A telegram was received here yesterday announcing the death of Mrs. J. R. Thomas, of Castana, Monona county. She was the mother of Mrs. C. H. Gilmore, Mrs. James Anderson and Mr. David Thomas, all of this city. They left at once for the home thus suddenly saddened.

Joseph Murphy, the great Irish com-edian, is to appear at the opera house tomorrow evening. He has such a reputa-tion, and is such a favorite, that the seats are being marked off rapidly. It will be a treat io amusement goers without any doubt, and they will not need urging to improve the opportunity.

In view of the new suits started by the prohibitionists the city expects to have some difficulty in collecting beenses from the saloons. Some object to paying the city and the attorneys too, but even if they pay the attorneys as much as they pay the city, their license is then costing them less than it would in most cities of this size.

Rev. A. K. Bates has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church, and purposes leaving this city in the course of a few weeks. He will for a time engage in some special work for the Y. M. C. A., but his permanent plans for the future are not yet made public. He and his family have many friends here who will miss them greatly, and it will be no easy task to secure a successor to occupy the pastoral and pulpit position.

A New, But Not Green, Board. The new county board of supervisors met yesterday, and will probably be in session most of the week. The new member from the city, C. B. Waite, who will doubtless prove one of the most valuable members, took his seat, as did also S. B. Frum, who has been a member before, and now is returned after an absence of one year. He is welcomed back gladly. The board had some little difficulty in organizing, so far as the selection of a chairman was concerned. The difficulty seemed to arise, not from the usual ambition shown by politicians, but from the modesty of the four members present, each voting for his next door neighbor, and thus there being no majority for any one of the four. After several unsatisfactory ballots the matter was happily disposed of by the election of Mr. Frum. Mr. Boyler, the only absent member was expected to arrive last night, and be present to join in the proceedings to-day.

The bonds of the new recorder, W. H. Thomas, were approved, and that gentleman entered upon his duties, being gracefully welcomed by Mr. Chambers, who turned over the office, and kindly offered to give any needed information and assistance to the meomer.

The bonds of the new county attorney, Colonel Daily, were also approved, and that gentieman entered upon his duties. The bonds of township clerks, constables and justices were approved and

The rest of the afternoon was spent in routine business, the most important matters going over until to day when the full board will be present.

The trustees close their report with the following comments:
"The thanks of the trustees are cordially tendered to the publishers of our city newspapers for furnishing us copies of their papers without charge, and also to all others who have courteously con-tributed to our shelves and tables.

"The reading room of the library was opened on Sunday, January, 1886, for the accommodation of visitors, but was closed in July, the attendance being deemed insufficient to justify the ex-

"At the time of the organization of the library, February, 1882, our registered list of books numbered 2,898 volumes; our present number is 6,083, showing an increase of 3,185 volumes. In addition to the registered list we have a very com-plete set of public documents, both of national and state government, comprisin the aggregate nearly 3,000 volumes.

"As will be seen by the foregoing report there has been a steady advance in all departments of the library during the past ear and the trustees have every reason to believe that with a larger reading room the number of visitors would be largely increased.

"As heretofore noted in our reports, a very considerable proportion of those who visit our rooms, either for reading at the tables or procuring books, comes from the boys and girls, the future young men and women of our city. Each day as soon as the public schools close they come flocking into the rooms, fresh and vigorous, eager to add to the instructions they have received in school, the knowledge obtainable from the books on our shelves or the tempting literature on the tables. Thus the library supplements our free schools, carrying forward the mental training there commenced.

"We ask for the Free Public library the continued confidence of our citizens who ook to the city council to furnish the funds under the provisions of the law applicable to it for carrying it on successfully. It is one of the institutions in which our people feel an honorable pride, and liberal appropriations for its support will always meet with their ap-

Wants Another Chance.

Colonel Daily, as attorney for Edwards, has filed a motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment. The motion is based on the claum that several errors crept into the trial in the judge's admission of evidence and in the instructions. Particular stress is laid upon the fact that the burglars' tools and revolvers found upon Edwards when arrested were shown to the jury, when these articles had nothing to do with the confidence game for which he was being tried. It is also claimed that the cyidence as to what the victim of the game had to say and do with the unknown and still at large partner of Edwards should not have been ad-mitted. The claim is also made that the checks found on Edwards' person should not have been used at the trial. It is generally thought that Edwards is too valuable a member of the gang to be al-owed to be sent to the penitentiary without a strong struggle to get him free on some technicality, and that a strong legal fight will be made. One who is knowing to the details of the case says that Ed-wards will not be taken over the road as soon as most have thought. The motion for a new trial will come up on the re-convening of court on the 10th.

DISGRACE, THEN DEATH.

The Suicide of One of the Butterflies of a Brothet. Last evening the coroner received word that a frail female in "Rotten Row" had suicided. He at once impaneled a jury consisting of W. H. Lynchard, Charles Alleys and J. W. Hosier, and proceeded to examine into the facts. The woman was found to be Ida Griffin, an inmate of Ollie Dauford's house, No. 119 East Pierce street. The causes which led to her taking poison are not fully known, but it seems to be the old, old story. It is reported that the girl was despondent over owing the landlady a large amount. Sunday night, it is said, she borrowed fifty cents of a hack driver named Hunt and spent it for the poison with which she ended her life. The coroner's jury took the following evidence and then adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning:

Miss Olie Danford—The girl's name was Ida Griffin; has been here three months; deceased had lived at other houses previously, her father Mr. Griflin, who lives at Nebraska City, was here about a week ago. When we found she had taken poison Sunday night about 9:30 o'clock she said she'd take it again if she did not die from its effects; we called Dr. Bellinger about 12 o'clock Sunday night. She bought 50 cents worth of poison from Baker's drug store, she told us. We sent to Baker's and they said she o'd bought it there. No poison has been found ters. poison has been found here. The doctors said it was morphine poison. The deceased was about eighteen or nine-teen years of age. Her father when here said as soon as she got able to he would have her keep house for him. She had been sick about six weeks with disease. She died at 5:10 o'clock. May Alley testified that she had taken poison and if she got well she'd take it again. Her father seemed satisfied with her remaining here as he could not give her a home until spring. Have known her since last spring. She had disease then and has had ever since. This seemed to be her only reason for commit-

Miss Danford was recalled and said: I have not been charging her any board since she has been here. She came here sick and I got her a doctor.

E. D. Baker testified: Am druggist at No. 140 Broadway; have been in business about twenty years; Ida Griffin came here Sunday evening about 8 o'clock and bought 5)e worth of morphine in bulk, powder; it was about thirty grains; she said she was in the habit of using it. I questioned her and she laughed at the idea of doing anything wrong with it. I'm in the habit of selling it; couldn't say if she had bought it here before. We take their names and the purpose they wish to use it for. It would take too long to go through the business of making them sign a statement. She gave me the name of Ida Griffin.
