THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

Wheat Opens Weak and Lower, With Sales at Saturday's Curb Quotations.

CORN WEAK ON VISIBLE INCREASE

An Advance Noted in First Trades in Pork—Cattle About the Same as on Saturday—A Slight Upturn in Hog Prices.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—Wheat opened weak and lower, first sales being at the curb quotations established on Saturday, viz: 84⅝c for May and 78⅝c for February. Private cables quoted Liverpool weak at 1d decline, but the tone of later advices, both public and private, was more encouraging. No decline was mentioned, and the markets were described as quiet but firm. It became evident early in the day that the visible supply statement would show an increase of 500,000 bushels or more, and pending the official announcement the market dragged. Trade was moderate, but traders did not evince a very lively interest in the proceedings. The feeling was naturally heavy, and had it not been for liberal buying to cover short sales values would have probably receded. As it was the market advanced slowly and laboriously to 78⅝c for February, 79⅝c for March, and 85⅛c for May. New York was steady and by no means a slack buyer on the up turn, but the demand from all quarters was satisfied in part ere long and wheat became a trifle less expensive. May sold down to 85⅛c and then steadied, and for quite a while held at 85⅛@85¼c. Ream offered any part of 2,000,000 bushels on the split, but retired without selling much. The announcement of the visible increase had no effect whatever on prices, though later May got down to 85c, but only for a minute. The undertone became much firmer toward the close of the morning and the tenor of the news grew rather bullish. Last trades at 1 o'clock were on a basis of 78⅝c for February, 79⅝c for March, 85⅛@85¼c for May. The range was narrow and the close noticeably firm at about top prices. Corn was weaker to-day, and during the regular session declined ⅛c for all futures. The principal factor of the depression was the large increase, about 1,300,000 bushels, in the visible supply, and this information being immediately followed by estimates for to-morrow of nearly 500 cars, caused a break in May property to 41⅝c. Up to that time the market had held fairly steady at around 42@42⅛c, or about where it closed Saturday. Trading was fair in volume but scattering, and almost entirely local and of a scalping character. The temper of the crowd here is undoubtedly bearish, on the near future at least. The closing quotations stood at 36⅛c for February, 36⅝c for March, and 41⅝@41⅞c for May. Outside market news had no perceptible effect here to-day. Oats fluctuated within an extremely narrow range and closed at inside figures at 30⅝c for May. Speculative trading in May oats was moderate, but all other futures were dull and neglected. At 1 o'clock the market was ⅛c lower than Saturday's closing. Initial trades in pork were at an advance of 5@10c over Saturday's close. Lard and ribs showed no change. McFarlane put out a heavy line of lard the first thing and broke the market 10@12½c. There was rattling trade in all options and the decline affected this product in all positions very uniformly. McFarlane was supposed to be acting for Hutchinson, but the crowd was eventually led to believe that he represented New York parties. Pork sold down from $12.40 to $12.27½ and ribs weakened a little later in the session. The market firmed up, but at 1 o'clock the market was tame. The quotations marked no change of importance in any article except lard, however.

2:20 p. m.—The afternoon markets were very quiet all around and price changes were inconsequential. May wheat rested finally at 85⅛c and pork at $12.35.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—All things considered the market to-day was about as good as at the close last week and quotably better. More desirable kinds of smooth, fat cattle sold well and in some cases at stronger prices, while cattle that were thin and rough in some cases sold very slowly at barely steady prices. On the whole, however, there was a moderately active movement at fully former rates. Western markets were steady, but a cablegram from London denotes a weaker market on the other side. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.50@5.20; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.00@4.60; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.30@4.00. Stockers and feeders, $2.35@3.70; cows, bulls and mixed, stronger at $1.80@3.30; bulk, $2.40@2.90; Texas cattle, $2.25@3.30.

HOGS—Trade was active, with an upturn of about 5c on good to choice heavy and packing sorts. Light and mixed were about the same as Saturday. The market closed steady, with nearly all sold. A few fancy heavy sold at $4.90@5.00, with good to choice packers at $4.75@4.80, and common $4.00@4.25. Light sorts neglected; light, $4.00@4.15; Yorkers, $4.40@4.50. T. and B. sort, (about 900 head), cost $4.70.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—MONEY—On call easy at 4@5 per cent, closing at 4 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—Scarce and in demand 6@7 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Strong at $4.81¾ for sixty day bills; $4.85 for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but firm.

STOCKS—Stocks opened somewhat irregular but generally stronger. There was moderate business in the first few minutes, in which Jersey Central and West Point were conspicuous. The activity soon died away, but the advance in prices continued until noon. The dullnes was then intensified and prices sagged off slowly until the close, which was dull and heavy, generally small fractions above the opening.

The Week.

Monday, Jan. 10.

The receipts of cattle during the week past averaged very light, the total receipts for the six days amounting to only about 2,500. The market, however, was firm and active and nearly everything was sold promptly on arrival, the demand being good. The receipts of hogs for the week were very nearly 20,000. The market opened at the beginning of the week with hogs selling at at $4.40@4.70. The market continued steady on Tuesday, but dropped about 5c on Wednesday. Prices remained about steady on Thursday and Friday, but on Saturday the buyers were not at all anxious to buy with the prospect of holding over and the market took a sharp decline, hogs selling from $4.35@4.55.

Cattle.

The receipts continue very light, but the demand is strong and there is a ready market for everything coming. The market to-day was strong at firmer quotations and everything was sold.

Hogs.

The market opened very slow and dull and only a few loads were sold early in the day. The bulk of the hogs were not sold until after 12 o'clock. The market was about 10c higher than Saturday's close. In spite of the dull opening the market closed with a good feeling and everything was sold.

Sheep.

The market is very quiet and nothing doing of any account.

Notes.

Hogs all sold.

Good cattle in demand.

Hogs a little better than Saturday's close.

A good run of cattle is anticipated for to-morrow.

F. Molle, Snyder, was in and sold a load of cattle.

J. Bower, Blanchard, had five loads of cattle on the market.

G. F. Panik, Creighton, was here and marketed a load of hogs.

G. H. Hammond & Co. bought 103 half breeds averaging 1133 pounds.

There are buyers enough in the market to take all the cattle that could come here.

"The cattle market would be strong if there were any here," remarked a buyer.

E. D. Welker, St. Edward, came in with two loads of hogs, which he sold on the market.

F. J. McCormack, Battle Creek, had a load of 412 lb. hog on the market which topped the market at $4.60.

The Union Cattle company's feeding barns at Gilmore are full. They make two shipments of cattle per week.

Hendel & Miller, Edgar, Neb., had 83 head of cattle on the market. E. Moser, manager for the company, came in with them.

"Well bought is half sold" is an old maxim and it is needless to say that stock which is purchased above the market in the country cannot be sold to advantage unless the market is accidentally higher.—Drovers' Journal.

Mark M. Coad, Fremont, has without doubt the finest Percheron colt in the state. The colt "Denmark," which is coming two years old, took first prize at the Omaha fair. Mr. Coad took nine prizes out of thirteen horses at Omaha and seven prizes out of ten horses at Lincoln state fair.

A car of hogs shipped from Modale over the Sioux City & Pacific should have arrived here in time for Friday's market, but did not arrive in time. On Saturday the market declined and the shipper was a heavy loser. There ought to be some law to make railroads pay for such delays.

Among others having hogs in to-day were the following: M. J. Hughes, West Point; Fuller & Paton, Fullerton; E. D. Welker, St. Edwards; W. L. Embree, Shenandoah; C. H. Hall, Vallisca; E. Taylor, Broken Bow; Lobman & R., Columbus; F. M. Sackett, Cedar Rapids; A. D. Sears, Clarks; S. Scott, Clarks; J. A. McShane, Calhoun.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

The Week.

Monday, Jan. 10.

The past week has not been very prolific of changes in the produce markets. Eggs have been selling at the one price for some time. The first of the week there was very little demand for poultry of any kind, turkeys being almost unsalable. As the week progressed the market picked up somewhat; is now fairly active. Game has been in fair demand all the week and has been selling at about steady prices as quoted below. The butter market has been gradually firming up, and while quotations are no higher the market is in much better condition. Apples, potatoes and vegetables have not presented any new features, but have been selling all the week as quoted below.

General Produce.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

EGGS—Unchanged and steady at 21c for strictly fresh. Cold storage, slow sale at a discount, and pickled or salted not wanted.

BUTTER—Sales have been dragging lately, as the market has been kept heavily stocked. Receipts have been cut short by stormy weather, and as a consequence some improvement is noticed. Creamery, strictly choice, solid packed, 27@28c; 1 and 2-lb rolls, 29@30c; dairy rolls, choice, 17@18c; fair to good, 12@14c; inferior grades, 6@12c.

CHEESE—Full cream cheddars, single, 13½c; full cream flats, twins, 13¾c; young American, 14c; fancy Swiss, 14@15; Swiss, imported, 25c; Limburger, 13c; brick, 14@15c.

POULTRY—The bulk of the chickens are selling at about 8c; turkeys, 9@11c; geese and ducks, 9@10c.

GAME—As the season for some kinds of game and venison is now legally over, the demand has dropped off considerably and prices are not as high nor as firm as they have been. Deer and antelope saddles, per lb, 8@9c; carrass, 5@6c; jack rabbits, per doz, $3.00; small rabbits, 75c; prairie chickens, per doz, $3.50; quail, do, $1.25; snipe and plover, do, $1.25; geese, do, $8.00; ducks; mallard, per doz, $2.25@2.50; teal, do, $1.50; mixed, do, $1.50@2.00; brants, do, $2.00.

ONIONS—Very scarce and choice stock quotable at $1.25@1.50 per bush.

BEANS—In more liberal supply and a little lower; Californias, $1.70@1.75; domestic, choice clean, $1.50@1.60.

GAME—Quail, per doz, $1.75@2.00; ducks, mallard, per doz, $1.75@2.00; ducks, teal, per doz, $1.25@1.50; ducks, mixed, per doz, $1.25; geese, per doz, $3.50.

APPLES—The market is very firm and stocks are very small. Choice Missouri are quoted at $4.00@4.50, Michigan, $4.00@4.50.

POTATOES—The trade is limited to the sale of small lots, a few sacks at a time. Choice stock sells at 60c.

VEGETABLES—Sweet potatoes, F'y Jerseys, per lb., 4c; rutabagas, per bbl., $2.00; carrots, $2.00; white turnips, per bbl., $2.00; parsnips, per bbl., $2.00; beets, per bbl., $2.00; cabbages, per lb., 3½c.

CELERY—The market is steady. Choice stock per doz., 35c; extra large, per doz., 40c.

OYSTERS—Mediums, 20c; standards, 26c; selects, 28; extra selects, 33c; N. Y. counts, 40c.
