 are requested to meet at the rectory tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. A full

The collection at the Thanksgiving amounted to $54, and will go toward the establishment of a new hospital.

Two swarthy women celebrated their Thanksgiving by a street fight on upper Broadway. Both claimed first blood, and the contest was decided to be a draw.

A fellow was found spending his Thanksgiving night in John Hammer's time house, and was transferred to the city jail and registered as a vagrant.

A change of time is to take place on the Wabash railway Sunday, by which the passenger train will leave the local depot at 1:30 and the transfer at 2:45, instead of the present time.

There were only two or three plain drinks brought before the police court yesterday morning, and these were excepted on account of the previous day being Thanksgiving. They passed out smiling, to give more thanks.

The Royal Arcanum has decided to give up its old hall over the Council Bluffs National bank, and to lease the Beno hall, which will be fitted up nicely for the or-social gatherings under its control.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wirt threw open their parlor and dining room to the following guests for a royal Thanksgiving dinner, which was heartily enjoyed: Robert Olfner, Fred Keller, William Ol-macher, William Gronoweg, Adolph Beno, John Keene and Peter Miller.

There are few desirable houses to rent in the city, not nearly enough to meet the demands. The few known of two families who are anxious to secure six room cottages, if they can get good ones in a suitable location. Every day there are persons inquiring at the city office for houses, and other newspapers and business places are apparently subjected to many like inquiries. Evidently Council Bluffs is having a healthy growth.

The Harkness Bros. and their wives entertained on Thanksgiving day at the residence of J. E. Harkness all of their employees and families. The tables were beautifully spread and a merry time was had, good cheer prevailing in every arrangement and detail. Such an occasion serves to increase the personal interest among those connected with such a mercantile house and causes the daily business to rush along smoothly and noiselessly.

STUBBS WANTS BIG DAMAGES.

More Winter Suits.
 New suits were piling in upon the clerk and were being docketed as fast as possible yesterday, it being the last day of service for the coming term of court.

One of the heaviest of them all was one of J. E. Stubbs against W. H. M. Pusey.
 It will be remembered that Stubbs opened here one of the most metropolitan merchant tailoring establishments and gents' furnishing goods stores in the west, and after a brief but brilliant career was suddenly shut up by virtue of a chattel mortgage given to Mr. Pusey, of Olfner & Pusey, the bankers. In his petition Mr. Stubbs sets forth the claim that he was indebted to the bank about two thousand, five hundred dollars, that Mr.
 Pusey informed him that Mrs. Stubbs, who had considerable property, would not help him, and that he was financially ruined, and that he desired to have the indebtedness put in safe condition, and induced him to sign a chattel mortgage, covering the amount, the understanding being that he was not to be crowded, nor troubled about it, but that it was a mere formal securing of the claim, that instead of this holding the mortgage, the stock was seized, attachments came in from other creditors, and the business and credit went to smash. For this he wants $30,000 damages.

David Bradley & Co. have commenced a damage suit against the Western Union Telegraph company. They claim that October 29, 1885, they received a letter from Hall & Co., of Friend, Neb., stating that they wanted to buy at once a car load of wagons. David Bradley & Co. sent a telegram the same day to their traveling man who was at some other point in Nebraska, instructing him to go to Friend at once and see them. The traveling man did not receive the telegram until several days afterwards, and too late to secure the order. They claim that this was the fault of the telegraph company, and claim therefor $250 damages.

Dr. Marks has commenced suit against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway company for $125 damages, caused by the burning of some straw stacks on his farm, which caught fire by a spark from a passing locomotive.

W. H. Tinley has commenced suit against the city for a grading certificate amounting to $98.

Martha J. Neal has begun divorce proceedings against her husband, Isaac N.
 Neal, to whom she was married in 1867.
 She claims he deserted her three years ago.

Unwise Love and Heartless Lover.
 A young man named McFadden, from Walnut, is on trial in Judge Aylesworth's court on the charge of seduction. The case has excited much interest in that part of the county, and a large number of witnesses are present. The taking of testimony began yesterday afternoon, and will probably be completed to-day.
 Colonel Dailey and Mr. Ware appear for the prosecution, and G. A. Holmes and A. W. Askwith for the defendant. The young woman, who claims to have been misled by the young man, has been employed as a domestic in some of the private families of Walnut, and later in a hotel there as dining room girl. She claims that the young man won her affection and then under promise of marriage betrayed her. She came to this city some weeks ago, and last month a child was born. The young man has been found here for some time at Walnut, and boarded at the hotel, thereby thrown into intimacy with the young woman. It is understood that the defense will attempt to break down the girl's charges, and that witnesses have been subpoenaed to testify against her.
 There seems no denial of the fact that young McFadden was unduly familiar with the girl, but it is intimated that he will claim he was not the only one who treated her affectionately.

HYMENEAL HAPPINESS.
 CLARK WELLS.
 On Wednesday last in Kent, Ia., George W. Clark, nephew of T. A. Clark, of this city, was joined in wedlock to Miss Lillian Wells, daughter of J. L.
 Wells, of Kent, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. H. Collins, of Creston, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

They were attended by Miss Maggie Bennett, of Kent, and George McKee, of Colorado, who is one of engineer's corps with which young Mr. Clark is connected. Miss Sadie Clark of this city played the wedding march.

The bride wore a dress of cream satin and lace with cut flowers as ornaments, a present from Mrs. J. L. Forman of this city.

The groom is a young man of many acquaintances in this city and has for some time been in Colorado with his uncle, T. A. Clark, local ng engineer of the Union Pacific.

He has quite a circle of friends here, having spent quite a visit in this city last winter with her cousin, Oscar Kiplinger and his wife.

Section Foremen Unite.
 There was quite a gathering of section foremen of various railroads, and from different parts of the country, gathered at the Pacific house yesterday. Some arrived on Thursday, and others came in on yesterday's morning's train. There were about fifty present, and the purpose of the gathering was the formation of a union, which is expected, will spread and be strengthened until it takes in a large portion of the country. The conference was a secret one, and no more than the general outlines could be learned, which was to the effect that the organization was to be similar to that to which the switchmen belong, the interests of section foremen to be specially considered and looked after, and the organization maintained for mutual help and protection in case of need. That there is strength in union is realized by these men, and they propose to find also union in strength. The officers elected are: Grand chief, M. McIntyre, of Mount Auburn, Ia.; vice grand chief, D.

 Connelin, of Stambury, Mo.; grand secretary and treasurer, M. Scanlan, Council Bluffs.

Choice Music.
 Last evening the happy and musical home of Rev. G. W. Crofts was made still more happy and more musical by a recital given by Prof. C. B. Lipfert and his pupils. The parlors were filled with attentive and appreciative listeners. The programme was an excellent one and an excellent given. It opened with an overture, "Berlin wie es weint und lacht," by Conrad, finely rendered by Messrs. Brooks and Paul Tulley, as violinists, P. Badolet, cornet, Frank Badolet, flute, and Prof.
 Lipfert at the piano.

Miss Minnie Clay rendered "Les Hugue-notes," by Meyerbeer.

Frank Badolet gave a charming flute solo.

Miss Winnie Crofts gave as a piano solo Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso," and afterward joined in a duet with Prof.
 Lipfert, Weber's "Fidel Overture."

Weber's "Freischuetz" was given by Paul Tulley, with the violin, Frank Badolet with the flute, and Prof. Lipfert at the piano.

Miss Frances Smith also gave a pleasing piano solo, one of Beethoven's sonatas.

Miss Mary Schneider rendered well known songs, by Kubis, as violinists, P.
 Lipfert played as solo "Impromptu Op. 29," Chopin; also "Two Larks," Leschetzky. He certainly is an artist, and the development shown by his pupils indicates that he is no less successful as a teacher.

One of the most pleasing numbers of the evening was Tittle's serenade, given by Messrs. Brooks, Tulley, P. and J.
 Badolet, and Prof. Lipfert.

The evening was a most enjoyable one and certainly reflected credit upon the instructor and other participants.

The New Social Club.
 The Pall Mall club, which was organized a short time ago, gave their first last evening in Beno's hall. It was a very select affair and a notable social event. The club, although only a couple of weeks old, has forty-seven members and applications from members are numerous. The initiation fee is $15, and all applications are referred to a special committee, it being the intention to keep the organization as select as possible. No one but members are admitted to the hops, each one being accompanied by a lady.

A Financial Cramp.
 To the surprise of many, the dry goods and notions store of L. Harris, 734 Broadway, was yesterday closed by the sheriff.
 Mr. Harris found himself to be involved financially, and gave two chattel mortgages on his stock, one to the First National bank for $250, the other to Henry Eisenman & Co. for $800. The stock was seized on these mortgages, and the front door locked by the sheriff, who now carries the key. It is hoped that Mr. Harris may soon be able to settle his matters satisfactorily, and resume business.

 the mink, getting tired of running from one pile of wood to another, ran away.

Stricken Dumb by a Whistle.
 Louisville Courier-Journal. A very peculiar case is reported from Jeffersonville, Joe Demmes, a small colored boy of that town, went down to the levee, where the steamer Minnie Bay was unloading some freight. Just as the boat pulled out she blew her whistle. Immediately afterward the boy lost his power of speech, and has since only been able to make himself understood by signs.
 He is about fifteen years of age and is a very intelligent boy. He has not been ill since the unfortunate accident, and suffers no inconvenience but the loss of his voice. Whether the affliction was caused by the blowing of the whistle is a matter of doubt, but it is certain that the boy cannot talk, and insists that the blowing of the whistle did it.
