Bicycle Sport.

The interest that has been awakened in bleycle sport in Omaha was manifested last night by an attendance of about a thousand spectators at the races at the exposition building. Considering the number of counter attractions the attendance was remarkably good. The first race was the free for all 5-mile amateur contest for a gold medal, presented by Mr. John S. Prince. Peabody, Fell and Mittar entered. The race was a pretty one from the start. Peabody led for the first mile, when he was forced to second place by Mittar, who led until the third mile had been passed, when Peabody and Fell both passed him. The last nile was closely contested by Peabody and Fell, who gamed a lap on Mittar. Peabody won the race in 16 minutes and 21 see onds, defeating Fell by about fifteen feet. The appearance of Hardwick and Dingley, who were matched for a twentyfive mile race for $50, was the signal for uproarous applause. Both men were in excellent condition. Hardwick wore black tights with sleeveless jacket. black tights with steeveless jacket. Dingley's costume was a close-fitting suit of black, with crumson cape and fancy cap. Hardwick set the pace and led for the first four miles. The five-mile mark was made in lifteen minutes and fifty-five seconds. Dingley then took the lead and held it for three miles, when he was passed by Hardwick. The men kept together and used every effort to gain an advantage that would stand in good turn at the finish. On the last half-mile Hardwick spurted ahead of Dingley but could not keep his advantage and was passed on the last lap by Dingley, who won the race by three feet, in 1 hour, 19 minutes and 55 seconds. The result was greeted with cheers, and round after round of applause went up for the contestants as they made the circuit of the track after the finish. The record was as follows: Miles IIrs, Min. heretofore for twenty-live miles was made by Eck in 1 hour and 23 minutes.

To-day the bicyclers leave the city tem-porarily. Prince and Dingley go to Minneagolis, where Prince will try to get a race out of Morgan. I rince has accepted Dingley's challenge for a lifty-mile race for $100, to take place in this city within a month. Hardwick returns to his home in Kansas to-day.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

The Twentieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Nebraska.

The twentieth annual convocation of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons, assembled in Omaha, yesterday, in Masonic hall at 11 o'clock. There were fifty-six delegates in attendance. These comprised one delegate from each of the thirty-four chapters of Royal Arch Masons in the state, together with the past grand high priests and officers of the

Mr. Francis replied in a few well chosen such faciliary works thanking Court Notes.

The case of Paddock vs. Kolue, a damage suit for $400 for alteged breach of contract occupied the attention of Judge McCulloch vesterday.

Lulu Austin commenced suit in the district court yesterday for a divorce from her husband, John Austin, to whom she was married in Des Moines in 1880. Drunkenness and adultery are assigned as grounds for the desired decree' "Jedge" Cooley desires it stated that he is the attorney for the plaintiff.

In the district court vesterday after-noon Martin Cannon commenced suit against H. E. Haynes and Robert Haynes to secure judgement on a promissory note for $475.

The Coshocton Investment company of Coshocton, O., commenced suit against John I. Redick in the district court yes-terday for a foreclosure of a tax lien amounting to $164.79 against lot eight in block one hundred.

In the case of Finn vs. Manning, in distriet court, the jury returned a verdict vesterday awarding the plaintiff $900. The amount asked was $12,000.

The case of Josephine Kurtschmer vs. J. C. Morrow and wife is on trial before Judge Neville. The plaintiff sues the de-fendents for $2,000 damages for slander. The case grows out of a charge of larceny uttered by the defendents against the plaintiff who was a servant girl in their employ.

The case of Birmingham vs. Stone, a suit for damages for alleged malpractise, is on trial before Judge Wakley.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

The Gallants of Assembly 5141 K. of L. on the Glistening Floor,

Last evening the first annual ball of Unity Assembly, No. 5141, K. of L., took place in Masonic hall under most happy circumstances. The attendance comprised 200 couples, who enjoyed the evening in the most pleasant manner. the hours passing almost unper-ceptedly under the agreeably associa-tion, the witchery of the choicest strains of the Musical Union orchestra. The programmes were tasty and artistic, and will be preserved by many of the ladies as souvenirs of a very pleasant occasion. The programme consisted of the following numbers, during the inter-mission of which many of the guests enjoyed supper at the Gate City restavrant Grand march and quadrille, waltz, schottische, polka, quadrille, waltz, la comas, lanciers, schottische, newport, quadrille-ladies' choice, waltz, lanciers, schottische, rippie, quadrille, waltz, la comas, glude lanciers, newport, quadrille, polka, waltz-quadrille, schottische, waltz ladies' choice, Dan Tucker, waltz.

The ensemble passages were given with all possible grandeur. The sudience was so large that standing room was utilized. Mr. Broderick, Miss Annandale and Mr. Pruette received baskets of flowers dur ing the evening. To night "The Carnival of Venice" will be given its first production in Amer-ica. It was translated especially for Miss Abbott, and is considered one of the finest in her repertoire: Walter Allen does some elaborate dancing in it. People's Theatre.

Notwithstanding the strong counter attractions, the People's theatre last night was packed to the doors, hundreds being turned away, the attraction being the initial performance in this city of Beach & Bowers' refined minstrels. There was undoubtedly the best pleased audience that ever assembled at this place of amusement. The company made a decided hit, every act being received with laughter and applause. The programme was new and original from the rise to the fall of the curtain, all the old, time-worn business being abandoned and replaced by pleasing innovations in minstrelsy, the specialties of Mr. Otis Bowers, the dancing of Messrs. Beach and Freeman and the musical act of Messrs. Green and Wall being excellent. A fine quartette and orchestra added much to the even-ing's entertainment. The company plays four more nights and will doubtless be greeted by large houses. The Jockey Uniformed band, an original feature of this company, will give a grand street parade daily at noon. Licensed Watchmaker for the U. P

Pistols for Two. Captain Cormick indulged in a little shooting matinee with a local tough named Charley Scott last night. Scott is a bum and crook who has been ordered to leave the city a number of times. Last night about 8 o'clock Captain Cormick saw him in Nick Wallace's roost on Douglas street and placed him under arrest. As he was leaving the saloon Scott gave a sudden jump and freeing himself from the captain's grip, sprang away, and drawing his gun commenced shooting at the officer, who returned the fire and ran after Scott. With the start in his advantage Scott succeeded in giv-ing the officer the slip and escaped through one of the alleys running east from Ninth street. Captain Cormick wears three bullet holes in his overcoat as a visible result of the encounter as a visible result of the encounter.

There was an influx of Hastings people yesterday which does not often take place, although it is a well-known fact that the people of that thriving little suburb like to come to Omaha to get pointers upon what is known as metropolitanism. Some of them were on business, some on pleasure, one feature of which was Abbott's collection of warblers, while others came accredited to the convocation of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nebraska. Among them were the following: A. L. Clarke, president of the First National bank, and wife; H. Best-Essay, Boyhood of Whittier J. Wirt Thompson Musie German Waltz Recitation, King Volmer and Eisle wick, president of the City National bank, and wife; O. Oliver and wife; E. C. Webster, president of E. C. R. Bowen, secretary; E. E. Richardson, grand lecturer; Frane White, captain of the host; B. F. Rawalt, royal arch captain; W. F. Fried, grand master of the third veil; E. C. Webster, grand master of the second veil, and A. W. Krites, grandmaster of the first veil.

The first business in order was the annual address of the grand high priest, which showed the energetic work of that officer during the past year. This was followed by the report of the grand treasurer, which showed the treasury to be in a good financial condition. The report of the grand secretary showed a remarkable attention to detail and a commendable increase in membership, while that of the grand lecturer showed the efficacy of the work performed during the year. The election of members to constitute the committees on credentials, returns, by-laws and resolutions, finance and accounts, grievances, jurisprudence, foreign correspondence, and charters and dispensions then took place. After a recess, the chapter again convened at 2 o'clock, when, after other business, the election of officers of the grand chapter was commenced. At the time of adjournment, only two jofficers had been chosen. These were Ithamar T. Benjamin, of Crete, as high priest, and Lucius D. Richards as deputy grand high priest.

There were no grievances reported, and in voting upon the place at which the next convocation will be held, the following ballots were cast: Nebraska City 3, Lincoln 4, Omaha

13 and Hastings 27. The next or the twenty-first annual coa-vocation of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nebraska will therefore beheld at Hastings.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock there was a meeting of the grand chapter of the order of high priesthood. This was attended by the high priests of all the chapters composing the grand chapter, and conferred the degree of high priest upon the masons selected for that honor upon the masons selected for that honor by the several chapters as follows: William R. ### Big Bicycle Records.

Springfield Republican: The contest of 1886 for the gold cyclometer offered to the bicycle rider in the United States covering the greatest number of miles by road riding between January 1 and De-cember 1 closed yesterday. There have Captain Nie O'Brien, of the Council Bluffs police, came over last night to rebeen hundreds of bicyclists, covering al most every state in the union, riding for the prize, but it looks as though the the prize, but it looks as though the Westheld contestants will win, for their scores are phenomenal. The gold cyclowanted for the burglary of Davis & Co.'s night. The men gave their names as Sullivan and Woodruff and confess the meter offered under like conditions last year was carried off by Bank Clerk Good-now, captain of the Westield wheelman's crime. Goods to the value of $600, which club, with a record of 5,066 miles. He had a score of outside but no home competitors. This season three local riders entered, and their aggregate scores foot up 34,206. By the terms of the contest the figures have to be certified to by two competent witnesses and allidavits made of their correctness before a magis-trate. Much to the other contestants' and the public's surprise, when the lists were given in yesterday, Gilbert J. Loomis, a high school lad of fifteen, had a record of 13,498 miles, made on a fifty-two inch machine. He began riding in the snow and slush last January, and had bearly 1,000 miles to his credit before the nearly 1,000 miles to his credit before the riding season fairly opened. His longest ride in one day was 122 miles, made during the summer vacation, and his average per day for the eleven months, including Sundays, was forty miles. Telephone Manager Norton covered 120 miles in a single day, and a grand total of 10,706 miles, on a forty-eight inch machine. But perhaps the most phenomenal work of the trio was accomplished by Emerson Burt, a bright little newsboy under fif-teen years of age. He had an amateur forty-two inch machine, and on it he rode 10,002 miles outside of the hours he is em-ployed in Connor's news room. Much of each ruler's work has been done even-ings, and all within the limits of the lings, and all within the finites of the county. It is probable that each rider has beaten the best previous records, as well as all outside contestants for the prize, but this will not be determined until all lists are in, which may not be for a month or more.
