WHEAT FIRM EARLY IN THE DAY.

Trading in Provisions Confined to a Very Narrow Range—The Demand For Hogs Active—Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The prospects of a decided cold wave to-morrow gave a little impetus to the corn market this morning, May opening at 41⅝c, with other options firm. December wheat was very steady, opening at 75¼c, selling at 75¼c, and back to 75c, recovering a little. The fresh receipts of this grain were 185 cars, 111 of them being spring. Corn receipts were 110 cars. January pork opened at $10.07½ and was firm and steady at this quotation. The visible supply figures were a disappointment. The crowd was figuring on an increase of perhaps 750,000 bushels, although up to Saturday it was even expected that there might not, owing to this storm blockade, be any increase. The announcement, consequently, of an increase of 1,250,000 bushels was a blow to the market. The amount of wheat in sight is now the largest on record, aggregating 59,559,000 bushels. It is easy to see now that next week the visible supply will be past 60,000,000 bushels, and it is of course not improbable that the amount in sight will before the turn is made exceed 70,000,000 bushels. Wheat early in the day was firm, and on cables from the other side and advices from New York the volume of trade was small, and there was nothing done that was significant by the large speculators or by the prominent commission houses. The influence on the market early was cables, and later the visible supply figures. December wheat touched 75¼c on the one and fell to 74⅝c on the latter. Corn ruled very low, confining its fluctuations mainly between 41⅜c and 41⅝c, but keeping well up to the outside figure. The decrease in this grain is officially put at 8,256,000 bushels. Oats were unchanged in price and quantity. The latter was identically with last week's showing. A very narrow range was made in provisions to-day, with prices inclined to easiness, owing to the unusually large supply of hogs at the yards. With the hogs that came in this morning, and that were left in the pens Saturday night there were between 60,000 and 70,000 head for the packers to turn into pork and meats and lard to-day if they chose. Although there has been already a shortage of over 300,000 hogs for this single month of November, with many such receipts as these that can be made up. On the late session trading was very close around 75c for December wheat, with everything else quiet. The final closings were: Wheat a shade easier at 74¼c for November, 74⅜@74¾c for December, 75⅛c for January. Corn steady at 36¾c for November, 36⅝@36¾c for December, 37⅜@37¼c for January, 41⅜c for May. Oats 26¼c for November, 26⅝c for January. Pork $9.47½ for November, $9.47½c for December, $10.10 for January. Lard $5.90 for November, $5.95 for January.

12:45 p. m.—Puts on December wheat 74⅝@74⅝c, calls 75¼c. Puts on May corn 41⅜c, calls 41⅞@42c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—About the only changes to note, as compared with the closing Friday, is that there were more buyers and perhaps a few more eastern orders for suitable stock. Neither the buyers or sellers reported any particular change in prices on good and useful steers, such as drossed beef dealers and shippers wanted. Trade is liable to rule dull until after Thanksgiving. Game and poultry is in plentiful supply and as cheap as was ever known. Then, again, the odds and ends of the packing houses are also very cheap and in large supply, so that the chances for any advance are not at all favorable until after the holiday season. There were no rangers on sale. The receipts of Texans has dwindled down to rough odds and ends that sell for any price obtainable. Native butchers stock and native canning is likely to sell a shade better on account of the falling off in Texans, but as yet has made little ot no improvement. There was little or nothing done in the stocker and feeder trade to-day. Receipts 8,000; quality rather poor. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.35@4.90; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $3.90@4.25; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.10@3.90; stockers and feeders, $2.00@3.40; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.50@3.25; bulk, $2.00@2.30. Through Texas cattle firm; cows, $1.80@2.80; steers, $2.75@3.50.

HOGS—The total number on sale to-day was about 60,000. The market opened quiet with prices about the same as Saturday, but as the scare on account of exaggerated receipts began to wear away there was a gradual advance, the market finally closing a strong 5c higher, with a number of sales 10c higher than at the close Saturday. The demand was active from the start to the finish. Rough and common may be quoted at $3.50@3.60; fair to good mixed, $3.75@3.80; best mixed, $3.85@3.90; fancy heavy, $3.90@4.00; light sorts, $3.50@3.65; Yorkers, $3.90@3.95.

FINANCIAL.

New York, Nov. 22.—MONEY—On call active at 5@6 per cent, closing at 5@6 per cent. asked.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Dull but steady; actual rates, $4.81½ for sixty day bills; $4.80¼ for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but steady.

STOCKS—The opening was irregular but generally firm. Changes from Saturday's final prices ranged from ⅛@⅜ per cent. The generally active stocks were rather weak and feverish, but the strength in specialties rallied the list and at noon the figures were not materially different from those at the opening. There was little change throughout the afternoon and the closing figures show irregular changes of small fractions generally.

Hogs—Receipts, 14,000; shipments, 1,100; common to choice, $3.50@3.60.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday Evening, Nov. 22.

Cattle—The receipts were more liberal to-day, but the market was not particularly active. There were more corn-fed cattle in than usual, and a number of loads were sold. One bunch of feeders were sold at private terms. Butchers' stock was slow sale.

Hogs—The breaking up of the weather and the heavy run of hogs caused a decline of 10@15c on the market here as well as in Chicago. The market was fairly active at the decline. The light hogs sold quickly and although the heavy hogs did not move quite as readily they were all sold, and the pens were cleared early in the day. There was nothing left over excepting two loads which arrived too late for the market. The market closed stronger.

Sheep—There was nothing doing in the market.

Hogs all sold.

No sheep market.

Hogs 10@15c lower.

A. V. Bass, Randolph, Ia., was in looking for feeders.

Hogs brought about the same prices to-day as a month ago.

P. J. Files, Cedar Rapids, was here and marketed five loads of hogs.

Ed Cooper, Weeping Water, was here and bought 100 head of feeders.

It was necessary to use the new scales to-day to help out during the rush.

John Reimens, Fullerton, was here with fourteen loads of corn-fed cattle.

M. Otis, Marysville, Mo., was here with two loads of feeders from Breman.

Arthur Cruise, Atkinson, Neb., was here and sold six loads of corn-fed steers.

The receipts of hogs were heavier and the market more active than usual for a Monday.

Thomas Dutt, Aspinwall, Ia., was here with his first load of hogs; says he will come again.

John Bower, Blanchard, Ia., was at the yards and marketed a load of corn fed cattle.

The Anglo-American Provision company bought 1,839 hogs to-day, which averaged 280 pounds.

W. Hecht was in with three loads, and Slanning & Co. with four loads, from Breman.

Lee Jacobs came in with three cars of corn-fed steers for L. Antdengarten, of Ogalalla.

J. H. Barron, of the New Hampshire Cattle Co., was here and sold 109 head of choice feeders.

The work of putting in the fixtures for the new bank is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

N. L. Hawkins came in with one load of corn-fed cattle from Atkinson, Neb., which were sold.

Spencer & Cape, Fort Collins, had ten loads of cattle in, which arrived too late for to-day's market.

Although the market was lower here, it was also lower in Chicago, and mixed hogs sold as high here as there.

U. L. Patton, a heavy stock shipper from Manning, Ia., was looking over the market with a view to making this his market.

The Union Rendering company have had their hands full getting rid of the dead hogs that are coming in since the recent storm.

A. F. Okey & Co. is the name of a new live stock commission firm which has located here. The members of the firm are Frank Okey, Jack Rae and El Belding.
