FELL THROUGH THE ICE.

John Montgomery, a Night Watchman, is Drowned in the Missouri.

News was received at the Union Pacific headquarters to-day of the death by drowning of John Montgomery, the night watchman on the Union Pacific bridge, early yesterday morning. Montgomery was on his usual patrol when suddenly he was seen to slip and fall to the river, disappearing in the water around the piers, where ice is not formed. He never appeared again, and, was undoubtedly drowned before he could find a hole in the ice. His body, doubtless swept down the river, and will probably never be found until the ice breaks up in the spring. Nothing is known of the sad occurrence beyond the facts stated above.

The New York Life.

It has at length been discovered that the purchase of the Millard lot on the corner of Seventeenth and Farnam streets has been made by Mr. Booth in the interests of the New York Life insurance company of New York, an association, which, within a short time has invested nearly half a million of dollars in Nebraska. Early in the spring, it is the intention of this company to erect a a magnificent fire-proof building on the property mentioned. This structure will be six stories high and will be fire-proof from basement to mansard. It will be fashioned after the most approved buildings of the company throughout the country, and cost, it is estimated $250,000. It will be as fine a structure as can be erected for that money, and with the other magnificent buildings now in course of erection and projected on that street, will establish beyond the question of a doubt the supremacy of Farnam street as the leading, richest and most promising thoroughfare of the city.

C. E. Mayne's prices are always the lowest and his terms are always the easiest. Go to his office and buy a lot in Cotner & Archer's add. to South Omaha for $250 to $500, that will double inside of a year.

The First Masonic Party.

The first of the series of the Masonic parties, given under the auspices of the four lodges of the city, occurred Thursday night at the new Masonic hall, and was a most pleasant affair.

About thirty couples were in attendance, and enjoyed dancing to the music of the Musical Union orchestra. Supper was served at the intermission, in the adjoining room. Those who did not care to dance enjoyed a game of cards in the lodge room. Altogether the social was a success, and if the remaining parties are equally so, the Masons will have reason to congratulate themselves.

Hereafter both the Capitol avenue and Sixteenth street entrance to the building will be open on the occasion of these parties. Many came Thursday night to the Capitol avenue entrance, and finding it closed went away again.

Police Court.

Louis Norman was arraigned yesterday morning in police court for stealing three watches from Gus Anderson's boarding house on Ninth and Douglas street. The only witness against him was a little five-year-old girl, who did not appear to know much about the theft. Norman was accordingly discharged.

Pat Rockford had been engaged in his old pastime of beating his wife. He was sent up to the county jail for ten days. Of ten dranks three were fined $3 and costs and one $1 and costs.

The Wounded Woman.

A reporter for the BEE yesterday visited Mrs. Stewart, the colored woman who was shot by her husband on Thursday night. She was lying in bed scarcely able to move and suffering most intense pains. She could speak with but the greatest difficulty, with gasps which were painful to hear. An examination of the dress which she wore at the time of the shooting revealed the fact that the pistol must have touched the cloth, because around the bullet hole, the garment was burned with the powder's flash. The corset was also singed, and in view of the fact that the poor woman was shot the second time after she had fallen from the effects of the first bullet, it appears that her intending murderer must have stood over her and shot her like a dog.

Stewart is a laborer who has been working at intervals in the city, but the support of himself and wife has mainly been derived from rooms rented in their house by the latter. He has boasted of having killed and stabbed colored people in the south, and there is a woman now residing in the city, who bears the mark of a knife blade, given her by him. A short time before he married his present wife he lived with a woman in the western part of the city, who subsequently left him because of his cruelty.

The bullets were extracted from the wounds of Mrs. Stewart, but is still in a dangerous condition.

Clothing Needy Children.

A successful scheme of clothing public school children was recently suggested by Miss Maggie McCarthy, principal of the Pacific school. It was made to Superintendent James and approved by him. It consists in receiving donations from children of the clothing which they have outgrown and bestowing the same upon those who are so situated as not to be able to attend school in a comfortably clad condition. Thus far, a number of children have been clothed, and the vesture is so distributed in all the schools that the giver is unable to determine who has received the clothes for which he has no further use.

Cigars For the Scribes.

Colonel Forbes and Jack Hanley walked into the local room of the BEE last night with their arms loaded with boxes of cigars. One of the boxes was dropped among the reporters, and on being opened was found to contain numerous evidences of the fragrant weed labelled with a "Merry Christmas" and Ed Rothery's compliments of the season, the same being emphasized with a counterfeit presentment of the giver. Some of the habanas have disappeared in smoke and in the clouds thereof this happy festival was welcomed. Herb Rothery's compliments are also acknowledged.

He Wants Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—J. K. Redington as attorney for Lester A. Bartlett, of Washington, to-day made application to Commissioner Sparks, of the general land office, as ex-officio register and receiver for the state of Illinois, to locate, with Gerard Scrip, about ninety acres of land in the city of Chicago lying on the lake, south of the Chicago river, being the land by what is known as the Talcott survey in section 10; also all land between that survey and the lake in section 10, as well as all lands lying between Wabash and Michigan avenues and Washington and Madison streets. In explanation Redington to-day said to an Associated press reporter that the Gerard Scrip, filed as part of the application with Commissioner Sparks, was issued originally in payment of services rendered by one Stephen Gerard to President Washington in opening communication with the hostile Indians in the then northwest territory, and, as appears upon its face, is locatable upon any public lands of the United States. It is claimed that these lands belong to the United States and are therefore subject to entry with this scrip. The commissioner received the application and scrip and holds the matter of allowance or rejection of location under advisement. Argument in support of application will shortly be heard. It is reported that the land in controversy is worth about $15,000,000.

What Cattle Growers Want.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 23.—J. A. Cooper president of the Colorado Cattle Growers' association, to-day addressed the following letter to members of congress: "I would respectfully represent, by authority of the executive committee of the Colorado Cattle Growers' association, that the bill recently introduced by Senator Warner Miller, of New York, providing for the establishment of a commission authorized to deal with the question of contagious diseases, will not meet the demand of the cattle industry by protection, but that the law creating the bureau of animal industry should be amended, enlarging the powers of the bureau to the end that the practical knowledge acquired by its officers and agents in investigations made by them could be at once utilized for the safety and protection of American cattle. The provisions of the above mentioned bill, omitting the section creating a commission, are not objectionable, but should be made, by an amendment, a part of the bureau of animal industry law."

Consumption, a Boston physician, Dr. Cushing, asserts, is "transferable not only by inhalation but by wounds or cuts infected by tuberculous expectorations; also by the milk of tuberenious mothers, or by the flesh or milk of tuberculous cattle. A few days ago a citizen of Columbia, Pa., gave as a wedding present to a young couple an $8 clock which he had purchased on the installment plan. He paid $6 and was slow about paying the $2. So the agent, who knew where the clock was, scared the bride into giving it up and then disappeared. The groom brought suit against the agent, but he could not be found, and the young man had to pay the costs. He says when he marries his second wife he wants no presents on the installment plan.
