AMUSEMENTS. ADELPHI THEATRE. When Miss Adelaide Moore, the charming English actress who appears at Boyd's on Wednesday and Thursday nights in Lady of Lyons and Pygmalion and Galatea, arrived in New York on the City of Berlin, she was interviewed by a reporter of the New York World, when she spoke as follows:

"Of course I am delighted to get back. Who is not glad to return to America? I have had a good long rest and am now ready for some very hard work. Besides, Miss Harringer was treated for several years for what the physicians called Leucorrhoea and Prolapsus Uteri combined. I sent her to Richmond, Va., where she remained for six months under the treatment of an eminent Physician without any permanent benefit. She was induced to try my medicine and after a reasonable time commenced to improve and is now able to attend to her duties. Her husband, however, is not fully relieved." [General Harringer is the proprietor of the American Hotel, Winston, N. C., and is widely known.]

Suffering Womanhood. Too much effort cannot be made to bring to the attention of suffering womanhood the great value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the diseases of women, and perhaps nothing is more effectual than the testimony of those who have been cured by it. Such an one is the wife of General Barringer of Winston, N. C., and we quote from the Cincinnati letter as follows: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Please allow me to add my testimony to the most excellent medicinal qualities of your Vegetable Compound. Mrs. Harringer was treated for several years for what the physicians called Leucorrhoea and Prolapsus Uteri combined. I sent her to Richmond, Va., where she remained for six months under the treatment of an eminent Physician without any permanent benefit. She was induced to try my medicine and after a reasonable time commenced to improve and is now able to attend to her duties. Her husband, however, is not fully relieved."
