

THE EVERLASTING FOUNTAINS

The Adventurers and Her Hubby Brought Back to Omaha. SAM JONES ON "THE PRODIGAL."

Court Notes—Big Day in South Omaha

The Fountains are on deck again. They came yesterday from St. Paul, where they were captured by Constable Edgerton, as announced in the telegraph columns of the Bee yesterday.

THE BIGGEST DAY YET.

Yesterday's Receipts at the Stock Yards—Other Notes. It was generally predicted last summer that as soon as the new packing houses were running at the stock yards the daily receipts of hogs would reach 10,000.

"THE PRODIGAL SON."

Sam Jones' Sermon at the Exposition Building Last Night. There was quiet in the gallery and entrance ways at the exposition building last night.

THE WATER WORKS

at the stock yards are nearly completed and the system is giving very good satisfaction. The pumping plant consists of five Cook vertical steam pumps, with cylinders "10x26," also one duplex Worthington steam pump.

Manager Handle.

The directors of the Omaha Ball club got a start in the right direction at a meeting held last night by the election of Frank Handle as manager of the club, with full power to sign and release players and attend to the business of the club generally.

Protesting Against the Saloon.

A meeting of the residents in the vicinity of Saunders and Cuming streets was held at the parlors of the Saunders street Presbyterian church last evening to take action in protest against the opening of a saloon in the new Carroll block.

The Hebrews' Thanksgiving.

This evening Rabbi Benson will lecture on the above subject at 7 o'clock, at the Jewish synagogue on Lafayette street. The public in general is cordially invited to attend.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Lights of London" Produced at the Boyd Last Night. The cast of "Lights of London" at the Boyd last night contains but a few of the actors who figured in the initial presentation of the piece here two years ago.

The revenue collections yesterday were $17,688.90. The Ginn club will have their final shoot at Abilene this evening.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

J. A. Murray, of Grand Island, is in the city. A. J. Wright, of Tecumseh, is at the Millard. Mrs. G. S. Erb, of Salt Lake, is at the Millard.

Gas, But It Won't Burn.

A scientific analysis has been made of the gas discovered at the stock yards during the boring of the wells a few weeks ago. The chemist found it to be nitrogen gas, and accordingly of no value as illuminating gas.

CHILDREN WILL FREELY TAKE DRUGS.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm, unlike cough syrups it contains no opium, and is therefore safe for children of the throat or lungs quicker than any other remedy.

South Omaha Water Works.

Mr. C. H. Cowing, who designed the system of water works at the South Omaha stock yards, has completed the work and it has proven entirely satisfactory and been accepted by the yards company.

A Valuable Officer.

Captain Dan C. Kingman, engineer officer of the Platte, has been relieved from further duty. The official order granting his release pays him the following compliment: "During the past year Captain Kingman's services to the navy have been of the most valuable character."

Sneak Thieves Captured.

Yesterday morning a sneak thief stole three suits of underwear from Morse's store. He was arrested in the afternoon by Officer McCarty, with the goods in his possession.

Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute.

This widely celebrated institution, located at Buffalo, N. Y., is organized with a full staff of experienced and skillful Physicians and Surgeons, constituting the most complete organization of medical and surgical skill in America.

Beaten by Employment Agents.

About one hundred workmen arrived in this city from St. Paul last night having been sent here by Curran's employment agency of that city under promise of work on the Union Pacific west of here.

ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS.

There have been a number of important real estate transfers made of late, and it seems that the boom has already begun to show up. There are a few credulous citizens, however, who have been spending most of their time declaring that the reported sales were fictitious and reported for effect.

The papers in the other forty acre sale will be recorded in a day or two, and it is a no less bona fide transfer. The fact is there has sprung up a wonderful activity in real estate in Council Bluffs, and the fogies who have tried to hold it back, can hardly realize or believe that such is the case.
