did not carry a county in the district except Pottawattamie, and he did not go out of this county with a majority which helped him as greatly as he had reason to expect. In the city Keatley received 1,544 votes, and Lyman 1,032, giving Keatley a majority of 512 in the city, while the county out this down somewhat. The city on secretary of state stood: Democratic 1,212, and republican 1,077, the total vote in the city being 2,289, about 300 short of the number registered. It was expected that Colonel Keatley would run further ahead of his ticket here, and that Lyman would be cut more, but it appears there was a pretty close clinging to party lines.

The republicans will elect their judicial ticket, Carson, Thornell and Deemer, by about 1,000 majority. The judicial vote in the city stands: Carson 1,202, Thornell 1,088, Deemer 1,080. This being Carson's home, there was a special push made for him here. The democratic nominees on the judicial ticket stood: Funk 1,428, Kelley 1,471, Cullison 1,493.
 On the county ticket it appears that the democrats elect Shea as county clerk, Thomas as recorder, while the republicans elect Colonel Daily as county attorney, and Waite and Frum as supervisors. The democrats also elect Faul as coroner.
 Shea's majority in the county over Matthews is estimated at 405. In the city Shea received 1,410, and Matthews 1,179. Shea's majority in the city being 261. In the city Matthews ran about 50 ahead of his ticket.
 For recorder it is figured that Thomas, the democratic nominee, has defeated Chambers, the present incumbent, by 273. In the city Thomas received 1,310, and Chambers 1,037, Thomas majority in the city being 273.
 For county supervisors the republican candidates, Frum and Waite, are supposed to be elected, Waite surely is, and Frum probably, though Maxfield, one of the democratic nominees, is not so far behind as to allow Frum to breathe free air. Judge almost the other democratic candidate, was fearfully slaughtered by his own party, especially in the country. In the city Judge James ran behind the state ticket, and a surprise to him, the manner in which he captured the nomination in the recent convention. He would doubtless be convinced that the present incumbent, A. C. Graham, who though a democrat, should have been re-elected on the board, has some political strength, and is recognized by his own party. Graham has fought James hard, and the blows have been telling ones. The following is the vote of the city of supervisors: Frum 1,261, Waite 1,311, Maxfield 1,361, James 1,163.
 The republican nominee for county attorney, Colonel Daily, is supposed to be elected by about 150 majority. In the city Williams run 222 behind the state ticket. The city vote was Daily 1,244, Williams 1,290.
 For coroner the city gave the democratic nominee, Faul, 1,365 and Fields 1,107. Faul's majority in the whole county will be about 800.
 The township ticket was chopped every way, and it was the slashing that made the count difficult and slow. The first precinct of the Fourth ward did not complete its returns until yesterday afternoon. The township vote of that precinct was not obtained at this office, but the following figures are shown as inclusive of every other precinct in the city. By the figures it appears that Biggs, Hart and Kilgore are elected as justices. Biggs was a democratic nominee, the two other republicans. The vote on justices without including the one precinct named stands:
 Biggs..... 1027
 Schurz..... 950
 Hart..... 916
 Whittlesby..... 859
 Kilgore..... 734
 Hendricks..... 675
 Frainey..... 625
 Williams..... 599
 James..... 593
 Frum..... 582
 Waite..... 571

By this it appears that Frainey was most fearfully cut, not getting half of the democratic vote of the city. He will now retire from office for a season.
 In the rest of the constituencies it appears that Ricketts, Klein and Spalding are elected. Spalding run like a deer, his election being due largely to the fact that he had lost a year in serving the penitentiary and had been thrust out of a position as letter carrier on the incoming of a democratic postmaster.
 The question of voting aid to the bridge company was decided in favor of the tax by an overwhelming majority, there being only 125 votes cast against it, and over 2,000 votes for it.
 The following are the returns from the outside towns in the county as they have been received:
 OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—Total vote 230, of which the republicans receive 152, democrats 78.
 CARSON, Nov. 3.—Total vote 211: Lyman 140, Keatley 90; state ticket, republican 139, democratic 72.
 WALNUT, Nov. 3.—Layton township gives Shea 100, Matthews 135, Thomas 146, Chambers 156.
 AVOCA, Nov. 3.—Shea 25 majority, a tie on recorder; Frum and Maxfield small majorities.
