

GATHERED ABOUT THE CITY.

Robert D. Duncan is Arrested for Bigamy.

A STAR ROUTE CASE.

It is Decided by Judge Dundy—Police Court—Returned from Germany—Other Local.

A Case of Bigamy.

A warrant was sworn out in Justice Berka's court yesterday for the arrest of Robert D. Duncan, on a charge of bigamy. The complaint was preferred by Mrs. Caroline Duncan, the woman from whom Duncan obtained a divorce a week or so since.

Pugilistic Points.

To night the celebrated Sullivan galaxy of fisto stars will be seen at the Exposition building. Among the number are the celebrated John L. Pete McCoy, George E. Blaine, better known as the "Marine," George Weir and Tom Warren.

The Report Utruce.

To the Editor of the Bee: In your Sunday issue appeared the following special:

AN EDITOR ARRESTED.

NEOLA, Ia., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram to the Bee)—Our city was thrown into excitement this morning by the arrest of J. R. Riblett, publisher of the Neola News, for a dastardly attempt to commit rape on a young lady who was a guest of his house.

I did not furnish bail because I wanted a case for false imprisonment later on. The case was called at 2 p. m. to-day and I was honorably discharged, the prosecution failed to show up.

A Star-Route Case Decided.

The star-route case against Luke Voorhis, of Cheyenne, has finally been disposed of in the United States court in Omaha. Voorhis was sued by the government to recover back money paid to him under an order of expedition from Fargo to Pembina.

A New and Neat Trick.

Chicago Herald: "Saw a new trick out in Iowa the other day," said a traveling man, "I was stopping at a little station on the Northwestern, and the hotel was close to the railroad track. The through passenger trains don't stop there. In the party sitting outside after dinner was a man who had a fine gold watch, with a heavy leather strap attached to it. It was the heaviest watch case made, and the strongest.

Concert By the Boys.

The "Wide-awake," a boys society of Hillside church, gave an entertainment Tuesday evening to an enthusiastic audience. The names of the boys taking part were Fred Johnson, president (Fred Teale, organist), Clarence and Horace Hartzel, Charlie Perchal, Fred Andrews, soloists; other parts by George Monroe, Merdell W. Crane, Eddie Johnson, Roy and Willie Miller, Sias and Herman Wallace, Charlie Smith, John and Harry Hartzel, Deey, Clarence Higgins and Roy Miller were uproariously encouraged.

Army Notes.

"It appears to be an established fact," said General Crook yesterday "that the Eighth infantry is to be sent to this department. We are now figuring how to dispose of the extra soldiers. Nearly all the posts are full now, and our accommodations are consequently limited. Why the Eighth infantry has been put to this department I can't tell you."

The Smith Case.

Judge Dundy, of the United States court, heard arguments yesterday on the motion for a new trial in the Smith-Low case. J. R. Clarkson represented Smith's creditors and J. M. Woodworth Haman Lowy.

Happy Temperance Boys and Girls

The meeting of the Temperance army held in the Lutheran church Tuesday evening was as usual largely attended. The young volunteers rendered their recitations with great credit. The address of Rev. J. S. DeWester was the feature of the evening, and called forth the hearty applause of the young soldiers of the army time and time again, and the truths which were so happily stated, will leave impressions on the young hearts, that time will not erase.

What's in a Name?

Chicago Herald: "If there's anything in this world that I do like to see," said a railroad man, "it is an appropriate name for a railroad. What, for instance, is the sense in naming a little one-horse railroad that runs from Chicago ten or fifteen miles north the Chicago, Evanston & Lake Superior railroad? As a matter of fact, very few of our western roads are properly named. Illinois Central is good, and so is Chicago & Northwestern, but Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and Chicago & Alton are not well named.

Amusements.

THE CHICAGO OPERA COMPANY. The first opera performance of the season will no doubt attract a large audience to the Boyd to night, when the Chicago Opera company appears in "The Mikado." The sale of seats opened this morning and were largely purchased.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers were filed Nov. 2, with the county clerk: W. V. Morse and wife to Thomas Sheedy, lots 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Police Points.

Judge Senberg had thirty-six election drunks and disturbers of the peace to dispose of yesterday morning. Thirty of this number were discharged. One man was fined $10, and one $5 and costs. Lewis Davis, Hugh McManus, John Benson and James Dessart, a quartette of drunks, each of whom was in the line of their delinquent treatment, were sent up to the county jail for ten days.

FALCONER'S GRAND DISPLAY.

Magnificent Opening of the Season at the Mammoth Dry Goods Store.

CROWDS OF PEOPLE PRESENT.

Everything Arranged to Please the Taste of the Most Fastidious—Rare and Costly Fabrics Exhibited.

Falconer's great dry goods store was crowded with people last evening, the occasion being the grand opening of the season with a magnificent display. Long before the doors were opened the sidewalks in front were crowded with people wrapt in admiration at the exhibit made in the show windows, which had been transformed with selections from the finest goods in the store, consisting of all the latest fashions in dress goods, evening silks, crochets, stripes, laces, fans, fur trimmings, novelty dress goods and books. The expression was general that the show window display was the finest ever made in this city.

Coming—Save Your Money.

Take a pair of scissors, cut this out, read and keep it until Friday, November 5, at 2 o'clock. The immense four-story building, No. 118 Farnam street, Omaha, Neb., has been hired for six days for the purpose of disposing of three enormous consolidated bankrupt stocks of fine tailors' made overcoats, also the stock of woensate hats and furnishing goods house. This immense stock from three wholesale houses that failed in New York city, has been consolidated for one grand sale. The store is now closed to arrange for this gigantic bankrupt sale.

THE REWARD

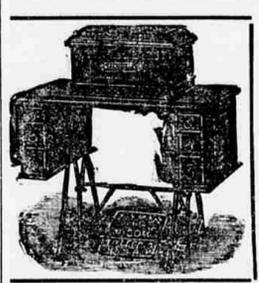

Daily received for originating low prices, by THE NEBRASKA CLOTHING CO., has really surpassed their own expectations. And they beg to assure the public of their determination to preserve that reputation unswayed.

In addition to what was mentioned in last issue regarding their special sale of medium priced Overcoats, Pea Jackets and Vests, of which they still have a quantity on hand, they have reinforced that department with new and special styles, and offer the same as follows: Burlington & Edridon Kersey Overcoats, trimmed with satin sleeve linings for $15.50; regular prices by other dealers, $22.50. Fine Chin-chillas and Elysians in fashionable shades, satin lined all through with silk velvet collars, for $20; regular price by other dealers $30. Montagnac Beavers, richly trimmed with satin, a novelty of the season for $20; sold by Chicago houses for $32.

The mentioning of the above beautiful garments at those prices, is to convince the public that extremely low prices prevail throughout their entire stock. And it should be borne in mind that every article sold, is guaranteed to be exactly as represented or the money will be refunded. All goods at strictly one price at
