WAR DECLARED ON TURKEY.

But it Will Cease After Thanksgiving Day.

HEARTY FEASTS AND THANKS.

How the Day and Evening Will be Spent and Enjoyed by Everybody Throughout the City To-day.

Thanksgiving.

To-day the city will be given over such as it was never given before, to the celebration of Thanksgiving day. There are now indications that it will be a day of pleasure to many people, while, of course, as may be expected, to others it will come with but little to make them to feel that it is other than a day of sadness.

The weather, it is expected, will be mild, and church management, theatrical enterprise, and the wits and goodness of other people will enable everybody to pass the day and evening in a very satisfactory manner.

The supply of poultry this year has been unprecedented, and when this edition of the BEE appears upon the street tons of it which has been brought to the city will have been transferred to the shops and stores to tempt the appetite for to-day's dinner. The following will give the average reader an idea as to how the day may be spent:

CLOSE UP.

At a meeting of the Ministerial association held Monday afternoon, 21st inst., the pastors present expressed an earnest desire and hope for a general participation in the Union Thanksgiving service. It was therefore on motion

Resolved, That we hereby respectfully request our business men to close their stores, offices and shops at 10 a. m., or earlier, on Thanksgiving day so that they and their employes may have an opportunity to attend the Union Thanksgiving service in exposition hall, beginning promptly at 10:30 a. m., and further,

Resolved, That the officers of the association communicate this resolution to the business community through the daily papers.

J. S. DETWEILER, President.

GEO. A. JOPLIN, Secretary.

THE RAILWAY HEADQUARTERS.

Both the B. & M. and Union Pacific headquarters will be closed to-day to allow the clerks a chance to fitly celebrate the day.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICES.

These will be all closed, and the employes will be only too glad to get one day in which to get paid without working for it.

A. M. E.

The members of this church will give a Thanksgiving entertainment and oyster supper, commencing at 5 o'clock in the evening. The following gentlemen will take part in the exercises: Messrs. Sanford Bowman, chairman, Robert Johnson, C. A. Dishman, Robert Baldwin, N. J. Lloyd, Wm Johnson, Harry Lee, J. A. Bowman, Volney Carter, Henry Burns, secretary.

The following named ladies will also assist: Mrs. Mattie Franklin, Mrs. Annie Banks from Denver; Mrs. Ellen Golden, Mrs. Jessie Newman, Miss Lulu King, Mrs. John Thorn, Miss Sadie Sley, Mrs. Josie Waters.

THE FIREMEN'S PARADE AND BALL.

The first annual parade of the fire department will take place to-day at 1:30 o'clock. Chief Galligan, who is now in Chicago, returnhd last night. The men will appear for the first time in their new uniforms, and with engines and carts decorated for the occasion. The procession will form in the neighborhood of No. 3 engine house on Harney street. It will move in the following order: J. J. Galligan, chief marshal; Chas. Salter and J. J. Barnes, assistants; Omaha police force, under Marshal Cummings, assisted by Captain Cormick and Sergeants Matza and Mostyn; Musical Union band; mayor and members of the council in carriages; Durant Engine company with steamer; No. 1 Hose company with engine; No. 2. hose; No. 3 hose; No. 4 hose with engine; No. 5 engine and hose cart. The procession will move east on Harney to Ninth, thence to Douglas, Sixteenth counter-march to Farnam, thence to Eleventh, thence to Harney, thence to Fourteenth where the parade will be reviewed by the marshal and other officials. At the conclusion of the parade, there will be given at all the engine houses, one-half hour of exhibition practice in the hitching of horses to trucks by way of preparation for fire.

In the evening the members of the department will give their grand ball in the exposition annex and it will doubtless be the most successful one of the kind ever given in Omaha.

THE SCHOOLS.

The schools closed last night, and classes will not be called until next Monday, thus affording the little ones two days of extra time for rest and recreation.

EPISCOPALIAN.

There will be a grand union Thanksgiving service in Trinity cathedral, commencing at 10:30. This will be attended by members of the Episcopal parishes throughout the city, and especially the pastors of those organizations. These comprise the parishes of Trinity, St. Phillip's, St. Barnaba's, Grace and St. John's. The choral singing will be of an excellent nature and the sermon will be preached by Bishop Worthington.

THE SYNAGOGUE.

Thanksgiving services will be held in this institution at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Rabbi Benson delivering the lecture.

NEWSBOYS' MATINEE.

THE LAND SHARKS.

They are Arraigned in the United States Court.

Before Judge Dundy yesterday afternoon the cases of the United States government against Frank P. Swindler and A M. Wells were taken up. The defendants are charged with conspiracy in extensive land frauds which were unearthed a year or two ago by United States officials. They are a portion of the Arnold-Moore gang that for some time operated extensively in western Nebraska.

Swindler and Wells were, at the time of the commission of the crime with which they are charged, both residents of Denver, Col. It was here that they, with other men, hatched up the scheme to beat Uncle Sam out of vast tracts of government land. Their plan was first to bargain with wealthy ranchmen to sell them tracts of land in Nebraska, which as they claimed, they could procure from the government at a low figure. They would then hire impecunious fellows to go to the different land offices in Nebraska, and under assumed names swear in their claims, under the homestead act, to different tracts of lands. They managed to gobble up about 8,000 acres in this way, making final proof on the same. They were headed off in time to prevent them from pre-empting about 25,000 more. The matter was brought to the surface by the sharpsightedness of George B. Coburn, special agent of the general land office, who noticed that these tracts were being taken side by side, on the Republican and Frenchman rivers, instead of in different parts of the state, as was usually the case. This led him to the believe that something was wrong, and upon further information procured from the district attorney at Denver, the facts were ferretted out, resulting in the arrest of Swindler, Wells and other associated confederates.

R. A. Crisswell the notary public at Indianola also charged with being implicated in land frauds is not exactly charged with perjury as has been stated. His crime is that of appending his notarial seal to affidavits in land entries, which were not sworn and subscribed to before him as they should have been.

The grand jury was discharged yesterday afternoon after making its final report in this, after reporting that it had found indictments in twenty-four cases, it recommended an increase in the pay of grand jurors. It was claimed in the report that the pay was greatly below the expenses of attendance upon court. The grand jury recommended that the matter be brought to the attention of the Nebraska delegation to congress.

Late yesterday afternoon James Gross was arrested for perjury alleged to have been committed by him while a witness in the case of his father, Peter Gross vs. the Union Pacific. It is alleged that he swore falsely in testifying that his brother was kicked off the Union Pacific freight train.

Overcoat Thieves.

Persons owning overcoats which they care to keep should see to it that they do not fall into the hands of a gang of sharp thieves now working the town. These men do not scruple to boldly enter a man's house in broad daylight and lay their hands on the best coat they can find. These coats they hold for a day or two and then dispose of to second-hand dealers in Omaha or Council Bluffs.

The latest victim is J. H. McShirley of the New York chop house, who reports a valuable chinchilla coat stolen from his establishment last night.

Four Thousand Acres.

The undersigned has for sale over four thousand acres in one body (not alternate) about 70 miles west of Omaha with 400 acres broke, with house and barn on it. There are on this large body of land seven running streams, not sunk in the ground, but even with the bank. It is surrounded by five railroads and would be desirable for a stock ranch. Fine soil, no sand or swamp on the place. Address

JOSEPH A. CONNOR,
Plattsmouth, Neb.

Rail Notes.

EXONERATED FROM BLAME.

A Coroner's Jury Holds an Inquest on the Remains of Anbie Anderson.

The inquest over the remains of Annie Anderson, the young Swede girl who was accidentally shot a week ago with a revolver in the hands of Annie Jackson, who "didn't know it was loaded," was held yesterday. The inquest was held at the boarding house of Gus Anderson on Eighth and Douglas streets, where both the deceased and her slayer had been working.

The first witness examined was Dr. Harrigan. He related the circumstances of his being called in to attend the case. At the start he considered the girl's chance for recovery very poor, as over 90 per cent of such cases died. Two or three days after the shooting she developed symptoms of inflammation of membrane of the brain, complicated with erysipelas, and this finally caused her death. She was rational to the last, but very irritable during the last few days. The shot was a glancing one, and only half the bullet had come out. The other half was lodged undoubtedly in some part of the head. Might have entered the brain matter. Conversed with the patient about the shooting, through an interpreter, and she said that it was entirely accidental.

Ida Mulvie, a girl who was in the room at the time the shooting occurred, told the story of the fatality as it has already been given in the BEE. She said that Annie Anderson, the dead girl, had picked up a revolver and pointed it playfully at Miss Jackson's head with the remark that she was going to shoot, and that Miss Jackson picked up another and as she supposed unloaded revolver, and pointing it at the other girl's head shot her.

The testimony of other witnesses went to show that the shooting was accidental. Miss Jackson herself testified, through an interpreter, that she and the dead girl had always been the best of friends. She had a conversation with Miss Anderson shortly before she died, during which the latter told her not to be afraid of being prosecuted for what she had done, as no blame was to be attached to her.

The jury returned a verdict exonerating Miss Jackson from all blame in connection with the affair. This being the case, the police judge will discharge her.

CLERKS, ROUTES AND CARRIERS.

All Affected by the Recent Action of the Postal Department.

The recent allowance made for the increase of the clerical force in the postoffice, enables the addition to the force of Bert C. Wilkinson, who will act as distributing clerk; Miss Emma Krutli, who will officiate at the general delivery and John Schreiner, whose duties will be at the stamp table. Miss Krutli has already been placed at work, and the others will get into the harness by the first of next month.

The addition of three carriers to the regular force of the office has necessitated the change in the limits of nearly all the older carriers though the old routes will be changed only in a few details. The number of deliveries by each of the men, has also been somewhat changed, and hereafter, will be as follows: Davis, 4; Tibbins, 4; Overall, 3; Peterson, 2; Mumaugh, 4; Parkins, 2; Birkett, 2; Fulton, 2; King, 4; Edwards, 2; Platz, 4; Stafford, 4; Oleson, 3; Hoffman, 2. Kastburg, 4; Pierson, 2; Remillard, 2; Brown, 2; Michaels, 2; Jableschnek, 3; Bruner, 4; Fairfield, 2; Chivis, 2; Smith, 4. The three carriers last mentioned are those just added to the force. The districts in which they will deliver mail will be as follows: Fairfield, from Nineteenth west to Twenty-sixth, and from Leavenworth south to Poppleton avenue; Smith, from Douglas north to Capitol avenue, and from Fifteenth east to Ninth street, and Chivis from Webster north to Clark, and Twentieth west to Twenty-fourth street.

These carriers' pay commences on the first of next month, though they begin work on Monday to learn their routes.

POLICE COURT.

Gamblers, Thieves and Highway Robbers Before His Honor.

The police Tuesday night raded the colored gambling den of Payton & Cole, and broke up an interesting "crap game" or two. Yesterday morning the men who had been captured in the place were arraigned in court. The proprietor, Cole, paid a fine of $20 and costs and was released. Some other gamblers paid the fine of $5 and costs, while others plead not guilty and had their cases continued.

Chas. Riley and Jas. Miner, charged with stealing two overcoats, were sent up for thirty days on bread and water. They claim to have bought one coat from a man on the street for 50 cents. The other coat, which was stolen at the same time, they claim to know nothing about. The judge offered to let them off easy if they would only tell where it was. "We can't tell, judge," replied one of them, "simply because we don't know anything about it." If they do know the whereabouts of the coat, they will probably give it up before the expiration of the thirty days, as a twenty days' sentence on bread and water is usually enough to break down the strongest man.

J. Fishback and Mike Lathrop were arrested for robbing James Hogan of $20 in a saloon. Lathrop was committed and fined $20 and costs and sentenced to twenty days in the county jail. Fishback was released.

Temperance Army.

The meeting of the Sunday School Temperance army, held Tuesday evening in the Hillside Congregational church, was a grand success. The recitations rendered by the Saratoga Band of Hope were received with great applause, and the addresses of Revs. A. B. Penniman and H. C. Crane were full of interest and good advice. The speeches of Lydia Parker and Arthur Adams of the Central Division, added much to the interest of the meeting. Following are the names of those who took part in the exercises belonging to the Saratoga Divisson:

Nellie Vandermar, May McCoy, Etta Smith, Katie Robinson, Grace Stern, Nellie Louke, Myrtle Smith, Mary Castlebarder, Eddie Johnson, Willie McKay Herman Wallace, Charlie Madison, Charlie McKenzie, Clarence Higgins, Horace Higgins, Silas Wallace, Charlie Day, Floridie Wallace, Freddie Teal, Charlie Mortimer, Freddie Johnson, and the following young ladies and gentlemen: Nettie McKay, Kittie Avery, Maggie McKay, Minnie Avery, Kittie Bickford, Edith Parker, Grace Vandermar, Anna Shepard, Lizzie McKenzie, George Craig, David McKinzie, Thomas Wallace, Wm. McKinzie, Henry Sherwood, Calvin Page, David Christie, Robert Monroe and Benjamin Day.

General officers of this division—Benjamin Day, Miss Minnie Avery, Miss Emma Elton, Miss Kittie Avery.

Captains—Fred Teal, Herman Wallace, Charles Day, Etta Smith, Mamie Cheny and May McCoy.

Destroying Property.

Dr. Haughawout, the dentist on the corner of Sixteenth and Douglas, was arrested yesterday at the instance of his land lady, Miss Chase on a charge of destroying property. Miss Chase, it seems, has put up a storm door for the front entrance of her building and this Dr. Haughawout has repeatedly torn down. Miss Chase claims that the storm door is necessary to keep the waterpipes from freezing, while the doctor claims that it interferes with his business. Miss Chase also had the doctor brought into Justice Anderson's office on a peace warrant to-day, and he was put under $300 bonds to keep the peace.

Moving Troops.

General Crook received a telegram yesterday from Colonel Kantz, of the Eighth infantry, at Fort Lowell, Arizona, stating that the headquarters band and three companies of the Eighth infantry left yesterday for Omaha. Four more companies follow on the 26th.

Back Again.

Fred Pickens, chief clerk of the postoffice, who has been confined to his home for several days back by rheumatism, is again at his post and much recovered from his illness.

Forty-Six Rooms.

The new addition to the Millard, which is now nearly finished, will add forty-six more rooms to that house. They will be finished and furnished by January 1st.
