

SENSATION IN ARMY CIRCLES.

Omaha Military Men Stirred Up Over the Latest Court-Martial Order.

TALK WITH SLUGGER SULLIVAN.

What He Has to Say of Pugilistic Matters—General O'Brien's Funeral Arrangements—Arrested for Larceny—Jury List.

Military Sensation.

The court martial order issued from department headquarters which calls for the assembling of the court at Fort DuChesne, Utah, February 7, has excited considerable interest in military circles in Omaha. The fact that two colonels, three lieutenant colonels and six majors compose the court is conclusive evidence that a field officer is to be the subject of trial and investigation. This subject of the fact that only a few weeks ago Colonel Edward Hatch, of the Ninth cavalry, was summarily ordered to take command at Fort DuChesne, makes it certain that Major Frederick Bantock of the Ninth cavalry later in command at that post is to be the subject of official inquiry by court martial. No information on the subject can be obtained from those in authority, but it is no question as to the fact as stated. Major Bantock is a gallant and brilliant officer of cavalry who with Reno supported Custer in his last fight, and held the ground against overwhelming numbers after the annihilation of Custer's command in the battle on the Little Big Horn. The announcement which appeared in the morning papers that Lieutenant Colonel Absalom Baird, inspector general, had been ordered to proceed at once from Washington to Fort DuChesne is taken as evidence that the army headquarters at Washington will receive the case to come on trial unless the circumstances are so flagrant as to prevent it being arranged otherwise without detriment to the service. It is possible that Major Bantock's offense may have been some trifling violation of the regulations which while demanding reprimand need not necessarily submit that brave and gallant officer to the humiliation of a court martial. If such should be the case the court martial may be dissolved without session.

PUGILISTIC POINTERS.

John L. Sullivan and What He Has to Say.

John L. Sullivan, the world's premier pugilist, was met by a reporter for the Bee yesterday after he was leaving the Millard barber shop. The great fighter was dressed in a stylish suit of clothes, which were attractive without being gaudy. He was looking in the best of health, not the slightest sign of dissipation being observable in any feature. "My weight at present is 230 pounds," said Sullivan, in reply to a question of the reporter, "which is considerably more than I ought to weigh to be in good fighting condition. I can easily bring myself down to 165 pounds, which is about my proper fighting weight. I never felt better in my life so far as general health was concerned." "Where is Ryan?" "He is in San Francisco, I believe, running a saloon. No, I don't suppose he will ever get back here. I think I gave him about all he wanted." "I shall go to Minneapolis from here," continued Sullivan, "and there I shall meet Cardiff. He's a big man, but I think I can beat him. I was also one of the oldest members of the bar association of Douglas county. From each of those societies a number of members will attend the funeral, and each will be represented in the hall bears." The members of the E. M. A. are requested to meet this evening at their hall to make arrangements for the funeral, and those who may not be able to attend the meeting are requested to meet at the hall to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock to take part in the funeral procession.

THE FUNERAL DAY.

To-day set apart for the burial of General George M. O'Brien. The funeral of the late General George M. O'Brien will take place this morning from his late residence, South Seventeenth street. The remains will be borne to the cathedral of St. Philomena, on Ninth street, where a requiem mass will be celebrated at 9:30 o'clock after which the remains will be interred in Holy Sepulchre cemetery. The general was an esteemed member of the E. M. A., also of Custer Post No. 7, G. A. R., and held the position of senior vice-commander of the latter organization in the department of Nebraska. He was also one of the oldest members of the bar association of Douglas county. From each of those societies a number of members will attend the funeral, and each will be represented in the hall bears. The members of the E. M. A. are requested to meet this evening at their hall to make arrangements for the funeral, and those who may not be able to attend the meeting are requested to meet at the hall to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock to take part in the funeral procession.

BAR MEETING.

Yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, meeting of the bar association of Douglas county was held in the district court, to take action upon the death of its late member, General George M. O'Brien. There had been no call for the gathering, made through the papers, yet Judges Wakely and Neville and about fifty members of the association were in attendance. On motion of B. E. Kennedy, Champion Chase was elected chairman, and E. W. Simeral secretary.

Andrew Bevins moved the appointment of a committee on resolutions to consist of five members. The motion prevailed and the following members were appointed: Messrs. C. A. Baldwin, Andrew Bevins, J. J. O'Connor, B. E. B. Kennedy and C. S. Montgomery.

On motion of C. J. Smith, the following gentlemen were named to represent the bar association among the pallbearers at the funeral to-morrow: Judges Wakely and Neville, of the district court; Champion Chase and C. A. Baldwin. On motion of J. O. Connor it was decided that the bar association should attend the funeral in a body.

THE BICYCLE RACE.

John S. Prince Answers Certain Objections.

Certain dyspeptic individuals, whose names it is not necessary to mention, are trying to make it appear that Saturday night's race between Prince and Dingley was a tamely contested one, and that the record was far below what it ought to have been. All fair-minded persons who witnessed the race agreed that it was one of the best ever seen in this city. Both men did their best to win, and the consequence was that there were frequent and exciting sports of speed which served to keep the enthusiasm of the spectators at the highest pitch.

IN TROUBLE.

A Furniture Man Arrested for Stealing From His Employers.

Frank F. Pierce, employed by Abraham, a furniture dealer on Farmington street, was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Houck on a warrant sworn out in Justice Berk's court, charging him with larceny. The complainant is Abraham, Pierce's employer, and the specific charge is that Pierce has in the course of several months made away with a large quantity of goods from the store. When Pierce was arrested at his home on Sixteenth street, near Williams, a large quantity of furniture, carpets, a stove and other articles were found which were claimed by Abraham as his property. There was also found a large quantity of cigars which Pierce is supposed to have obtained from the store. Pierce has been a resident of Omaha for two years and during his early residence in this city was arrested for the supposed theft of some diamonds, which were found in his possession. The officers, however, were unable to prove that he came by the diamonds dishonestly, and Pierce was consequently discharged. Pending trial Pierce is confined in the central police station.

TWO BAD BOYS.

Copeland and Hayden Will be Brought to Omaha—Police Notes.

W. J. Carroll, a lawyer employed by the Union Pacific, appeared before Judge Stenberg in police court yesterday morning and filed complaint against Fred Copeland and O. H. Hayden, the two boys who were caught in California. The complaint charges these young men with having forged orders upon the general manager of the Union Pacific road for two passes. The forged order read as follows, being transmitted by telegraph: "Kindly have left with your ticket agent Oden depot, to be called for, Pass then to Los Angeles and return, good sixty days. For James Smith and brother, account of the company. The S. R. CALLOWAY, W. J. CARROLL."

FOR THE COMING YEAR.

The Board of Trade Elect Officers and Change Their By-Laws.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the board of trade held yesterday afternoon the following officers were elected: Max Meyer, president; P. E. Iler, first vice president; C. A. Fried, second vice president; John A. Wakelind, treasurer.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

One chamber of commerce is now nearly completed in Omaha, and it is a good many skeptics in this city, as well as among our own members, were in doubt of its ever being completed. It was originally intended, but has been abandoned, and although not a fancy building, it is a very substantial one, and will make an impression upon every eye by its solidity. The contract being made at a reasonable price, and the association of the Omaha Board of Trade, and its members and the citizens of Omaha can look back with pride and satisfaction upon the last year's record.
