THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

Bulls Who Have Sold All Their Wheat Now Desire a Decline.

MAY CORN OPENS EASIER.

January Pork Substantially the Same as on Saturday—Hogs Active and Prices Higher—General Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—So many of the local operators have sold their wheat that a decline would give a great deal more satisfaction than a further advance. There are several who, having pocketed 5 cents profit on the bull side, are anxious now for a decline, so that their judgment may be borne out and that they may get in again on a basis less risky than at present. Ream is the high-holder now, and if any speculator holds the market he does. It was the opinion early this morning that if Ream had tried to unload there would have been a collapse. But his market has been so accustomed to balloon-like collapses after the little rallies in wheat, that it is no wonder that there is the greatest anxiety now that there was a halt after a 5 cent advance. A much easier tone prevailed in the opening markets at the start out this morning, but a recovery set in slowly a short time afterward, and May wheat, which closed Saturday at 86¾c, opened this morning at 86c and sold up to 86¼c within a very few minutes. The same option of corn was also easier early, opening at 43½c, but soon selling at 43¾@43¾c. January pork was substantially where it left off last Saturday—at $11.17½ for January. Early trading was on a fair scale, but wps not quotably heavy. The strong bullish sentiment prevailing Saturday induced a good many operators to load up rather heavier than afterthought told them was advisable, and the result was that on the open board and on the curb this morning there was a good deal of wheat for sale. There was a very firm market in a general way all morning, but around 11 o'clock a period of inactivity set in, during which the crowd did little beyond wait for a shoving to be made by the visible supply statement. Around noon the conviction became quite settled that there would be very little news in it, one way or another. The top figure for May—86¾c—found the local crowd very generally bullish. At least, it was an exhibition of this feeling that put May to thatp oint. Then cables came in very spiritless and prices reacted to 86¾c, but from this they once more showed moderate strength. On all weak spots, after 86¾c was touched, the scalpers played the market for a break, but they did not make much headway. Active options responded very easily and readily to bull influences, and kept quotably strong all the morning. The big bulls in pork to-day were George Baldwin and Henry Warner. Both bought liberally around $8.20 for January. There was nothing but strength in this market. The opening figures in corn proved to be the bottom. The subsequent advance was ½c. May sold at 44c, but all of this was not quite sustained.

2:30 p. m. a much easier feeling prevailed on the second session, a loss of nearly ¾c taking place from the the figures quoted at the close of the morning session. The exports were light and the crowd was disposed to throw overboard some of the stuff they had been induced to take on during the earlier hours of the day. The final closings were: Wheat active but weak and lower at 77¾c for December, 78¾c for January, 79¾c for February, 90¼c for March, 85¾c for May. Corn, easier at 37¾c for December, 38¾@38¾c for January, 38¾@38¾c for February, 43¾c for May. Oats, 27c for December, 31¾c for May. Pork, active and lower at $10.95 for December, $11.17½ for January, $11.17½ for February. Lard, slow at $6.20 for December, $6.25 for January, $6.35 for February.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—The range of prices to-day was much the same as at the close of the week. Values were stronger for good to choice qualities, while inferior to fair cattle sold slowly enough at imporved rates. There were some thin and rough cattle that were extremely hard to sell, but prices were about steady for these and more desirable kinds of fat cattle sold at stronger rates. The London cattle market was slow and weak and heavily supplied, though the supplies did not go from America. There was a liberal volume of business done to-day and general trade was more active. Values were stronger for all desirable cattle. Same 1,704 to 1,740 lb Christmas cattle sold at $5.25@5.35, with a car of 1,357 lb short horn yearlings at $5.50. There were 1,400 to 1,500 lb cattle sold at less than $4.00. Some tidy steers, averaging less than 1,300 lbs, sold better than $4.00. Shipping steers, 1,050 to 1,600 lbs, $4.35@4.95; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $3.80@4.20; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.30@3.90. Stockers and feeders, $1.90@3.40; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.50@3.20; bulls, $2.10@2.40; Texas cows, $2.00@2.60; Texas steers, $2.60@3.50.

HOGS—The market was active and prices 5@10c higher all around. A few lots of fancy heavy sold as high as $4.25@4.30, while prime packers and shippers sold up to $4.10@4.20 and the ordinary run of packing sorts at $3.85@4.00. Light sorts sold within a range of $3.80@4.00 for assorted and $3.50@3.75 for pigs.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—MONEY—On call active at 5@15 per cent, closing at 6 per cent asked.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Quiet and steady; $4.80¾ for sixty day bills; $4.83¼ for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but steady to firm.

STOCKS—The stock market while again extremely active, was somewhat erratic in its movement. The opening was very active and strong, the advances over Saturday's final prices ranging from ¼ to ⅝ per cent, while Canada Southern was up 1¾ per cent. The general market in early trading was somewhat feverish, although there was little movement in prices except in Canada Southern, Union Pacific, St. Paul and East Tennessee, which were joined later by Norfolk & Western. The upward movement in the few stocks which were strong continued until 1:30, Louisville & Nashville, Lackawanna & Jersey Central sharing in the rise. A drive at the general market in the last hour carried prices down sharply. The close was weak, in many cases at the lowest figures reached.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday, Dec. 6.

The Week

Past has witnessed a very dull and depressed cattle market. The receipts have been light. The demand for corn fed cattle has not been very strong and the market is 25@50c lower than at the beginning of the week. The market, however, is fully up to other markets and the few shipments that have been made from here to Chicago have in every case lost the shipper money. The hog market has been active all the week and the market strong. The market opened about steady with the close of the week before but took a sharp advance on Thursday, heavy hogs selling 10@15c better and light weights 5c better. On Friday there was another advance of 5c, so that the market closed about 20c higher than the opening of the week. There has been no sheep market during the week. There have been no sheep in or none sold worth mentioning.

Cattle.

The last train of range cattle expected to arrive this season came in to-day. The receipts of native cattle were very moderate. The demand for dressed beef steers was limited and the market slow. There is not much inquiry for butchers' stock and only the best is wanted.

Hogs.

As usual on Monday the receipts were light and the market opened rather slow. About twelve hundred hogs belonging to Sheeley & Co., the packers who were burned out a few days ago, were thrown upon the market and had the effect of lessening the demand for the fresh receipts. However the pens were cleared before the market closed. While the sales did not range quite as high as Saturday when the poorre quality of the hogs to-day is taken into consideration the market must be regarded as about steady. Light hogs were in a little better demand.

Sheep.

Nothing doing in the market.

There were a few on the market but none sold.

Notes.

Hogs all sold.

Hog market about steady.

Fowler Bros. bought 2,192 hogs to-day.

Wood Bros. put a new safe in their office to-day.

The interior of the exchange building is being treated to a coat of paint.

The grade of hogs did not average nearly as well to-day as on Saturday.

J. Holliday, Hartington, Neb., was in with two loads of cattle and a load of hogs.

J. B. Hunter, Laramie, was in with a train of 23 cars of cattle, probably the last run of range cattle.

Mr. Beebee, of Beebeetown, Ia., was looking over the market preparatory to shipping some cattle.

Franklin Morris, Onawa, was looking over the yards with a view to locating in the commission business.

Sheeley & Co.' hogs about twelve hundred in number, were taken by Harris & Fisher and G. H. Hammond & Co.

A sample copy of the Colorado Live Stock Record is at hand. It is devoted to the interests of the cattle business and is a bright and newsy sheet.

Mr. Stevens, cattle buyer for G. H. Hammond & Co., at Kansas City, is here and will buy in place of John Moss who intends taking a couple of weeks vacation.

Clay Robinson & Co., an old Chicago firm, has opened a branch office at this point for the transaction of a live stock commission business. Robert Robinson will have the management of the business.

The following were among those having hogs on to-day's market: Morse, Rodgers & Co., North Bend; E. D. Welker, St. Edwards; F. M. Jeffrey, Osceola; A. Bontsche, Coon Rapids; E. H.
