

THE DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (Normal Edition) including Sunday... $10.00 Per Six Months... $5.00 Per Three Months... $2.50

ADVERTISING RATES: All business letters and communications should be addressed to THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

THE DAILY BEE. Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, ss. Geo. B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Table with 2 columns: Date and Circulation figures. Rows include Saturday, Jan. 1, 1887 (6,975), Sunday, Jan. 2, 1887 (87,109), Monday, Jan. 3, 1887 (13,985), Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1887 (13,985), Wednesday, Jan. 5, 1887 (13,985), Thursday, Jan. 6, 1887 (13,985), Friday, Jan. 7, 1887 (13,985).

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 1st day of January A. D. 1887. N. P. Felt, Notary Public.

There is a great deal of useless breath expended in speculating who will get Van Wyck's strength. When it is finished with the general no other candidate will have any use for it.

According to the Hamilton county dato, he sat down upon Rosewater with a dull thud at the opening of the legislature. This is a painful disclosure.

Mr. GREY will have to charge double prices on his B. & M. job work to make up for his loss of state patronage.

The Rock Island road is running surveys to Omaha from Gilmore. The St. Paul is looking across the river in the same direction.

SENATOR VAN WYCK was necessarily absent from Washington yesterday which was the day set for the consideration of the Knevles lands bill.

An irresponsible scribbler from Lincoln asserts that for two months the BEE has kept its mouth tightly closed about the necessity of abolishing the bogus railroad commission.

A CORRESPONDENT at Chadron writes to know what has become of the house bill making appropriations for our frontier forts.

The legislature of Indiana is passing through an experience in some respects similar to that which the Ohio legislature had a year ago, in which the democrats were defeated.

The Thieves Balked. A double breasted wail of agony is rising from the printing sharks of the combined job offices over the breaking of the pool which had for its object the robbing of the state treasury by exorbitant charges for printing the legislative records.

The Charity Ball. The custom of dancing for sweet charity's sake bids fair to be a fixed one in Omaha as it has been for many seasons in other large cities.

A Bushwhacking Hireling. Senator Manderson's private secretary, one Ham, has been for some time busily engaged in filling the columns of the state press with his best and most original contributions.

GENERAL VAN WYCK'S strength is held well in hand and will be found on the spot when the balloting opens.

Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

The Business Situation. The first ten days in the year are always marked by seasonable slackness in most lines of distribution.

The Judiciary committee of the house of representatives are now considering two joint resolutions introduced at the last session, which propose to change practices that have prevailed almost since the foundation of the government.

Nebraska Revenue Laws. The legislature cannot amend the revenue laws relating to assessments too quick. The property is placed so low that taxes, as a general thing, amount to 10 per cent upon assessed valuation.

It Is Not His Personal. Hon. John Watson returned from Lincoln last evening, and was interviewed by telephone by a Press reporter.

Equalization. The new governor doubts the propriety of the state officers acting as a board of equalization, as does everybody else.

Old-Year Memories. Why do we mourn the days that go, for the same sun shines every day. Ever a spring her primrose bath, and ever a sweet as the rose that died last year is the rose that is born to-day.

STATE JOTTINGS. Rising City shipped 962 cars of produce last year. Henry Mason, a Craig bricklayer, hurried home by taking a dose of chloral.

CURRENT TOPICS. Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

Now all this is well enough as far as it goes, but who can fail to see that it is raining more than rain on the laborer's head.

The man who framed the original legal tender act is dead. His name is E. C. Spaulding, of Buffalo. He is nearly eighty years of age.

among themselves," but that the students rebelled against a rule forbidding their attendance at theatres.

There was a double wedding in Ashland last Thursday in which a mother and daughter were the brides.

One of Herrmann's cleverest feats shown up. One of Herrmann's tricks which mystified the audience last night was that of the "vanishing lady."

Divided Into Two Classes. The members of the legislature are divided into two classes—the Van Wyckers and the railroad men.

It Is Not His Personal. Hon. John Watson returned from Lincoln last evening, and was interviewed by telephone by a Press reporter.

Equalization. The new governor doubts the propriety of the state officers acting as a board of equalization, as does everybody else.

Old-Year Memories. Why do we mourn the days that go, for the same sun shines every day. Ever a spring her primrose bath, and ever a sweet as the rose that died last year is the rose that is born to-day.

STATE JOTTINGS. Rising City shipped 962 cars of produce last year. Henry Mason, a Craig bricklayer, hurried home by taking a dose of chloral.

CURRENT TOPICS. Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

Now all this is well enough as far as it goes, but who can fail to see that it is raining more than rain on the laborer's head.

The man who framed the original legal tender act is dead. His name is E. C. Spaulding, of Buffalo. He is nearly eighty years of age.

work and deserve great credit for their exertions. After touching on many points of less general interest, President Heimrod referred to the fact that the next convention of the delegates of the Missouri Valley...

There was a double wedding in Ashland last Thursday in which a mother and daughter were the brides.

One of Herrmann's cleverest feats shown up. One of Herrmann's tricks which mystified the audience last night was that of the "vanishing lady."

Divided Into Two Classes. The members of the legislature are divided into two classes—the Van Wyckers and the railroad men.

It Is Not His Personal. Hon. John Watson returned from Lincoln last evening, and was interviewed by telephone by a Press reporter.

Equalization. The new governor doubts the propriety of the state officers acting as a board of equalization, as does everybody else.

Old-Year Memories. Why do we mourn the days that go, for the same sun shines every day. Ever a spring her primrose bath, and ever a sweet as the rose that died last year is the rose that is born to-day.

STATE JOTTINGS. Rising City shipped 962 cars of produce last year. Henry Mason, a Craig bricklayer, hurried home by taking a dose of chloral.

CURRENT TOPICS. Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

Now all this is well enough as far as it goes, but who can fail to see that it is raining more than rain on the laborer's head.

The man who framed the original legal tender act is dead. His name is E. C. Spaulding, of Buffalo. He is nearly eighty years of age.

work and deserve great credit for their exertions. After touching on many points of less general interest, President Heimrod referred to the fact that the next convention of the delegates of the Missouri Valley...

There was a double wedding in Ashland last Thursday in which a mother and daughter were the brides.

One of Herrmann's cleverest feats shown up. One of Herrmann's tricks which mystified the audience last night was that of the "vanishing lady."

Divided Into Two Classes. The members of the legislature are divided into two classes—the Van Wyckers and the railroad men.

It Is Not His Personal. Hon. John Watson returned from Lincoln last evening, and was interviewed by telephone by a Press reporter.

Equalization. The new governor doubts the propriety of the state officers acting as a board of equalization, as does everybody else.

Old-Year Memories. Why do we mourn the days that go, for the same sun shines every day. Ever a spring her primrose bath, and ever a sweet as the rose that died last year is the rose that is born to-day.

STATE JOTTINGS. Rising City shipped 962 cars of produce last year. Henry Mason, a Craig bricklayer, hurried home by taking a dose of chloral.

CURRENT TOPICS. Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

Now all this is well enough as far as it goes, but who can fail to see that it is raining more than rain on the laborer's head.

The man who framed the original legal tender act is dead. His name is E. C. Spaulding, of Buffalo. He is nearly eighty years of age.

work and deserve great credit for their exertions. After touching on many points of less general interest, President Heimrod referred to the fact that the next convention of the delegates of the Missouri Valley...

There was a double wedding in Ashland last Thursday in which a mother and daughter were the brides.

One of Herrmann's cleverest feats shown up. One of Herrmann's tricks which mystified the audience last night was that of the "vanishing lady."

Divided Into Two Classes. The members of the legislature are divided into two classes—the Van Wyckers and the railroad men.

It Is Not His Personal. Hon. John Watson returned from Lincoln last evening, and was interviewed by telephone by a Press reporter.

STATE JOTTINGS. Rising City shipped 962 cars of produce last year. Henry Mason, a Craig bricklayer, hurried home by taking a dose of chloral.

CURRENT TOPICS. Isaac Murphy, Lucky Baldwin's jockey is worth $25,000. As many as 27,000,000 persons used the great Brooklyn bridge in 1886.

Now all this is well enough as far as it goes, but who can fail to see that it is raining more than rain on the laborer's head.

The man who framed the original legal tender act is dead. His name is E. C. Spaulding, of Buffalo. He is nearly eighty years of age.