Peycke Bros. Establish the Largest Manufacturing Confectionery House in the West.

The BEE is able to announce this morning the establishment of the largest manufacturing confectionery house in the west. Messrs. Peycke Bros., the wellknown commission merchants and wholesale eigar dealers, have added a new department to their extensive business, that is, the manufacture of pure confectionery, which will enable them to supply the trade with the very finest (The Finest being their trade mark, and all goods being up to the trade mark) candies in the country. They have devoted the second and third floors of their building to the confectionery business, and will make everything known to the trade in fine confections. All goods will be guaranteed strictly pure, no adulteration of any kind being used, all the colors for their goods being strictly vegetable. The candy department is under the supervision of Mr. Robert W. Dyball who has been engaged in Chicago for over twenty years with the largest establishment of the country-the manufacture and sale of candies, and thoroughly understands all branches of the business. This insures confectionery dealers throughout the western states,—in which Messrs. Peckye Bro.'s trade is very extensive, the very linest grades of absolutely pure candies at much less figure than can possibly be laid down from the east. In the factory are employed twenty men and girls, the head workmen having been employed for years in the large establishments of New York and Philadel-The entire third floor is devoted to manufacturing purposes and is quite an interesting sight to visitors. A part of the second floor is used for box making and packing; a part for storing goods, the sample room and offices occupying the forward part of this floor. They al-ready have a large number of orders on hand, one of which (the first received) amounts to 21 tons. In connection with the candy department will be kept all kinds of nuts and shelled nuts and con-fectioners' supplies. They employ six men on the road and several fine delivery wagons for the city trade, will soon be put on the streets for the accommodation of the city trade. Peckye Bros. have been so long established here, and their reputation for square dealing so well known, that this new feature in their

Kansas City don't begin to carry such nice goods as you do. I did not suppose such goods could be bought west of Chicago, and so cheap too. Do you want to know who has all these fine goods for sale so cheap? I will tell you. It is Marhoff, at the Millard hotel. The Barker Block Burned to the Ground a Month Ago.

And the C. E. Mayne Real Estate & Trust Co., Who Fared So Badly at That Time, Remind a Bee Man of It.

A reporter for the BEE while passing the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Harney streets last evening was attracted to the unusual appearance of the interior of the corner basement room occupied by the C. E. Mayne Real Estate and Trust Co. Upon stepping inside the first one to greet the scribe was C. E. Mayne himself who seemed to be in a very cheerful frame of mind. "Why do I smile?" said Mr. Mayne,

Well, I'll tell you; it is just a month ago that we were burned out, and we are just beginning to see the clear sky. These new fixtures have but just been placed, and I flatter myself that no other office in the city can boast of anything half so fine, and as far as business is concerned we intend to wake up the natives from now on. But we are starting on A NEW DEAL.

which we will enforce to the letter. We will not handle any more property in the city of Omaha unless we are made the exclusive agents, so that we can properly advertise it and in all cases give satisfaction. This is really the only way to sell real estate. Besides, we propose to handle nothing but property that is in our judgment saleable. I intend to personally look into every piece of property to be placed with us, and if I had it worth the money asked for it it will be placed on the list and we for it it will be placed on the list and we will make it our business to find a pur-chaser for it. As all property on our fists are actual bargains, and are placed with us only, we can easly afford to advertise and push it to a quick sale."

The large amount of real estate owned by C. E. Mayne himself, as well as that for which he has the exclusive agency, gives the company a large portion of the most desirable property in the city. Every piece of property listed with the C. E. Mayne Real Estate & Trust Co. will be pushed for all it is worth and will not pushed for all it is worth and will not under any consideration be pigeon-holed. It is their intention, as Mr. Mayne said, to find a buyer for every piece of property on their list.

Special efforts will be made on large blocks and special bargains in business property, and as Mr. Mayne is constantly corresponding with eastern capitalists, and others desiring to invest in Omaha he is enabled to find almost immediate purchasers for this class of property.

In one short month the C. E. Mayne Real Estate & Trust Co. have done a great deal of hard work and have every thing now in ship shape at their beautifu offices at the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Harney, every department of which is under the management of competent men. The abstract department is as complete as ever, and abstracts of titles complete as ever, and abstracts of titles are quickly and accurately given on all property in Douglas county. The renting department is a prominent feature of the company, and whenever there is a business house and dwelling for rent, it will receive prompt attention here.

The idea of naming the firm The C. E. Mayne Real Estate and Trust Company was that Mr. Mayne intended to make the loaning of money a prominent feature of the business, and the day has come when they are enabled to make loans of any amount from $500 to $50,000, at the lowest rates of interest. There will be no delay other than the time taken to

By the foregoing it will be seen that examine property and prepare papers.

C. E. Mayne is not out of business if he has been rather quiet of late, but that now his is ready he intends to make it lively in real estate circles once more.
