

THE LOCAL HEADLIGHT.

It flashes the happenings of Omaha's Daily Life.

A MUG OF JOHN AND JERRY.

Lawyers Making Law—Arguments in the Robinson-Jones Suit—The High School Still Supreme—Silent Services, Etc.

Incandescent Lights.

Mr. Coster, special agent for the Edison electric light, is in the city, having been sent here by that company to confer with Messrs J. J. Dickey and L. H. Korry in regard to the introduction of a system of incandescent lighting in Omaha.

ROBINSON vs JONES.

The First Step in the Race for Valuable City Property.

The argument in the demurrer in the case of Robinson vs Jones, was closed on last Saturday night. C. A. Baldwin appearing for Mr. Jones and Mr. Doane for Robinson. The former presented an elaborate brief well supplied with authorities calculated to show that Robinson's petition did not constitute a ground for action, because the statute of limitation narrowed the period of time in which suit could be brought to one of four years.

Police Alarm.

E. B. Chandler, of Chicago, is in the city conferring with the members of the council with a view to introducing that body to introduce the method employed in Chicago known as the police telephone and signal. The system has already been described in these columns, comprehending stations scattered throughout the city, with electrical attachments, by means of which messages are sent to the police.

LAWYERS AND THE LAW.

They Meet to Draft a Bill to Improve Legal Methods.

A meeting of the bar committee to draft a bill to give two more judges to this county was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Owing to the occupation of some of the members an adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock.

A CONFIDENCE GAME.

A Frenchman Makes Serious Charges Against a Block Watchman.

A Frenchman, whose wife keeps a "clear store" of doubtful repute on the corner of Eleventh and Capitol streets, appeared in police court yesterday morning and poured a tale of woe into the ear of Marshal Cummings. He made serious charges against block watchman Jerry Murphy which, if they can be proven true, are sufficient to get that worthy into trouble.

SEVEN STORIES.

Mr. W. T. Booth Will Build Such a Building on Farnam Street.

The purchase of the Millard property on the corner of Farnam and Seventeenth streets has been one of the biggest booms which Farnam street has experienced this year. Its purchase, too, by such a man as W. T. Booth, of New York, is regarded as an additional evidence that the transaction will insure to the appreciation and improvement of this wonderful street.

MeShane Wanted $75,000.

During the absence of John A. MeShane in Washington, negotiations for the sale of his lot on the corner of Sixteenth and Farnam streets were carried on and the lot was finally sold conditionally for $60,000, to a party who proposed to cover it with a seven story building. This morning Mr. MeShane refused to ratify the sale, asking as the lowest figure for it $75,000, an increase of $15,000 over what he paid for it two months ago.

Police Court.

Judge Stenberg yesterday morning disposed of an unimportant lot of young boys and drunks. Frank Boyd, the vagrant who stole two overcoats from a house on Tenth street, was held for further examination. He will probably be sent to the reform school.

Substitutes No More.

The Semi-Occasional "Subs" at the Postoffice Left Out.

The three substitute letter carriers of the postoffice, Messrs. Noonan, Monroe and Clark, have been discharged by an order from Washington. The arrival of the same was unexpected, and the reason for its issue was unknown.

IT WILL GO BEYOND.

The New Building and the High School Will Not Conflict.

The announcement in the BEE that a school is to be erected on the lot now occupied by the high school attracted pretty considerable attention, many fearing that the building would be placed on the same line, and face east, with the high school building, thus destroying the imposing appearance of that structure.

A Baptist University.

The Baptists of Nebraska have been for some months past preparing to found a university of learning in this state. On the 30th of November last they organized an educational association which they are about to incorporate.

Police Alarm.

E. B. Chandler, of Chicago, is in the city conferring with the members of the council with a view to introducing that body to introduce the method employed in Chicago known as the police telephone and signal.

Charity in Funds.

Sunday afternoon, St. S. A. Auchmoody, superintendent of the Sunday school of the Seward street Methodist Episcopal church, did a very happy thing for the deserving poor.

Handling Holiday Mail.

Superintendent Evers and some of his letter-carriers were yesterday morning enlarging the mail tables in the postoffice by means of rough pine boards, to accommodate the usual holiday presents and mail which is now beginning to come through the office.

The Tenth Street Hotel.

The design of the new $300,000 hotel, to be erected next spring on the corner of Tenth and Farnam streets, may now be seen in Orchard's show window. It shows a substantial, beautiful and imposing structure, affecting in some degree the Palmer house in Chicago.

Knights and Ladies.

Princeton lodge 179 of the order of Knights and Ladies of Honor held an election last Saturday evening, with the following result: Theo. Olsen, protector; Mary A. Fretwell, vice protector; E. K. Long, past protector; Thos. Emerson, chaplain; Aletta H. de la Corrielle, reader; Jos. B. West, treasurer; James H. Bruner, secretary; Miriam West, guardian; Chas. L. Fretschler, sentinel; Geo. R. Hamilton, Anna K. Bruner, and E. K. Long, trustees.

A $150,000 Pile.

The first seven-story building to be erected in Omaha will be that of A. Cahn, at the corner of Fourteenth and Farnam streets. The plans of this structure are now ready, and work upon the building will be commenced in the spring.
