

SIXTEENTH YEAR.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14, 1886—TWELVE PAGES.

NUMBER 110.

NICE AND NAUGHTY.

Good and Bad Doings at the Gay Capital of France.

A MOST AUDACIOUS SWINDLER.

Millions of Francs Confiscated by a Count From a Russian Nobleman.

HIS CAPTURE AND ESCAPE.

Rochefort's Peroration on the Death of the English Jockey, Archer.

SPORT AND SOCIETY AT PAU.

Numerous Arrivals For the Grand Hunt to Take Place This Week.

ALL THE NEWS FROM BERLIN.

The Programme for the Coming Opening of the Reichstag Completed.

KALNOCKY ON THE SITUATION.

He Declares For European Peace as Long As It Can Be Maintained in Honor—Other Foreign Affairs.

Points From Paris.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—We learned the death of Paul Bert with mixed feelings.

THE FASTING CHAIR.

The fasting fever is boring Paris to death. Nobody cares a whit for the death of Merlat's suffering stomachs can hold out forty days or whether both will perish in the attempt.

MOST AUDACIOUS SWINDLING.

The most audacious swindling operation of the year, of which Francis Franck, the director of the Monde Financier, is the hero, causes a panic among the persons whose property is confided to the hands of trustees.

TWO PRETTY DRESSES.

I have two very pretty dresses this week, one being a dress of the Princess Galtzina, a long train of drapery of Nile green, erape de chene, over a heavy "bouillonne" of emerald velvet.

THE SEASON AT PAU.

It Opens Late But Good Sport Promised.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The season here is decidedly behind this year.

THE MURDER CLEARED UP.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The perpetrator of the mysterious street murder of Jacob Schlossberg, proprietor of a printing office, has at last been discovered.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

LITTLE PHIL'S PRODUCTION.

The General of the Army Submits His Annual Report.

HIS OPINION OF DESERTERS.

The Troops of Unnecessary Posts Being Transferred to Where They are More Needed—Atkins on the Indians.

Report of the General of the Army.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—General Sheridan, in his annual report issued to-day, dwells at length upon the condition of the Indian territory.

ODD AND ENDS.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State architect Hanser from the country for assisting in a socialist agitation.

KALNOCKY'S OPINION.

Hungary is For Peace If Consistent With Honor.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The Hungarian declaration Count Kalnocky said: "Our interests are involved in the Bulgarian question only where principle or treaties are concerned."

OUR BERLIN BUDGET.

Matters Which Will Be Discussed in the Coming Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The programme of the Reichstag opens with the discussion of the report of the budget commission on foreign affairs.

THE CAUSE OF BISMARCK'S EAGERNESS.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the aid of the center.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

LITTLE PHIL'S PRODUCTION.

The General of the Army Submits His Annual Report.

HIS OPINION OF DESERTERS.

The Troops of Unnecessary Posts Being Transferred to Where They are More Needed—Atkins on the Indians.

Report of the General of the Army.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—General Sheridan, in his annual report issued to-day, dwells at length upon the condition of the Indian territory.

ODD AND ENDS.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State architect Hanser from the country for assisting in a socialist agitation.

KALNOCKY'S OPINION.

Hungary is For Peace If Consistent With Honor.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The Hungarian declaration Count Kalnocky said: "Our interests are involved in the Bulgarian question only where principle or treaties are concerned."

OUR BERLIN BUDGET.

Matters Which Will Be Discussed in the Coming Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The programme of the Reichstag opens with the discussion of the report of the budget commission on foreign affairs.

THE CAUSE OF BISMARCK'S EAGERNESS.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the aid of the center.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

LITTLE PHIL'S PRODUCTION.

The General of the Army Submits His Annual Report.

HIS OPINION OF DESERTERS.

The Troops of Unnecessary Posts Being Transferred to Where They are More Needed—Atkins on the Indians.

Report of the General of the Army.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—General Sheridan, in his annual report issued to-day, dwells at length upon the condition of the Indian territory.

ODD AND ENDS.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State architect Hanser from the country for assisting in a socialist agitation.

KALNOCKY'S OPINION.

Hungary is For Peace If Consistent With Honor.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The Hungarian declaration Count Kalnocky said: "Our interests are involved in the Bulgarian question only where principle or treaties are concerned."

OUR BERLIN BUDGET.

Matters Which Will Be Discussed in the Coming Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The programme of the Reichstag opens with the discussion of the report of the budget commission on foreign affairs.

THE CAUSE OF BISMARCK'S EAGERNESS.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the aid of the center.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

LITTLE PHIL'S PRODUCTION.

The General of the Army Submits His Annual Report.

HIS OPINION OF DESERTERS.

The Troops of Unnecessary Posts Being Transferred to Where They are More Needed—Atkins on the Indians.

Report of the General of the Army.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—General Sheridan, in his annual report issued to-day, dwells at length upon the condition of the Indian territory.

ODD AND ENDS.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State architect Hanser from the country for assisting in a socialist agitation.

KALNOCKY'S OPINION.

Hungary is For Peace If Consistent With Honor.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The Hungarian declaration Count Kalnocky said: "Our interests are involved in the Bulgarian question only where principle or treaties are concerned."

OUR BERLIN BUDGET.

Matters Which Will Be Discussed in the Coming Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The programme of the Reichstag opens with the discussion of the report of the budget commission on foreign affairs.

THE CAUSE OF BISMARCK'S EAGERNESS.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the aid of the center.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

LITTLE PHIL'S PRODUCTION.

The General of the Army Submits His Annual Report.

HIS OPINION OF DESERTERS.

The Troops of Unnecessary Posts Being Transferred to Where They are More Needed—Atkins on the Indians.

Report of the General of the Army.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—General Sheridan, in his annual report issued to-day, dwells at length upon the condition of the Indian territory.

ODD AND ENDS.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State architect Hanser from the country for assisting in a socialist agitation.

KALNOCKY'S OPINION.

Hungary is For Peace If Consistent With Honor.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The Hungarian declaration Count Kalnocky said: "Our interests are involved in the Bulgarian question only where principle or treaties are concerned."

OUR BERLIN BUDGET.

Matters Which Will Be Discussed in the Coming Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The programme of the Reichstag opens with the discussion of the report of the budget commission on foreign affairs.

THE CAUSE OF BISMARCK'S EAGERNESS.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the aid of the center.

ROYAL FEARS OF POISONING.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The death of the French cook, who for eighteen years has prepared the meals of the Empress Carlotta, has created a panic in the Chateau de Bouillon.

WAR IMPLEMENT EXHIBIT ABANDONED.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the BEE.]—The project for an international exhibition of war implements in Brussels in 1888 has entirely collapsed.

THE "BOODLE" CASES.

New York, Nov. 13.—[Counsel for James A. Richmond and Jacob Sharp, under indictment on the charge of having bribed the "boodle" admen while officials of the Broadway street railway, today of a motion picture showing the evidence.]

HEAR THE MERRY SLEIGH BELLS.

Washington, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A heavy fall of snow here last night and it is reported that the sleds of the Great Northern and the Great Western are still snowed out.

SULLIVAN KNOCKS RYAN OUT.

The Champion of Champions Scores Another Great Victory.

ONLY THREE ROUNDS NEEDED.

Paddy Slugged Limp and Lifeless—The Police Rush In But Too Late to Be of Service.

Paddy Paralyzed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—As early as 9 o'clock this evening the doors of the pavilion were besieged by eager crowds of people impatiently waiting admittance to see the Sullivan-Ryan glove contest.

MORRISON'S DEFEAT.

The Cause of His Retirement Attributed to Another Source.

POSTAL CHANGES.

H. E. Tardall was today appointed postmaster at Stanhope, Hamilton county, Ia.

THE PRODUCE MEN ADJOURN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The members of the National Butter, Cheese and Egg association today elected H. B. Guley of DeKalb county, Ill., president for the ensuing year.

DEATH BY MONEY.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 13.—George F. Richardson, time clerk, and A. P. Arbuckle, subcontractor on the Midland road, at Summit Park, twenty-five miles west of Colorado Springs, were killed today by a runaway horse which resulted in Arbulck's striking Richardson over the head with a hammer, killing him. The murderer was arrested.

AN INSANE MURDERER.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 13.—The story of an awful crime has been received here from Scores, Wyo. A young man, Cornell, had been confined in a lunatic asylum, after having attempted to produce a runaway motion machine, became insane and in a frenzy stabbed his wife and infant daughter to death, but spared his own life. He then went into a field and blew his brains out.

SUICIDE AND MURDER.

WINNEBAGO, Kan., Nov. 13.—At 5 o'clock this morning a young man, Lillian Quinn, shot Frank E. Lockwood and then herself, both through the head. She died and it is believed she cannot live. It is understood that this was done by her husband, the coroner's jury will investigate.